SCHOOL BEGINS SEARCH FOR MISSING NEWSPAPERS

Herald Files At Library Mutilated By Patrons

Earl H. Place, superintendent of schools, this week began a systematic search for two volumes of the files of The Tecumseh Herald which have been removed from the Tecumseh Public Library and which cannot be replaced. The files, Mr. Place said, may have been taken out of the library by some reader who, when he had finished with them, forgot to return them. In such an event, he urged that they be returned at once.

The files of The Herald, first published in 1849, are intact at the library except for the two volumes, one of them printed immediately following the Civil War and the other in the 1920's. Since there is no way in which they may be replaced, unless the volumes are returned, the unbroken record of The Herald's publication will be lost to the library.

It was about 25 years ago that a former publisher of The Herald turned the newspaper's files over to the library, holding that the library was a logical place for their safe-keeping. The volumes given to the library were the only preserved copies of the paper, now nearly 100 years old, and many times each week, according to Miss Ruth Harding, librarian, they are referred to by library patrons.

Twenty years ago the newspaper started to bind two volumes of the newspaper annually, one for the newspaper itself, the other for the library. Since 1929, therefore, there are two volumes of each year's publication but those missing volumes were published before that practice began.

"It is too bad that the volumes in this now very valuable collection are missing," Mr. Place said in discussing the matter. "I feel certain that someone took them out of the library and forgot to return them and I hope that they now will bring them back. There is absolutely no way to replace the missing issues of the paper. If that were possible we would have it done."

Mr. Place also pointed out that some library patrons who discover interesting articles in the old papers have mutilated them by cutting out portions with scissors or jackknife.

"That is a practice that must be discontinued, also," Place said. "Once the paper has been cut, and portions removed, its future value is destroyed."

In the future, Place indicated that none of the files would be allowed outside the library building. He also said that there would be a more rigid inspection of the files after they have been used by patrons.

"The Herald is one of the oldest newspapers in Michigan and the files are very valuable to the community," the superintendent said. "We must cooperate to preserve them or their value will be completely destroyed."

Little Interest In Monday's Vote

COUNTY AND STATE-WIDE, A LIGHT VOTE IS EXPECTED IN ELECTION

Although voting may be brisk in Adrian and other cities, statewide, where local contests will stir political interest, there is little enthusiasm in rural Lenawee county and in other sections of Michigan in the annual spring election, Monday, April 4, it was declared today. Locally, it was said, a light vote may be expected. Polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m., in the council building.

In the township election here only one ticket, the Republican, is in the field. LeRoy H. Titley is a candidate to succeed himself as supervisor and H. H. Hanna is a candidate for reelection as clerk. Lawrence Mohr is the candidate for treasurer and George Sanford is seeking re-election as highway commissioner. Justices of the peace for full terms are Robert L. French and Wilfred G. Waldron and E. J. Lowry is the candidate for the office of board of review. Constables nominated are W. J. Hanna, Charles Branigin, jr., Charles Howe and Carl Leonard. There are no local issues.

Voters will receive two other ballots. One of these will be for justices of the state supreme court. There are five candidates for the two offices that will be vacated with the election.

On the regular state ballot four tickets are listed, the Republican, Democratic, Progressive and Prohibition. Each ticket has a complete slate of candidates for all of these offices: Regent of the University of Michigan; superintendent of public instruction; member of the state board of agriculture and state highway commissioner.

The only political activity locally in connection with the election was a visit here, Wednesday morning by Fred M. Alger, jr., secretary of state, A. B. Connable, Republican candidate for regent at the University and C. W. Rigney, a candidate for justice of the supreme court. They met local politicians in a brief conference at the new Legion Memorial Home.

Legion's Show Opens Tonight

HOME TALENT PERFORMANCE ALSO WILL BE STAGED AGAIN FRIDAY EVENING

Ticket sals have been completed and everything is in readiness for the initial production of the American Legion's home talent show, "Laff It Off," a 10-scene comedy newspaper story, which will be presented this evening and again tomorrow evening at 8:13 in the new Legion Memorial Home, Evans at Pottawatamie Street. Proceeds of the two performances will go toward purchase of ritual uniforms for the organization.

The cast of characters in the show includes about 100 people who are to impersonate famous newspaper columnists and other names behind the news. The show is billed as "the big scoop in home talent productions" and depicts the story of a newspaper as the headlines come to life.

One of the most laugh-provoking scenes is the one entitled, "Columnists and Comics." In this scene, Bill Rockwood will impersonate the fast-talking, snooper reporter, Walter Winchell. Si Kring, sr., will hit the high point of comedy when he impersonates Dorothy Dix. In this female impersonation of the columnist who writes advice to the love-lorn, he will dress as a woman and speak in a falsetto voice as he attempts to bathe the baby according to instructions.

Interest Keen In Dow Chorus

100 MALE VOICES TO PRESENT ENTERTAINMENT AT HIGH SCHOOL, SATURDAY EVE

The ticket sale is brisk for the Dow Chorus program, sponsored by Town Hall, which will be presented at the high school here, Saturday evening at 8:30.

The Dow Chorus of 100 male voices, the largest industrial musical organization in the world, is drawn entirely from among the employees of the Dow Chemical Company of Midland. The chorus is under the direction of Dr. Theodore Vosburg, who has appeared in many recitals and on radio and opera programs, nationwide.

"Lovers of music in Tecumseh are in for a treat on Saturday evening," Neville Hart, Town Hall director, declared. "We are indeed fortunate to be able to bring such a large musical group to Tecumseh, and we hope that there will be a genuine reception." Mr. Hart pointed out that usually programs of the type of the Dow Chorus play in much larger cities than Tecumseh.

"We have found that there is a definite demand for a camera shop here and we have steadily increased our stock," Saling said. "In the future we will offer an even greater service in this department.

Saling said that the store's remodeling was practically complete and that the shoe stock has arrived, making possible the opening Saturday.

Biblical Drama Is Presented

LARGE CAST OF CHARACTERS IN PAGEANT STORY, STAGED BY METHODISTS

Something truly different in the line of home talent productions was presented to Tecumseh audiences last Thursday and Friday nights in "The Light Eternal," a biblical pageant staged at the Methodist church.

A cast made up of local people portrayed the biblical story of Israel, beginning with Joseph being sold into slavery by his brothers and continuing through the exodus out of Egypt under the leadership of Moses. The drama had a modern angle all the way through as the story it was supposedly told by a grandfather to his grandchildren and their parents. Authentic costumes aided the effectiveness of the production which was under the direction of Marian Gibney. The proceeds will be used toward the restoration of religious windows.

The cast of characters included the following: Moses, Willis Porter; Pharoah, Harry Busch; Joseph, Aden Mead; Simeon, Garland Holmes; Levi, Jim Colson; Reuben, John Cameron; Benjamin, Duane Hay; Judah, Cap Orr; Chief Steward, Lee Phibbs; court girls, Virginia Snyder and Beverly McLaury; guards, Millard Snyder and Bob Rentschler; Aaron, Donald Judd; Miriam, Ruth Packard; Hannah, Mrs. Harry Hoffman; Esther, Sally Jo Rentschler; Nebulon, Francis Packard; Rachel, Janet Erhart; girl victim, Beverly Hay; Mary, Mrs. Harry Stanifer; angel, Gretta Porter; shepherds, Larry Dreweyr, Harry Busch, Jim Colson; Kings of the Orient, Elven Duval and Cap Orr; grandfather, Edward Beal; father Francis Packard; mother, Mrs. Alice Franklin; John, Jimmy Warren; Judy, Wilma Bumpus.

Musical numbers were presented by the chorus directed by Jean Walton. The accompaniment was played by Mrs. Herbert Dillon. Mrs. Gordon Miller was unable to appear as soloist because of illness. Joyce Woodcox of Adrian College sang "Ave Maria" on Thursday night and Mrs. Thomas Gallant, jr., was the soloist on Friday night. Haziah Williams of Adrian College was baritone soloist on Thursday night and Alfred Varnsdell of the College sang Friday evening. Nadine Carney and Nita Spangler sang the duet. Gilbert Bailey, Virginia Gregory, Carol Harper and Audrey Cook were the other choristers.

HUM OF INDUSTRIAL WHEELS IS NOTHING NEW IN THIS LOCALITY

History Shows Tecumseh A Busy Community 100 Years Ago

Residents of Tecumseh who think that the village's industrial development is of recent occurrence might be surprised after a bit of local research.

In preparation for Tecumseh's 125th Anniversary, historical memitos are beginning to make their appearance. Among those now being studied at the Chamber of Commerce is Chapin & Page's "Tecumseh Directory and Historical Record," published in 1869. Chapin & Page were job printers and publishers of the "Raisin Valley Record," a rival of The Tecumseh Herald which was already twenty years old.

A study of this directory is not only delightful research for those seeking Tecumseh lore, but also it reveals a social and industrial change which has occurred in the last 80 years.

Certain names and manufactories still have meaning for Tecumseh, while others are being forgotten and their products becoming museum pieces.

Of course, the Globe Mill was operating steadily. What the resident of today might not know is that the name of Hayden was associated with many other enterprises and that it appeared as if the industrial growth of Tecumseh was going to go eastward rather than south.

In addition to the Globe Mill there was Bilnn and Hayden's stave and heading factory east of the Mill. Hayden & Potter's Tool Handle Factory was also east of the Globe Mill. Opposite the Mill was the broom factory of B. F. Hitchcock & Co. and the Tecumseh Woolen Factory was also east. Hayden's Barrel Factory was on the north east corner of Pottawatamie and Maumee.

Other manufacturing establishments were scattered about the village. J. W. Hamilton & Bro. were building a flouring mill in Brownville, while the Raisin River Mills were one mile southeast of the village.

H. Brewer & Son were operating the Tecumseh Foundry and Steam Engine Works at the corner of Evans and Shawnee. The southern Michigan Carriage Manufactory was operated by Thos. Cummins at the corner of Evans and Kilbuck. At the southeast corner of Chicago and Pearl, McConnell, Raymond, & Co. were manufacturing Agricultural Implements, etc. The Sash & Door, run by Chatterdon, Kinney, & Co., was producing sash, doors, blinds, moldings, milk safes, etc., near the railroad depot.

Other manufacturers may have been large or small — the directory does not indicate. There are listed a number of shoemakers, but three firms are listed as manufacturers of boots, shoes, and rubbers. They were McNichol & Wilson, south side of Chicago between Evans and Ottawa; Norris & Reynolds, west side of Evans adjoining the Merchants Hotel; and L. Saviers, on the south side of Chicago between Evans and Pearl. Mr. Savier also found time to be postmaster.

George Merritt was manufacturing the G. & R. and J.R.B. cigars. John C. Tallman was a sorghum syrup manufacturer, while Noah Lane produced Lane's Hair Restorer in addition to his barbering duties. A. H. Chaplin manufactured steel spring rakes.

In addition to all these, J. M. Scifert & Co. made "Scifert's Improved Oil of Gladness — Cures all Manner of Pain — Never Known to Fail!" At any rate it was good enough to get a testimonial from J. Moxom, pastor of the Baptist Church. And to round out Tecumseh's diversified industry of 1869 we list Miss Della Dingman, who operated a hoop skirt factory!

THE NEW SLAVERY

Little by little the rights of the individual in this country are being sacrificed to the state. The trend has been cloaked in an artificial prosperity that in too many instances has blinded even business management. W. C. Mullendore, President of the Southern California Edison Company, warns against this "well established theory in the United States that business can be made good by holding the right thought and by ignoring facts which might be considered danger signals." In a letter to his stockholders he speaks frankly: "Our plans and program for 1949 call for continued expansion . . . Again, however, let us beware of the conclusion that either our company or business in general in the U.S.A., is enjoying a sound prosperity. Because current feverish activity and the resulting increase in the volume of dollars in circulation are so frequently referred to as prosperity, we need to remind ourselves that a considerable part of this increase in business activity has been forced by . . . debilitating expenditures and fiscal policies of government . . .

"Coincidental with these dangerous monetary policies, the majority of our people have been turning away from self-reliance, and bartering our liberty and our free institutions for government aid and guardianship . . . More and more, our government (in the guise of subsidies, social security, socialized housing and other governmental aids, domestic and foreign) is being used to enable some of our people to 'do as they please with other men, and the product of other men's labor.' This is the loss of liberty—the new slavery which threatens all America today."

America was settled by immigrants fleeing from nations where confiscatory taxation and political persecution made life unbearable. The fact that government is becoming the dominant factor in our lives should be warning enough of the peril we face.

TODAY

Is faith asleep—let's wake it.
Today is ours—let's live it.
And love is strong—let's give it.
A song can help—let's sing it.
And peace is dear—let's bring it.
The past is done—don't rue it.
Our work is here—let's do it.
The world is wrong—let's right it
If evil comes—let's fight it.
The road is rough—let's clear it.
The future vast—don't fear it.
Is faith asleep?—let's wake it.
Today is free—let's take it.

RUGGED VOYAGE . . . That's what seems in store for Carl Madrid, 41, Chicagoan enroute to New Orleans aboard a raft which he made himself, and which is powered with an outboard motor. Madrid was uncertain as to how long it would take him to complete his journey, said that when he reached New Orleans he plans to live aboard his raft and do some writing.

Uncle Sam is finding it a tough job to induce people to own their own homes. All most of them want is a new automobile.

What has become of the old-fashioned politician who spent the public's money as reluctantly as he did his own?

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Remember How We Talked?

It went like this at the Hooper's the other night. Hap's eighteen-year-old daughter is talking about "a real gone guy—solid—out of this world, but def."

"Now what kind of language is that?" Hap barks. "Can't she speak English?"

"I'll translate it for you," Ma Hooper says, "in the language of the twenties, when you were about twenty years old. She simply means this fellow is the 'cat's whiskers.' Remember how we used to talk sometimes?" Hap went back to reading his newspaper.

From where I sit, it's easy to criticize the other person when we don't take a good long look at ourselves. Sure, there'll always be some differences. I'm fond of a temperate glass of beer and maybe you would prefer ginger ale—but let's just live and let live. Because when we go out of our way to find things to find fault with in others, chances are they can find a few in us, too.

DON'T BELIEVE IT . . . There's an old saying that the "camera never lies", but that you can't always believe what you see is amply demonstrated here. One Dozen Roses

By CHARLOTTE McCARTHY

MRS. MOYER walked slowly, feeling as dismal as the drizzly day. This was her wedding anniversary and she knew, with no possible doubt, that her husband had forgotten about it. Even the head of her fox fur had an almost human expression of weary disillusion as the cold rain dribbled over its nose.

All very well to remind herself that she should be thankful to have such a good husband. Never had he opened his own considerable pay envelope these last ten years. Nor had he stayed away a single evening, nor complained about the way she managed her household. But tomorrow the girls would call up to find out about her present, and what could she tell them?

3-Minute Fiction

Afterwards, Mrs. Moyer could never remember just how she got the idea, but she found herself in the florist's.

"One dozen of your best roses, please." Her own voice surprised her, but she gave her own address calmly, and told the girl that she did not wish to enclose a card.

Years ago, when money had been very scarce and flowers an almost unthought of luxury, her husband had sent her, on their anniversary, a dozen perfect roses. There had been no card enclosed—no need of one.

OVER the dinner table that night, she chatted about the trivial happenings of the day.

"Oh, dear! That bill at Taylors, and I forgot all about it. This is the fourth, isn't it?"

"I thought you had forgotten the date, but now I can only believe it just doesn't mean anything to you." She tried to keep the tears out of her voice, saying the very thing she had made up her mind that wild horses couldn't drag out of her, but having started she had no intention of backing down now. I've heard other women saying that their husbands sometimes forgot, but I never dreamed that . . ." The doorbell pealed an interruption.

"A box for you . . . looks like flowers." She didn't look at him as she fumbled with the ribbon.

She lifted the fragrant blooms to hide her face. "They're gorgeous!" Her fingers trembled, as she pretended to search among the rustling paper for a card. "But who could have sent them?"

"Don't you remember a certain fellow who sent you roses 30 years ago? You didn't need a card then."

She almost dropped the flowers. Of all the brazen . . . but surely he wouldn't dare pretend . . . ?

But he evidently would. "You thought I'd forgotten, didn't you? I haven't asked in years just how you feel about it, but to me it's still the most important date in my life."

FOR the first time in her life, Mrs. Moyer knew that she was going to make a scene. What she was going to use for an excuse, she couldn't for her life imagine, since she just could produce the florist's bill to prove that she knew he was trying to take credit for something he hadn't done . . . and dressing it up with sloppy sentiment to make matters worse.

Suddenly she became aware that the phone was ringing shrilly.

"Hello." Her voice was surprisingly calm.

"Mrs. Moyer? This is the florist calling. A lady placed an order for a dozen roses to be delivered to your address, and the girl who took the order did not know that all our roses had been sold. She didn't leave a name. As a matter of fact, we did deliver another order there . . . the ones Mr. Moyer ordered, so I hope you aren't too disappointed . . . We would have let you know sooner, but . . ."

"Oh, you let me know in time . . . just in time," she said dazedly and, leaving the receiver dangling from the hook, rushed into the dining room.

OBITUARY

W. O. Lamkin

William Oscar Lamkin was born March 14, 1880, the son of the late Benjamin and Sarah Lamkin, in Franklin township, Lenawee county Michigan and departed this life, March 22, 1949, at his home at 155 W. Buena Vista Ave., Highland Park, Mich., age 69 years. Death came suddenly as he arrived home from work. He was united in marriage September 2, 1908, to Miss Mina D. Payne of Saranac, Mich., who passed to her reward July 13, 1927, at their home in Highland Park. On Thanksgiving Day 1929, he was married to Miss Alta Frick of Highland Park, who survives. Also surviving him are two brothers, Ira and Perry of Detroit and two sisters, Mrs. Nettie Butrick of Detroit and Mrs. Bertha Roberts of Tecumseh, several nieces and nephews and a large circle of other relatives and friends who will miss him greatly. Preceding him in death besides the parents were two brothers, Ernest of Franklin and Horace of Newburg Rd., Tecumseh, and three sisters, Mrs. Ed Pawson, Mrs. Clara Helm and Mrs. Adelaide Kintner. He united with the Tecumseh Baptist church in his youth and was a loyal member until 1916, when he moved to Highland Park from his farm in Franklin township and united with the First Baptist church of Highland Park, where he has served 33 years. The funeral was held at the home in Highland Park, Thursday, March 24, 1949, at 10 a.m., with his pastor of 33 years, Rev. W. G. Coltman officiating. The body was brought to Tecumseh where interment was made in Brookside cemetery at 2 p.m., March 24, 1949, after a short service at the grave. Rev. Coltman read many comforting scriptures and paid loving tribute to the memory of the deceased, whom we believe is "present with the Lord," and so mourn not as those who have no hope, but will await the Resurrection.

"Asleep in Jesus, peaceful rest
Whose making is supremely blest,
No fear, no woe, can dim that hour

UP-AND-OVER . . . The gent, giving the impersonation here of a cheer leader when the home team scores, is a Frenchman, goal keeper of the Racing team of Paris, France. His up-in-the-air position is occasioned by his having deflected the ball over the top and out of the goal during a football game with the Robaix club. Probably Vignal, which is the goalie's name, decided his feat merited a cheer and is proceeding to lead one for himself. However, the pose of hectic action is characteristic of football as the French and some other European peoples play it, with the only similarity to the American game of football being in the name.

Our Used Cars Get Rigid Inspection

When you buy a used car from us you'll find that our policy is the same as it was before . . . a policy of fair dealing.

With us, used cars are a by-product of new car sales. We sell a new car, we take in a used car in trade. We sell the used to another customer who, we hope, in a year or two may be a new car customer. And so it goes.

When we take in a used car it undergoes rigid inspection in our shop. When we sell it to you we can tell you its exact mechanical condition.

The point we're making is this: Used cars are not our principal stock in trade. They're a by-product of our new-car business. But our used car policy is as rigid as our new-car policy . . . the customer must be satisfied.

If you're interested in buying a good used car at "The Home of Honest Service," we invite you to drop in. Our 20-year reputation for fair dealing is your guarantee of a square deal.

Michigan's Vote Heavy On Mon.

LITTLE INTEREST LOCALLY, HOWEVER, AND ONLY 300 VISITED THE POLLS

Although Michigan, state-wide, rolled up a heavy Spring election vote last Monday, there was little interest in politics locally and only 330 voters took time to visit the Tecumseh polls.

Locally, only one ticket was in the field, the Republican, and there were no contests. LeRoy H. Titley was returned to office receiving 326 votes. Other candidates elected, all Republicans are: H. H. Hanna, clerk; Lawrence Mohr, treasurer; Robert L. French and Wilfred Waldron, justices of the peace; E. J. Lowry, board of review, and W. J. Hanna, Charles Branigin, jr., C. W. Howe and Carl Leonard, constables; George Sanford highway commissioner.

In Cambridge township, Russell Lapham, Democrat, defeated Thurman Stephenson, Republican, for office of supervisor. Wm. Schneirla, R., was elected supervisor in Clinton. In Franklin, Herman Titley, R., was named supervisor. Will Swick is the new supervisor from Macon, winning without opposition. In Madison township, in a three-cornered race, Geo. Kunze, R., who was frozen out of the caucus, ran on a sticker and defeated his Republican and Democratic opponents. Kunze is the present supervisor.

In Palmyra, E. A. Calkins, R.,

Its large dining room and ball room is of sufficient size to accommodate 300 persons, and its grill room will seat 75 others. The kitchen is ultra-modern, with ample refrigeration, deep-freeze units and other innovations.

The grill room is now open for luncheons and dinners and it is planned soon to open the main dining room and ball room for public parties and receptions. The ball room is so arranged with stage that meetings and other functions may be held there whenever desired.

Comedy Show Is Staged By Vets

"LAFF IT OFF," TITLE OF NEWSPAPER STORY PRESENTED TO TWO AUDIENCES

A home-town newspaper came to life when the American Legion presented its home-talent production, "Laff It Off," to audiences Thursday and Friday evenings, in the new Legion Memorial Home. The proceeds from the show go toward the purchase of ritual uniforms for the organization.

Linda Easton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Easton and Phillip Barber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Barber were named queen and king respectively, as a result of a baby contest held the week preceding the show. Gifts were presented to them during the children's hour, when Mrs. Harry Hoffman was the story teller. Mrs. Vincent Haight conducted the contest.

The cast of about 100 characters included many school children. Members of the Tecumseh high school band who played several selections were Duane Hay, Howard Powell, Truly Ogden, Florine House, Geraldine Handy, Charles Gordon, Kenneth Swarts, John Sisson, Cap Orr, Bob Hadley, Louis Vargo, Donna Martin, Garnet Drouillard and Barbara Handy. A wedding scene was portrayed in a very novel manner by several young girls.

Ell Rockwood impersonated the fast-talking snooper reporter, Walter Winchell, in the "Columnists and Comics" scene. The female columnist who writes advice to the lovelorn, Dorothy Dix, was impersonated by Sy Kring, who provoked much laughter when he tried to bathe a baby according to instructions.

Dan Corkery impersonated Popeye and introduced Clyde Drewyor as Maggie, Carl Fosbender as Daisy Mae, Tim Neill as Little Orphan Annie and Halsey Eggleston as Blondie.

Baby Sparkle was portrayed by Ollie Musch.

Impersonating favorite radio characters were Si Kring, jr., as Rochester, W. L. "Red" Becker as Pappy Chisel Fingers, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Drake as Mr. and Mrs. John Q. Public and Joan Rosacrans as Judy Canova.

Wallace Whiting as Gene Autry was master of ceremonies in the "Frontier Days Celebration" scene. He introduced various singing and dancing numbers. Ten scenes were depicted and the production proved to be a big success.

Office will be closed April 12, 13, 14, while I am attending the clinics of the Michigan State Dental Society in Detroit.

$75,000 LOSS IN FIRE AT IRISH HILLS

17-ROOM HOTEL, RESTAURANT AND RECREATION CENTER DESTROYED BY FLAMES

Fire, the origin of which has not been determined, at 2:30 a.m., Wednesday, swept through the Irish Hills Hotel burning it to the ground. The loss, although not officially estimated, probably will be between $75,000 and $100,000.

The blaze was discovered by a passing motorist and fire apparatus was summoned from Onsted, Brooklyn, Wamplers Lake, Clinton and Adrian. Firemen were complimented by Hill residents for their fine cooperation in fighting the flames, which were confined to the hotel building. The two scenic towers and other buildings in the nationally-famous resort area were not damaged.

The hotel was built in 1931 by the Southern Michigan Observation Co. It was owned at the present time by a Mr. Baker of Detroit. The two-story frame structure contained 17 bedrooms, a large dining room, restaurant and recreation room.

The hotel had been closed during the past month and only Tuesday it was reopened for redecoration, preparatory to the summer tourist season.

SIGNING OF ATLANTIC CHARTER DISCUSSED BY DR. SAMUEL HARRISON

What effects the signing of the Atlantic Pact could have on the world in future years were discussed by Dr. Samuel Harrison, president of Adrian College, when he addressed the Tecumseh Wit and Wisdom Club, at the home of C. R. Dustin and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hall, Monday evening.

Dr. Harrison, who attended a conference of Christian Leaders in Cleveland several weeks ago, began his talk by "looking into a Crystal ball" and seeing the world 100 years from now and how it had reacted to the signing of the Atlantic Pact. He raised the question as to whether it was a good thing for the Pact to have been signed, and discussed what might happen as a result of it. Dr. Harrison's address was interesting and enjoyed by the group.

During the business meeting the committee reported the annual banquet will be held at the Baptist church, May 2. The nominating committee made its report, as follows: president, Leon Van Valkenburg; vice president, M. G. Partridge; secretary, Miss Gertrude Spaulding; treasurer, Wilford Waldron. A memorial service was held for the late Miss Jennie Gillespie. Marilyn Lindsley opened the program with two piano solos. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Place were the assisting host and hostess.

GUILD TO MEET

The World Wide Guild of the Baptist church will meet this (Thursday) evening at the home of Barbara Hall, at 7 p.m.

Gas Station Reopened; New Garage Being Built

The gasoline service station formerly operated by Lee Purkey & Sons on West Chicago boulevard, opposite the Strand Theatre, this week was reopened by Elmer Burleson and Lyle Bidwell, under the firm name of B. & B. Service. The station is owned by Harold Wilson and is leased to the new firm.

Purkey & Sons, former operators, have started construction of a new garage building on West Chicago road, just west of Occidental Road, and hope to have the building in readiness about May 1. The new building will be of brick, cement and steel construction, and will have about 2,400 square feet of floor space. The Purkeys plan to operate a general garage business and to carry a line of tires, gasoline, oil and accessories.

DEMONSTRATIONS PLANNED FOR PARENTS ON FRIDAY EVENING AT EIGHT

The April meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association will be held on Friday evening of this week in the gymnasium of the Central Building at 8 o'clock. Miss Marie Frautschi, director of physical education, and Elven Duval, director of athletics, have planned a full evening's demonstration of the work done in their departments during this school year with boys and girls from the elementary grades, junior high, and senior high schools participating. Because of the length and nature of the program, there will be no business session, social hour, or refreshments, according to the president, Mrs. Truman Rentschler.

Physical education has a very definite place on the school program of today because it purposes to develop both the mind and body. The former is developed along the lines of moral and social qualities and the latter so far as poise, coordination, strength and endurance are concerned.

The following demonstration will show the parents how this is accomplished: Elementary Grades: folk dances, singing games, and a ball game called Schlay Ball. Junior High: square dancing and basketball games. Senior High: basketball game by the girls and tumbling, wrestling, and boxing by the boys.

This has proved to be a very popular P-TA program rating along with the Christmas program of music in the attendance that it draws. The parents are especially invited, however, the public is cordially invited to witness this demonstration.

ROTARY CLUB MEETS

Members of the Tecumseh Rotary Club enjoyed a movie program on Tuesday evening following dinner at Brees House. The movie featured the final game in the 1948 world series. Jack Whelan, son of Fay Whelan, was the junior Rotarian guest at the meeting.

Noonday meetings will be held in the Methodist Church, Monday to Thursday of next week which is Holy Week. These meetings will begin promptly at 12:30 p.m., and will close promptly at 12:55. THIRD SHOWING NECESSARY ON SECOND EVENING TO ACCOMMODATE OVERFLOW

"Hello, Travelers, Hello" was the theme of the Rae Nita Dance Revue presented to capacity audiences in the Tecumseh high school auditorium, Thursday and Friday evenings. A second performance was staged the last evening to accommodate the overflow crowd. The revue was sponsored by the V. F. W. Auxiliary.

The scene was the "Tap" Room of the Hotel Rhythm. A show was being televised on a national network and the visitors at the hotel were asked to perform. "The Jacksonites," four advanced dancers from Jackson are Shirley Joslin, Thelma Vass, Doris Kempf and Nancy Steele.

Nine little "Darlings" from Tecumseh danced to "You Call Everybody Darling." Dow Chorus May Yet Present Program Here

If you have tickets for the Dow Chorus program, which was scheduled for Tecumseh last Saturday evening and then cancelled, keep them. The program may yet be presented and if not, the tickot price will be refunded.

That announcement was made at the meeting of the Rotary Club here, Tuesday evening. Rotary sponsored the ticket sale.

Cancellation of the program came after an airplane accident last week in which Dr. Dow, his wife and three others all of Midland, were killed. Management of the chorus immediately cancelled all engagements.

It was said Tuesday that an effort is being made to arrange a new date for the program here but, if it cannot be worked out, a refund of money received for tickets sold would be made.

The Ladies Union of the Baptist church will meet at the home of Mrs. Lillian Owen today (Thursday) at 2 p.m. Mrs. Floyd Bryan will lead in devotions and Mrs. Neil Pearson will conclude the review of the book "Baptist Crossroads."

CONTROLLED ECONOMY

A short time ago the Soviet government announced reductions in the retail prices charged for certain consumer goods in its government-owned stores. Some 45 classifications of food, clothing and other commodities were affected, and the reductions ranged from 10 per cent to as much as 30 per cent. The purpose of the move, it is believed, is to fulfill promises made by Stalin several years ago.

Here is a good example of how controlled economy, which has almost totally done away with free enterprise and competition, operates. The state is the only producer of importance, and the consumer has nothing to say about what he gets or what he must pay. Prices are established by fiat, and moved up or down as the bosses wish.

Compare this with production and distribution here. Every manufacturer has competitors who are after his business, and he must offer a better product, or a lower price, or some other inducement if he is to keep in the running. It's the same way with the stores which sell the goods to the ultimate consumer. We have chains, independents, specialty shops, department stores and every other conceivable kind of retailer. No one can shove prices up or down at his whim. Any price is the product of the cost of production in a system which is constantly seeking more efficient and economical ways of doing things.

It is significant that, in spite of the price cuts ordered by the Soviet hierarchy, the average standard of living in Russia is so far below ours as to make comparison extremely difficult. It is logical that that should be so in a dictatorship. Only free competitive enterprise has had the ability to produce abundance for the great masses of the population.

State May Slap At Centralization

PROPOSED AMENDMENT WOULD END BUNCHING OF POWER IN WASHINGTON

By Gene Alleman
(Herald Lansing Bureau)

Our State of Michigan may be on the verge of bringing about a fundamental change in United States governmental policy. Eight legislators have joined in an unprecedented move to initiate a constitutional amendment that probably would slow-down the ever-increasing centralization of authority in Washington.

The 16-section proposal is quite complicated. Among other things it would distribute approximately 20 per cent (or about $8,000,000,000) of all federal tax collections among the various states, mostly on a per capita basis. It would also set aside approximately five per cent of federal income for payment of the national debt. In order to plug all loopholes, many restrictions are written into the proposal including limiting the number of new states that can be admitted to the union, placing a floor under the gold content of a dollar and specifying that a minimum deduction of $600 be allowed for each individual and his dependents for income tax purposes.

Purpose of the amendment is to put a stop to the procedure whereby the U. S. government collects tax money and distributes it back to local communities minus administrative expenses. If the plan were in operation, Michigan would receive an estimated $315,466,936 from federal sources, as opposed to the $58,582,526 in federal-aid received last year. This would make a sizeable dent in the half-billion dollars now being spent by the State for all purposes.

Congress should not lose sleep worrying about this amendent taking effect over night. First, two-thirds of the states must pass a resolution asking for a convention to consider the amendment and then three-quarters of the states must ratify. Whatever the outcome of this drastic proposal, however, it will have the good effect of stimulating discussion on the vital issue of federal aid to states.

Governor Williams has written a letter to governors of the 47 other states urging them to join him in a petition to congress. He seeks an extension of the deadline for payment of service men's readjustment allowances which give unemployed veterans $20 a week for as long as 52 weeks. Williams claims that veterans are the "first laid off and the last to return to work" because they lack seniority. He also says many of them have not yet acquired enough employment experience to qualify fully for unemployment compensation benefits. More than 21 governors have replied that they would favorably consider action in their states to urge Congress to extend the program.

An unusual feature of Monday's election was the little understood method of nominating and electing justices of the State Supreme Court. Eight justices serve eight-year terms, two being elected at the spring primary in odd numbered years. The unusual feature was that candidates from judicial posts are nominated by party conventions but run on a non-partisan ticket. This results from a constitutional amendment, approved by the people in 1939, which specifies that all judicial elections must be non-partisan. The two incumbent justices running for re-election were (s-h-h-h!!) Democrats.

Senator George N. Higgins says that 400,000 of the 680,000 used-car-transactions in Michigan last year were between individuals or small operators who escaped the sales tax. He wants to substitute a three percent "title-transfer" tax that would have the advantage of being applicable to all private sales. This could add as much as $12 million to the state's general fund. Sounds almost as painless as a tax on castor oil.

Hoover Commission reports continue to emphasize the immense size of our national economy. Their report on the Department of Commerce, for example, reports that Uncle Sam has spent some $30,000,000,000 over a period of 50 years and now has some 89,000 federal employees engaged in administering the government end of the transportation industry. Some figures indicate the breath-taking size of this industry. The U. S. has more than 227,000 miles of railways which haul more than over 600 billion ton-miles of freight every year and operate 70 billions passenger-miles. There are about one-and-a-half million miles of surfaced roads, traveled by some 40 million vehicles. Air service operate more than seven million passenger-miles annually and there are 27,000 miles of improved inland waterways.

A new postwar high has been reached in the level of Michigan's relief load, according to W. J. Maxey, State Welfare Director. He reports that 3,000 new cases were added in February, bringing the total number now receiving relief to 36,500.

A COP CAUGHT HIM . . . When Patrick Marotta of Boonton, N. J., built a miniature automobile with a real engine for his five-year-old son, Tommy, he never dreamed that his paternal devotion would lead to trouble with the law. The car, which is said to have cost $3,000 to build, is registered under state law, but Tommy has no license to drive it. So when an eagle-eyed cop saw Tommy cruising down the street, he doled out a ticket. In court, the recorder ruled that he wanted to investigate the case personally and to inspect the tiny car.

TEN HORSEPOWER IN ACTION . . . In these days of power-driven machinery, a ten-horse team is as rare as that day in June. This team is in use building an irrigation canal in the Murray valley soldier settlement, Victoria, Australia, where between 500 and 600 miles of irrigation channels are being excavated. The horses are used in preference to power machines because stamping of the horses' hoofs helps bind the soil on the banks of the channels. Notice the size and weight of the horses in this team. No wonder their feet bind the soil.

About The Folks You Know

Spring is also the time when college students enjoy a week or more of vacation from their studies and school activities . . . Tecumseh schools will close for vacation next Thursday and resume classes on Tuesday.

Under a ceiling of vari-colored umbrellas centered with a huge red one and surrounded by murals of the same and other things denoting Spring, many young people and "oldsters" danced to the music of the Tecumseh Products Chieftains at the "April Showers" dance at the high school, Friday evening . . . The dance was sponsored by the Senior class to raise funds for their trip to Niagara Falls in June . . . Their efforts were well worth while in spite of the many conflicting activities that night.

Miss Maureen McLain, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elliott McLain, was formally initiated, last Saturday, into Beta Pi chapter, Delta Zeta sorority at Albion College . . . A sophomore journalism major Maureen has been elected as chapter editor of "The Lamp," the national sorority magazine.

Mr. and Mrs. Ervie Raymond celebrated their 35th wedding anniversary, which occurred April 4, Saturday evening, with a party at Mrs. Anna Baibak's restaurant . . . Their daughter and son, Mrs. Don Morley and George W. Raymond of Kalamazoo planned the celebration which was enjoyed by some 20 guests . . . Mrs. Baibak had decorated the room attractively where lunch was served and Mrs. Raymond cut the three-tiered wedding cake made by Mrs. Morley . . . The couple received many flowers and gifts . . . Dancing was enjoyed later . . . Mrs. Irene Travis of Hudson was an out-of-town guest.

Mrs. Clarence Gilman and daughter MarLou entertained at dinner Sunday honoring the birthday anniversary of Mr. Gilman . . . Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ben Waltz of Ann Arbor, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Braun and family of Saline, Mrs. Hazel Braun of Milan and Roger Ely of Montpelier, Ohio . . . Mr. Gilman was again honored Tuesday evening when some 17 guests came to surprise him . . . .

Among the 18 guests were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gilman and family of Willis, Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Ash and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Ash of Britton and Wade Stull and family of Dundee . . . The Ashs' told about their trip to Florida from which they just returned and Mr. Gilman showed pictures of his fishing trip to Canada . . . Mrs. Gilman served refreshments.

Celebrating the fifth birthday of her granddaughter, Mary Wing, Mrs. George Schumm entertained at dinner, Sunday . . . Guests included the George Schumm, jr, family of Wayne and Frederick Studinger and son of East Detroit . . . Mary returned with her cousins to Wayne to visit for a few days.

The G & J Wood Products bowling team bowled at VanWert, Ohio, Sunday, and placed in the money . . . They were Russell Liddell, Roger Linger, Clair Deaner, Richard Peotter and Gordon Grieman . . . They will bowl in Detroit next weekend.

Something new in observing Holy Week will be conducted by the Tecumseh Ministerial Association next week . . . Residents of Tecumseh and high school young people are invited to attend the noonday informal gatherings at the Methodist church for a period of devotions from 12:30 to 12:55 . . . There will be a different speaker and chairman each day and it is hoped the folk of Tecumseh will respond to this new type of religious program . . . The usual crowd is expected to attend the Good Friday service at the Baptist church from 12 to 3 p.m.

Large Audience

little mothers as they rocked their "babies" to sleep, etc. The vivacious Scotch lassies were splendid as they went through their snappy dance routine. Nearly all local girls, they were Janice Boltz, Dulcie Bowen, Nancy Randall, Grace Moore, Patsy Purcell, Thelma Vass, Polly Eberhardt and Peggy Jo Pocklington.

Six little cheerleaders from Michigan led cheers, tapped and sang. They were: Billy Joe and Bobby Gene LaPrad, Peachy Ireland, Virginia Ann Hodges, Dianne Foerster and Janet Papp. The "Lucky Duo," Judith Nichols and Elizabeth Oates, performed with a tap duet. The "Swiss Visitors," Christie Allen, Mary Ann Wallace, Carole Greene, Maryanne Proctor, Marianne Leedy, Christine King and Gretchen Hardenbergh, did a ballet number. Tapping their routine the "Cosmetic Salesgirls" were Sandra Simmons, Betty Driffil and Elaine Schoonover.

"Country Cousins from Iowa," a comedy trio of sisters, Joan, Dena and Cheryl Guss, brought much laughter and applause from the audience. In this act as in all the others, the costumes were original and appropriate. A solo tap number was done by Shirley Dunfee impersonating Eleanor Powell. A Mexican hat dance was tapped out by the "Mexicans" in their colorful costumes. They were Rita Kay Crosby, Meredith Hoffmeister, Nancy Randall, Merine Boltz, Betty Barton, Sylvia Helzerman, Barry Packard and Bruce Packard.

As the "Jackson Visitor," Lenore Larsen did an acrobatic hoop act. The "New Yorkers" were Michael Walsh, Susan Nichols, Cheryl Shaffer, Karen Kouba, Or Lynn England, Millie Smith, Janice Pepper and Dolores Cox. "The Flying Dutchmen," a tumbling team, were Dwight Eisenhower, Ronald Mann, Arthur Holstein, Geoffrey Gieske and Douglas Shaffer and brought much applause and laughter from the audience. June Haver was impersonated by Peggy Jo Pocklington who did a tap routine. Another ballet number was done by the "Swedish Travelers," who were Harriett Blanden, Sharon Ries, Mary Kay Ries, Mary Lou McConnell, Suzanne Rohweder, Marilyn Helzerman and Mary Colgrove.

The "Tapping Troupers" from the East were Judy Sisson, Sandra Simmons, Betty Driffil and Elaine Schoonover. An acrobatic sister trio, named the "Trapeze Trio," were outstanding in their performance. They were Dolores, Sylvia and Nadene Winters. The "Waitresses and Waiters" did a tap act, too. They were Betty Barton, Merine Boltz, Rita Kay Crosby, Sylvia Helzerman, Meredith Hoffmeister and Barry and Bruce Packard. Rae Nita Larsen was the "Visitor from Hawaii" and did three authentic hulas with Hawaiian accompaniment.

When the "Corps de Ballet," Grace Moore, Sandra Haas, Peggy Sharon Foerster, Thelma Vass, Jo Pocklington, Shirley Dunfee, Margie Papp and Marjorie Vaughan, finished their ballet routine, they formed the background for a trio of ballerinas, Linda Reck, Darlene Knorpp and Janice Klager.

The revue was conceived, costumed and directed by Rae Nita Larsen. Mrs. Vera Driscoll and Linda Reck were the pianists.

Cancer Deaths Are On Upgrade

DISEASE CAN BE CURED, HOWEVER, IF EARLY DIAGNOSIS CAN BE MADE

The increasing seriousness of the cancer problem in Michigan is indicated by the rise in mortality from the disease from 4,471 in 1930 to 7,481 deaths in 1946, declared Dr. C. Allen Payne, pathologist, the director of pathological laboratories at Blodgett Memorial Hospital, Grand Rapids, in a statement made public here by the Lenawee Unit of the American Cancer Society. Dr. Payne is also a member of the Cancer Control Committee of the Michigan State Medical Society and chairman of the Kent County Medical Society.

"This increase of 67 per cent is startling, but much of it is due to the growth in our population and particularly to the fact that there are so many more older people today than there were in 1930. Since our conquest of many of the diseases of childhood, our people are living longer into the years past forty when ninety percent of the cancer cases occur.

"Statisticians of the American Cancer Society estimate that out of every four persons who develop cancer, one is cured by early diagnosis and prompt, proper treatment, another could be cured if brought to a physician in time, and the remaining two, while their lot can be made more comfortable, will probably die.

"From these figures, it is probable that some 2,400 persons who develop cancer in Michigan are saved each year. At least as many more could and should be saved by early diagnosis and proper treatment. The educational goal, then, of the American Cancer Society in Michigan is to save an additional 2,400 persons annually. Through our service program, we want to make certain that those who need proper medical care receive it and that those who are bedridden are given every possible comfort to ease their lot.

"The research program seeks to find ways of diagnosing and treating cancer in those for whom at our present stage of knowledge we can hold out little immediate hope."

Cancer death rates vary from state to state. Highest rate in 1946 was in New York, with 174.6 cancer deaths per 100,000 population, while the lowest was North Carolina's rate of 69.3. Michigan's rate is 123.3. One out of every seven deaths is caused by cancer.

"The 2,400 lives that can be saved in Michigan will be saved only through individual action and responsibility," Dr. Payne declared. "Everyone must be alert for the danger signals, symptoms that may mean cancer is present, and should have a searching physical examination, once a year if you are under 40, twice a year if you are older."

Awards And Badges Presented To Cubs

After the opening salute to the flag, conducted by the Lion Cubs, a very interesting film strip, "Cub Scout Achievement Program," was presented as the program, with James McDowell and Harold Naser acting as narrators. Parents especially enjoyed the information that was skillfully given.

Den Chiefs Tommy Naser and Bob Hadley were presented with shoulder strap insignia after which an induction ceremony was held for two Bobcats, Tommy Tressler and Kent Davison. The ceremony was conducted by five cubs around an indoor campfire made and presented to the pack by committeeman Art Bowser.

Mr. Driscoll of $100 for a part of an old park site on West Brown street near his home. Sale of this and two others, known in the original plat of Tecumseh as "parade grounds," was approved by voters in the March election. Disposal of the other property also will be by bid, as soon as accurate boundaries have been established.

The trustees voted to abolish the so-called appeal board, established in the zoning ordinance and to vest the authority of the board in the council.

A resolution asking the U. S. Congress to make direct grants or if not grants, loans at low interest rates, to communities where sewage disposal plants are being demanded by the state, was approved by the council. Similar resolutions are being approved in other cities and villages in Michigan and are being forwarded to senators and congressmen. The state is attempting to force Tecumseh to build a sewage disposal plant and the cost of such a project, it was said, has been estimated at about $500,000.

The council also voted to amend the present health ordinance to make it conform to the state code. The amendments are now being drafted by the village attorney.

The old council that had functioned during the year 1948-49 met and adjourned promptly, after approving current bills, before the new council's organization. The only new member of the present council is Ray Sluyter who succeeded Charles Mensing, who was not a candidate for reelection.

Cancer Control

"Whereas modern science has been mobilized against this ancient disease in the Nation's finest laboratories under the guidance of many of the foremost medical minds of the country, and we have been able to provide an increasing array of weapons to combat cancer, and have demonstrated great improvement in the techniques of diagnosis and treatment of cancer;

"Whereas the battle can only be won by an informed public willing to give of its time and energy in this cause to the American Cancer Society's program of research, education and service;

"Therefore, I, Marvin Watkins, president of the Village of Tecumseh, Michigan, do hereby proclaim the month of April 1949, as CANCER CONTROL MONTH, and I ask that the people of Tecumseh lend their full support to the great work now being done by the American Cancer Society to defeat this disease."

Michigan's Vote

was elected supervisor and in Raisin the post went to James Mitchell, also a Republican. In Ridgeway, Raynor Benedict, D., won over Ed Rogers, R., for the supervisorship.

Except where there were township contests, rural voting in Lenawee was light. In the City of Adrian, voters turned out its old city commission and elected a new one. Claude Porter was named as mayor, Elmer Bringman, former sheriff, was elected to the safety commissioner's post, and Wm. Gibbs, jr., was named commissioner of public works. Nearly 8,000 votes were cast in Adrian.

State-wide it was a day of Republican victory. The CIO's bid for control of state offices was swept aside by electors and the GOP retained control of the Governor's official cabinet.

MONDAY CLUB PLANS FOR SPRING LUNCHEON

DON'T BELIEVE IT

He had never had such a tough time in his life. First he got angina pectoris, followed by arteriosclerosis. When he got through with that he got pneumonia, and then pulmonary phthisis and tuberculosis. After he recovered from that, there was appendicitis, to say nothing of pyorrhea. All in all he never knew how he survived, for it was the hardest test in spelling he ever experienced.

Moses Is Reassured By God

"And Moses answered and said, But behold, they will not believe me, nor harken unto my voice, for they will say, the Lord hath not appeared into thee." And the Lord said unto him, "What is that in thine hand?" And he said, "A rod." And he said, "Cast it upon the ground." And he cast it upon the ground and it became a serpent. And Moses fled before it.

Here was Moses—still doubting—still reacting as any human would do when he saw unexplainable miracles happen before his very eyes. But he was given proof—and then he was given the power to believe, and then he believed. Then, and only then, did Moses feel strong enough to overcome the doubts of the people he was trying to help.

Michigan Mirror
Non-Partisan News Letter

By Gene Alleman
(Special to The Herald)

If you are a Democrat, are you ashamed of it? Or, do you apologize because you vote Republican? That seems to be the big issue in current legislative debates on the advisability of eliminating the secret primary. This is the system of primary voting now sed in Michigan that does not require electors to declare party affiliation.

Democrats, who were largely responsible for initiating the secret primary in 1937, feel that "pressure against Democrats is too great in the small towns" to make it wise to return to the old system where voters must reveal their party in order to vote. Many Republicans, on the other hand, are saying that the present system is destroying party responsibility and ultimately will lead to "destruction of the two party system."

Repeal of the two-year-old lobbyist registration act is being considered. This is the law that was fathered by former Governor Sigler as part of his better government program. Rep. Howard R. Carrol (R., Mt. Clemens), who has introduced a repeal bill, says that, "The law is not being enforced to control real lobbyists. All it does is discourage people from using their constitutional rights to talk to their representatives." At present, 246 lobbyists are registered.

Another Sigler innovation, however, is doing much better, thank you. The new Department of Administration which combines many of the functions of State government and which is less than a year old, seems to be gaining new friends every day. Although originated by a Republican administration, Democratic Governor Williams is giving the Department his full support. Just the other day he described it as "the one place in state government you can go and find someone who can tell you about any part of government. I think that the people of Michigan want to be sure there is no encroachment on this department so it can continue to develop and function."

Local self-government got many pats on the back at the U. S. Conference of Mayors meeting in Washington last month. Mayor George Welsh of Grand Rapids is the retiring president of this group. Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower told the mayors that the maximum amount of local self government is a fundamental of democracy. He also urged the cities not to depend too much on the federal government to solve their problems.

The Mayor's conference adopted some interesting resolutions. Among them was a proposal for a survey of federal taxes and functions as they relate to American cities. Plans call for this survey to be made along the lines of the Hoover Commission reports on the executive branch of the federal government which are now receiving so much publicity and attention in Washington.

Price of milk would be reduced two cents a quart, according to a booklet published by the Michigan Agricultural conference, if two serious cattle diseases could be eliminated from Michigan dairy herds. The diseases are known as brucellosis and mastitis. The booklet says that "Brucellosis alone deprives the Michigan milk consumer of something like 22 million pounds of milk each year—enough to supply 557,000 children and adults with their whole milk requirements for one year."

The Conference says that these and other diseases can best be fought by scientific methods. It recommends that inadequate facilities at Michigan State College be modernized. The legislature is being asked to appropriate $2.2 million for this purpose.

Governor Williams is the third highest paid governor in the country. A recent survey shows that the chief executive of New York and California each draw $25,000 a year. Michigan is third with $22,500 a year governor's salary.

A concerted drive is being started to increase state aid to local health departments from the present $200,000 to $2 million a year. Supporters say that local public health services are breaking down because of inability to match salaries paid in other states. Michigan, thy say, ranks 30th among all states in appropriations for this purpose, although State, counties and cities are now spending about $4.8 million for public health programs. Advocates of increased state aid do not say where they believe the state should get the necessary funds to support their program.

Some men are so contrary that they prefer buttermilk because it tastes worse than coffee.

THE LAST STRAW

A Frenchman was relating his experience in studying the English language. He said, "When I first discovered that if I was quick, I was fast, that if I was tied, I was fast, if I spent too freely, I was fast, and that not to eat was to fast I was discouraged. But when I came across the sentence 'The first one won the one one-dollar prize,' I gave up trying."

Compare the others with "The Car Designed with YOU in Mind"

You cannot compare the new cars merely by looking at pictures . . . or by watching them on the highway. You've got to get behind the wheel yourself.

That's why we urge you to come and see this new De Soto before you decide on any other car.

You notice the difference right away. De Soto's doors are wide. You walk in . . . and keep your hat on. The steering wheel doesn't hit your knees. You're on chair-high seats, so that you get all the benefit of the larger windows and windshield.

You've got full stretch-out leg room, front and back. And you've got more luggage space in that flush-floor trunk than you ever dreamed of before.

Yes, De Soto is lower. It's got a longer wheelbase (all passengers ride between the axles). But there's no penalty for these advantages. Overall length and breadth are not increased. You needn't rebuild your garage. You can still change a tire. And a dented fender doesn't mean an expensive body repair job.

Let us show you all the new features of the car that lets you drive without shifting. Compare it for beauty, comfort, safety and value. Then decide.

Tune in "HIT THE JACKPOT" every Tuesday night, all CBS stations

SHORT STORY

Leading Lady

By MARION BOUCHER

DAN is really a dear and I'd rather have him for a husband than Charles Boyer, but sometimes he is terribly forgetful. It was unpardonable of him to forget the play.

We were having breakfast when he calmly announced: "Won't be home for dinner. I'm going to see Ferris at last about that advertising contract. I wanted to bring him here for the evening but he seemed to have other plans. Anyway, I am taking him to dinner and we'll be able to discuss matters."

3-Minute Fiction

"And that's what you intend to do tonight?" I asked icily.

"Why yes, hon, why not?" Dan gulped down his coffee and looked at me with an innocent air. "Sure hope I can swing the deal."

"But tonight's our Little Theater play! How could you forget? Or maybe you can't be bothered with it—maybe you don't want to see me act!"

"Doris, so help me, it slipped my mind completely! I was so anxious to see Ferris that I didn't think of anything else. Perhaps if we get through early . . . but you'd better not count on it."

I was almost in tears. Dan was angry too. "And I am glad it will be over tonight—I am getting tired of coming home to a cold supper, with you rushing off to rehearsals every night.

"Why, Dan, you know you're exaggerating—it hasn't been every night. I thought you were proud that I was given the lead."

"I am going to be late for my bus," Dan muttered and hurried away without even goodby. We don't quarrel very often and I always feel badly when we do.

BUT to think he'd forgotten about the play! Our club had been slaving over it for weeks and our director, who didn't hand out many compliments, had told me that I played the lead very well.

I felt a little guilty when I thought what Dan had said about cold suppers. Perhaps I had neglected him lately. All day I kept thinking uneasily of Dan. I kept hoping he'd phone. The day went by without a word.

"Very well, Mr. Crawford!" I thought angrily as I got ready to go to the theater, "if you don't care about my activities I can get along quite nicely without you. Other people appreciate my talents!"

Hadn't I often been told that I should have gone on the stage? Well, I might yet!

Perhaps it was my anger which helped me play my role with more spirit. After the first act, I knew the play was going to be a success, knew too that I was playing my part well.

There were compliments but suddenly my success turned to ashes. I didn't care about the play any more—I was thinking of Dan. Slowly, I began to remove my grease paint.

"Hurry up, Doris." It was another girl in the cast speaking.

Was it really Dan's voice? I whirled around.

"We're going to have a party to celebrate our success."

"Sorry, but Doris is coming with me."

Was it really Dan's voice? I whirled around. Yes, there he was.

"You were great, hon. I was so proud of you!"

"But, Dan," I exclaimed, "what about Ferris?"

"Of course, I've been here all evening and Ferris was with me. He's anxious to meet you. You know, it was a funny thing. After dinner I decided to tell him that I had to get away—explained that my wife was taking part in a play and I wanted to see it. That was exactly what he wanted to do. He's been keen about dramatics."

"Did you get the contract?" I asked.

"Yes, and I think you helped me put it over. Guess it was because he was so impressed with your acting!"

"Oh, Dan, I am sure that's not the reason but I am so glad!" Then I called out to the others. "Sorry, folks, but I am not joining the party—I am going with my husband. From now on I am going to concentrate on being his leading lady!"

SCARLET FEVER WARNING SOUNDED

Scarlet fever is spreading throughout the state at the rate of 450 cases a week or about three times the usual rate, Dr. F. S. Leeder, director of the division of disease control, records and statistics of the Michigan Department of Health advised today.

"If a child who has been exposed to scarlet fever or who lives in a community where there is scarlet fever seems unwell, develops cold-like symptoms, sore throat, vomiting or fever, put him to bed and call a physician.

Penicillin and sulfonamides have taken the danger out of scarlet fever, but untreated cases can result in complications such as ear trouble, infected glands, heart and kidney disorders.

"Every case of scarlet fever, no matter how slight, should be treated by a physician," Dr Leeder said.

CARD OF THANKS

"Thank You" is a mighty small expression of my thankfulness for the lovely flowers and beautiful cards I received during my stay in the hospital. Nevertheless, I say very sincerely, "Thank You!"

Have You Heard About Us Reopenin' Our Old Hoss Tradin' Post?- You Hain't? Wa'll

Yep, we've gone done it! The Old Hoss Tradin' Post's open again. If ya hain't been down to see us your missin' somethin'. Our stable's fillin' up with slick steeds, tough as mules and skittish as colts. Yep, folks, more hoss tradin' goes on here than any other spot you ever heard of. We've got back to the hoss and buggy days and you'll find your dollars are bigger'n cart wheels down here.

Today's pacer is a '47 Mercury club coupe. She's sound of wind and limb, any child or old lady can drive her anywhere. She's scarcely broke in, but gentle. Heat and music go along with her and she's shod all around with new General oversize safety tires. And, in addition, she's got a 2-speed axle.

Her runnin' mates a '41 Ford tudor. She's wrecked but not so bad she can't be fixed. We'll iron out the troubles or sell you as is, dependin' on you. Make us an offer.

Then, there's a '41 Plymouth. A good hoss, but she don't belong in our stable. She's a good runner, and she's sleek to look at and we're offerin' her at a low price.

If you'd like a de luxe model, they call 'em town sedans now, we've got one sired by Chevrolet. She's painted new, has nearly new shoes and runs like a colt.

In addition we have a 40 Ford tudor, a sleek grey one with new covers; a '38 Plymouth and a '35 Ford tudor. These are all good jobs and we're keeping the price low. We also have a '37 Dodge truck. Shes a long one——wheel base, that is—and a new motor last year.

That's a few of the hosses we're listin' for your consideration as we open our stable.

NINETY-NINTH YEAR NUMBER TWENTY-EIGHT — TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN, APRIL 14, 1949 — FIVE CENTS PER COPY

Confesses Shooting Relative

Arraigned in Justice Lowe's court, Adrian, Wednesday morning, on a murder charge, Arch Harris was bound over to the circuit court without bail.

Arch Harris, 25, of Deerfield, Va., Tuesday afternoon admitted to Michigan State Police that he shot and killed his brother-in-law, Ransom Brown, 39. The shooting occurred about 7 a.m., last Friday morning, in the Brown home, 611 South Pearl street, Tecumseh.

Prosecutor Rex Martin said that jealousy was the apparent cause of the crime. Harris admitted, Prosecutor Martin said, that he had quarreled with his brother-in-law about the attention he had displayed for his wife and that there had been an argument Thursday night and again Friday morning immediately preceding the shooting. Harris also admitted, Martin said, that the argument started earlier in the week in a downtown beer garden.

Brown's body was found in his home Friday morning with a shot gun charge in the head. Brown was in bed and the gun was nearby. Mrs. Brown was a patient in an Ann Arbor hospital. Other members of the family were at home at the time of the shooting.

Police investigated and Coroner Paul Mott ruled that the death was suicide and that no inquest would be held. Later, James Brown, father of the dead man, appealed to Martin saying that he was not satisfied with the verdict and asking for a further investigation. Harris was taken into custody on Saturday and on Tuesday he was removed to Lansing for a lie detector test. He admitted the crime before the test was made, the prosecutor said, and signed a confession.

Leo Smith, chief of police, said that he detained Harris for questioning at 2 p.m., Saturday and held him until 11 o'clock when he was turned over to the state police. Chief Smith said that he was satisfied on Friday that the death was not suicide and that he asked the state police to make a further investigation. Smith said that Officers Tate and Bowen assisted in the inquiry.

Brown and Harris married sisters and the Harrises came to Tecumseh on March 12 to assist in the Brown home during Mrs. Brown's illness.

Brown was born in Floyd county, Ky., and was employed at Tecumseh Products Co. He is survived by the widow, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Brown, 403 So. Maumee street, two brothers, Everett of W. Virginia and William of Tecumseh, two sisters, Mrs. Clara Atkins of Tecumseh and Mrs. Florence Williams of Wheelersburg, O., five stepsons at home and a number of uncles and aunts.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon from the Collins Funeral Home, the Rev. Edward Escolme officiating. Burial was in Brookside cemetery.

Churches Plan Easter Services

SPECIAL PROGRAMS TONIGHT, GOOD FRIDAY; SUNRISE SERVICE ON SUNDAY

Tecumseh churches are in readiness for Eastertime with special services beginning tonight and continuing Friday through Sunday.

Union Good Friday services will be held in the Baptist church from 12 to 3 p.m., with the various ministers participating in the Seven Last Words of Christ as follows: "Father, Forgive Them For They Know Not What They Do," Dr. Norman MacNaughton; "Today Thou Shalt Be With Me In Paradise," Rev. Donald C. Wilson; "Woman Behold Thy Son—Son, Behold Thy Mother," Rev. Edward Escolme; "My God, My God, Why Hast Thou Forsaken Me," Rev. B. O. Bashore; "I Thirst," Rev. Mr. Wilson; "It Is Finished," Rev. Mr. Escolme; "Father, Into Thy Hands I Commend My Spirit," Dr. MacNaughton.

Stores To Close

Following a custom of several years standing, Tecumseh stores will close Friday, April 15, from noon until 3:00 p.m., in order that proprietors and employees may attend the Union Good Friday Service at the Baptist church.

The annual Easter Sunrise service is being sponsored this year by the Westminster Fellowship of the Presbyterian church. The Rev. Harold Sullivan of the Congregational church in Clinton will be the guest speaker. The Rev. Mr. Sullivan has chosen as his topic, "The Flame Leaps Up." The service will be held at the Recreation Center if the weather permits, otherwise in the Presbyterian church. Breakfast will be served in the church parlor. The service begins at 6:30 a.m. and the breakfast at 7:30. All young people are invited.

Members of the Presbyterian church are invited to participate in the Maundy Thursday service at 8 p.m., at the church this evening. "Of all times of the Christian year there is none more appropriate to the celebration of the sacrament of Holy Communion than this, the night of the Last Supper with the Twelve," the Rev. Mr. Williams said in urging the congregation to attend.

Following the Sunrise service and breakfast, the Easter observance at the Presbyterian church will continue with Church school. The young people of the beginner and primary departments will participate in an Easter program under the direction of Mrs. Wade Hendershot and Mrs. Al Heiserman. Part of the Church School program will feature a film entitled "He Restoreth My Soul." This film will show the world-wide results of Christian youth stewardship as carried on through the Youth Budget of the Presbyterian church. Parents of Church School children are invited to come to this service, beginning at 10 a.m.

The morning worship will begin

George Rubadou Dies; Buried In Brookside

George Loren Rubadou, aged 33 years, died at his home Sunday at 9 a.m., after suffering a heart attack. Struck by a car November 6, 1948, from which he sustained a broken leg and head injuries, he was recovering nicely and was able to be up and around the house when he was stricken. Had he lived until April 15 he and Mrs. Rubadou would have celebrated their 52nd wedding anniversary.

Born in Rochester, New York, he was the son of George and Margaret Rubadou. Mr. Rubadou was one of five children, having two brothers and two sisters. Only one sister, Mrs. Alma Meyers of Rochester, survives. He came to Michigan in 1893 where he had since resided. A cigar maker by trade, he was a sergeant in the Spanish-American war.

Funeral services were conducted from the Collins Funeral Home Wednesday afternoon, with Ben Beasley of Britton officiating. Burial was in Brookside cemetery.

POTLUCK SUPPER

The Josephine H. Hall Temple, Pythian Sisters, will entertain the Knights and their families at a potluck supper, Saturday evening, at 6:30 p.m. Cards will be the diversion.

CHAMBER WILL ACT AS CLEARING HOUSE FOR "DATES"

Events Calendar Seeks To End Program Confusion

The Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce is going to try to assist Tecumseh organizations in their attempts to schedule special events and programs with a minimum of conflict with the special events of other organizations, it was announced today by Leon P. Williamson, president of the local Chamber.

"In spite of the Lenten season, the conflict and competition between organizations seems to have reached an all time high during the last two weeks," Mr. Williamson stated. "In this period there have been over a dozen public and semi-public events and programs conducted locally. Some of these events fell short of the success to which they were entitled because the time and purses of individuals could not support enough of these affairs."

The Chamber is attempting to set up a calendar "clearing house" of events. Officers of all Tecumseh organizations are requested to fill out the blanks found elsewhere in this issue of The Herald and bring or mail it to the Chamber of Commerce.

"Community calendars to avoid conflict are often attempted, but are not often enough successful," Ronald Harris, Chamber secretary pointed out. "It is easy to set up a calendar of regular meetings, but it is the special events that make the difficulty.

"Tecumseh organizations are strongly urged to inform the Chamber whenever they schedule a special event and to check with the Chamber before they make commitments.

"We wish to emphasize," Harris stated further, "that we are not going to attempt to give 'permits' for anything of that nature for special events. We merely hope to serve as an organization to receive and give information. The success of the calendar "clearing house" and the avoidance of conflicts will depend upon the cooperation of all organizations."

CARS IN CZECHOSLOVAKIA

There's no trouble in buying a car in Czechoslovakia, where the automobile industry has been nationalized and, like practically all other enterprise, is run by the state. All you have to do is to walk into an agency and plunk down the money.

The only catch is the price. The available car, a two door sedan, costs more than 415,000 crowns, which is about $8,300. That sum represents 80 months of the average worker's pay. The car, according to an AP dispatch, is "considerably smaller than the 1933 Chevrolet." If you have a ration permit proving your need for a car, other than a desire to own one, you can get it for about $4,000.

This is an excellent example of how regimented economies, which have abolished all competition and all free enterprise, produce goods for the people. There is no need to improve quality or reduce prices —the customer takes what the government offers him or does without. Absolute monopoly prevails. Only the "elite" class or office holder has sufficient income or political pull to live beyond a subsistence level.

In this country by contrast, every producer must face the competition of many other producers, every one of which is out to get more business. This can only be done by pleasing the customer. On the retail level, regardless of the kind of goods involved, the competition is particularly intense, with every merchant and dealer looking for new ways to bring the customers in. We get better goods, and a more varied selection. We get them at a price which competition holds to the lowest possible level. And those goods are within the reach of the millions, not of just the few.

The Dow Chorus of Midland will present a musical program here on Saturday evening, May 7, at 8:30 in the high school auditorium, Neville Hart, director of Town Hall, announced today. The Dow Chorus is made up of 100 male voices and is the largest industrial musical organization in the world. All members are employees of the Dow Chemical Co.

Scores of tickets had been sold for the program on April 2 and Mr. Hart said that tickets bearing that date would be honored. There still remains many tickets to be sold but limited seating capacity will restrict the number who hear the Chorus to 400.

W. J. Bruce Tells Of Visit To Havana

It is indeed refreshing to visit Havana and Cuba where there are no sales taxes, income taxes or property taxes, William J. Bruce, president of the Bruce Foundry & Manufacturing Co., told members of the Rotary Club here, Tuesday evening, when he spoke to that group, following dinner at Brees House. Mr. Bruce is a member of the club and he discussed at length a vacation recently enjoyed by himself, his wife and son, which took them to Florida by automobile and then by plane to Havana.

Mr. Bruce described Havana as a beautiful city with genuine hospitality. Especially he spoke of the old Hotel Inglieterra on the Prado and in connection the Amandos restaurant with its delicious foods and reasonable prices.

Cuba operates its government through a national lottery which returns about $750,000 in prizes to residents weekly after the government takes one-third of the proceeds for taxes.

"The Cuban people are friendly, helpful and, above all, honest," Bruce said, "and we hope, at some future time, to pay a return visit."

About The Folks You Know

Signs of Spring—Don Wilson busy spreading fertilizer on his back yard and forgetting to pick up the church bulletins Saturday . . . Mrs. R. S. Moore out early every morning working in her yard . . . The martins and sparrows fighting over possession of the bird house at one of the local households . . . Squirrels playing tag with one another . . . School children skipping rope, shooting marbles and going barefoot . . . High school young people getting Spring fever . . . The onions up in Blair Bashore's garden (but no sign of the parsnips).

The band uniforms arrived just in time for the Easter Parade . . . It is a snappy outfit made of gray with orange and black trim and with this a white shirt and black tie is worn . . . A sample is on display in Green's window.

Mrs. Walter Pieper and Mrs. Jack Johnson entertained at a miscellaneous bridal shower at the former's home last evening, honoring Miss Lucy Dell . . . Games were enjoyed and the prizes won were presented to the bride-elect . . . At different intervals an alarm clock sounded and this was Lucy's signal to look for a gift . . . And she opened many lovely ones . . . Dainty refreshments were served by the hostesses.

The stork beat the race with the Lyster League of St. Peter's church, last week Wednesday, when the latter planned a surprise cradle shower for one of its members, Mrs. Hugh Browne . . . The table at the parish house was decorated with fancy napkins etc., for a potluck supper at 6:30 p.m., when word came that Mrs. Browne became the mother of a son at 6:15 p.m. . . . The evening was one big surprise.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Ladd are leaving today for their cottage at Manitou Beach . . . By coincidence, their 46th wedding anniversary also occurs today.

Mr. and Mrs. William Spreeman were surprised on their 37th wedding anniversary recently by Mr and Mrs. Elmer Spreeman and son . . . The Spreemans were the recipients of a lovely plant and they enjoyed refreshments in keeping with the occasion.

The Baptist church choir has appeared in their new robes, a maroon color, several times and Rev. Bashore wore his new one for the first time Sunday . . . The robes add much to the dignity of the service . . . A new cupboard has been built for the gowns.

As we come to Easter morn may we tune our hearts to the infinite so completely that we can hear the rustle of the angel's wings or the whispering melodies of sweet communion with the Eternal as we stand at the empty tomb.

Cynthia spafford, Tecumseh high school sophomore, was named second prize winner of the Elks National Association essay contest in Lenawee county, recently. All of the contestants wrote their essays on the subject, "Why Democracy Works."

Donna Lou Harris, a senior of Adrian high school, was winner and her essay will be entered in the state contest. Third prize winner was John Hood, another Adrian high school senior. It was said the judges had great difficulty in determining between the first and second place winners. Winning second place in itself is an honor for Miss Spafford, but even more so due to the fact that the other two prize winners were senior students while she is a sophomore.

Moses Sees The Burning Bush

Now Moses kept the flock of Jehtro, his father-in-law, the priest of Midian, and he led the flock to the backside of the desert, and came to the mountain of God, even to Horeb. And the angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a flame of fire out of the midst of a bush, and he looked, and behold the bush burned with fire and was not consumed . . . And God called to him out of the midst of the bush, and said Moses, Moses, and he said, here I am.

God appeared unto Moses in a burning bush—and because of the miracle of fire without burning, Moses knew that he was in the presence of greatness. God then explained to Moses that he, Moses had been chosen to lead the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt into the land of Canaan—the land of milk and honey.

Here was Moses' first meeting with God—and the Bible tells us that were many more as Moses fulfilled his destiny in leading his people out of Egypt.

Your church today needs leaders, too—just as the children of Israel needed leaders in Moses' day. Your help is needed your support important. Join the crusade against intolerance that your church is waging today. Attend the church of your choice every Sunday.

The following Resolution was offered by Trustee McCombs:

The Village of Tecumseh faces the unalterable necessity of constructing a sewage disposal system within the next three years; and

WHEREAS the project will impose a terrific burden on the taxpayers and will invite financial disaster for the village unless the smallest possible interest rate can be made available.

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that the Common Council of Tecumseh call upon the congress of the United States to amend the federal anti-pollution act and appropriate such sums as the act and amendments would require. And, in furtherance of its proposal the Common Council recommends the following amendments:

1. Change the provisions of the act which qualifies municipalities eligible for aid under the act to provide that all cities facing orders by stream control commissions or other similar bodies be eligible; and

2. Change the section of the act providing for loans to municipalities up to $250,000 at not more than two percent interest to at least $5,000,000 at interest rates the following schedule: up to $1,000,000 not more than two percent; from $1,000,000 to $2,500,000, not more than one and a half percent; and upwards of $2,500,000 not more than one percent.

3. Add the provisions that the loans be made on a callable basis for any period up to 50 years.

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that copies of this resolution be forwarded to United States Senators Vandenberg and Ferguson, and Congressman Earl C. Michener.

SECTION IV. TERMINATION, SUSPENSION AND REVOCATION OF LICENSES. Every restaurant license shall terminate on the 31st day of December following the date of issuance. Whenever in the opinion of the health officer it becomes necessary for the protection of the public health and safety, any restaurant license may be suspended temporarily for a maximum period of ten (10) days by the health officer. Every license may be revoked after an insanitary notice has been given to the operator, and after an opportunity for a hearing before the Village Council, or a Village Board of Health if and when established, upon the violation by the holder of any of the provisions of this Ordinance. Written notice of the time and place of such hearing and a copy of the charges preferred shall be served upon the licensee at least five (5) days before the hearing, unless such licensee consents in writing to an earlier hearing. Findings of fact made by the Village Council, or said Board, at such hearing shall be final and conclusive. Upon revocation of a restaurant license by the Village Council, or said Board, for any cause whatever, all rights of the licensee thereunder shall forthwith be terminated and no new license shall be approved until a new application has been approved and fees paid as required for a new license.

SECTION VI. EXAMINATION AND CONDEMNATION OF UNWHOLESOME, ADULTERATED OR MISBRANDED FOOD OR DRINK. Samples of food or drink may be taken and examined by the health officer as often as may be necessary for the detection of unwholesomeness, adulteration or misbranding. The health officer may condemn, or forbid the sale of, denature, remove and destroy any food or drink which is unwholesome, adulterated and misbranded.

SECTION VII. VIOLATIONS. It shall be unlawful for any person to operate a restaurant in the Village of Tecumseh unless it conforms with the requirements of this Ordinance. When any operator of a restaurant violates any of the items or sections of this Ordinance, the health officer is authorized to issue a violation ticket.

The first ticket for each violation—$10.00.

The second ticket for the same violation within one year—$25.00.

The third ticket for the same violation within one year—$50.00.

After an insanitary notice has been served on the operator for any insanitary condition existing in or about the restaurant or any section or item of this ordinance that has not been complied with, the restaurant may be closed temporarily to allow time for compliance with the ordinance.

SECTION IX. INSPECTION OF RESTAURANTS. At least once every six (6) months the health officer shall inspect every restaurant located within the Village of Tecumseh. The Sanitation of all restaurants shall be based on a system of grading whereby all restaurants receiving a rating of at least 90% or more shall be awarded Grade A, all restaurants receiving a rating of at least 80% and less than 90% shall be awarded Grade B, and all restaurants receiving a rating of at least 70% and less than 80% shall be awarded Grade C. No restaurant receiving a rate of less than 70% or Grade C, shall operate. The rating and grading of restaurants shall be based upon the standards of construction and operation contained in section ten (X) hereof.

SECTION X. Item 6. TOILET FACILITIES. Every restaurant shall be provided with adequate and conveniently located toilet and lavatory facilities for its employees and patrons. In restaurants hereafter constructed, toilet and lavatory rooms shall not open directly in to any room in which food, drink, or utensils are handled or stored. The doors of all toilet rooms shall be self-closing. Toilet rooms shall be kept in a clean condition, in good repair, and be well lighted and ventilated.

SECTION XIII. HEALTH CERTIFICATES. Within thirty (30) days after the effective date of this ordinance every restaurant employee shall obtain and present to his employer a certificate from a medical doctor attached to the staff of the Tecumseh Hospital showing that such employee is not suffering from or afflicted with tuberculosis in an active state, a venereal, contagious, or communicable disease. After the effective date of this ordinance, no operator shall employ any person until such prospective employee presents a statement from such a medical doctor showing that such employee has had such an examination and that the same did not disclose that such employee was suffering from or afflicted with tuberculosis in an active state, a venereal, contagious or communicable disease. Within two (2) weeks after entering such employment, said employee shall present to his employer a certificate from a medical doctor attached to the staff of the Tecumseh Hospital showing that such employee is not suffering from or afflicted with tuberculosis in an active state, a venereal, contagious or communicable disease. Within thirty (30) days after the effective date of this ordinance or at the time of applying for a license every operator, manager or employer shall file with the Village Clerk such a certificate applying to himself, and shall file all certificates and statements relating to his employees with the Village Clerk after the same are presented to him.

SECTION 13. Licenses. (a) Licenses. No establishment shall engage in the sale, manufacture, delivery or distribution of food in the Village of Tecumseh without first the owner or operator having obtained a license.

Every such establishment shall make application to the Village Clerk for such license in writing upon blanks to be furnished by such Village Clerk and pay a fee of Ten Dollars ($10) therefor. Licenses shall expire at midnight on the following December 31st. Application for renewal of all licenses shall be made at least thirty (30) days before the Commencement of the license year. Only establishments who have complied with the requirements of this ordinance shall be entitled to receive and retain such license. Licenses may be suspended by the enforcing officer upon the violation by the holder of the provisions of this ordinance, and may be revoked by the enforcing officers when it is found after hearing that the holder of the license has failed to comform with the provisions of this ordinance.

Sec. 14. 1—DUTIES AND PROCEDURE

The Village Council of the Village of Tecumseh shall act as the "BOARD OF APPEALS." From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

There'll Always Be a "Gawker"

"Harry the Hermit," as he's called, came into town last week and, as usual, caused quite a stir. He looks like a cross between Santa Claus and Daniel Boone.

We had a friendly glass of beer together and I asks him, "Don't you ever get annoyed at the way some people laugh and stare as you go by?" "Shucks no," Harry says. "Only while they're laughin' at me, I'm feelin' a mite sorry for them. Imagine—folks so ungrown-up they can't see I'm really just the same as they are underneath."

From where I sit, Harry's a lot more "civilized" than the people who make fun of him. He's contented, lives the way he believes is right without harming anyone—and what's more, he's tolerant of others whose tastes in living are different from his.

Maybe we all don't look the same, or act the same, or eat or drink the same, but in a free country, why should we?

Michigan's bi-partisan state government, featuring a Democratic governor and a Republican-controlled administrative board and legislature, has yet to solve the 4-1 enigma of averting a treasury deficit. Now that the April election outcome is in the bag, legislative leaders are talking of adjournment by mid-May. The next few weeks will tell the story.

There is the widening gap in the viewpoints of Governor Williams and the Republican legislature. The governor still considers his election last November to be a "popular mandate" for his liberal beliefs. While he received the April election returns with "disappointment and surprise," he reaffirms his conviction that the majority of the people favored more spending by state government. He has asked the state legislature to enact the proposed corporation profits tax. He now hints that the decline in sales tax revenue may make it necessary for the legislature to adopt a five per cents profits tax, instead of four per cent, as he originally proposed.

The state budget office is now estimating, said the governor, the current treasury deficit (1948-49 fiscal year) at $22,000,000. If the revenue drop continues, as some economists forecast, then the operating deficit for the 1949-50 fiscal year (July 1 to July 1) might rise to $71,000,000. State employees are asking for more pay, and if these requests are granted, the inflated budget would be boosted $13,000,000 more.

The Democratic legislative policy, as apparently influenced by Governor Williams and his CIO labor advisors, follows the proposals of President Truman: More government spending, more taxation.

Republican legislative leaders are willing to adjust state appropriations to current needs, providing the increase is "reasonable." There is where the two parties cannot agree. The G.O.P. bill to revise state unemployment benefits is an example. This measure would increase the base rate from $20 to $24 for 20 weeks, an adjustment of 20 per cent. The Democratic proposal would go this better—$20 to $30 for 26 weeks, a 50 per cent increase in payment and 30 per cent more time.

If the April election had brought the election of Democratic state officials — highway commissioner and superintendent of public instruction — the state legislature would have been more inclined to accept Governor Williams' claim of a "popular mandate." Because of some uncertainty what the voters might do, many key legislative measures have been stalled in committee while legislators waited for the election verdict.

What should the legislature do about the prospective treasury deficit? Rep. John Espie, veteran chairman of the house ways and means committee, had indicated that he favors a general reduction in state appropriations but no decision on new taxes at this time. He feels that the legislature might act more intelligently later on, in the general interests of the taxpayer.

Root of the financial trouble, of course, is the constitutional amendment—twice upheld by the voters—which earmarks a little more than 78 per cent of all sales tax revenues for local government. This leaves only 22 per cent for state needs. This tremendous flow of funds back to local units of government is without parallel in any other state of the United States. There is not one that even approaches it.

A number of legislative bills have been introduced, and now are in process of legislative consideration, which would abolish state services outright. Governor Williams has said repeatedly that the state government, for the most part, was efficiently run and that he saw no need to eliminate state services. He would retain these, amplify them to meet new needs, and then balance the budget by imposing new taxes. The corporation tax, he feels, would be an indirect burden on the taxpayer at the most.

The State Senate has reversed an old policy of secret sessions for confirmation of appointments by the governor. This change was sponsored by Sen. Colin L. Smith (Big Rapids) who said newspaper correspondents should have access to senate debate instead of having to rely on second-hand reports of what had been said.

Now that the April election is out of the way, the legislature may be counted on to clear the decks fairly quickly of important bills. Weeks have been devoted to study of these measures. Only the voters' verdict on April 4 was needed to break the log jam.

Ben Beasley of Britton officiated and burial was in Brookside cemetery, with the members of the American Legion post of Britton in charge of the military service at the grave. The bearers were Herman Miller, Raymond Auten, William MacElroy, Perry Youngiove, Clare Griffen and Wilton Gittus.

Teachers Wages Increase $100

BOARD VOTES BLANKET BOOST AND ISSUES CONTRACTS FOR 1949-50

All teachers in the Tecumseh Public Schools were granted a $100 annual wage increase by the board of education last week when contracts for the school year 1949-50 were issued. Four resignations were received from the staff members and one of the vacancies already have been filled. The board also voted to add two teachers to the elementary staff, due to increased enrollment.

"We expect an enrollment here next year of well over 1,000," Earl H. Place, superintendent, said today. "The heavy increase is in the elementary grades and to care for a part of this load we are adding another first grade teacher and another fourth grade teacher, Miss Mary Louise Ricica of Britton is the new first grade teacher. She is a graduate of Ypsilanti Normal. Mrs. Lillian Buttolph of Britton has been retained as the new fourth grade teacher."

Mr. Place said that this year's enrollment has reached 984. An increase of 10 per cent or more would not be surprising when school reopens in September. While work is progressing normally on the new $400,000 high school building on N. Maumee street, it is not likely that it will be ready for occupancy before January of 1950. This will mean that school will again be held in the several churches and the public library for at least the first semester of the next school year. Next year, Place said, there will be 38 teachers on the Tecumseh staff.

Place said that Miss Bessie L. Bortner, junior high school English teacher, had resigned and that she would be succeeded by Mrs. Annabelle H. Finnegan. Mrs. Hazel F. Dickinson, senior high school English and speech teacher, also has retired after 20 years of service. Place said that her successor had not been named. Miss Marjorie Mohr, vocal music instructor, also has resigned and a successor has not been named.

"The fourth resignation is that of Alvin Brazee, junior mathematics instructor, who is retiring after 40 years of teaching service, 24 years of that time being in Tecumseh," Place said. Place expressed regret at Mr. Brazee's retirement and complimented him on his long career as an instructor. "It is an enviable record," Place said, "24 years in one school."

School reopened here on Tuesday after a four-day Easter holiday recess. This was the last vacation for students until the end of the present semester, June 3. High school commencement exercises here this year will be on June 2.

Next year, the superintendent said, school will reopen on September 6 and will close on June 1.

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD

Funeral services were held last week Wednesday from the Collins Funeral Home for George L. Ruhadou, who died April 10. Ben Beasley of Britton officiated and burial was in Brookside cemetery. The bearers were John Bard, sr., Alva Hunter, Perry Satterthwaite, Ruben VanWinkler, Lyman Gusterhout and Fred Marsh. Friends and relatives attended from Van Dyke, Fairfax, Va., Detroit, Marion, Ypsilanti, Dearborn, Britton, Tipton, Ridgeway, Northville and this vicinity.

TO GIVE RECITAL

Thomas J. Tonneberger will give an organ recital at the Augsburg Lutheran church, Sylvania Avenue and Rollin Road, Toledo, Ohio, Sunday, April 24, at 8 p.m. The recital will be played on the new 37 rank Aeolian ppe organ recently installed in the church.

Mr. Tonneberger will receive his bachelor of music degree from the University of Michigan in June.

C. Of C. Notes Changes In Village In 50 Years

How does a town change?

Studies of Tecumseh now being made by the Chamber of Commerce in preparation for the 125th anniversary celebration next July, indicate that towns, like persons, change almost imperciptibly. For instance, a Tecumseh resident might think of the town as little changed during the last year until he walks the length of Chicago Boulevard and notes how many business places have changed in location or appearance during the last year.

If significant changes occur during a single year, how many changes there must be in a half century.

Among the exhibits now being studied at the Chamber of Commerce is a brochure of Tecumseh published in 1895. It contains historical, biographical, and descriptive material with a large number of illustrations. Familiar as well as nearly forgotten names and places of business make it an absorbing document.

Some places look little changed after almost sixty years. One picture taken from the top of what is now the Consumers power building shows the town looking much the same without close observation, and by substituting automobiles for the carriages and horsemen. The council building also looks much the same, but the fire department is posed in front with its horsedrawn equipment.

The Tecumseh waterworks and standpipe are familiar, but the high school is unrecognizable. N. M. Sutton's Opera House looks much different until you take a second look at the Strand Theater today from across the street and imagine the present front buildings removed. Incidentally, the perennial favorite, "Charley's Aunt," was to be produced by a road company the day the picture was taken.

The Tecumseh Herald offices are still in the same building—changes having been made in the windows and the big sign removed from the top. The Herald at that time was approaching the completion of its first half century of continuous publication.

Now for some changes: Alva Spayde's clothing and shoe store had moved from the Mills Block to the recently completed Masonic Temple block. A bowling alley was later put in operation at the Mills Block where both the G. A. Smith store is undergoing alterations.

The Tecumseh State Savings Bank, then two years old, was doing business where the Kroger store was until it moved to its new location last fall. Orr & Temple, prescription druggists were also located in the former Kroger building.

Next was Satterthwaite Bros. hardware in the west section of what is now Baldwin's. In the middle section was the White Front jewelry store of E. F. Kirchgessner. Kirchgessner's were also opticians, and carried a line of books, stationery, and bicycles. The familiar name of C. A. Wright denoted a drug store and paint and wallpaper store located at that time in the east section of Baldwin's next to what is now Brandt's.

A large concern was Anderson & Co., occupying what are now Hite's hardware, the Rosacrans store, and Libby's restaurant. This was said to be the largest dry goods store in southern Michigan. The company was made up of the familiar names of S. W. Anderson, Fred Rosacrans and John L. Anderson.

The southwest corner of Chicago and Ottawa was decidedly different. C. F. Williamson operated a grocery and farm produce store where Updike's service station is. The building was later moved slightly west and now houses Hammond's real estate office and Mix and Raymond's.

The Flower and Gift shop changed radically just last summer. But in 1895 two enterprises made use of the building. In the east half was the J. M. Jones tailoring establishment and in the west half E. M. Coller conducted his sales business of pianos, organs, and sewing machines.

What is now the Consumers Power building was at that time John J. Freeman's cigar manufactory. At the other end of the business district was another manufacturing establishment: the Tecumseh Table Company where Easton's service station is now.

On the corner where Palman's is now was the shoe, dry goods, ladies' and gents' furnishings store of Harris and Hiteshu. The west part of the same building housed the grocery firm and soda fountain of Kenaga & Rogers.

The corner where the United Savings Bank and Chicago Store are today was also radically different. Most of it was devoted to the Lilley House, described as one of the largest hotels in a town of this size in the state. All Lake Shore trains stopped at the door while hacks met all trains on the Cincinnati, Jackson, & Mackinaw. James Lowry had a grocery store where Green's is and a crockery store in what is now the west end of the bank.

Avery & Co. ran a grocery store and glass ware store where Van Camp & Riley are today. George H. Tansley & Son sold furniture, crockery and house furnishings at the present location of the Nation Wide store. There was also an undertaking business in connection with the establishment.

Evans street presented a highly different business picture from that of today. W. W. Marsh's City Meat Market was where Geo. Adamson is located today. Where the A. & P. Store and Texaco station are was the livery, sale, and feed stable of Garlinghouse Bros. Where the DesErmia furniture store is now was the grain produce, agricultural implement, and carriage repository of C. A. Slayton. At the present location of the Gulf Oil Co., E. A. & H. O. Spalding were dealers in tinware, stoves and furnaces.

Back on Chicago street were other decided differences. Korner Bros. were selling boots and shoes in the store they recently bought from John Nyland where Van's Pastry Shop is now. McCann Bros. were operating their new clothing store on the corner where Wright's Drug store is. D. A. Whitenack & Co. had a hardware at the present location of the Tecumseh Tavern. E. L. Teeple, who made the photos for the brochure, had his photography shop where John Saling's camera shop and shoe store are. John C. Haslit's tailor shop was where the Tecumseh restaurant is, and Adamson Bros., jewelers and opticians, were where Campbell's cleaners now are.

Anderson Brothers Grocery was right where it is today, the brothers at that time being B. P. and E. B. Anderson. The most recent change in town, Helms' Furniture, was still the Shull house.

Finally the Lilley State Bank was then in the Union Hall block. Today, of course, it is the Lenawee Insurance Agency, Kohler's real estate office, the office of the Village of Tecumseh and of the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce.

Sand Lake Farm Home Is Destroyed By Fire

Because he had no telephone, Harold Marsh was forced to drive about a mile to an Irish Hills filling station to summon the fire department and his house, located just west of Sand Lake, was burned to the ground on Sunday at 1 p.m. The blaze started in the roof of the dwelling.

Onsted and Wamplers Lake firemen responded to the alarm but the blaze was out of control. Furniture on the first floor was saved. The Marsh family including five children, occupied the house. They spent Sunday night with neighbors.

Originally, the house was built by the late James and Maggie Brighton and it was a landmark in the area.

Chorus Tickets Are Now on Sale

DOW ENTERTAINERS TO PRESENT DELAYED CONCERT HERE ON MAY 7TH

Tickets for the Dow Chorus entertainment, scheduled for Saturday evening, May 7, at 8:30 in the high school auditorium are now on sale in Tecumseh and throughout the county. It is expected that the chorus will appear before a capacity audience inasmuch as the seating in the auditorium is limited to 400. Locally, tickets are on sale at Butler Motor Sales, Shyter Electric, the Flower Shop, Jones Insurance Agency and The Tecumseh Herald. At Products, tickets may be purchased from the personnel offices.

The Dow Chorus is being brought to Tecumseh through the efforts of Town Hall. The Rotary Club is sponsoring the sale of tickets. Charles O. Butler, Rotary president, urged today that persons desiring to attend buy their tickets early. He declared, however, that tickets would be sold at the door if seating was available.

The Chorus, made up of 100 male voices, is the largest industrial musical organization in the world. It was to have appeared here on April 2 but the engagement was cancelled following the plane crash in which the president of the Dow Chemical Company and his wife and three others were killed.

Tickets sold for the April 2 performance will be honored on May 7, it was said.

Seven Injured In M-52 Crash

SUNDAY EVENING'S RAIN AND SNOWSTORM MAKES DRIVING DANGEROUS

Although Easter Sunday morning was clear and cool, motorists who started long trips on the holiday found driving extremely dangerous during the late afternoon and evening hours, officers reported. Rain started to fall in mid-afternoon and by 7 o'clock in the evening turned to a blinding snow that melted about as rapidly as it fell and made highways wet and slippery.

The most serious accident in the county over the holiday happened at 9:30 Sunday evening on M-52 near the State School For Girls, just north of Adrian. In this crash seven persons were hurt.

Cars involved were driven by Elden Sevier, 19, of Clinton, and Mrs. Mary E. Schweikert, 31, of Adrian. The cars hit head-on and were badly damaged.

All of the injured were treated at Bixby hospital. Mr. Service suffered a knee injury and F. R. Filber, 20, of Clinton, suffered head cuts, Joyce Woodruff, 17, Jackson, knee and right leg injuries, and Beverly Svoboda, 16, Jackson, mouth injuries. All were passengers in the Service car.

Mrs. Schweikert suffered an eye and knee injury. Herman Schweikert and Henry Schweikert, both passengers in her car, also were hurt.

Albert Cardenas, 29, Adrian, escaped injury when his car went out of control and overturned on M-52, five miles north of Adrian. He was given a summons for driving without an operators license. The accident happened at 8 p.m., Sunday.

The only serious accident locally happened at 4 a.m., Sunday morning at the corner of Evans and Logan streets and involved cars driven by Robert D. Moore, 19, So. Maiden Lane, and Richard Fielder, 22, N. Pearl Street.

According to local police reports, both cars were being driven north and Moore attempted to the left side of the road to make a right hand turn. His car was struck from the rear by the Fielder car and overturned. A street lamp post and a post bearing a gas station floodlight were broken off.

Fielder was taken to Tecumseh Hospital but was later released after first aid treatment. Thomas Corkery, 18, a passenger in the Moore car, was released from the hospital on Monday evening as was Moore. Both suffered head and back injuries.

Social Medicine Is Hit By Hammel

SAYS IT IS THE OPENING WEDGE TO STATE SOCIALISM IN TALK TO ROTARIANS

Socialized medicine is the opening wedge to state socialism, Dr. H. H. Hammel, local surgeon, told members of the Tecumseh Rotary Club when he addressed the group, Tuesday evening, following dinner at Brees House. Dr. Hammel is a colonel in the Army reserve having served overseas in World Wars I and II.

"A doctor shouldn't talk about socialized medicine because folk are likely to say that he's against it because of his profession," Dr. Hammel said. "Personally, however, I'm worried about it because I honestly believe that it is the first step to state socialism and communism. Socialism came to New Zealand and there socialized medicine came first. The same is true of England."

Folk who believe that socialized medicine is free to everybody are only fooling themselves, the doctor said. He estimated that it would cost everybody with an income an average of four per cent of their earnings. Medical insurance as we now have it is far cheaper, he said.

Doctors practicing under socialized medicine have little time to give to their patients. They spend most of their hours filling out government reports. Hammel also said that socialism destroys initiative and that the whole system is bound up in red tape.

Dr. Hammel spent considerable time in both New Zealand and England. In both countries, he said, doctors and patients alike, are "sick of their bargain."

Harris To Face Murder Charge

Arch Harris entered a plea of not guilty when he was arraigned on a murder charge before Circuit Judge G. Arthur Rathbun, Wednesday morning. He was bound over to the May term of court without bail and Robert French, Tecumseh attorney, was named to defend him.

Arch Harris, 35, of Deerfield, Va., who last week Tuesday confessed the murder of Ransom Brown, 39, in his home here at 611 So. Pearl street, will be arraigned in Circuit Judge G. Arthur Rathbun's court in Adrian this week, Rex Martin, prosecuting attorney, said. A warrant charging murder has been issued.

Harris admitted a week ago to state police that he killed Brown, his brother-in-law, following a family quarrel. Originally, the death had been termed suicide but the case was reopened at the request of the victim's father.

PAST CHIEFS CLUB

The Past Chiefs Club of the Pythian Sisters met Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Ervie Raymond with Mrs. Bert Aten as assisting hostess. After a short business meeting Mrs. Raymond was presented with a gift for her new home. Cards were the diversion and prizes were won by Mrs. Lynn Harris and Mrs. Silas Kring with the hostess gift being awarded to Mrs. Fred Marsh.

The May meeting will be held with Shaine Riser at her new home in Herrick Park. Mrs. Lois Schreder and Mrs. Myrtle Brollier will be the assisting hostesses.

CAR DAMAGED BY FIRE

Surviving besides the parents are a grandmother, Mrs. Naomi Sallows, great-grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Reuben VanWinkle of Tecumseh and several aunts, uncles and cousins.

Date Calender Will Aid Clubs

CHAMBER GETS COMPLIMENTS ON IDEA, BUT VERY LITTLE INFORMATION

The attempt of the Chamber of Commerce to establish a community calendar to avoid conflict of events has received a large number of compliments, but very few informational responses.

"We are told that there are about five such organizations in Tecumseh," Ronald Harris, secretary of the chamber said today, "but up until Tuesday night only two had filled out the blank in last week's Herald.

"We have been told many times how good this is and how long it has been needed," Harris continued. "However it will be of no value unless it is very generally used both to give and receive information."

Chamber officials emphasized that it is not necessary to wait for a meeting in order for an organization to report. Neither does it matter if both a president and secretary send in a blank—two reports being better than none.

For the convenience of organizations, the blank is being reprinted elsewhere in this issue of The Herald. Should an organization lose the blank, it may call the Chamber of Commerce and give the desired information on officers and regular meetings.

MOTOR IS STOLEN

DOING FOR OURSELVES

A proposal for compulsory government health insurance is in the news again. It will be one of the major issues to be considered by Congress this year. Of the arguments used in support of it, one of the most generally effective seems to be that it is often a serious burden to meet the cost of an unexpected hospital or doctor bill.

That is true enough—but it does not explain why government insurance, which would cost the taxpayers $6,000,000 a year and perhaps more, is the way out. The proponents of the scheme seem to totally ignore the fact that a large percentage of the American people have protected themselves against this exigency. They have done it through one or more of the many voluntary prepayment plans, all of which are within the financial reach of the average worker and his family.

The growth made by these plans is phenomenal. The first came into being in Oregon in 1906. Initially, during the trial and error period, progress was relatively slow. Then, some years ago, a major expansion took place. One plan alone has well over 30,000,000 subscribers, most of whom pay the moderate charges through payroll deductions. And the benefits given have been steadily broadened.

In the light of all this, and looking at the issue from a purely practical viewpoint, there seems to be no reason for saddling the country with another enormous tax—and, in the process, giving a political group a half nelson on the medical profession.

MY HOSPITAL BILL $137.44
BLUE CROSS COVERED IT IN FULL!
PLUS $220.00 TO THE DOCTOR

CASE #33-P49124-58

Mr. _____, Blue Cross Hospital Surgical Plan subscriber, spent 54 days in hospital. Charges included semi-private room, operating room, laboratory, drugs and dressings, oxygen—total: $1372.44. Blue Cross Hospital Plan covered this in full. In addition, the Surgical Plan paid $220 for surgical services—a total of $1592.44 paid by Blue Cross.

Chances are 1 in 10 you will need hospital care this year

HOSPITAL COSTS have gone up—they are more than double what they were in 1941. And figures show that one out of every ten persons will go to the hospital in 1949. Doesn't it make good sense to protect yourself and your family now—when you can get protection for only a few cents a day.

Blue Cross—the hospitals' and doctors' own non-profit health care plans—your best protection at the lowest cost

The Blue Cross Hospital Plan pays for a broad range of service benefits (up to 120 days of hospital care) in any of the 172 participating hospitals in Michigan. NO CASH LIMIT on the benefits covered.

The Blue Cross Medical-Surgical Plans give added benefits . . . pay liberal amounts for operations . . . pay for your doctor's visits to the hospital. Low in cost—just a few cents a day.

Talk over with your employer how your company can provide this protection for you

Or ask your friends who are members of Blue Cross. Blue Cross is available to employed people without physical examination or health statement, through the group enrollment plan.

The issue of higher taxes vs. economy is headed for a showdown soon in the state legislature.

The corporation profits tax is being pushed by Governor G. Mennen Williams as a painless method to raise additional revenue for state government needs and thus to avert a growing deficit. Seventy-eight percent of the state sales tax is earmarked by constitutional amendment to be returned to local governments.

The corporation tax is bottled up, at present, in legislative committees where sentiment is reported to favor governmental economies as an alternate to higher taxes. Republican solons contest the statement of Governor Williams that his election in November was "a mandate" for liberal measures. Most of these call for more tax funds. The April election outcome has stiffened G.O.P. convictions in this direction.

The Michigan Good Roads federation bill is now before the senate taxation committee, headed by Sen. George N. Higgins, (R-Ferndale). Motorists would pay $29,000,000 more in higher gasoline taxes and higher weight taxes. This measure has the backing of road builders, state highway department and many county road commissions. Improvement of highways is at stake, proponents declare. Senator Higgins has been quoted as being opposed to new taxes at this time.

If the house concurs in outlawing legalized gambling at horse races in Mirhigan $3,000,000 state revenue will be lost for 1950. This bill was sponsored by 21 senators, backed by the Michigan Council of Churches, a Protestant group. The Senate approved it 22 to 2.

The pari-mutuel system has linked to the tangled affairs of the Michigan State Fair in whose ground the Detroit racetrack is located. Another effort to untangle the fair program is being made by the Detroit Board of Commerce. A bill has been introduced to create a state fair authority to run the fair and the grounds. It has a limited chance of passage because of political differences between the governor and the legislature. The governor would appoint members of the authority.

At present, the centennial celebration of the State Fair at Detroit is in a state of suspension. The governor opposed reappointment of Hazen Funk as the fair's general manager.

Consolidation and elimination of several state agencies are advocated by some state legislators as alternative to higher taxes. Senate bill 11 would abolish the tax commission and create a new board of taxation; senate bill 12 would create a labor department, merging other agencies; senate bill 13 would transfer collection of gasoline tax, diesel fuels tax, vessels fuels tax and aviation gas tax to the revenue department.

Senate bill 14 would abolish the hospital survey and construction offices, transferring duties to the department of administration. Senate bill 15 would eliminate the state safety commission with its $16,000 budget. Senate bill 16 would create a professional and vocational licensing division within office of secretary of state. Senate bill 17 would abolish the stream control commission, transferring duties to the state health department.

Senate bill 19 would transfer duties of the board of control for vocational education, state tenure commission, state board for libraries, and historical commission all to the state board of education. The crippled children's commission would be abolished and its duties transferred to the department of health by Senate Bill 20.

Senate bill 21 would abolish the tuberculosis sanatorium commission and transfer its duties to the department of health. The board of tax appeals would be abolished by senate bill 22. Since functions of most of the above agencies would be transferred to other departments, services would be continued and hence at some cost.

The paradox of public benefits and public taxes was neatly presented by representatives of Michigan municipalities who appeared at a legislative hearing recently. They urged the legislature to authorize municipal excise taxes, but opposed any public referendum on them. "Taxpayers won't tax themselves to pay for things they want," city officials complained.

This attitude of trying to get something for nothing is not new, of course. Local governments always favor more state aid and more federal aid, so long as the money appears to be free. The very minute the benefits are linked to taxes, then the spending fever begins to subside.

The legislature has a most difficult task to perform. Regardless of what is done, the decision will be unpopular with some blocs and special interests. Higher taxes or economies that really hurt—which will it be?

The Planting Season Is Here
Grow Bumper Crops With Pre-tested Seed

When you plant your garden this year, be sure to sow our pre-tested seed and then, when it is harvest time, note the difference in the crop.

This year we are stocking nothing but pre-tested seeds because we know, and our customers tell us, that there's a difference. Pre-tested seeds, you know, are seeds that have been tested by the growers . . . that are certain to give you a bumper yield.

And . . . amazing as it may seem, pre-tested seed costs no more than ordinary seeds.

Pharaoh Denies Moses' Wish

And Moses and Aaron went and gathered up all the elders of the children of Israel. And Aaron spake all the words which the Lord had spake unto Moses, and the people believed, and when they heard the Lord had visited the Children of Israel, and that he had looked upon their affliction, then they bowed their heads and worshipped. And afterward, Moses and Aaron went in, and told Pharaoh, Thus saith the Lord my God of Israel, let my people go, that they may hold a feast unto Me in the wilderness.

The two leaders of the Israelites told Pharaoh about the appearance of God, and the mission which they were to perform. They asked for three days of rest, so that they might go into the wilderness and pray, and make sacrifices. This request was refused, and Pharaoh increased the tasks of the Israelites so that the people would have no time for this new God.

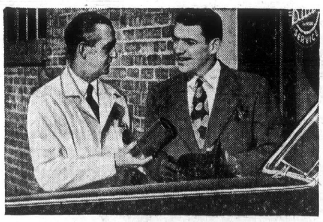
Time to Spring Clean your Buick too!

Bright sun shining—new greenery showing—soft breezes calling you onto the highway—this is the season that Buick of yours was made for!

This is the time when you'll want to hear the sweet hum of its eager power, feel the lazy comfort of its easy stride, get the springtime feel of its thrilling action.

And you can have all that—with just a little attention to some simple things to shake the winter out of its bones.



For instance — the rusty sludge that has accumulated in your radiator should be cleaned out. Transmission and rear end may be low on lubrication, and should be checked. Crankcase oil should be changed to a summer grade.

The underside of your car has taken a lot of splashing on wet roads. Some of the chassis grease has been washed out, some of it fouled with mud and grit.

So it's time to drain out the dregs of winter. Time for a little of the knowing, loving care every Buick gets at the hands of our Buick-trained men, armed with Buick-developed tools, Buick-established methods, Buick-engineered parts.

It doesn't take long, doesn't cost much. But it goes a long way toward making old Buicks step out again like lively spring colts. How about stopping in—this week—to see about a spring rejuvenation for your faithful Buick?

Check your car--- Check accidents!

Driving is twice the fun when you have complete confidence in your car—when you know that tires, brakes, steering, lights and the like won't let you down.

Altogether, there are 10 points to be checked for safety on any car. Bring your Buick in to us for a thorough going-over before setting off on your spring safaris. We'll take the worry and fuss off your hands—so you can be carefree at the wheel.

TAXES and TELEPHONES

Take a good look at your next telephone bill, and you will see that Federal taxes make up an important percentage of your bill! Federal tax on local service is 15%. On long distance service where the charge is 25c or over, the tax is 25%. Other forms of telephone service are taxed from 8 to 25%.

This tax is imposed directly upon you as a telephone user. Your telephone company, at its own expense, acts as tax collector.

Telephone service today is usually regarded as a necessity. Yet the 25% tax on long distance and other services is higher than the 20% for luxury items, such as jewelry and furs.

Telephone users everywhere have expressed their opinions on this high excise tax to their Senators and Representatives in Congress. Their views will help to guide future Congressional action on this unusual peacetime tax on a necessity. We are sure that your Congressmen would appreciate your views as a taxpayer and citizen on telephone taxes.

These excise taxes levied directly upon you as a user are in addition to the corporation income taxes which the company pays to the government. These taxes must be included in the company's cost of business and must, therefore, act to increase your telephone bill as a sort of hidden sales tax.

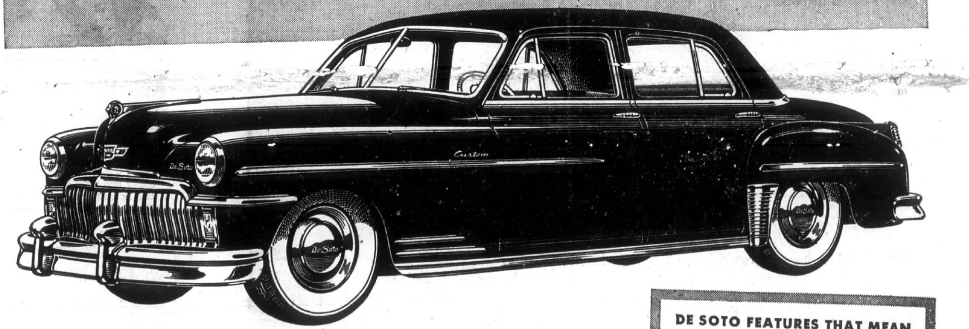
Examined the new DE SOTO? You won't know what's happened until you do!



"The Car Designed with YOU in Mind" is changing a lot of minds!

CROWDS of people have visited our showrooms since the first announcement of the new De Soto. It has been very interesting to watch their reactions.

First of all, of course, they walk all around the car and admire its smart, low lines and its sleek appearance. They tell us they like its looks because it is "modern but not modernistic."

But the big surprise comes when they open those wide doors and step inside. The roof does not hit their hats. There's lots of headroom. The steering wheel doesn't hit the driver's knees. And because the luxurious seats are chair high, you can see everything without craning your neck.

Get in. Front seat or back, they're both wider. There's more leg room for all passengers, too. And you get all this extra space without sacrifice of convenience, because the outside dimensions of the new De Soto are not increased. You can still park with ease. And you needn't rebuild that garage.

Before you make any decision about any new car, come in and let us show you De Soto's many great features including Tip-Toe Hydraulic Shift with Fluid Drive, that lets you drive without shifting. Compare this car with any other at any price . . . for beauty, comfort, safety and value. Then decide.

DO YOU NEED A SPRING TONIC TO PEP YOU UP?

Free Vitamins Are Growing In Your Back Yard

Looking for a spring tonic?

Then pick some of the small shoots of wild greens growing in your back yard or along the roadways and eat them raw or cook them for dinner, the Michigan Department of Health advised today.

Wild greens are good and they are good for you, the Department said. They have just as many vitamins and minerals as greens you buy in stores.

Some of the commonest weeds in Michigan are considered excellent eating by connoisseurs of other lands. Shoots of milkweed served like asparagus and purslane, steamed or raw, are considered great delicacies in many countries.

Most all Michigan people eat dandelion greens and water cress, but many of the other common edible "weeds" are not as familiar.

Pigweed, marsh marigold, chicory, wintercress, mustard, sorrel, dock, and pokeweed like all other leafy green vegetables furnish iron, vitamin, A, and in addition some vitamins, C, B1, G and calcium.

In picking wild greens take only those which are young and tender. Wash them several times in warm water, ending with a cold bath. Do not allow them to stand in water. If you cook them use just the water which clings to them. Salt them when you put them over the fire. Take the cover off as soon as the greens are wilted. Cook only five minutes. If any cooking water is left use it for gravies, soups or stews. For seasoning, use salt, pepper and butter or bits of crisp fried salt pork or bacon, finely chopped pepper or onion or garnish them with hard boiled eggs.

Use only greens you can identify, some are poison. If you wish more information on identification of edible wild greens, ask your local health department or write to the Michigan Department of Health, Lansing 4, Michigan for its pamphlet "Wild Greens are Good."

International Day Is Planned

TECUMSEH, ONTARIO, TO JOIN WITH TECUMSEH, MICH., IN CELEBRATION

An International Day is being planned by the Chamber of Commerce as one of the feature days during Tecumseh's 125th Anniversary Celebration next summer.

This development came as a result of a visit made last week to Tecumseh, Ontario by Leon Williamson, president and Ronald Harris, secretary of the local Chamber of Commerce. The Chamber officials report that they were cordially received by officials of the Ontario town and that these officials are already busy formulating plans for a salute to Tecumseh, Michigan during the celebration.

The officials of our sister city in Canada with whom the local delegation discussed plans were T. C. Scott, mayor; W. V. Boutcher, clerk; and Sid Arbour, manager of public works. These officers already have a number of interesting possibilities for their salute, and the plans will be announced as soon as they take definite form.

The Chamber officials found the Ontario town a delightful place to visit. It is about nine miles east of Windsor on the banks of the Detroit River and Lake Ontario. It is about the same size as Tecumseh, Michigan, with several excellent industries, a new building program, and a colony with splendid homes on the lake and river.

Named Tecumseh after the Indian chief as was our own city, the name nevertheless seems to have no stronger tie with the great Shawnee than does the Michigan city. The Canadian town also makes use of the chief's head as a trade mark, using it on the municipal letter heads, fire fighting equipment, etc. Some streets, like Ottawa, are named the same as ours, and their baseball team, like our high school athletic teams, are known as the Tecumseh Indians.

"The possibilities which lie in our relationship with our sister town in Ontario are limitless," a Chamber announcement said. "Not only can they help make our 1949 celebration a success, but future relations between the two towns can be delightful. Moreover, a frequent interchange between sister Canadian and United States towns can be a splendid gesture of good relations between these two great friendly nations. We look ahead eagerly to having more of our people become acquainted with these fine Canadian friends."

American Music Program Enjoyed By Club Women

Mrs. Perry Satterthwaite entertained some 17 members and five guests of the Tecumseh Music Club at her home, Tuesday evening.

Miss Edith Ingersoll presented a program on American music as follows: paper, "Early American Music," Miss Ingersoll; piano solo, "Witches Dance," Mrs. Herbert Dillon; vocal solo, "The Lord is My Shepherd," Mrs. Thomas Gallant; quartet composed of Mrs. J. M. Mulvaney, Mrs. Nina Heath, Mrs. Perry Hayden and Mrs. Joe Rice, "Nellie Bly;" paper on "Opera In America," Mrs. Ellsworth Colburn; vocal solo, "A Pretty Girl Is Like A Melody," Mrs. Bolster; two piano solos, "Sonata" and "Allegro," Mrs. Kenneth Munson; two musical readings, "Life's Philosophy" and "When We Haven't Said Our Prayers," Mrs. R. S. Moore; several recordings of college songs. A musical contest was held and the prize awarded to Mrs. Mulvaney.

During the business meeting the president appointed the nominating committee as follows: Miss Ingersoll, Mrs. Hayden and Mrs. Murray Day. In conclusion Mrs. Satterthwaite and her daughter, Camilla, served refreshments.

Mrs. James E. Newburn, Former Resident Dies

Mrs. Harold Naser has received word of the death of a former Tecumseh resident, Mrs. James E. Newburn, which occurred in Cleveland, Ohio, in April 18, in a Cleveland hospital. Funeral services were held April 20 in Cleveland.

Formerly Anna Robbins, Mrs. Newburn was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Robbins of Tecumseh. She was born in Tecumseh on October 18, 1863, and lived here until her marriage to James Newburn, when she moved to Cleveland. She will be remembered by many because of her frequent visits to Tecumseh for many years.

A daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Starrett of Cleveland, with whom she made her home, survive. She was preceded in death by her parents, a brother, Will Robbins, her husband and her grandson, Wade Starrett.

Hospitals Need Blood Plasma

FREE SUPPLY WILL BE EXHAUSTED THIS MONTH, DEPARTMENT FEARS

Michigan hospitals are facing a serious emergency due to the curtailment of free blood plasma supplies, the Michigan Department of Health warned today.

The American Red Cross has made its last shipment of free plasma from wartime surpluses to 200 hospitals in the state. In many communities, this supply will be exhausted during April, the Department fears.

The State Health Department is mustering every resource to expand its free blood plasma procurement program to make sufficient plasma available to meet the needs in every section of the state.

Whether free plasma is available in a community now depends entirely on the cooperation of the community in the state free blood plasma procurement program. Unless there are sufficient donors in each community, hospital patients requiring plasma will have to purchase supplies from private or commercial sources. This also applies to gamma globulin for the modification of measles and other fractions of blood. For some types of illness or injury the cost of plasma and fractions for treatment would run into thousands of dollars, and the delay in finding donors with the right type of blood in some cases might prove fatal.

Local Red Cross chapters throughout the state are now mobilizing donors for clinics which the Department will operate. Local medical societies are cooperating. The blood collected in the free plasma procurement centers will be processed in the Lansing laboratories of the Department and returned for free use in the local community.

Former U. of M. Gridder Is Rotary Club Speaker

The University of Michigan will come through this fall with another winning football team, this despite graduation losses, Jack Brennan of the placement bureau of the school said, Tuesday evening, when he spoke to the Rotary Club, following dinner at Brees House. Mr. Brennan played for three years on the University team and following graduation, for a time played with the Green Bay Packers.

"I'm supposed to tell you the low-down on the grid team for the 1949 season," Brennan said, "and I want you to know it will be a winner. We are worried about one game, but we can't make up our mind which game it is."

Brennan told many of his experiences in college and professional football in an entertaining 30-minute talk.

Minstrel Show Friday, Saturday

PRODUCTS PLAYERS TO STAGE ENTERTAINMENT AT THE UNION HALL

An old time minstrel show will be presented by the Tecumseh Products Players in the United Products Workers Union Hall, tomorrow and Saturday evenings, April 29 and 30, starting at 8 p.m.

Silas Kring is directing the production assisted by Mrs. Edna Ramsay and Duncan Oliphant. As interlocutor, Harold Castle, and his end men will have the usual minstrel show jokes and corn. Among those scheduled to take pare are Wallace Whiting, who will render a baritone solo, "The Big Bass Viol;" Al Williams, Carl Thomas, John Brooks, jr., Jim Lister, Garth Hall, Lyle Harper, Ray Stockinger, Walter Atwell, Mr. Oliphant and Ralph Westgate. A girls chorus will be composed of Joan Burke, Audrey Shuck, Clara Rebottaro, Betty Fish and Doris Petee.

After the minstrel the olio will be in charge of Elmer Harper and will include the Four Knights of Harmony, barbershop quartette and a "surprise" quartette.

It was said there would be some talent scouts in the audience, possibly from the Arthur Godfrey show.

There will be a small admission charge at the door.

H. S. Baseball Schedule Ready

INDIANS ARE OPTIMISTIC AFTER WINNING FIRST THREE PRACTICE GAMES

Having won three practice games, Tecumseh high school baseballers are confident of a successful season with Elven Duvall coaching.

The team defeated Dundee eight to seven, coasted by Saline high 19 to nine and swamped Britton, when Mel Murphy went the full seven innings on the mound allowing only one hit and winning by a score of 22 runs to nothing.

The team had to postpone their opening league game with Clinton from April 22 to next Tuesday, May 3, at 3:15 p.m., because Mother Nature had made a huge mud pie of the diamond.

The following schedule has been announced:

April 26—Onsted, there, 2:30 p.m.
April 29—Morenci, there 4 p.m.
May 3—Clinton, here, 3:15 p.m.
May 3—Adrian high here, 3:15.
May 6—Pittsford, there, 3:15.
May 13—Addison, there, 3:15 p.m.
May 17—Hudson, here, 3:15 p.m.
May 19—Blissfield, here, 3:15 p.m.

Want To Play Ball?

If there is sufficient interest to warrant it, an inter-club baseball or softball league will be organized Elven Duvall, athletic director of Tecumseh high school, announced today.

Mr. Duvall said that many individuals had expressed a desire for such a league and that he will assist in arranging a schedule for practice sessions and games on the Recreation Center. All church groups, independents and club organizations are invited to participate in the league.

Any group interested should call Mr. Duvall soon at the high school or by phoning 542R after 7 p.m.

WESTMINSTER LEAGUE

The Westminster Junior League of the Presbyterian church will meet Tuesday evening, May 3, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Barton, 515 W. Pottawatamie st., with the husbands as guests. Each member is to bring sandwiches and either jello or cake.

PLAN FOR BANQUET

The Pythian Sisters mother and daughter banquet will be held this (Thursday) evening at 6:30 p.m.

New High School Has Its First Occupant

Tecumseh's new $400,000 high school has its first occupant and, soon, if all goes as nature would have it, there may be more.

Workmen, busy laying brick, cement and steel, Tuesday discovered that a robin had built her nest just below the danger line. The noise of hammers and saws failed to drive her from the eggs on which she was setting.

Construction men are respectfully working around the mother bird and each day they are keeping an open eye, hopeful that soon there'll be more robins.

Work is ahead of shedule on the new building on N. Maumee street but this much is certain. Unless it should happen accidentally, nothing will disturb Mrs. Robin in her efforts to increase the school's enrollment.

Plan Summer Play Program

BOARD MAY ENLIST FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE OF PARENTS TO FURTHER PROJECT

Playground activities for children of this community will again be provided during the summer months, the Tecumseh Community Recreation Center board announced today. Coach Elven Duvall has been engaged as recreation director and will have full charge of both field and program beginning June 6 and continuing through August 6.

"Unlike previous years, the board does not have sufficient funds available to completely underwrite the entire program and is seeking the cooperation of all parents who are interested in providing supervised activities for their children this summer," the board announcement said.

"This week each student in the school system will take home a letter of inquiry concerning the financing of the program," it was said. "The board believes that a two or three dollar enrollment fee will be sufficient to give all age groups an excellent program of instruction and play, covering activities such as tennis, softball, horseshoes, croquet, shuffleboard and many other sports. There will also be instructions in swimming, golf, and archery and supervised play for the small tots.

"The cooperation of everyone concerned will make this year's playground the best Tecumseh has ever had," it was said.

Fay Whelan is chairman of the board, Gene Judson, vice chairman and Austin Barber is secretary-treasurer. Other members are Forrest Abner, Paul Breitenwischer Elven Duvall and Maxwell Smith.

100-Man Chorus Coming on May 7

LARGEST INDUSTRIAL MUSICAL ORGANIZATION IN WORLD TO APPEAR HERE

The Dow Chemical Company's male chorus of 100 voices, the largest industrial musical organization in the world, will present a program here on Saturday evening, May 7, in the high school auditorium. The concert is under the auspices of Town Hall with the Rotary Club sponsoring the ticket sale.

"We are indeed fortunate to be able to bring such an outstanding musical organization to Tecumseh," Neville Hart, Town Hall director, said. "It is seldom that such a large group considers an engagement in a town as small as Tecumseh, and we trust that local folk realize the opportunity for attendance."

Tickets to the program are now on sale in five downtown stores; at Butler Motor Sales, The Tecumseh Herald, Sluyter Electric, The Flower Shop and Jones Insurance Agency. At Products, tickets also may be obtained from the personnel offices.

The Chorus was to have appeared here early this month but the engagement was cancelled when the president of the Dow company, his wife and three others were killed in a plane crash. The May 7 date was substituted and tickets sold for the cancelled date will be honored next week.

Vets Must File Tax Exemptions

DISABLED VETERANS, UNMARRIED WIDOWS ENTITLED TO STATE PRIVILEGE

Service men receiving disability payments from the government and unmarried widows of service men must file applications for tax exemption with the township supervisor or the village assessor prior to June 7 if they desire to take advantage of their tax privilege, it was announced today.

Under the law, service men or unmarried widows of service men who own property and use it as a homestead, and provided the total assessed value of all property owned is $7,500 or less are entitled to a $2,000 assessment exemption. The law further provides that the veteran claiming exemption must have a service connected disability on which he is receiving an income or, if a widow, must be unmarried.

Applications for exemption locally should be filed with LeRoy Titley, township supervisor, and John Saling, village assessor. Exemption applications must be filed before the annual meeting of the board of review, which this year will be in session on June 7 and 8 and 13 and 14.

If veterans or widows do not file an exemption certificate then the board is powerless to provide any tax relief. Spanish War veterans and their unmarried widows are entitled to file, it was said.

Last year, according to Mr. Titley, there were 32 applications for exemptions in this township. Titley expects that the number will be increased this year because several disabled veterans have recently purchased property.

Visiting Nurse Program O.K.'d

SERVICE WOULD BE OFFERED BY HOSPITAL IN EFFORT TO RELIEVE CONGESTION

The inauguration of a visiting nurse program in connection with the services offered by Tecumseh Hospital won the approval of members of the board of that institution and a score of business and civic leaders when the plan was discussed at a meeting, held Tuesday evening in the conference room of the Tecumseh Products Co. In all probability, the program will get under way within a few days, or as quickly as the hospital can arrange for the services of a suitable nurse.

At the present time and for weeks on end, Tecumseh Hospital has been crowded to capacity. Yesterday, the only bed vacancies at the hospital thus far this month, it was said, were two. The 8 o'clock count at the hospital on Wednesday morning was 26 adults and nine infants. The hospital's capacity load is 34 adults and 16 infants. Forty-two infants have been born at the hospital hus far this month.

Because of the crowded condition, it is the hope of the hospital board to be able to release some patients from the institution earlier than usual and assist with their care in their own homes through the services of a visiting nurse. Some maternity cases, it was said, might go home two or three days earlier than usual if nursing service is available, making room for new patients at the hospital. There also are other types of patients who would benefit under the program.

The entire thought of the visiting nurse program was for the benefit of the community. It would make possible more beds at the hospital for the sick who might otherwise be unable to be admitted; it would speed up the return of patients to their homes and relieve hospital bills and, finally, it would provide some nursing service to those who are ill in their homes and who could not be admitted to the hospital or who desired to remain at home.

The service would be operated by the hospital and a charge of the nurses service fee of $1.50 or $2.00 a visit would be paid to the hospital by the patient. When the nurse was not busy making visitations her services would be used within the hospital, it was said.

The meeting Tuesday was called by the Hospital Auxiliary of which Mrs. Dale Bowen is president. Mrs. Bowen presided at the meeting. Mrs. Lena Sherman, nurse consultant of the Michigan Department of Health, and Miss Pearl Haist of the Lenawee Health Department, were in attendance.

Plans are under way for the enlargement of the hospital here but are being delayed until a suitable program for financing can be arranged.

MINIMUM WAGE PROBLEM

The great increase in living costs has created an understandable demand for an increase in the minimum wage. However, we should realize the dangers that would result if the minimum wage were raised to too high a level.

The minimum wage is precisely what the name implies. It is the bare minimum on which a worker can maintain himself. It is not supposed to provide for even the simplest luxuries. It is, in other words, the wage paid to a very small minority of workers who are completely inexperienced, are learners, or are congenitally incompetent and unambitious and cannot develop even minor skills. It is designed to protect this class of workers from employer exploitation, and that is all.

Any worker, with a bare minimum of aptitude, and a desire to get ahead, soon passes out of the minimum wage bracket. He is given higher pay for the sound reason that he is worth more, can do more things, can produce more.

It has been agreed that a relatively high minimum wage would make little difference because it would affect comparatively few people. But past experience indicates that this theory just doesn't work out in practice. For example, when minimum pay is raised, the unskilled worker may receive nearly as much as a skilled worker.

New favorites John Lund and Wanda Hendrix are in the hilarious comedy "Miss Tatlocks Millions." Old favorites Barry Fitzgerald and Monty Woolley co-star, at The Strand, May 1 and 2.

The latter naturally becomes dissatisfied, and demands more for himself. So it goes, all the way up the line of job classifications and pay scales. Inflation gets another big boost forward.

A high minimum wage could lessen opportunity for beginners, for the reason that industry would have to hold costs down by employing as few of them as possible. This is clearly a case where we should move carefully, and only after exhaustive analysis of all the potentialities.

How We Licked The Parking Problem

For a while it looked like we'd have to put up parking meters. Folks working in town—including some of the store owners—were taking up all of the space along Main Street.

● Farmers coming in to shop never found a place to park, and sometimes had to lug stuff a half mile or so. Some started to do their buying in other towns. Finally, store owners and farmers had a get-together—with the result that the empty field near the depot was fixed up for all-day parkers.

Now farmers get their shopping done comfortably, and the merchants have a better place to park than they had before. Just took a little friendly co-operation to make everybody happy.

From where I sit, most differences can be ironed out by just talking things over—maybe with a cup of coffee or glass of beer—and seeing the other person's side of it. Next time you have a problem or a little difference to settle, why not try just that?

Dearborn FARM EQUIPMENT

Some folks say a cultivator ought to "let air into the soil," "help retain moisture" etc. We say you cultivate to get rid of weeds. The other things are important, but knocking out weeds is number one. And we'll show you the cultivator that does it.

What's more, this cultivator can be attached to the Ford Tractor in about a minute! Now, that is a big advantage . . . especially when changing from cultivating to mowing and back again. Time surely is money now.

Study the pictures! See how easy cultivating is with Ford Hydraulic Touch Control. Let us demonstrate this cultivator for you. Rigid or spring shanks.

Ford TRACTOR

Ford Hydraulic Touch Control makes it easy to lift the cultivator for turning.

State Sounds Rabies Warning

DISEASE IS SPREAD AMONG DOGS, HORSES, CATS AND SQUIRRELS

This is the time of year when rabies is spread among dogs. Have your own dog vaccinated, avoid all stray dogs, and report any animal bites to your physician at once, the Michigan Department of Health warned today.

Rabies in dogs is hydrophobia in humans. While from 14 to 21 daily antirabic treatments given immediately after an animal bite will usually prevent hydrophobia in humans, the treatment is unpleasant, and is not always successful. Hydrophobia, once developed, is always fatal in either humans or animals.

Only the enforced vaccination and licensing of all dogs, the impounding of stray dogs, and the quarantine of all areas infected with rabies can cut the danger to humans and valuable animals.

Under present circumstances, for every rabid dog reported in the state, seven humans who have either been bitten or been in close contact with the infected animal require antirabic treatment. Last year approximately 2000 people had to undergo the painful and costly treatment. One little girl was so severely bitten that she died of the disease in spite of the fact that she was given the antirabid treatment.

Not only dogs, but also cows, horses, cats, skunks, squirrels, foxes and many other animals can have rabies and give it to humans; but vaccination of all dogs will virtually eliminate the danger of hydrophobia. This has been proven in England and in Scandanavian countries where the disease in animals and humans is now virtually unknown.

If a dog seems ill or bites a person do not kill the dog, but confine him away from all possible contact with humans for ten days. If he dies not die in the ten day period he does not have rabies. If he dies, laboratory diagnosis of his brain is still necessary to determine, for sure, whether he had rabies.

Because anti-rabic treatment of people bitten about the head and face must be started immediately after the bite, this examination is of the utmost importance. If the animal had rabies the treatment must be continued for 21 days, and treatment if others bitten by or in close contact with the animal must be started. If the animal does not have rabies, treatment may be stopped or need not be instituted.

If to protect humans, it is necessary to kill a biting dog, do not shoot him through the head, nor club him on the head. His brain tissues must be studied to determine whether he has rabies.

If a dog dies under conditions which might indicate rabies, police or health officers should remove his head, properly prepare it and ship it to the Michigan Department of Health or the Pasteur Institute Laboratories in Ann Arbor for analysis.

For additional information on rabies go to your local health department or write Michigan Department of Health, Lansing 4.

FOR LADY ANGLERS ONLY . . . The best stocked trout stream in North Carolina is Neef's creek, near Mt. Mitchell; but it is strictly for lady anglers only. About The Folks You Know

When someone said "Let's paint the town red," evidently it wasn't expected to be taken literally. Tecumseh is being painted, not red, but white and various other colors, which include a pink and maroon combination and a yellow, both of which have made an appearance within the past week . . . All this in preparation for the big celebration the Chamber is planning for this summer.

Now that the Chamber has discovered our sister city, Tecumseh, Ontario, it is interesting to note that at the time Tecumseh had a population of 2400, the census of both Tecumseh, Nebraska and Tecumseh, Oklahoma, was 2400 . . . Perhaps these two communities have progressed, too, and are similar to our own community.

Playing a recital on the new Aeolian 37-rank pipe organ with its chimes, harps, etc., at the Augsburg Lutheran church in Toledo, Sunday evening, Thomas J. Tonnebergur afforded an evening of enjoyment for nearly 300 persons . . . At one time in the home of an owner of the Penobscot Building in Detroit, the organ had been rebuilt by the Aeolian company and had only recently been installed in the Augsburg church . . . The Tonneberger families attended from here.

Bert "Fuzzy" Mominee was taken to Grace Hospital in Detroit, Saturday, by Mr. and Mrs. Leo Alderdyce and Mrs. Leland Randall . . . Tuesday an operation was performed in an attempt to prevent the amputation of his foot . . . His daughter, Mrs. Randall and son Bob, and his sister, Mrs. Dora Rice, visited him Tuesday . . . On Sunday, Mrs. Randall's sister, Mrs. Alderdyce, fell downstairs at her home, injuring her shoulder and hip . . . She is confined to her bed and her mother-in-law, Mrs. Thomas Alderdyce of Onsted, is caring for her.

Workmen are busy digging out the basement of the Presbyterian church and the remodeling project is progressing according to schedule . . . The Westminster Junior League of the church is sponsoring a dance at the high school gymnasium tomorrow (Friday) evening to raise money, the proceeds of which will go into the building fund . . . Tecumseh Products Chieftains will furnish the music for dancing.

Mrs. Robert Manchester treated the Red Rose troop No. 1 of the Brownie Scouts with refreshments Tuesday afternoon honoring the birthday of her daughter, Mary . . . Mrs. George Wittrup and Mrs. A. L. VanWinkle are leaders of the troop.

Every year at this time when Spring fever hits the students at the high school "Sponge Week" follows it up . . . Climaxed by a Sadie Hawkins dance in the gymnasium Friday night the week consisted of a series of special days, such as gum chewing day, old clothes day, etc. . . . On Thursday the boys came to school all dressed up in women's clothing and vice-versa for the girls, and one of the classes presented an assembly program . . . Another special event of the week was an outstanding musical program by some professionals.

Things are looking up these days and so are folks . . . fascinated by the tree trimmers as they go from limb to limb weeding out the dead branches.

Detect Cancer In Early Stage

TWICE A YEAR PHYSICAL EXAM FOR PERSONS OVER 40 URGED BY SOCIETY

In the past year in Michigan 1,732 persons have been examined at seven detection centers and 75 cancers have been uncovered, Mrs. Paul J. Weaver, county commander, Lenawee Unit, the American Cancer Society, declared today.

In releasing the figures, the commander declared, "These indicate the value of a searching physical examination as a measure of cancer control. Many of the cancers diagnosed were early and have an excellent chance of cure. The chief significance of the detection center is to demonstrate the importance of the periodic physical examination. Every citizen in the county should make arrangements with a physician for a complete cancer control examination."

Detection centers are operated with funds distributed to county units during the spring financial drive of the American Cancer Society in Barry, Calhoun, Ingham, Kent, Marquette, Menominee and Saginaw county units. This year, the combined budgets of these counties is $19,009.32 for the centers. In each instance, the establishment of the center has been with the approval of the County Medical Society, whose physicians serve as volunteers in manning the centers. Moderate examination fees ($5 to $7) are charged for those able to pay; those without funds are examined without fee.

"The American Cancer Society," the commander said, "recommends a complete physical examination once a year for every person under forty, twice a year for those older. The Society tells us that every physician's office can and should become a cancer detection center. That is our goal for Michigan."

Miss Grace Radscheid Weds Harry Barnard

Miss Grace Radscheid, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adolf Radscheid of Eastbrook Avenue, Toledo, and Harry Barnard, son of Mrs. Hazel Barnard of Clinton, were united in marriage Saturday afternoon by the Rev. J. W. Wahl at 4:30 o'clock in the Lutheran Reformation church in Toledo.

The bride chose white lace over satin for her wedding gown. Her veil was fingertip length and she carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations.

Attending the bride, Mrs. Earl Radscheid of Cleveland was gowned in green and carried a shower bouquet of pink carnations. Edward Judge of Clinton attended his cousin as best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Barnard are residing at 108 West Pottawatamie street in the apartment house of Mrs. Martha Orr Murphy. Mr. Barnard is employed in the office of the Tecumseh Products Company.

SUCTION OIL CHANGER DOES JOB FASTER

This spring when car owners drive into service stations or car dealer shops for an oil change, something new may be in store for them . . . A new way to remove the oil from the engine in as little as two minutes without removing the drain plug.

No longer is it necessary to wait for just an oil change when grease pits or hoists are occupied. Nor is it necessary for attendants to creep under cars to remove the drain plug. A new, automatic, electric oil changer does the dirty work. The machine which accomplishes the job is essentially a suction pump which draws oil from the engine like a bobby soxer drinks a milk shake through a straw. The attendant merely removes the dip-stick gauge and in its place, inserts a bayonet-like tube which is connected to the pump. The switch is turned on and in a few seconds the customer sees the old oil come out.

The changer is a portable machine which is rolled right to the car. Oil is removed while the gas tank is being filled or as the tires are checked. W. Hal Marshall of Tecumseh is the local distributor.

JOB EXCHANGER . . . Ada Fishburn, 24, British factory worker who swapped jobs with an American factory girl for a month, is shown packing away an armful of gifts and merchandise, especially canned goods which she cannot easily get in England, preparatory to the trip home.

Ladies Night Enjoyed By Exchange Club

Ladies Night was observed by the Tecumseh Exchange Club with a banquet at the Legion Home, last week Wednesday evening. Some 100 persons were in attendance to hear James Welch, the old traveler.

Mr. Welch entertained his audience with tales of the early pioneer days, giving colorful descriptions of the trails leading to the western coast. He told of points of interest along the way, famous landmarks, towns and stores connected with the old places.

Miss Marilyn Lindsley played two piano selections and Wallace Whiting rendered two baritone solos, accompanied by Mrs. J. W. Spafford at the piano.

At the regular meeting of the Exchange Club, Monday evening, plans were discussed to send two teams to the state bowling tournament next Sunday. Richard Haight is the new Junior Exchangite.

ALL-AMERICAN FRESHMAN . . . "Miss All-American Freshman" s the title bestowed on smiling Marilyn Overby, freshman at the University of Florida, in a contest to find the most beautiful coed in The United States. Miss Overby a 18, will get a Hollywood trip.

Officers Are Elected By B. & P. W. Club

Mrs. George French was elected president of the Tecumseh Business and Professional Woman's Club, following dinner at the Baptist church, Monday evening. Other officers named are: first vice president, Miss Mable Lockwood; second vice president, Mrs. Dale Tingley; secretary, Mrs. Grenval Spangler; corresponding secretary, Mrs. George Hay; treasurer, Mrs. Duaine Service. The nominating committee included Mrs. Hazel Creger, Mrs. Irene Boltz and Miss Beatrice Daykin.

Some 40 members were in attendance. Miss Lellah Wuerthner was in charge of devotions preceding dinner. A very impressive memorial service for the late Miss Jennie Gillespie, a former charter member, was conducted by Miss Ruth Harding.

The auction sale of which Mrs. M. G. Partridge, Miss Herrice Parker and Mrs. Creger were in charge, netted some $46. Mrs. Spangler gave a report of the county federation meeting held last Thursday in Blissfield. An announcement was made of the Adult Education program in Ann Arbor May 10, 11 and 12.

The committee appointed to make favors for the next meeting includes Mrs. Anna Hardenburg, Mrs. Yale Kerby and Mrs. Leon VanValkenburg. Mrs. Howard Truesdale will install the new officers.

PRESBYTERIAN LEAGUE

The Presbyterian League will meet Tuesday evening, May 3, at the home of Mrs. E. J. Aebersold with Mrs. Wilbur Boyce as assisting hostess. Mrs. John Lott has charge of devotions and Mrs. Al Bagshaw will present Mrs. Earl Place as guest speaker. The rummage and bake sale planned for this Saturday has been postponed until a later date.

V. F. W. IN CHARGE OF GEE FUNERAL

In last weeks issue of The Herald an error was made in the notice of the funeral service held for Thomas Orrin Gee, returned from overseas for reburial here. It stated that the American Legion post of Britton was in charge of the military service at the grave. That is not correct. The service at the grave was conducted by members of Hall-Slater post Veterans of Foreign Wars, of Tecumseh. The pallbearers were members of the American Legion post of Britton.

Pharaoh still would not permit the children of Israel to leave Egypt. So, Moses told him that ten plagues would be set upon the Egyptians if this consent were not given.

Pharoah would not consent, so the waters of the rivers turned to blood . . . a horde of frogs came out of the rivers and infested the houses . . . the dust of the land of Egypt turned into lice and were on every man and beast . . . great swarms of flies were in the land . . . a disease killed all the cattle of Egypt, but spared the cattle of the Israelites . . . a plague of boils infected the Egyptians . . . a hailstorm ruined all the crops of the Egyptians, yet spared the crops of the children of Israel . . . hordes of locusts covered the entire earth, and ate every green thing in the land . . . and for three days the land was covered in darkness.

Yes, Pharoah still hardened his heart, and refused his consent.

The tenth plague, which was the most severe, was to kill all the first born of the Egyptians. Still Pharaoh refused to listen. And, as the children of Israel marked their homes and were spared, the Angel of the Lord came down and killed the first born of every Egyptian home. Not a home was spared.

Your modern pilgrimage is your weekly visit to your church. It needs you—you need it. Attend every week.

Non-Partisan News Letter

By Gene Alleman
(Special to The Herald)

State Treasurer D. Hale Brake is of the opinion that consolidation of state departments and boards is not the answer to the state's financial problem.

"The only way the legislature can bridge the gap between receipts and disbursements without new money is to discontinue services now given the people to the extent of some $40 to $50 millions," states Mr. Brake.

"Consolidation of departments and boards might possibly save a little money, although such consolidation is just as likely to result in increasing the expenditures. Major consolidations that we have had to date has done just that. The only material saving that could be made would be not by consolidation or reorganization but by elimination of services."

Including federal grants-in-aid and special funds like the highway fund, game and fish funds and so on, the grand total was $462,982,857.58.

Out of this amount, the legislature exercises control over about $221 millions. If you deduct the earmarked school money, now regulated by the state constitution, the net sum is approximately $140 millions—30 per cent of the total.

If the legislature is responsible for spending of only 30 per cent of the state's total of tax-collected funds, who should be blamed if a deficit develops at Lansing?

Revenue adjusments plus new economies are being counted on by Republican leaders to avert, or at least minimize, the prospective deficit in the state treasury. Governor Williams recently scolded solons because of an anticipated $71 million deficit. G. O. P. hopes count on $12 million more in sales tax by plugging leaks, $20 million more by a used car transfer tax, $11 million shifted to local school districts to pay for teachers' retirement, $6 millions saved by not repealing the old age assistance lien and recovery provisions, and an estimated $11 million surplus as of June 30, 1949.

Check forgers are milking tens of thousands of dollars annually out of Michigan retail merchants. The national harvest is estimated at $15,000,000. Forgers usually try to out-talk clerks into accepting checks without providing accurate identification. Never accept a social security card, bank pass book or hunting license. Ask for drivers' licenses or police identification card containing photograph and fingerprint.

Michigan's direct relief load is is the highest since February, 1942. The cost of living index, U. S. department of labor, has dropped for the fifth consecutive month. Economists say present deflation has yet to run its full course; business will continue to slacken; 1949 will be a good year by prewar standards.

County road commissions favor the Michigan Good Roads Federation program for a $29,000,000 boost in gasoline tax and weight fees. Transportation companies are opposed . . . Taxpayers would save $20,000,000 a year through maximum interest rates for automobile installment payments, according to Senator Harry F. Hittle (R-Lansing), sponsor of a bill just approved by the Senate.

A move to merge the presidential and state ballots lost in the Senate . . . House Bill 238, liberalizing unemployment compensation payments, is being criticized by employers as creating a state dole for workers, knocking out the present merit rating for steady employment.

Old age assistance is becoming old age pensions in some states. California has a $75 per month pension for persons at the age of 62. The added cost to the state's tax load is estimated at $118 millions for the next fiscal year.

A new type of building block, made out of concrete and sawdust, has been tested by Michigan State College and found to be satisfactory. A Chesaning man erected a home, 22 by 24 feet, at a cost of $1,500.

Dan Gerber, president of the baby food company at Fremont, heads a committee of the Michigan Economic Development Commission seeking new industries and payrolls for Michigan. It is proposed to speed up tree planting to help revive wood products industries. Manufacturers would be assured of adequate water resources through a state-wide program of water conservation.

Laying off of workers by industries in some Michigan cities has intensified Chamber of Commerce efforts to attract new manufacturing firms to the state. The deflation has also lessened the chances of legislative approval of a state tax on corporation profits. The general idea seems to be: You can't woo and tax industry at the same time.

Cost per-pupil to teach driver-training in Michigan's high schools, including teachers' salaries, averages just under $16, according to an Auto Club survey.

There's a Genunin' Lot O' Dickerin' In This Hoss-Tradin', Garagin' Business

Fellers drive in here with the'r ol' animuls and we's supposed to look at the critter and set a price on her what's fair. Some fellers wont get off the seat to let you look at the cushions even. Just sits and says, "How much?" And when you tell him, kinda blushin' like, he says, "Taint 'nuf." And then he goes on and tells yuh all her good points—some that is, some that aint—most that aint. Yep. Never took in a critter yit but the feller that traded her didn't admit she was betterin' new. Just broke in—broke up, we says.

There's a lot to this garagin', yes suh! When we take in these old critters we either fix em up so we knows their right or we sends em to the bone yard. We don't peddle animuls whats got permanent heaves, no suh. When we sells yuh a car she's just as we says she is or there's no sale. That's the way we got our reputashun in this business and thats the way we're goin' to keep it.

Right now we have some good steeds in our stabul that we can look yuh right in the eye and tell yuh about. That Cowboy Harvey Wilson's been roundin' up some deals that are dandy. If yuhr lookin' for a swap what's right, just check over the listin' below and then drive your old plug down to the stabul. We'll give yuh an honest swap, or yuh can buy our hoss outright.

$15 Tax Rate Seems Assured

Tecumseh property owners may be reasonably assured that the village tax rate this summer will again be $15 per $1,000 assessed valuation, all of the money to be alloted to the general highway, sewer and cemetery funds. Council, in session on Monday evening, attempted to work out a budget for the new fiscal year but held actual figures until assessment rolls have been completed and the board of review has held its sessions. The board meets on June 7 and 8 and 13 and 14.

The tentative budget established calls for the placing of 5½ of the 15 mill levy in the highway fund, 8 mills in the sewer fund, ½ mill in the general fund and 1 mill in the cemetery fund. Ther was no allocation to the water fund, Council feeling that the department should be self-sufficient and operate from collection rental fees.

To eliminate overdrafts in some of the funds, Council authorized the transfer of $2,000 from the sewer fund to the general fund and $2,000 from the meter fund to the highway fund. The meter fund was established when parking meters were authorized and the fund had a $2,600 balance before the transfer.

A. B. Hammond and Lester Rogers were named as village members of the board of review.

The resignation of Leo Smith as chief of police was accepted and E. W. Bowen was named to succeed him. Carl Leonard, fire truck driver, has submitted a verbal resignation to the council, effective May 10, but a successor has not been chosen. W. Dean Hamilton was named a village police officer. The local police force is now composed of the chief and four men.

Chamber of Commerce officials recently visited the Canadian town of Tecumsch and that community is anxious to share in the local program which will mark Tecumseh, Michigan's 125th anniversary.

Cole, 76, who died Saturday, April 30, at 7:45 a.m., in the University hospital in Ann Arbor, where he had been a patient for several weeks. He had been in failing health for the past three years. Dr. Norman MacNaughton officiated and burial was in Brookside cemetery. The bearers were Jake Styer, Earl Lindsley, Nate Smith, Cecil Williams, Chris Taylor and C. C. Richard. Friends and relatives attended from Mt. Rose, Bay City, Saginaw, Palmyra, Adrian and Tecumseh.

Will Enforce Bicycle Code

ORDINANCE REQUIRES LICENSE AT 50c A YEAR TO BE ISSUED BY POLICE

Tecumseh police announced today that the village ordinance requiring that bicycles be licensed is now in effect.

The new law, recently approved by the council, provides that in the future all bicycles operated in the Village of Tecumseh, must bear a license plate issued by the police and that the license must be renewed annually. The cost of the license for the first year is 50 cents and in subsequent years for the same bicycle 25 cents. The transfer of a license in the event of sale also costs 25 cents.

Owners of bicycles must report to police immediately to have the metal license plate attached to their vehicles. In the event the bicycle is sold the owner must report the sale to police and the new owner must do likewise. It is unlawful to destroy a license tag.

The new law has teeth in it, providing that violators may be punished by a fine of not more than $100 or a jail term of not more than 90 days or both, in the discretion of the court.

Village authorities explained that the purpose of the new ordinance is not a money-making scheme but rather an attempt on the part of police to keep a more accurate account of bicycles owned. At the present time, it was said, when a bicycle is reported stolen it is seldom that the owner knows the serial number to say nothing of the name.

With the license tag firmly attached to the bike and other data about the vehicle recorded with police, it is believed that it will be much more simple in the future to trace lost or stolen bicycles.

Licenses will be issued by police at their headquarters in the Council building.

Mother's Day

You went to her for courage in your hour of despair,
And often 'twas her faith that made you strong enough to bear
Your heavy disappointments, and to hold unswervingly
The charted course that led you to your soul's high destiny.

But did you ever wonder where she went for fortitude,
Or by what means her waning strength was constantly renewed?
The many irritations of your hurried, busy day
You pointed out, that she might see how rough they made your way.

But did you ever notice, as you walked a smoother road,
That worries you were rid of had added to her load?
We each should bear our burdens, but in one way or 'other,
Most of us simply pick them up . . . and carry them to Mother.

State To Study Accident Causes

STEADY RISE IN MISHAPS TO BE CONFERENCE TOPIC AT DETROIT

DETROIT—How to halt the alarming rise in traffic accidents in Michigan will be the theme of a two-day Traffic Law Enforcement Training Institute, which will be one of the highlights of the 19th annual Michigan Safety Conference to be held at the Book-Cadillac Hotel in Detroit May 17-20.

Capt. C. J. Scavarda, commanding officer of the Michigan State Police Safety and Traffic Bureau, today announced that the program of the Conference's Traffic Law Enforcement Division will be staffed by leading national authorities on traffic law enforcement: the Safety Division of the International Association of Chiefs of Police and the Traffic Institute of Northwestern University.

"We must provide training for police personnel in all the cities and towns of Michigan," Capt. Scavarda said. "This training which we plan to give at the Safety Conference is essential so that they meet their responsibilities as traffic law enforcement officers, and so that their enforcement efforts will tend to give aid, direction and guidance to the motoring public. Our objective is to have voluntary compliance with the motor vehicle laws."

"Without this kind of training, we cannot have voluntary compliance," he emphasized.

Capt. Scavarda said the state's traffic fatality total in March, as yet unpublished, was "the worst yet," that in February, 85 were killed—a 33 per cent increase over the same month in 1948. This upswing follows a trend which began last November. Since that time 115, or 27 per cent more Michigan deaths have been recorded than in the comparable period in 1948.

Among the subjects covered in the institute program are personnel control, enforcement planning and speed control. An unusual feature will be a discussion and demonstration of "the effect of alcohol on the human being as related to driving ability." The demonstration will be given by Dr. Clarence Muehlberger, director of the State Crime Detection Laboratory.

Several hundred law enforcement officials from all parts of the state have been invited to attend the institute, Capt. Scavarda said.

I will not be in my office from May 19 to May 27 inclusive.

Campbell, was enjoyed by members of Tecumseh Rotary, Tuesday evening, following dinner at Brees House. Mr. Campbell, a former president of the local club, is chairman of the magazine committee for the year 1948-49.

"Of all of the magazines that come into my home, I get more real 'meat' out of the Rotarian," Campbell said. He pointed out that the magazine is found in every country throughout the world and is repeatedly quoted by other outstanding publications.

100-MAN CHORUS TO PRESENT ENTERTAINMENT AT THE HIGH SCHOOL HERE

The world's largest industrial musical group, a 100-man chorus from the Dow Chemical Company, Midland, will present a program at the high school auditorium here on Saturday evening, May 7, at 8:30, under the auspices of Town Hall. With the chorus will be a trio, made up of violin, cello and piano, also rated as one of the top musical groups in the country.

"We feel that we are very fortunate in being able to bring this fine entertainment to Tecumseh," Neville Hart, Town Hall director, said. "It is seldom that such a large group of entertainers considers presenting a program in a community as small as Tecumseh, and I sincerely hope that a capacity audience will be on hand to receive them."

Tickets for the Town Hall program have been on sale for several weeks and in the downtown area they may be purchased from Butler Motor Sales, The Tecumseh Herald, Wade Jones' offices, Sluyter Electric and the Flower Shop. Tickets also are available at the personnel offices at Tecumseh Products.

The chorus was to have appeared here last month but the date was cancelled when the president of Dow Chemical, his wife and three other persons were killed in a plane crash. The date this week-end was made later.

All tickets sold for the April concert will be honored, it was said, and persons desiring may buy tickets at the door if room is available.

Baptists Enjoy Big Church Year

BOTH ATTENDANCE AND INCOME ON INCREASE; NEW OFFICERS ARE ELECTED

Transacting over $12,000 worth of business in service and improvements and receiving 40 persons into membership within the past church year, which ended May 1, the Tecumseh Baptist church has recorded its most prosperous year. It was revealed at the annual meeting of the membership last week Wednesday evening, following a potluck supper.

An average attendance of 114 in the church was reported as was an increase of 14 over last year's total in the church school. Preaching at the North Rome church for the past three months and watching the attendance grow from an average of 12 to an average of 93 in that time, Rev. B. O. Bashore said in his report that this could be considered a missionary project for the church.

On a goal of $1,200, the total of the missionary offerings amounted to $1,417.39, with another $179 for other missionary projects. Among the gifts received within the past year was the Hammond organ presented through a bequest from the late Mrs. Lena VanValkenburg Wells and the chimes by Mrs. Bertha Hoag, and the Dean, Leon and Faye VanValkenburg families.

The report of the nominating committee was read by Miss Elizabeth Chase and the following officers were elected unanimously: deacons for three years, Faye Van Valkenburg and Herbert Hoag; junior deacons for one year, Roger Butler and Robert Bird; deaconess for three years, Mrs. Lyle Grigg; junior deaconesses for one year, Lola Lou Lanning and Dorothy Ruff; trustees for three years, Glenn Kohler and Robert L. French; church clerk, Mrs. Clifford Curran; church treasurer, Carl Posbender; financial secretary, Mrs. Carl Posbender; benevolence treasurer, Mrs. Mills Swick; church school superintendent, Clifford Curran; publicity, Miss Dorothy Schumm. Last year Ben J. Roberts was named an honorary deacon for life.

Rev. and Mrs. Bashore were named delegates to the Northern Baptist Convention to be held in San Francisco, Calif., May 30 to June 5.

German Student Speaks To Club

WIT AND WISDOM CLUB HOLDS ANNUAL BANQUET; NEW OFFICERS TAKE OVER

The Tecumseh Wit and Wisdom Club closed its year with the annual banquet held Monday evening in the Baptist church. Dinner was served to some 40 members by the Good Cheer class of the church on tables centered with attractive arrangements of spring flowers and May baskets of violets at either end.

To a very receptive audience, Miss Gertrude Leutheuser, a German student at Adrian College living with relatives here, spoke interestingly of her homeland. First comparing the German schools, churches, agriculture and life in general with that in America, the speaker related her personal experiences during and after the war and the problems that confront the country today. "I know that America is the land of opportunity and it is my desire to remain here," Miss Leutheuser said in concluding her address, after which she answered many questions. She has recently been offered a scholarship by the Friends Service Committee to attend a camp in Arizona this summer for the purpose of fostering international goodwill.

The program opened with a number by the girls quartet composed of Jolene Barron, Cynthia Spafford, Betty Jo Hanna and Pauline Bargshar accompanied by Mrs. Spafford, and after the main address the group entertained with another number.

During the business meeting, Mrs. Orville Laidlaw, the retiring president, presented the new president, Leon VanValkenburg, who announced the following committees: picnic, Mr. and Mrs. Faye VanValkenburg and Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Partridge; program, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Branigin, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Laidlaw and Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Sheldon. Storm Blamed In Two Deaths

TRAFFIC MISHAPS NUMEROUS DURING SUNDAY EVENING'S RAIN AND WIND

Sunday evening's rain and windstorm that made driving hazardous, at times halting traffic, was blamed for a series of accidents in which two persons were killed and at least five others injured. Although Tecumseh felt the storm's fury, reports indicate that the rain and wind were heavier in the southwest area of the county and in Adrian.

The two fatalities happened about 7:30 Sunday evening on M-34 about six miles west of Adrian. The dead are George M. Swift, 69, and his wife, Isabell, 65, both of Canandaigua. Five others, two from Adrian, were seriously hurt in the two-car accident.

The injured are: Carrie Rathbun, 84, Adrian; Mrs. Theresa Root, 75, Adrian; Dr. Edwin Rice, 47, his wife, Mrs. Alta Rice, 45, and their daughter, Verna, 17, all of Plymouth.

The Swifts were driving west on M-34 after visiting in Adrian. The Rice car was going east and Miss Rathbun and Mrs. Root were passengers in that car. From all indications officers said, the cars struck nearly head-on. The Swifts were thrown from their car, as were the occupants of the Rice vehicle.

The accident happened during the blinding rainstorm and traffic was backed up in both directions for more than a mile. All of the injured were removed to Bixby Hospital, Adrian, by ambulance.

The heavy downpour resulted in many near accidents on M-52 and there were scattered minor accidents in other sections, officers reported.

The rain was the heaviest of the Spring season, nearly an inch and a half of water falling during a brief period. The storm broke shortly before 7 p.m., and small streets were flooded, sewers being unable to carry the water away as rapidly as it fell.

New Officers Installed By Hall, Slater Post

New officers of the Hall-Slater post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, were installed last week Wednesday evening, following supper at 6:30 p.m., served by members of the Ladies Auxiliary in the post rooms. William Sutton of Monroe, junior vice commander of the sixth district, was the installing officer.

YOUR PURCHASING AGENT

The Bureau of Labor Statistics reports that the February drop in living costs was the largest since its monthly index was started nine years ago. The drop to date has nearly wiped out the total 1948 increase. One major factor was a decline in food prices—at 10 to 12 per cent below the peak of last July.

At the end of March, an executive of an association made up of both chain and independent dry goods stores said that current market procedures of retailers reflect their inherent position as purchasing agents for the consumer. Specifically, retailing is doing everything it can to make available to its customers the merchandise they want, at the particular time they want it, and at the lowest possible price.

The two foregoing items from the news on the economic front are of direct interest to everyone. The drop in the cost of living resulted from various conditions—notably the return of the buyers' market in many basic lines, and an increasing choosiness on the part of the consumer. In a free economy, where competition is the driving force, every producer and merchandiser must keep his eye firmly fixed on the shifting wind of consumer preference. Those who fail in this, soon lose their trade to the factory or the store down the street which does a better job of serving the public.

It is impossible to compute just how much retailing has done in reducing prices, and in holding price increases to the lowest possible level. But retail mark-ups have grown smaller, and are below the level prevailing under OPA. Unit profits have also been reduced, even as overhead costs have been parted. This has been a major contribution to the preservation of our living standards.

Recreation Important For Summer Tourists

Tourists who come to Lenawee county recreational areas each year are seeking more than food and shelter, say Michigan State College tourist and resort specialists.

Keeping them occupied with interesting activities is important for the resort operator. County agricultural agent Louis G. Hall announces receipt of a new bulletin, "Outdoor Games for Guest Entertainment," which lists a number of recreational activities.

Robert W. McIntosh, MSC tourist and resort specialist, has prepared the publication to give details of a well-planned guest entertainment program. He points out that playing games provides healthful outdoor recreation, a good subject for conversation, and an opportunity for all to become better acquainted.

In many successful resorts, the manager assumes leadership in outdoor games. Much of the equipment is simple and easy to make. For the most part, the games can be provided at rather low cost. McIntosh believes that a good games program is an important builder of good will and return patronage.

Take these Buick prices given here. All of them, as the panel tells you, cover such universally wanted accessories as radio and antenna, heater and defroster, windshield washers and built-in back-up lights.

These are individually itemized on your bill of sale. Not itemized, but still included in your Buick when you get it, are many things that classify as extra-cost items on many other cars.

For instance, Foamtex seat cushions are an extra value on Buick SUPERS and ROADMASTERS that cost you nothing extra. You get direction signals, rear wheel shields, a flexible steering wheel, an air cleaner, an oil filter, a clock—all included in the basic list price. On all ROADMASTERS, these prices even cover Dynaflow Drive as standard equipment, not an extra-cost item.

Included also, of course, are such Buick extra values as Fireball power, which you get nowhere else—all-coil springing, almost an exclusive—the widest rims in the industry—and that very special and desirable solid Buick feel.

So—check the "extras" when you price today's cars. Check the "deal" too, and make sure it's as fair and aboveboard as the Buick sales policy.

We're pretty sure what your conclusion will be when you see what stepped-up production is doing to deliveries. You'll decide "Buick's the buy!"—and get your order in.

Says Care Is Needed In Use Of Fumigants

Dust, sprays, and other insecticides will do much to promote the healthy growth of fruits and vegetables but they often have just the opposite effect on man. This warning comes from Louis G. Hall, county agricultural agent.

The agent urges special precautions to avoid inhaling fumes or vapors from fumigants. Though they may not be poison, they will usually prove irritating to humans. He puts special emphasis on proper labeling and safe storage where children cannot reach them.

Safety in insecticide use means caution. The following rules will help to point out the most important things to remember:

1. Follow the directions of the manufacturer in handling, mixing and applying.
2. Always spray or dust downwind.
3. Wear approved respirators which protect the entire face when there is danger of inhaling fumes
4. Gloves, long-sleeved shirts and clothing to cover the entire body are recommended.
5. Wash hands and other exposed parts of the body with soap and water after using poisonous chemicals.
6. Store poisonous chemicals in strong leak-proof containers. Be certain children or livestock cannot reach them.
7. Thoroughly wash or strip fruits and vegetables to which poisonous chemicals of a stable nature have been applied.
8. Unknown substances should not be used, nor should substances sold under trade names without complete information as to composition and proportions.

Red, Yellow And Green Healthy Garden Pattern

"Red, yellow and green" is the healthy color pattern for your vegetable garden, according to Mrs. Alice Smith, chief nutritionist of the Michigan Department of Health.

Writing in the current "Garden" issue of the Michigan Public Health, Mrs. Smith explains that red is for tomatoes, the most important vegetable in the garden. Yellow is for carrots, rutabagas, turnips, corn, kohlrabi, sweet potatoes, squash and pumpkin. Green is for the leafy things like turnip tops, chard, kale, leaf lettuce, cabbage, Brussels sprouts, beet tops, spinach, endive, as well as for asparagus, broccoli, celery, green beans, lima beans, peppers, parsley and green onions. These are all basic foods providing vitamins and minerals needed for the human body.

Tomatoes are an excellent source of vitamin C, and tomatoes as well as dark green and deep yellow vegetables are excellent sources of vitamin A.

"When you have planted these basic red, yellow and green vegetables, plant a number of other vegetables in the space you have left. Plant all you have space for, or all your family can eat. Remember each member of the family, small or large, thin or fat, requires at least two servings of vegetables each day," Mrs. Smith counselled.

In other articles in the bulletin the new 1949 vegetable varieties, how much to grow, fertilizer recommendations, and fruit gardens, are discussed. The issue also includes a calendar for Michigan gardeners and a vegetable cooking timetable. The bulletin, Michigan Public Health, is sent free of charge to any resident of the state upon request made to the Michigan Department of Health, Lansing 4, Michigan.

Home life in America is still safe now that nobody has as yet thought to patent a power can-opener for the kitchen.

Home is still a boy's idea of the best filling station, and he patronizes it three times a day.

About The Folk You Know

It isn't necessary to travel a long distance to enjoy nature at its best, for what is more beautiful than the first outburst of Spring, in the form of jonquils and daffodils, at the Hidden Lake Gardens, just a few miles from here? . . . Hundreds of blossoms line the roadways and enhance the already picturesque hillsides . . . Upon departing one finds two tulip trees with blossoms as thick as leaves and a small patch of bright red and yellow tulips in the caretakers yard.

Trout fishermen also found it wasn't necessary to travel to Northern Michigan for the big catch—in fact, it wasn't even a good idea because most of the trout were caught in our own "South'rn Michigan." . . . Among those who made that discovery were Max Brandt, Halsey Eggleston and Paul Clauda who went with their bowling team to Bay City to participate in the tournament on Sunday.

The birthday club honored Mrs. Harold Wilson, Friday, entertained at the home of Mrs. Marion Alderdyce in Milan . . . The women enjoyed luncheon and the afternoon was spent socially . . . Later Mrs. Ernest Brandt and a few of the other members went to Ypsilanti to pick up Dorothy Jean Brandt, who spent the weekend here.

It seems lots of folks are acquainted with our sister city, Tecumseh, Ontario, and all say it isn't located on the banks of Lake Ontario but on Lake St. Clair . . . That is one fact the Chamber and The Herald are not apt to forget.

With this the last week of Cancer Control Month last minute donations are welcome. Mrs. Frank K. Smith, chairman for Tecumseh, said this week . . . No solicitations were made but burning candles were placed about town for contributions . . . It is the desire of Lenawee county to have a Cancer Detection Clinic similar to the one operating in Hillsdale county, but without the necessary funds this will be impossible . . . Mrs. Smith said anyone desiring a cancer examination paid from the cancer fund in Lenawee county should go to be signed by the party taking the examination . . . This is only one of the services rendered by the county unit.

The hanging of May baskets didn't appear too prevalent in Tecumseh, but some of the Brownie Scout troops made baskets at their last meeting to be filled for the first day of May . . . It seems in some sections of Detroit the custom is unknown.

Mother And Daughter Banquet Attended By 115

At the annual Mother and Daughter banquet held Tuesday evening in the Friends church, 115 persons were seated at tables beautifully decorated with pots of various colored primroses and wild violets arranged by Mrs. Herbert Murphy. Each place was marked with miniature Maypoles and pink programs. A delicious dinner was served by the men of the church. Mrs. Jennie Slater was chairman of the banquet committee.

Mrs. Margaret Comfort presided in a delightful manner and introduced the numbers on the program with some witty comments describing the personality of each individual. Mrs. Carl Cox gave the invocation and Miss Mable Lockwood led in group singing. The welcome to the daughters was given by Mrs. Perry Hayden and Betty Hayden responded with a tribute to mothers. Music by the girls chorus and a reading by Mrs. Bertha Creger preceded the introduction of the guest speaker, Miss Freda Girsberger, by Mrs. Edward Escolme.

A missionary from China, Miss Girsberger told many interesting things concerning the country and its people. She displayed Chinese bowls, chopsticks, a banner presented to a missionary going home on furlough, a lady's dress and a child's dress to illustrate portions of her talk. She sang and spoke in Chinese and was most interesting.

Martha Hayden rendered a vocal solo followed by a duet by Norma and Marian Comfort. Mrs. Linnie Comfort was recognized as the eldest mother, Mrs. Charles Manley as the youngest and the mother with the most daughters present was Mrs. Phillips with four. A number of mothers had three daughters. The program closed with group singing led by Miss Lockwood.

Holland Tours Feature Water

RESTFUL TRIPS BY CRUISER OR YACHT ON 1949 VACATION CALENDAR

THE HAGUE—"Grand tours" of Holland by yacht or cabin cruiser will be available again this year and at prices which shouldn't put too much strain on the pocketbook.

The traveler has a choice between eight-day and 14-day all expense escorted cruises in deluxe yachts carrying from 15 to 32 passengers, with food and service comparable to that expected at the Ritz.

Complete price for the shorter cruise, including transportation from London across the English Channel to Maassluis, starting point in Holland, is 30 guineas or about $125.

The eight-day cruises leave London every Saturday—Maassluis every Sunday — and stop at Dordrecht, Utrecht, Amsterdam, Haarlem, Leiden, The Hague, Rotterdam, and back to Maassluis and London.

Conducted excursions are made in and from these cities to Volendam, Edam, Frans Hals Museum, and to other touristic sigh lights. Time is allowed for shopping.

The 14-day cruise gives the visitor more time in Holland plus two days in Belgium. It costs 48 guineas or about $192. The eight-day cruise operates on a once-a-week schedule until September 24. The 14-day cruise starts June 4 and will run very week up until September 17.

Tourists who prefer to have their own boat can charter a cabin cruiser, roomy enough for four to eight persons, with captain and cook optional. The Netherlands Boat Owners Association offers a choice of power boats for rental. Each boat is completely insurance protected.

There also is a third firm which rents cabin cruisers complete with crew, and has a motor yacht with accommodations for 10 persons for charter. Charter price for this yacht, including fuel and crew, is about $60 per person a week.

Information on this "go as you please" arrangement may be obtained from the Netherlands National Tourist Office at The Hague or at 10 Rockefeller Plaza, New York.

89 LADY BOWLERS AT ANNUAL BANQUET

Members of the Ladies House Bowling League enjoyed their annual banquet in the Legion Memorial Home, Friday evening. Dinner was served to 89 members.

During the business meeting Esther Hooten was elected president for the coming year. Thelma Braden was named vice president and Meredith Hogan, secretary and treasurer.

When a man gets 90-days for non-support, it's a pretty good sign that days are more numerous than jobs.

No man likes to hear a woman swear, but what's she going to do when she discovers there's too much starch in her undershirt.

Nowadays they offer silver loving cups for almost everything but dodging automobiles.

Moses had seen the Burning Bush—and heard the voice of the Lord issue from it. He had promised God that he would lead the children of Israel out of Egypt into the land of Canaan.
Moses, through the persuasive oratory of Aaron, his brother, then took the Lord's message to the people, who believed.
The Lord had said unto Moses:
"I have surely seen the affliction of my people which are in Egypt, and have heard their cry by reason of their taskmasters; for I know their sorrows; and I am come to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians, and to bring them out of that land unto a good land and a large, unto a land flowing with milk and honey . . ."
Here was the promise of their faith fulfilled. The reward of years of patient waiting for deliverance from their masters. God had given them a goal, and a leader toward that goal.
Our church has given us a goal—peace toward men on earth—which must be fulfilled if we are ever to realize perfect harmony among men and their nations. Your church is working toward that goal—it needs you. To serve your fellow man, attend the church of your choice each Sunday.

MACON

A Farewell Supper was given at a family night gathering, Monday evening, at the Methodist church honoring Dr. and Mrs. F. H. Littell who are leaving for Germany about the first of June. After the supper the group adjourned to the assembly room where a program was presented. Mrs. Ida Mehler, president of the W. S. C. S., in a short address spoke words of appreciation of the helpful work here of the ministers and of our regret at their leaving. At the close of Mrs. Mehler's address Clarence Hall presented the following program: Two songs by the Ladies Chorus, Mrs. Effie Gibson, pianist; an address by Mrs. Littell; two songs by the Youth Chorus, "Now Is The Hour" and "In The Garden," Mrs. Helen Thomas, pianist; an address by Dr. Littell; song by the Ladies Chorus; assembly singing, "Beneath the Cross of Jesus, "Dr. Littell's favorite hymn, Mrs. Maude Halladay, pianist; benediction, Dr. Littell.

The W. S. C. S. of the Macon Methodist church met Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hall for a potluck dinner and monthly business meeting. President Ida Mehler presided over the business meeting. Because Dr. and Mrs. F. H. Littell are leaving for Germany the first of June the women honored Mrs. Littell with a personal shower. Mrs. Littell received many gifts and a sum of money was given Dr. Littell. Helen Thomas presented the following program: Mrs. Blanche Travis gave a reading entitled "She Opened The Eyes of Texas."; Mrs. Halladay read a pamphlet, "A Little Lady Who Loved Children;" Mrs. Rose Gilmore read "Prayer of the Trees."

Mrs. Earl Kuder entertained at dinner Sunday honoring the birthday anniversary of her husband. Guests were their son, Harold Kuder and family of Saline twp., their daughter Geraldine and husband, Marvin Straith of Detroit; Earl's sister Mrs. George Winterstein and husband of Tecumseh and the latter's daughter, Mrs. Wilburn Adams and husband of Kentucky. Callers in the afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Tonneberger. Gifts were received by the honored guest.

Gerald Sessinger and family have moved from the Will O'Reilly tenant farm to the vicinity northeast of Ypsilanti.

Non-Partisan News Letter

By Gene Alleman
(Special to The Herald)

"When I get through at Lansing, I trust no one will say, 'Williams slept here,'"

G. Mennen Williams, Michigan's youthful governor and Democratic protege of former Governor Frank Murphy, tossed off the words crisply.

The newspaper editors laughed heartily. The governor was appearing at their traditional "State of Michigan Press Conference" to answer written questions. The moderator, Senator Don Vander-Werp of Fremont, had previously introduced State Treasurer D. Hale Brake with a humorous reference to Brake's boyhood in Newaygo County. Fremont could well put up a monument, "Hale Brake Slept Here," said Vander Werp. All this happened in January, 1949.

Many weeks have gone by since Governor Williams presented his program of social reform. He had proposed public housing, liberal workmen's compensation benefits and extension of medical care and disability payments. "Injured workers should be allowed medical care as long as necessary."

Unemployment benefits should be increased, and coverage should be extended to all employers and employees. (Now limited to eight or more.) Also fair employment practice law modeled after the New York statute.

More state aid for higher education and for vocational education. Old age assistance benefits should be increased from $50 to $60 monthly maximum. Michigan farm produce would be offered to consumers with a "Michigan Seal of Quality" supported by strict grading and marketing research.

Streams pollution laws would be tightened, and money provided whereby state institutions might eliminate pollution of public waters.

To finance all this and to bridge the growing gap in the treasury caused by sales diversion, Governor Williams proposed a tax on corporation profits. He condemned Michigan's present tax system as "soaking the consumer."

What does Governor Williams think now—four months after his inauguration—about all this? At a luncheon of the Detroit Economics club, he panned the legislature for shelving much of his program. "We are like a bunch of crows flapping over the carcass of the past when we ought to be eagles soaring to meet new horizons," he declared. Michigan's state government was "10 years behind the times."

The state's labor legislation, he said, was inadequate. The legislature, controlled by the Republican party, was obstructing progress. And so on.

There was a strong note of frustration in Governor Williams' words. If he had once hoped to accomplish these reforms through bi-partisan action, now he was in doubt.

Prior to the spring election, Governor Williams urged voters to make a clear-cut choice between the Republican record of "inaction" and the Democratic path to social justice. The April verdict, a whopping victory for the G.O.P., was a "disappointment" to Williams. He continued to insist that his November victory was a popular mandate for his spending program.

In the meanwhile, Republican leaders are seeking to transform parts of Williams' proposals into G.O.P accomplishments, while avoiding imposition of new or higher taxes for state needs. Economy and revenue adjustments would plug the major part of the deficit.

If the state incurs a deficit—as seems inevitable in view of the 78 per cent ear-marking of state sales tax revenue—Governor Williams is likely to blame the legislature for it.

Kim Sigler criticized the 1947-1948 legislature for blocking his program of centralized streamlining of state government. In 1949 Governor Williams is also critical. His reference to "a bunch of crows" reveals his impatience.

In a few weeks the legislature's record will be written. We intend to review the results in this column.

VISITING MOTORISTS GET AID IN BRITAIN

LONDON—Great Britain is making it easy for the American motorist in England.

By simply showing his passport, visitors to Britain now may rent cars for trips of unlimited mileage and obtain a gasoline allowance for their own automobiles. This simplified arrangement replaces the tourist voucher book plan.

Formerly it was necessary to secure a voucher book to enjoy the motoring privileges. Also, a voucher book was required for making purchases of clothing for on-the-spot delivery in Britain. With the end of clothes rationing, however, visitors now may buy as much as they like in the well-stocked shops.

The allowance for up to 14 days is 600 miles; 15 to 21 days, 800 miles; more than 21 days and up to one month, 1,000 miles; more than a month and up to two months, 1,300 miles, and more than two months and up to three months, 1,600 miles.

Lavern C. Mansfield Dies At His Home Here

Lavern C. Mansfield, 70, assistant village engineer, died Tuesday evening at 6:30 in his home at 301 East Pottawatamie street, after a three weeks' illness.

Born, August 29, 1878, near Britton, he was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Talman Mansfield. He had lived his entire life in this community and had been employed by Tecumseh village the past 14 years. He was a member of the Macon Methodist church.

Surviving are the widow, formerly Melvina Middaugh of Saline; two sons, Clifford T. of Indo, Calif., and Lavern T. of Clinton; one daughter, Mrs. William Shavalier of Tecumseh, three grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. Two daughters preceded him in death.

Funeral services will be held from the Collins Funeral Home Friday afternoon at 2:30 p.m., with the Rev. Edward Escolme officiating. Burial will be in Riverside cemetery, Clinton.

NEW FIRE TRUCK DRIVER ON THE JOB

Charles Manley who, for several years has been employed by Butler Motor Sales, today took over his new duties as fire truck driver for the Village of Tecumseh. Mr Manley succeeds Carl Leonard who has purchased a gasoline filling station in Clinton.

The Leonards plan to move soon from their quarters on the second floor of the Council Building and the Manleys will move in, after some repairs and redecorations.

Four Local Students Win U. M. Scholarships

Four Tecumseh high school students have been awarded Regents-Alumni scholarships to the University of Michigan, it was announced today by Erich A. Walter, dean of students and chairman of the Committee on University Scholarships.

The awards, equivalent to semester fees for the freshman year and renewable for three additional years if the student's performance at the University warrants a continuation of the privilege, were made to Richard Herbert Bishop, Ridgeway; John Clifford Cameron, 205 N. Democratic; Gordon A. Comfort, Route 1, and Barbara Ellen Schoeck, 502 W. Kilbuck.

The scholarships were awarded to a record-breaking number of 574 seniors in Michigan high schools. Eligibility for an award is based upon the following factors: the record made by high school; information provided by University alumni and other citizens of the community; recommendations of the principal and teachers; financial need and results of the special aptitude and achievement tests taken by the candidate. The first of these factors is the most important, it was said. At least one scholarship is available for every accredited high school in the state provided a qualified candidate is presented.

Herrick Park Open To Public

LOTS NOW AVAILABLE FOR PURCHASE; STREETS BEING OILED, TREES PLANTED

The speedy growth of Herrick Park, Tecumseh's newest subdivision, was indicated today when it was announced that lots had been made available for public sale. Already 44 houses have been built in the area and it is expected that ground will be broken for at least half a dozen more within a few weeks.

Herrick Park Subdivision located at the north end of Brown street, was launched by Tecumseh Products Company a year ago with the purchase of the acreage from the Ford Motor Company. It is entirely within the village limits, bordering the River Raisin. In less than 10 months the area has been transformed into one of the most-talked about building sites in Lenawee county, with circular drives, larger-than-average lots and all public utilities.

The expense of developing the subdivision has been borne by Tecumseh Products Company. Sewer and water mains have been laid, streets broken and graded, and at the present time shade trees are being planted. Within the next month, the streets will be given a coating of gravel, crushed limestone and oil, making them free of dust. Sidewalks also are being built.

It is the policy of Products to give to its employees who qualify, lots in this subdivision. All of the 44 homes that have been built there are owned by Products employees. At least half-dozen more members of Products family are now making their plans to build there this summer.

With all public utilities available and paid for, it is expected that the lots will be in demand, now that they been made available to the public for purchase. Prices will be held to a minimum, it was said.

The subdivision affords ample space for the building of 165 homes, making possible the building of more than 100 dwellings in the area, which is FHA approved.

MRS. MABLE CADMUS FUNERAL ON SATURDAY

Mrs. Mable D. Cadmus, 77, widow of John Cadmus, died at 8:10 a.m., Wednesday morning at the Matthews Nursing Home, after a long illness.

Surviving are one son, Percy of Macon township, one brother Ned Wood of Dundee, one sister, Mrs. Delia McIntyre of Adrian, seven grandchildren and several nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her husband, June 2, 1948, and one grandchild.

Funeral services will be held Saturday at 2:30 p.m., from the Niblack Funeral Home in Britton and burial will be in Ridgeway cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home.

LEAGUE TO MEET

The Baptist Junior League will meet Tuesday evening, May 17, at the home of Mrs. Dow Bilby with Mrs. Betty Wing as assisting hostess. Mrs. Clayton Mikesell has charge of the program and Mrs. Ralph Young will lead in devotions.

Girl Scouting Fate In Balance

LACK OF INTEREST ON PART OF PARENTS MAY RESULT IN ENDING OF PROGRAM

Due to the lack of appreciation and cooperation of the parents, Girl Scouting in Tecumseh is to be discontinued unless definite interest is shown to warrant its continuation, it was announced by the Tecumseh Girl Scout Association following the May meeting. A motion made to discontinue Girl Scouting was tabled until the June 1 meeting of the association at which time a definite decision must be made.

"The final decision rests entirely with the parents of the 184 Girl Scouts and Brownies in Tecumseh," Mrs. Grenval Spangler, association president, said. "The Association has been functioning in Tecumseh for the past five years, during which time comparatively few mothers of the Brownies and Scouts have given of their time and services as leaders, co-leaders and committee women, but," Mrs. Spangler emphasized, "a few of the parents cannot be expected to carry the entire load of planning, meeting with the troops and all the other work connected with it."

Pointing out that three troops have been inactive since Christmas due to the lack of leaders, the president said that out of fourteen troops only two of the present leaders will return in that capacity. Seven of the present leaders have had no assistance at all during the past year. The nominating committee has been active for three months attempting to find officers for the association, without success.

"Girl Scouts are an important part of a community of this size and standing and the mothers who have given of their time and effort have enjoyed working with the youngsters, but with nine local members it is impossible for a few women to carry on with no assistance," Mrs. Spangler said. "We feel that if the mothers know the facts and the seriousness of the situation they will make it a point to do something about it, attend meetings, serve on committees, act as leaders and co-leaders of troops. Only by working together can an organization function."

Another spokesman for the Association posed this question: The Girl Scouts and Brownies are our future citizens, it is one of the aims of the Scouting program to teach them to be good civic-minded individuals and if this same spirit isn't carried over into the home, then what good is it? If we parents take no interest in our children now, then what about the next generation?

The association is urging all mothers interested in keeping the Girl Scout program in Tecumseh alive, to attend the meeting at the high school June 1, to decide the course it will take.

CLAUDE CUTHBERT DIES

Funeral and burial services were held in Canton, Ohio, for Claude L. Cuthbert who died at his home there April 5, after a short illness. Surviving are his wife, one son, Ralph, and two granddaughters. A former resident of Tecumseh, Mr. Cuthbert was associated with the Quaker Oats Co., while here.

William J. Hanna Hurt; Condition Is Critical

William J. Hanna, 67, former Lenawee county sheriff, is in Tecumseh Hospital in a critical condition, the result of injuries suffered last Friday evening when he and Sheriff Wade Willett were attempting to remove a man suffering from a mental ailment, from his home here to the county jail in Adrian. The former sheriff slipped off a porch step, throwing him off balance. The apparent strain caused a bowel rupture and hemorrhage and subsequently perienteritis.

Mr. Hanna did not realize that he had suffered more than a strain and did not take the injury seriously. He accompanied the sheriff to the jail and was about town as usual here Saturday, although in pain. It was not until Sunday night that he was removed to the hospital in an ambulance.

Tithing Story Gets Publicity

When the late Henry Ford said that the story of Dynamic Kerneis was going around the world, he showed more vision than even those closer to the project. In the May 15 issue of The American Weekly, distributed in this state with next Sunday's Detroit Times, residents of Lenawee county will be pleased to see that the feature, occupying the two center pages, in color, will be a story entitled, "God Is My Landlord." The story written by William Engle, gives a concise history of the project that has made Tecumseh one of America's best known small towns. Some idea of the coverage of this particular publication which claims to have the largest circulation of any weekly in the world is that their advertising rates are $22,250 per page.

Not only will this story be featured in the May 15 American Weekly, but the Hearst newspapers are featuring the story by using billboards on their newspaper trucks, by display signs on newsstands, and by other forms of promotion. Certainly there are many types of publicity that are a lot less desirable than to be known as the birthplace of an idea such as Dynamic Kerneis which has been accepted by Christian leaders throughout the world as one of the most graphic demonstrations of a great Biblical truth.

BURIED IN BROOKSIDE

Funeral services were held Friday afternoon from the Green Funeral Home for Perry Eason Pate, who died last week Tuesday at Inkster. The Rev. Edward Escolme officiated and burial was in Brookside cemetery. The bearers were Lloyd, Bernie and Elmer Pate, Ray Woodby, George Audritah and Stewart McLean. Big Crowd Hears 100-Man Chorus

One of the finest musical entertainments ever presented in Tecumseh, a full two-hour program by the Dow Male Chorus of 100 voices, the Dow Trio and Mrs. Vera Spalding, soloist,was sponsored under the direction of Dr. Theodore Vosburg, thrilled an audience of 300 at the high school auditorium here, Saturday evening. The musicians appeared here under the sponsorship of Town Hall of which Neville Hart is the director.

"My only regret is that the auditorium was not filled to overflowing," Mr. Hart said. "In my judgment it was the finest program ever to be presented to a local audience, which was most appreciative. The Dow musicians will not be able to return next year for another engagement, but we do hope to bring them back in 1951."

Some of the outstanding numbers of the chorus were, "Onward Christian Soldiers," by Sullivan; "Some Folks," by Stephen Foster; "Kathryn's Wedding Day," a German tune; "Russian Picnic," and "The Lost Chord," by Sullivan; George Gershwin's "It Ain't Necessarily So," in which Charles Noble sang a baritone solo; "Dry Bones," and "Lo, Hear the Gentle Lark," with Mrs. Spalding doing the solo work.

The Dow Chorus is the largest industrial musical organization in the world. All members are employees of the Dow Chemical Company, Midland. The program is to have been presented here in April but was cancelled when Dr. Dow, his wife and three others were killed in a plane crash.

The Dow Trio is made up of Virginia Nicholson, violinist, Portia Ehrlich Tressel, cellist, and Robert Moss, pianist. Mr. Moss also accompanies the chorus.

Members of the musical group made the trip to Tecumseh in two chartered busses. While here they were entertained by Town Hall and dinner was served in the home economics department of the high school.

115 Register Bicycles Here

POLICE ESTIMATE THAT OVER 300 STILL MUST BUY VILLAGE LICENSES

With 115 bicycles registered thus far, police estimated today that there are still more than 300 unregistered vehicles in Tecumseh and they warned that the newly enacted ordinance, requiring registration, will be vigorously enforced.

Last week and this week, owners of bicycles who live east of Evans street are registering with police. Next week and the week following, owners who live west of Evans street will register. All bicycles must be taken to police headquarters in the Council Building where serial numbers are obtained and licenses issued. The license cost 50 cents the first year and 25 cents per year thereafter.

"This is not a money-making scheme, it is a sincere effort to help bicycle owners," police said. "With proper information about a bicycle, and with the license plate attached, it is much easier to trace lost and stolen bikes."

The new bicycle law has "teeth" in it, providing for a fine or a jail sentence for violations.

Damage estimated at $1,500 was caused by fire at 6:25 Tuesday morning at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Delwin Dickerson, Rt. 2, Adrian. The 2-story frame house is located on the Cemetery Road, about six miles southwest of here.

The blaze is believed to have started from a short circuit in an electric fuse box. Fire was discovered by a neighbor who called the Adrian rural department. Later, Tecumseh and Palmyra departments were asked for assistance.

Damage was confined to the roof, partitions and one bedroom. Much of the furnishings in the house were removed.

Rotary Names New Officers

GILMAN CHOSEN PRESIDENT, LARSEN NEW VICE PRESIDENT OF SERVICE CLUB

Clarence W. Gilman was named president of the Tecumseh Rotary Club, L. W. Larsen was chosen as vice-president, and Lester Rogers and George E. Green were re-elected secretary and treasurer, respectively, when the board of directors of that organization met, Tuesday evening, following dinner at Brees House. Mr. Gilman, the Rev. B. O. Gilman, who has been vice-president, will succeed Charles O. Butler as president next July. The retiring president, the president-elect and the vice-president elect and their wives are expected to attend the district conference of Rotary International at the Prince Edward hotel, Windsor, next Monday. Tecumseh has been honored at the conference. President Butler will act as the speaker's table aid and offer one of the toasts.

At Tuesday's meeting, Delmar E. Crisp and Myles Runk, coordinators of the Cooperative Training Program inaugurated by the high school, explained the plan and urged cooperation on the part of local business men. The present time 30 students are on the program, working part time in local business and part time in school. A part of the cost of the program is financed by the state and federal government.

Ralph Hodges, owner of Hodges Drug Store, was admitted to club membership at the meeting.

Rentschler, will preside during the business session and an evaluation of the year's work will be made through reports to be given by the officers and committees.

Mrs. Ray Sluyter is planning a variety program which will not only show talent but will produce fun as well. A group of eight boys and girls doing the "Mexican Hat Dance" will add a touch of color to the program.

The introduction of the officers for the ensuing year will be made at the close of the evening. The retiring officers are: Mrs. T. Rentschler, president; Mrs. Ray Sluyter, vice president in charge of program; Miss Bernice Parker, secretary and Carl Fosbender, treasurer.

Raisin League Fills Schedule

FIRST BASEBALL GAME OF SEASON WILL BE PLAYED HERE ON TUESDAY, MAY 17

Last year games were played at Manchester when Products was a member of the Manchester League. This season every Tuesday and Thursday nights two games will be played on both the Recreation Center field and the Manchester ball park, until the completion of the schedule.

The games here are free of charge but a collection will be taken to defray expenses and also to swell the Recreation Center Board's treasury, that replacements and new equipment can be purchased when necessary.

A schedule for the entire season has been arranged with the first games starting at 7::30 p.m., and the second game under the lights at 9 p.m., this rule applying to both the Tecumseh and Manchester fields.

Buddy Poppies On Sale, May 21

LOCAL V.F.W. AND AUXILIARY PLAN INTENSIVE SALE OF FLOWERS HERE

"To meet the needs of local veteran welfare this year, and to successfully carry out the V. F. W. national program, Hall-Slater Post No. 4187 of the Veterans of Foreign Wars will intensify its Buddy Poppy sale in the Village of Tecumseh on May 20 and 21," Earl E. Kruger, commander of the post announced today.

"The low purchasing power of the dollar, coupled with inadequacy of compensation rates for our disabled veterans," Commander Kruger states, "has placed an additional burden upon the rehabilitation and service program of the overseas veterans' organization. Likewise, the abolition of the force of field contact men of the Veterans Administration has augmented greatly the service job of V. F. W. Posts through the nation."

The V. F. W. commander explained that approximately two-thirds of the Buddy Poppy proceeds is used to give direct aid to all disabled and needy veterans in the village of Tecumseh and vicinity. The money also aids the dependents and survivors of veterans who do not have the means to maintain a healthy standard of living or who need funds to meet an emergency. The post

Wedding gowns of silk, satin, taffeta, gingham, lace and velvet of all periods dating back to 1830 were modeled by young girls at the Wedding Gown Revue, held at the Legion Home, Friday evening, before a large and appreciative audience. Mrs. O. W. Laidlaw was general chairman of the event sponsored by the auxiliary of Underwood-Orr post.

In her gracious manner, Mrs. Louis Carlson gave interesting highlights concerning each of the 36 gowns modeled. Particularly fascinating was the gown which Miss Ruth Harding's great-grandmother wore when she was married February 4, 1830. This is owned by Miss Harding and was modeled by Miss Shirley Fosbender.

Three generations in one family were represented by three gowns, owned by Mrs. Howard Truesdale. A green plaid model, worn by her grandmother, Margaret Connors Cash in Adrian in 1858 was modeled by Miss Jeanet Ehinger. Miss Shirley Finnegan modeled the exquisite blue velvet, which originally was made of 25 yards of material, worn by Mrs. Truesdale's mother who was married in Brooklyn in 1888. Mrs. Truesdale herself was married New Year's Eve in 1927 and her gown was modeled by Miss Lenore McKenzie.

The program was interspersed with favorite wedding songs. "Ave Maria" was sung by Mrs. Gordon Miller accompanied by Mrs. Fred C. Dickinson; "Calm is The Night" by baritone Wallace Whiting, accompanied by Mrs. J. W. Spafford, and "Because" by Mrs. Murray Day accompanied by Mrs. Dickinson.

Miss Joan Johnston modeled the gown belonging to Mrs. Margaret Kidman in which her father's mother was married in 1846. Miss Joan Hart modeled an 1857 gown owned by Mrs. John McKenzie.

The shoes, hose and gloves worn by Miss Mary Lou Alderdyce as she modeled Mrs. Hoyt Whelan's pure white wedding gown, were first worn by Mrs. Whelan at her wedding, which took place in Tipton in 1899.

A gown designed of pineapple fiber and modeled by Miss Zoe Ann Pennington, is owned by Mrs. Arthur Eaton, her mother having been married in it. Her brother had sent the material from the Philippine Islands.

Eleven brides have carried the same handkerchief and next month it will be part of the wedding ensemble of Robert Laidlaw's bride. The handkerchief was carried by the mother of Mrs. O. W. Laidlaw and Mrs. Fred Morse of Jasper, who was married in 1878. Mrs. Morse's gown and shoes from her wedding in 1917 and the dated handkerchief were modeled by Mrs. Charles Mensing.

The lace of Mrs. Ray Sluyter's gown of 1924 was sent to her by an aunt from Paris and it featured four strands of pearls at the waistline. This was modeled by Miss Shirley Moore. Miss Betty Jo Hanna modeled her mother's gown of 1930 and Miss Marilyn Lindsley modeled the all white lace gown of Mrs. Clair Rozelle, married in 1938.

A fitting conclusion was the appearance of Mrs. Jack Curtiss, the most recent bride, preceded by her matron of honor, Mrs. Robert Mohr and her junior bridesmaid, Sandra Kay Hall. Formerly Miss Lenore Mohr, Mrs. Curtiss was married February 11, 1949 in Tecumseh.

PROTEIN—KEY TO DIET

The science of nutrition is relatively new. It has been confused in the public mind by the wild claims of thousands of food fadists who have tried to make up in zeal what they lack in knowledge. Within the medical profession itself, many years have been given to patient experiment and observation in order to winnow the true from the false.

An extremely important contribution to our knowledge of nutrition has appeared in the April 2 issue of the Journal of the American Medical Association. It is written by Dr. James S. McLester, who is one of the world's foremost authorities on the subject, and the author of a textbook which is used in the major medical schools. The essence of Dr. McLester's findings is that most of us have diets which are insufficient in protein, and that the maintenance of good health and the restoration to health of the ill and injured depends on sharply increased amounts of protein.

Dr. McLester cites an unusually interesting example. "The protein quota of the American soldier's ration in the second World War was liberal—more liberal than that of any other soldier in the world," he says. "Measured in terms of greater vigor, quicker and more assured recovery from injury and a higher degree of morale, did this liberality of protein allowance in the American soldier's ration contribute to the winning of the war? I believe it did."

Complete protein is found in meat, milk and eggs. Of these, meat has a special advantage, in that most people can eat it three times a day with appetite and relish. Dr. McLester's analysis, based as it is upon a wealth of objective scientific knowledge, points the way to healthier and happier living.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

How Would You Say It?

Curley Lawson's cousin from back East and a few of us got talking when he was here visiting, and I couldn't help noticing how different he said things.

For instance, he said, "Lifting that 200-pound bag of cement almost killed me." "You mean sack of cement?" asks Curley. (That's the way we'd say it.) "No," interrupts young Elliott who'd spent a lot of time down South, "He means a 'poke of see-ment.'"

It was good for a chuckle, anyway. Bag, sack or poke—we knew what he was trying to say. It just depends on where you are in the U. S., which way sounds right.

From where I sit, whenever we criticize someone for sounding funny to us, we ought to think how we sound to them. It's the same as choosing your liquid refreshment. I'm accustomed to a moderate glass of beer—you may like ginger ale—but who's to say the other's wrong? I'd say we're both right!

"It's Not A Dream It's OURS"

A Beautiful New Home In HERRICK PARK

Now, for the first time since Herrick Park was opened, its lots are available for public sale . . . economically priced.

Think of it! Your opportunity to own a home in this highly desirable subdivision CHEAPER than you might build it in some other area.

Completely FHA approved, this subdivision has sewer and water available to every lot. Streets graded and oil treated. Shade trees planted. Other public utilities at your door-step.

A lot and a small down-payment is all that you need to make one of these desirable houses available to you and your family . . . built to your own specifications.

You can move into your new home in Herrick Park in early Fall if you'll give us the go-ahead sign this month.

LOTS IN HERRICK PARK
Available To The Public

You've admired Herrick Park with its circular drives, it's fine new homes and, probably, you've wished you, too, could build there.

Now you can, because lots in Herrick Park are available to the public.

Material costs are d-o-w-n . . . they're 10 per cent or more less than they were a year ago. Oak flooring, for example, is about one-half the price that it was at the peak.

You can build a modern home in Herrick Park for as little as $6,300 or as much as $20,000.

Why continue to pay rent? Herrick Park is fully FHA approved. A small down payment is all that you need to start construction.

In five years Herrick Park will be the showplace of all Lenawee county subdivisions. It's large lots, water front and recreational areas offer opportunities for children at play. It's secluded sufficiently to be free from noise and traffic.

Herrick Park offers you every advantage . . . at below average home-ownership costs.

The apple blossoms, tulips and lilacs made it just in time for Mother's Day . . . Mothers were being entertained all over the nation, Sunday . . . Locally there were family gatherings and others enjoyed dinner at restaurants near and far.

The Fraternal Order of Eagles, the Auxiliary and their families were special guests at the morning service at the Baptist church. Each mother there was presented with a carnation.

The sons and daughters of Mrs. Grace Coffey gathered at the V. F. W. dining room for a family dinner . . . Many gifts and flowers were received by Mrs. Coffey from the group, which included the Fred Whites and daughter Susan of Toledo, the H. R. Groenings and son Dick of Grosse Pointe Farms, the Elmer Coffeys, jr., and son Douglas of Cleveland Heights, Ohio, the Carl Prices, son Jack and daughters Marilyn, Betty and Yvonne, and Miss Rosie Mays of Monroe, the Robert E. Coffeys of Detroit, the Earl Spanglers and two children Carol Ann and Larry of Northville, the Jerry Coffeys and daughter Nancy of Britton, the Charles W. Smiths and the Lee Coffeys of Adrian.

Miss Marilyn Lindsley, talented pianist, received a third place rating in the senior division of the piano solo section at the State Solo and Ensemble Music Festival, held recently at Ann Arbor . . . Out of all those participating in that division only one received a first rating and three placed second, so this was indeed an honor for Marilyn.

During the housecleaning period things that have accumulated during the winter months and years past are disposed of . . . This includes books, too, and Miss Ruth Harding, librarian, said the public library could use books that many people might throw away or burn . . . She said the recent fiction books are good as well as many of the classics.

The Tecumseh Recreation board is contemplating an inter-city baseball or softball league and it is expected six or eight teams will join . . . This is a good chance for churches and neighborhood groups to get together for a little friendly competition.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Tonneberger were among those from here who attended the wedding of Miss Dorothy Price, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Price, and Eugene Dusseau, Saturday evening, at St. James Lutheran church in Toledo. Members of the younger generation are anxiously awaiting June 6 when Vacation Bible School will begin, under the auspices of the Tecumseh Ministerial Association . . . The school will continue through June 17.

Buddy Poppies

service officer, Walter M. Mueller, is available at all times to aid veterans with whatever problems they may present.

On the national scale, the Buddy Poppy proceeds are used to help maintain the V.F.W. National Rehabilitation Service which handles hundreds of thousands of claims presented to the Veterans Administration on behalf of veterans, their dependents; and in part, to maintain the V.F.W. National Home for war orphans and widows at Eaton Rapids, Michigan. The latter is a service begun on a Michigan farm nearly a quarter century ago, and has since grown into the only home of its kind in the world. The National Home is now a "town" in its own right.

Aiding the Hall-Slater Post, as in the past, will be its Ladies Auxiliary and several women and girl volunteers. The Buddy Poppies will go on sale in Tecumseh on the morning of Saturday, May 21 and will continue throughout Monday and evening, or until the supply is exhausted. There is no set price for the poppies. Each citizen is asked to contribute what he feels he can afford for the cause of disabled and needy veterans and those who suffered most from the ravages of war.

Some 112 mothers and daughters were honored at a banquet in the Methodist church last week Wednesday evening, prepared by the Methodist Guild. The tables were centered with May baskets and yellow and orchid spring blossoms and the speaker's table was made distinctive with a miniature Maypole.

Group singing was enjoyed after which Mrs. David Dick, toastmistress, announced the following program: piano solo, Greta Porter; toast to daughters, Mrs. George Hay; saxophone solo, Brenda Porter; toast to the mothers, Beverly Hay; mother and daughter piano duet, "Blue Danube," Mrs. Wilfred Waldron and Mrs. John Hamilton.

Corsages were presented to the mother with the most daughters present, Mrs. William Yeager, and to the mother of the youngest daughter present, Mrs. John Hamilton.

Baptist Tea Enjoyed By Mothers, Daughters

Some 80 mothers and daughters enjoyed a tea in their honor at the Baptist church, last Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Carl Kempf was in charge of refreshments.

Mrs. Ted McConnell presented the following program: piano solo, Miss Barbara Hall; prayer, Mrs. Floyd Bryan; tribute to mothers, Mrs. Max Brandt; vocal solo, Mrs. Lyle Grigg; tribute to daughters, Mrs. Nell Pearson; vocal solo, Miss Camilla Grigg; poem, Mrs. Dean VanValkenburg.

Players Club Minstrel Attracts Crowd of 1,000

Hearty approval was registered by two large audiences, a total of about 1,000 persons, when the Players Club of the United Products Workers Union presented their Minstrel Show at the Union Hall, recently. Silas Kring directed the production. It is possible the show will be taken to other communities.

As the curtain rose the audiences were met with a cast of "high faller" girls and "coal black" men. The skit between Ray Stockinger and Walt Atwell was highly amusing and proved to be one of the main attractions of the show.

Wallace Whiting rendered "The Big Bass Viol" in his best baritone voice and "The Road To Mandalay" as an encore was done in professional style. Duncan Oliphant sang "Tuck Me To Sleep In My Old Tucky Home" and "Apple Blossom Time." "The Preacher and The Bear" and "Old Black Joe" was rendered by Frank Fairbanks. The girls quartette and "Ladies of the Ensemble" added much to the show. The surprise quartette was made up of Preston Caswell, John Brooks, jr., Jim Lister and Lyle Harper.

In the olio the Four Knights of Harmony rendered several numbers in their usual manner. Florence House as Lena Corn rendered "A Good Man Is Hard To Find" and the juvenile dancing acts were colorful and showed extreme precision. Jerry and Barbara Handy played a piano duet.

Dick Hartley was stage manager, Jack Puffer was the accompanist, Mary Heath Martin assisted with the makeup and Sam Shervino and Art Gray assisted with the properties and staging.

First Wednesday of month—8 P.M.
The public is cordially invited

"Sanctify unto me all the firstborn, whatsoever openeth the womb among the children of Israel, both of man and of beast; it is mine."

Thus spake the Lord to Moses. And Moses said to his people:

And it shall be when thy son asketh thee in time to come, "What is this," that thou shall tell him: 'By strength of hand the Lord brought us from Egypt. And it came to pass when Pharaoh would hardly let us go, that the Lord slew all the first born, in the land of Egypt; therefore, I sacrifice to the Lord all that are born, but the first born of my children I will redeem."

Here was devotion to God—in gratitude for their deliverance, they had agreed to deliver the first born males—men or beasts—to Him in token of their deliverance from the land of Egypt. Today, your church asks for lesser tokens of your faith. Your attendance this week will make the job the church is doing easier. Your cooperation in church activities will give you the mental satisfaction that always comes when one is working with a noble cause.

Michigan Mirror

Non-Partisan News Letter

By Gene Alleman
(Special to The Herald)

The issue of new taxes or economy is now headed for a showdown in the Michigan state legislature due to adjourn May 20.

Indications are that the latter choice will be taken by Republican legislators who are in majority control. They will soon learn whether their economy cuts will be popular. No state agency wishes to have its funds reduced. This is natural.

The situation is further complicated by the stern reality of increased state aid to local governments under constitutional earmarking of revenue funds. The state budget office estimates that SIXTY-SEVEN percent of total state revenue will be returned to local units—schools, cities, counties, townships, etc.—during the coming fiscal year, starting July 1.

Can the legislature economize on the remainder of state funds without impairing vital public services? That's the question. As we have said many, many times in this column, real economy must come from curtailment of public services—less service for less money—rather than from the mirage of consolidation of state agencies.

Some administrative officials are already wondering how the voters are going to receive the economy program of the legislature. Time will tell.

Governor G. Mennen Williams, the youthful and smiling chief executive, has already hinted that his platform for 1950 re-election will be the so-called "do-nothing" state legislature of 1949. Williams will be the so-called "do-nothing" the defensive. He will attack the Republican "failure" to do something for social needs—public housing, fair employment practice act, better pensions and payments for workers and so on. The "vested interests" who "control" the Republican party will come in for verbal assaults. Williams believes he has a ready-made campaign issue.

Actually, the 1949 legislature has not been any more tough on the Democratic governor than the 1947 and 1948 legislature was on Republican Governor Kim Sigler. Sigler also fared poorly, considering the over-all picture. The same might be said about other governors regardless of party control. The state legislature in Michigan is not apt to be a "rubber stamp" for a governor's recommendation. Legislators do their own thinking; they call 'em as they see 'em.

The Williams strategy to put the G.O.P. legislature on the defensive came out into the open the other day. Democratic solons said they were rebellious over Republicans failure to report out important bills from committees. They brought legislative action nearly to a standstill by parliamentary moves to require reading of all bills and other time-killing tactics.

Of course, if the Democrats had been in control of the legislature, the same thing would have happened to Republican-sponsored measures which did not meet approval of the party in power. This is the political way of getting things done—denying to the opponents any opportunity of achieving their goals.

Interesting situation: Judge Paul R. Cash, Gratiot county jurist and a Democratic appointee of Governor Murray D. VanWagoner, selected Kim Sigler for appointment as special prosecutor to try Ivan A. Johnson, ex-Macomb county prosecutor. It was the Johnson indictment on graft charges which contributed to Sigler's primary victory as nominee for governor.

The post of superintendent of public instruction will remain a constitutional office, subject to election. A move to make the official an appointee through a constitutional amendment failed 17 to 24 in a Senate test.

Adopted unanimously by the Senate a month ago, a bill to forbid betting on harness or running races in Michigan after December 31, 1949, was killed by the House committee on state affairs. Approximately $3 millions in state revenues were involved. A similar bill met the same fate two years ago.

Michigan faces a shortage of 2,800 public school teachers this fall, according to the University of Michigan bureau of occupational information.

Five ferry boats are now available for operation by the State Highway Department between Mackinaw City and St. Ignace at the Straits of Mackinac. The new boat, the S. S. Sainte Marie, will permit a 15 per cent additional carrying capacity according to Charles M. Zeigler, state highway commissioner.

Labor Surplus Seems General In The Nation

WASHINGTON—The rise in unemployment seems to have spread rather evenly throughout the nation rather than being concentrated in particular spots.

The Bureau of Employment Security reported this in releasing data showing that the labor surplus has increased in almost every important labor area of the country.

The agency said the number of "tight" labor market areas has been reduced from 33 a year ago to eight now.

Areas listed as still "tight" are Erie, Harrisburg and Lancaster, Pa., Youngstown, Ohio, South Bend, Ind., Jacksonville, Fla., Dallas and the Rock Island-Moline-Davenport area.

Areas formerly "tight" but now having a "slight labor surplus" include Chicago, Peoria and Rockford, Ill., Milwaukee, Toledo and Columbus, Ohio, Fort Wayne, Ind., Hartford and New Haven, Conn., Reading, Pa., Omaha, Wichita, Des Moines, Charlotte, N. C., Richmond, Va., Wheeling, W. Va., Oklahoma City and Tulsa, Okla., Houston and San Antonio, Texas, Denver, Memphis and Washington, D. C.,

In addition, many areas formerly classed as having a "slight labor surplus now are rated with a moderate labor surplus and even "substantial" surplus.

However, the increase in joblessness has been spread so evenly that the areas now having "substantial labor surplus" comprise less than one quarter of the nearly 100 important labor areas.

$500 Damage From Fire To The Updike Paint Shop

Burning rubbish too close to a building resulted in a fire at the paint shop at the Updyke Service Station on East Chicago Blvd., last Friday morning at 7:45 a.m.

Damage to the building, owned by Earl Updyke, was estimated at $500. The equipment inside the shop was not harmed. The Tecumseh fire department responded to the call.

HONOR DEAD, HELP THE LIVING IS SLOGAN; ON SALE TOMORROW, SATURDAY

The 28th annual nationwide Buddy Poppy sale of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, now in full swing throughout the country, will be held in Tecumseh on May 20 and 21.

The purpose of the sale is to carry on each year the vast veteran welfare program of the overseas veteran organization. Some two-thirds of the proceeds are used locally to aid needy veterans and their dependents. Other phases of the program include veteran rehabilitation on a national scale and maintenance of the V. F. W. National Home for war orphans and widows, near Eaton Rapids, Michigan.

The Buddy Poppy sale made throughout the year by hospitalized veterans as a part of their therapeutic rehabilitation. The V. F. W. acts as sales agent for these veterans, paying them a portion of the returns for their work. The Gold Chevron organization does not profit from the sale, but uses the major portion of the funds in bringing relief to our victims of war.

"To Honor the Dead by Helping the Living" is the slogan of the annual V. F. W. Buddy Poppy sale. But more than that, it is the embodiment of a fundamental principle of our American democracy—that those who suffered for us shall not want for lack of gratitude.

Your purchase of a Buddy Poppy May 20 and 21 will be gratefully appreciated.

Covered Wagon On County Tour

"OPPORTUNITY BOND DRIVE" CAMPAIGN IS OFFICIALLY LAUNCHED

Twenty-nine Michigan cities will play host to the historic "Covered Wagon," which began its tour in Detroit on May 18, as a symbol of the United States Treasury's Opportunity Bond Drive. "Be a Modern 'Fory-Niner" is the theme of the campaign to sell $48,500,000 worth of bonds to Michiganders, purchases which will bring four dollars for every three dollars spent, after ten years.

Lizabeth Scott, Hollywood star, opened the drive in Detroit, and sent the wagon on its way.

It will cover Ferndale, May 21; Birmingham and Pontiac, May 23; Mt. Clemens, May 24; Port Huron, May 25; Flint, May 26; Saginaw, May 27; Bay City, May 28; Midland and Mt. Pleasant, May 30; Clare and Cadillac, June 1; Traverse City, June 2; Manistee and Ludington, June 3; Muskegon, June 4; Grand Rapids, June 6; Ionia, June 7; Lansing and East Lansing, June 7 and 8; Ann Arbor, June 9; Adrian, June 11; Jackson, June 13; Battle Creek, June 14; Kalamazoo, June 15; Benton Harbor, June 16; Dowagiac, June 17; Niles, June 18.

Thirty covered wagons, all authentic relics of pioneer days, are leaving Independence, Missouri, scene of many departures during 1849, homsteading days, and they will tour the entire country, covering 48 states. They are being flown by Army and Navy "airlift" from Independence to their first stops.

President Truman addressed the nation, encouraging the purchase of U. S. Savings Bonds to "put more OPPORTUNITY in your future," on May 16, over an all network hook-up.

SISTER CITY CANADIANS ANXIOUS TO VISIT TECUMSEH

Scottish Bagpipe Band Coming For International Day, July 2

Plans for "International Day" on July 2, complete with bagpipes, drums and bugles, in conjunction with the 125th Anniversary of Tecumseh this summer, were greatly accelerated at a meeting in Tecumseh, Ontario, last week attended by local municipal and civic officials.

This meeting was a follow-up of a visit made earlier this spring to the Canadian city by Leon Williamson, president, and Ronald Harris, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, to sound out the Ontario town on the possibility of saluting its Michigan namesake during the celebration this summer. The Chamber officials were cordially received, and last week's meeting in Canada showed that interest on the part of our Canadian sister city had snowballed during the interim.

Attending from Tecumseh, Michigan, in addition to Mr. Williamson and Mr. Harris were Marvin Watkins, village president, and Councilmen A. W. Porter, George McCombs, Glenn Driscoll, Clarence Beach, and Ray Sluyter.

In the presence of reporters and photographers from the Windsor Star, Mr. Watkins presented Mayor T. C. Scott of the Ontario town with the official resolution of the local council inviting the officials and citizens of the sister town to attend our celebration this summer. Mayor Scott read the resolution to the assembled municipal, Dominion, civic, industrial, and religious leaders, and accepted the invitation.

The Canadian group proceeded directly to the organizing of committees and the preparing of plans. Among the items which now seem definitely assured will be the appearance of the famous sixty piece bagpipe band of the Essex Scottish regiment, a boy and a girl drum and bugle crops sponsored by the Tecumseh, Ontario legion, a baseball game between the Tecumseh Indians of Canada and a local team, Tecumseh Ontario exhibits in downtown stores, and an interchange of flags of the two countries to be placed in the council rooms of the two towns.

"Tecumseh to Tecumseh" was the slogan coined by Federal Senator Gustave Lacasse in a ringing speech which pointed out the unique value of this international exchange between the sister towns. The Ontario group adopted the slogan enthusiastically and began to make plans whereby the Canadian visitors will arrive in Tecumseh on the second of July in a huge caravan.

Following are the tentative Tecumseh, Ontario committees: General committee: Mayor Scott, Reeve Cecile, Councillors E. J. Drouillard, G. M. Clapp, and H. T. Reaume and former Mayors Paul Poisson, Senator Lacasse, H. C. Parent, A. L. Poisson, F. P. Bouteiller and E. P. Morand and M. S. Clapp; Transportation, Jerry Desjardins, Councillors E. Drouillard, H. Reaume, and E. Cecile. Publicity, Senator Lacasse and B. Dupont. Entertainment: Basehall, B. Lacasse, Paul Cecile, and Sid Arbour; Bands, Mayor Scott, Col. Paul Poisson, and Sid Bistany. Exhibits: W. Wall and E. P. Morand.

Mrs. Marilla B. Owen Dies At Age of 95 Years

Mrs. Marilla B. Owen, aged 95 years, died Sunday morning at 10:35 a. m., at her home at 201 South Maumee St.

Born, June 25, 1853 in Burlington, New York, she moved to Michigan with her parents at the age of 10 years. They settled at Cambridge Junction and when Mrs. Owen was 15 moved to Tecumseh, where she attended the schools.

A member of St. Peter's Episcopal church, she was the last member of the Research Study Circle in Tecumseh. She was married to James William Owen December 10, 1872, and he preceded her in death January 15, 1931.

Surviving are four daughters, Mrs. Metta Stoffiet of Ann Arbor, Mrs. Pernita Welliver of Charlottesville, Va., Mrs. Lulu Wagner of Sioux City, Iowa, and Mrs. Jennie Curtiss of Tecumseh; 12 grandchildren, 18 great-grandchildren and 18 great-great-grandchildren. Two daughters, Mrs. Adah Lindsay and Mrs. Olcea Buehrer and one son Walter Owen, preceded her in death.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon from the Collins Funeral Home with the Rev. Gilbert Runkel of Adrian officiating. Burial was in Brookside cemetery. The bearers were Elmer Stoffiet, Lyman Curtiss, Owen Curtiss, Jack Curtiss, Fred VanTyne and Perry Satterthwaite.

ROTARIANS HEAR REPORTS FROM WEEK-END DISTRICT CONVENTIONS

"I never realized the real meaning of Rotary until you made it possible for me to attend the 151st District Convention at Jackson, last week end," William Martin, president of the senior class of Tecumseh High School, said Tuesday evening when he spoke to members of the Rotary Club here, following dinner at Brees House. "I have always felt that a Rotary meeting was a place where fellows got together, had dinner and a good time. I found out that Rotarians are not interested in themselves alone, but that they are interested in the other fellow."

Martin attended the Jackson convention as Tecumseh's guest. Scores of other young men also were there and they were given an opportunity to observe Rotary in action. "I'd suggest," he said in expressing appreciation, "that next year you send another boy to the meeting. It's a great experience."

Over the week-end, C. O. Butler, Rotary president, Clarence Gilman, president-elect, and their wives, attended the convention of the 153rd district of which Tecumseh is a part, at Windsor. They reported on that meeting, Tuesday evening. Tecumseh was honored at the Windsor meeting, Mr. Butler sitting at the speaker's table and offering a toast to the United Nations.

Annual Meeting Is Held By P.T.A.

The Parent-Teacher Association held its annual meeting in the high school auditorium last Thursday evening, with Mrs. T. Rentschler presiding.

The reports of the officers and committees gave the members an idea of the accomplishments of the year. The membership for the year was 866 with an average attendance of 75 to 100 at the monthly meetings although very few attended the annual meeting. Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Harsh and Mr. and Mrs. James Hartsell have attended all meetings of the year besides the officers.

"Nearly seventy-five members helped in some way during the year," Mrs. Rentschler said. "The fine attitude of the school authorities and teachers toward providing programs for the P.-T. A. and the splendid help of all who served on committees has made the year an enjoyable one for the officers," she continued.

The four-point program as suggested by the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, which was along the lines of education, health, international understanding and better home and family life, was achieved. The association also participated in community affairs such as providing judges for the Hallowe'en party, having representation at the meeting on welfare called by the Chamber of Commerce, sponsoring, under the direction of the University of Michigan, a conference on community self-help, being a member-organization of Town Hall and helping Neville Hart set up programs on Adult Education besides assisting with the audio-meter tests.

Earl Place, superintendent, reported among other things that a speech correctionist will be in the schools on two or more days a week next year. The school provided a one day service during the past year.

The program was introduced by Mrs. Ray Sluyter. She presented the following boys and girls, who did the Mexican Hat Dance in colorful costumes, accompanied by Mrs. Glenn Driscoll: Barry Packard, Bruce Packard, Nancy Randall, Rita Crosby, Meredith Hoffmeister, Merene Boltz, Sylvia Heiserman and Betty Barton. Carl Treckelton played two piano solos and Mrs. Fred Biddle and Mrs Dale Tingley presented a clever skit, "The Going-Round Committee."

BITTEN BY DOG

Five Year-Olds Must See Medic

EXAMINATIONS ARE NECESSARY BEFORE ENTERING KINDERGARTEN IN FALL

The parents of 1,300 children who will be entering kindergarten next fall in Lenawee county are receiving blanks for a physical examination as the school census is being taken. These blanks, which have been distributed through the offices of the various superintendents of Lenawee county, are accompanied by an explanatory letter requesting that the parents take their child to their family physician for an examination and immunizations if they have not already done so.

This is a part of a plan which has been worked out through the County Health Department with the cooperation of the County Medical Society and the superintendents of the county. The purpose is to prepare the child for entrance into school next fall by finding any physical handicap which may be present that would cause any difficulty in school, and if possible to correct these defects before the start of school. The preschool immunization against diphtheria and smallpox will protect the child for the first year or more, at which time they are exposed to large groups of other children, and will prevent the start of an epidemic.

For those parents who are unable to pay for immunization, the County Board of Health will pay the physicians a nominal fee for performing this service; while if they are unable to pay for having their child examined, a free clinic will be held at the office of the County Health Department each Saturday morning this summer for the purpose of examining these children.

Dr. H. C. Huntley, director of the Health Department, said there is no longer any reason why every child should not have a physical examination and be immunized before the beginning of school this fall. The superintendents are asking that the children present these blanks filled out and signed by their physician before admission to class this fall.

Dr. Huntley said the Health Department, through their nursing service, would follow up those children who have been observed to have handicaps and attempt to make arrangements for having these defects corrected.

FOOD AND CLOTHING ARE SENT TO EUROPE

Fifty-six pounds of food and clothing were packed and sent to a youth organization in Kronach, Germany, by the World Wide Guild girls of the Baptist church, recently. The food was purchased in part by the girls and their leader, Mrs. B. O. Bashore, and the remainder was paid for from the treasury. The clothing was donated by pupils of the Pink school near Tipton, of which Miss Shirley Baker is teacher.

DR. MacNAUGHTON TO DELIVER SERMON; JUNIOR-SENIOR RECEPTION HELD

Baccalaureate services for the Tecumseh high school graduating class will be held Sunday evening, May 22, in the Presbyterian church. The seniors, in their traditional caps and gowns, will take their seats at 8 p.m.

The sermon will be delivered by the Rev. Norman MacNaughton, Ph. D., and will be on the topic "Preparation For Life." Rev. Edward Escolme will give the invocation and Rev. Donald C. Wilson will announce the benediction. The Scripture lesson will be given by the Rev. Allan L. Ramsay and Rev. Alvin C. Brazee will offer the prayer.

St. Andrew's choir, under the direction of Mrs. Neville Hart, will sing, "The Twenty-Third Psalm," by Humphreys. Mrs. Fred C. Dickinson will be at the organ. Preceding the sermon Earl H. Place, superintendent, will speak briefly.

Class Night will be held Wednesday, June 1, and commencement exercises will be Thursday, June 2. The Baccalaureate service was moved ahead one week because of the Decoration Day weekend.

The popular "Forty-Niner" theme was carried out effectively with two wagon wheels suspended from the ceiling with gold and black streamers trailing from them. Murals of covered wagons, cactus and western scenes covered the walls. Beer bottles were used as candle holders and these centered the tables. The sophomore students who served the dinner prepared by Mrs. Martha Kuhn's home economics classes, were dressed in keeping with the occasion, the girls wearing sun bonnets and aprons and the boys in white shirts with red bandannas.

"Kill The Umpire" was the theme of Coach Elven Duvall's talk followed by Mrs. F. C. Dickinson, who spoke on the topic "On The Firing Line." James MacDowell, principal, used as his topic, "Eighth Hours or One Swift Kick."

The girls quartet, composed of Cynthia Spafford, Betty Jo Hanna, Jolene Barron and Pauline Bagshaw, accompanied by Shirley Flunegan, entertained with several numbers.

Members of the senior class returned last week from their trip, which promised them all many pleasant memories. The weather was fine, all were impressed by the beauty of the Niagara Falls and no one complained of not having a wonderful time. Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Dickinson and Coach and Mrs. Elven Duvall were the chaperones.

WAR TAX PENALTIES

During the war, nearly eight years ago, a 15% tax was added to all train, bus and plane fares, principally to discourage civilian travel.

It was not the primary purpose of the tax to raise revenue. The original reason for imposing it has long since ceased to exist. Like all taxes, once they have been established, it is almost impossible to get rid of them.

Today this penalty on travel not only works a hardship on commercial carriers at a time when business is slowing up, but it is affecting vacation travel and all activities which benefit from tourist business. It is a burden on parents of students who are traveling to school; on people visiting relatives; on people who must travel because of illness in the family, accidents and death; on individuals attending conferences and business meetings of various kinds, and traveling for health and recreation.

The tax has been repealed on travel to foreign countries receiving Marshall Plan aid. Several weeks ago Canada, which imposed a similar 15% tax during the war, dropped it.

Reasons for repealing the penalty tax on personal travel apply with equal force to the three per cent tax on freight shipments. Such a tax is discriminatory to the common carriers by rail or highway because shippers who buy their own trucks and furnish their own transportation, escape it. It penalizes producers who must ship their products long distances to markets in competition with those situated closer to consumers.

It is high time the people begin to demand that wartime taxes and restrictions be eliminated in favor of peacetime policies that tend to encourage industry and payrolls. A good place to begin is to remove the wartime penalty tax on all such necessities as passenger and freight rates.

Five-Foot Shelf of Good Looks

There are narrower corner posts hardly wider than the space between your eyes, so plenty easy to see around—and there's a broad, sweeping, full-curved windshield spreading a horizon-wide view before your eyes.

There's a gas treadle that flicks into instant life the great power of a big Fireball power plant. Under the wheel there can be a Dynaflow† selector lever you set once and then forget through all normal forward driving.

Built to take Tractor Service

DEARBORN WAGON*

The power of modern tractors is just too much for old-fashioned wagons. They can't take it—for long.

You don't have to worry about or "baby-along" this Dearborn Wagon. It's really built for tractor service.

It has a rated capacity of 5,000 pounds. Automotive type steering permits the front axle to always remain in line with the rocking bolster. Tie rods give you accurate wheel adjustment and minimize "whip." Tapered roller bearings in all wheels cut friction, prevent axle and hub wear, provide ample load capacity, remove speed restrictions. Telescopic reach gives wheel-base of 7 to 10½ feet.

There's Genuine Satisfaction In Growing Your Own Vegetables

Yes, it's true, there is a lot of genuine satisfaction in growing your own vegetables . . . planting the seed, caring for the plants and watching them mature to harvest. It's fun and, besides, it's healthful exercise.

We'd like to suggest, however, that when you plant your garden you use our PRE-TESTED SEED. It costs no more than ordinary seed, yet it has been tested and proved rapid-growing by the producer.

We've handled pre-tested seed exclusively for many years. And each year, our customers come back for more of the seed. That's the finest recommendation that we know for our product.

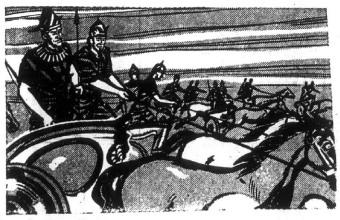
Next To Consumers



In the children of Israel were leaving Egypt, Pharaoh's heart was again hardened, and he gave chase—accompanied by his best soldiers, and 600 chariots. The children were encamped by the Red Sea, and, as they saw the army approaching, they appealed to Moses for help. Moses, after a consultation with the Lord, stretched his arm out over the sea, and the waters opened up and formed a wall on either side, and the road between was dry. The children started across. As the approaching army was on this same road, and about to overtake them, the Lord caused a part of the sea to return and fill this road, and every Egyptian was drowned. Thus, the people saw the great work the Lord did upon the Egyptians, and the people feared the Lord, and believed his servant Moses.

Here was a miracle—which saved an entire nation from total destruction and servitude. Outnumbered and defenseless, their faith took care of them, just as it will take care of you.

When everyday worries are overtaking you, and your troubled mind will not let you rest, take your troubles to the church of your choice. There you will find solace, comfort, understanding, in worship with people of your own faith. The church needs you—you need the church.

CLINTON

A community farewell for Dr. and Mrs. F. H. Littell and daughters was held Sunday afternoon with an "open house" at the Methodist church from 2:30 to 4 p.m. The church families gathered at the church for a potluck dinner at one o'clock, with Rev. O. E. Priest, as the after dinner speaker. During the afternoon program favorite songs and decorations of the Littells were featured.

The ways and means committee of the Clinton Band Boosters Club was named by the president at the meeting last week, as follows: chairman, Mrs. Harry Werth; Mrs. Sam Robison, Mrs. Gerald Ogden. The advisory board is composed of Guy Hoover, James Meeks, Mrs. W. B. Hornsby, Mrs. Lillian Fitzgerald and E. D. Dersham. During the summer months Neil Jones will direct the band, which will play here Memorial Day and at Tecumseh July 4. Mrs. John Hoelzer is obtaining information relative to the band playing at Briggs Stadium at Detroit at a ball game this summer. Each band member is to purchase white duck trousers before July 4. These will be worn with white sox, white shirt, black shoes and tie at all appearances.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Werth and daughter Jean and Mrs. Cynthia Davis spent the weekend at Twining.

Funeral services were held in Chelsea Saturday afternoon for Mrs. Lennie Skentelbury, wife of the Rev. W. H. Skentelbury, a former pastor of the Congregational church here. Besides her husband she is survived by a daughter, Ruth and a son, Phillip.

The happy-go-lucky life of the rising generation indicates that it doesn't consider going to the devil such an undesirable trip.

A third party in politics is believed by most people to be as nonessential as a third party in a hammock.

It doesn't matter much whether the world is round or flat, the main thing is to watch your step and keep your balance.

A woman's best test of her husband's devotion is to ask him to go to the store and match a piece of ribbon for her.

Maybe the reason most citizens speak well of a man after he is dead is because they didn't do so while he was living.

"that's OUR New Home In Herrick Park"

. . . and think how your family will enjoy it!

A fine, new, modern home, located in one of the finest subdivisions in Southern Michigan . . . a spot that is destined to be the show-place of all Lenawee county subdivisions within five years.

Now, for the first time since Herrick Park was opened, its lots are available to the public . . . and economically priced.

Completely FHA approved, this subdivision has sewer and water available to every lot. Streets graded and oil treated. Shade trees planted. Other public utilities at your very door-step.

You can move into your new home in Herrick Park in early Fall if you will give us the go-sign this month. A lot and a small down payment is all that you need. The house will be built to your specifications.

Opportunity is knocking! Investigate immediately.

Lots In Herrick Park Available To Public

Building and material costs are d-o-w-n . . . they are 10 per cent or more cheaper than they were a year ago. Oak flooring, for example, is about one half the price that it was at the peak.

Think of it! You now can build a modern home in Herrick Park for as little as $6,300, or as much as $20,000.

Why continue to pay rent? Herrick Park is fully FHA approved. A small down payment is all that you need to start construction.

You've admired Herrick Park with its circular drives, its fine new homes, now you, too, can build there. Its lots have been made available to the public.

Herrick Park offers you every advantage . . . at below average home-ownership costs. Its large lots, water front and recreational areas offer opportunities for children at play. Its secluded sufficiently to be free from noise and traffic.

You'll thrill with your family in a new home located in this most modern of subdivisions.

By Gene Alleman
(Special to The Herald)

Since 67 per cent of state-collected revenues are automatically returned to local governments for spending, the big question before the legislature this week—as solons raced for final adjournment—was this:

How much can we reduce the state deficit next year through economy cuts in appropriations for state institutions and state agencies?

Governor G. Mennen Williams warns that a $60 million deficit is impending despite legislative efforts to trim state operating expenses.

"After cutting off crippled children, slashing the state college and university, reducing the staffs of our mental hospitals and making other cuts," he said, "the appropriation bills would still leave us about $50 million short, after using up the expected $10 surplus we will have left June 30, 1949."

The governor's solution: Tax corporation profits four or five per cent.

The Republican-dominated legislature has chosen, as its policy, a program of economy for state services (financed by 32 per cent of state-collected revenues) and no new taxes or increase of existing taxes. The outcome will be a treasury deficit, of course. The only question is "How Much?"

That the Republican legislature has given the governor a ready-made issue—its "failure" to tax corporation profits and thus avert a deficit—is already indicated by Governor Williams' strategy.

The Republicans' answer will probably be in the affirmative: The legislature "saved" the public from increased taxes by requiring economy in state appropriations.

Judging from the spring election strategy, the G.O.P. position may also be this: "We saved the state from a C.I.O.-inspired raid on the state treasury."

Republican State Chairman Owen J. Cleary hammered away throughout the spring campaign that the C.I.O. had dominated the Democratic state convention. It was openly charged that the C.I.O. was telling Governor Williams what to do.

Michigan's bi-partisan government, so called at least, was brought about by the switching of approximately one-half million voters from the Kim Sigler banner —all in two years' time.

Although Republican leaders feel that the election of a Democratic governor was a by-product of a protest vote against the Republican governor-nominee, Governor Williams has accepted the verdict as a mandate for social causes he advocated.

The legislative session of 1949 was predestined to be a stalemate and draw between these two conflicting viewpoints. And since Governor Williams is ready to campaign for re-election in 1950 on the Republican-made issues, the final answer obviously must come from the voters in November, 1950.

Williams believes he has everything he needs to win. He is confident, to say the least.

Fishermen can catch panfish of any size. The conservation director may designate which water may be fished for rainbows in the fall.

Campers on state land must get free permits and must cleanup the grounds before leaving.

Broadens the qualifications for the director of the department of mental health.

Redefines rural school districts to include third class districts.

What'u Gunna Do When a Feller

Gets Mad Atcha And Then Goes Out And Beats Hisself? Eh?

We had the dumbdest thing happin tother week, we jus can't git it off our mind. Maybe yu'r sayin', "What mind?" Wa'al.

Anyhow, feller brought his critter in here and wanted to trade her for one we had in the stabul. We 'greed we'd trade him, but he thought we was askin' him $25 too much in cash difference. The big cowboy just walked out, mad like, and the next day he came in with a new critter . . . new to him, that is . . . that he'd traded fur somewhere else. And what'u think. He paid $50 difference. Wa'al.

That wasn't so bad, but he beat hisself all hollow. Sharp feller put one over on him and now he wants us to fix up his animul, but he hain't got any money. Wa'al, what'u gonna do?

Feel sorry for the guy, course, and so we're fixin' his jalopy and puttin' it on the cuff till he gets some cash. And now he's kickin hisself cause he didn't trade with us in the fust place.

Fore you go out and make some crazy deal like that, yu'd better come in an 'spect these cars we're listin' below. We'll tell you about 'em fore you buy 'em, and as we tell yuh, that's the way they are. If yuh ain't got quite enouf cash we can fix that, too, cause we gives service all the way 'round.

New Country Club To Open On Memorial Day

Details have been completed for the formal opening of Tecumseh's new $150,000 Country Club on Monday, May 30, with a golfing program and buffet luncheon in the afternoon and dancing in the evening for its 180 members. While the clubhouse is not completely finished, and some landscaping remains to be done, stockholders are enthusiastically awaiting the Memorial Day party. The program is scheduled to get under way at 2:30 in the afternoon when Frank Purcell, president, drives a gold ball off the No. 1 tee. (Herald Photo).

Country Club Opens Monday

DRIVING OF GOLD BALL OFF TEE TO MARK FORMAL DEDICATION, MAY 30

Tecumseh's new $150,000 Country Club, located just northeast of the village limits on the Grange Hall road, will be formally opened on Decoration Day, May 30, when Frank Purcell, president, drives a gold ball off No. 1 tee at 2:30 p.m. An open house program will follow with contests and a buffet luncheon and in the evening there will be dancing with Ken Edwards' band furnishing the music.

Contests scheduled for the afternoon include: At 2:45, men's 125-yard pitching contest. At 3:45, ladies' 60-yard pitching contest. At 4:30, all club demonstration by Leo Bishop, professional. Five o'clock, ladies' driving contest and 5:45, mens' driving contest. At 6:30 there will be a foursome or group challenge driving contest.

The new brick, steel and concrete club house, built on the 140-acre site purchased from the Ford Motor Company, will be practically completed for the opening. While there still are some electrical and plumbing details, they were not of sufficient consequence to delay the party. The playing of golf, however, will be restricted, due to the immature growth of grass on some of the greens and fairways. Just when games on all of the entire 9-hole course will be permitted has not been announced.

The clubhouse itself is one of the finest in southern Michigan, and by far the finest in any community of Tecumseh's size. It is ultra modern in design and appointments.

The reception committee in charge of the open house program is made up of John Ziegler, chairman, assisted by: Mr. and Mrs. Ned Rosacrans, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Pfaus, Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Haight, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Tucker, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Sluyter, Mr. and Mrs. Yale Kerby, Mr. and Mrs. Bobbie Robinson and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Randall. The contest committee is headed by C. O. Butler, assisted by Mr. Haight and Clarence Beach.

Purchase of stock by the 180 members of the club at the present time has made possible the construction of the club house and the building of the golf course. At a recent meeting it was decided to increase the membership to 200 resident members and 25 non-resident members. A non-resident member is considered to be one who resides outside a 25-mile radius of Tecumseh.

The minimum cost of all memberships has been increased to $200, (two shares of stock), and dues to non-resident members will be $25 plus tax. Dues to resident members is $50 plus tax. When membership in the club reaches 225 the names of applicants will be placed on a waiting list.

ARTHUR HARDING, 80, OBSERVES ANNIVERSARY

Monday, May 22, Arthur Harding observed his 80th birthday anniversary. Sunday he celebrated it, with the assistance of 27 of the older members of the Methodist church, who, after church, gathered at the Floyd Elliott home for a potluck dinner, all of which was a surprise to Mr. Harding.

The birthday cake was cut by "Art" after dinner. The afternoon was spent visiting with one another. "Art" has lived in Tecumseh since he was six years old and has been as active in his church as he is in his community.

Electrical Shock Sends Workman To Hospital

Handling a steel post which came in touch with a high tension wire caused 7200 volts of electricity to pass through the body of a Delta, Ohio, man last Saturday at 10:30 a.m., near the Philco building of the Tecumseh Products Co. The man, Glen Smith, was removed to Tecumseh Hospital by ambulance where his condition was reported as fair today.

Working with a construction crew, Smith was putting up a steel post for a fence when the accident occurred. The post had touched the ground before touching the high tension wire and it was said this undoubtedly saved his life. His hands, left arm and the bottom of his feet were burned.

Alumni Banquet, Friday Evening

CLASSES OF 1919 AND 1929 WILL OBSERVE THEIR ANNIVERSARIES

The annual banquet of the Tecumseh High School Alumni Association will be held in the school gymnasium, Friday evening, June 3, with the reception beginning at 5:30 o'clock. Dinner will be served at 6:30, by the Tecumseh Grange.

Fay Whelan, president, has announced the following committees: tickets, Miss Sally Heilman; nominating, Mrs. Lenore Curtiss; decorations, Mrs. Lucille Kempf; program, Mrs. Cora Pfaus, Miss Clara Waldron, Mrs. A. H. Brown, Mrs. Lillian Service, Ralph Comfort, Mrs. Sam Sisson and Mr. Whelan.

The invocation will be given by Perry Hayden. After a short business meeting, Mr. Comfort will welcome the class of 1949 and his son, Gordon, will respond. Alvin C. Brazee will conduct a short memorial for deceased members. The balance of the program, the president stated, is a surprise and will not be announced before that night.

The class of 1919 will celebrate its 30th anniversary and Perry Hayden is arranging for the members to attend. Mrs. Edwin Williamson represents the class of 1929 which will celebrate its 20th anniversary and she is also getting in touch with her classmates.

"Only 200 reservations have been made with the Grange," Mr. Whelan said, "and it is hoped that the alumni will make their reservations early in case we have to increase that number." Tickets can be purchased from Gaston's, Wright's Drug Store, Hodges' Drug Store, Easton's Service and John Hamilton's Gulf Service.

$15 FINES IMPOSED

Arthur Dorfe, 37, his wife, Florence, 32, both of Adrian, and Edward Gottschalk, 54, Holloway, were arrested by police here Saturday night, charged with being drunk and disorderly. Before Justice Leon VanDusen at a court session here Monday, they pleaded guilty and each drew fines of $15 and court costs of $5.35. In default of payment, a 20 day jail term was imposed.

$100 DAMAGE TO CAR

A car owned by Ira Frear, Dundee, and parked on Russell Road, suffered about $100 damage, Saturday, when it was struck by a state-owned truck, driven by J. R. Feight, Rt. 1, Tecumseh. No one was in the car when the accident happened, police said.

Exchange Club To Build Steps

SERVICE GROUP VOTES TO INSTALL NEW RECREATION CENTER APPROACH

Installation of a new set of 10-foot concrete steps at the entrance of Recreation Center, the job to be completed before Tecumseh's 125th Anniversary Celebration and pageant, scheduled for June 30 through July 4, was voted by members of the Tecumseh Exchange Club, Monday evening. It was said that the club hoped to do all the work with donated labor but members will purchase the necessary materials amounting to about $400.

With the approach of the holiday celebration and pageant and the likelihood of 50,000 persons or more visiting Tecumseh during the 5-day event, members of the board of Recreation Center had worried of late that the old wooden steps to the natural ampitheatre would not withstand the heavy traffic. It was estimated that new steps, including labor, would cost about $1,000 and the Center's treasury is badly depleted. The Exchange Club's action has solved the question for the Center.

The new steps, it was said, will be 10 feet in width with 12-inch treads and 6-inch risers. There will be 64 steps in all and there will be iron railings installed on each side and in the middle. The construction will be of stone, steel and concrete.

At Monday's meeting of the club, Clarence Gilman showed motion pictures of his last years' trip to Canada on a fishing expedition. Guests included Michael Garey of Chicago and Harold Wilson. Kenneth Dawson was admitted to club membership.

Mrs. Dorothea Lidster Dies In Ann Arbor

Funeral services are to be held today (Thursday) at 2:30 p.m., from the Ridgeway Church of the Nazarene for Mrs. Dorothea Lidster, 41, of Britton, who died Tuesday at the University hospital in Ann Arbor, where she had been a patient for four days. The Rev. Roy L. Sheehy will officiate and burial will be in Ridgeway cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Lidster had lived two and one-half miles west of Deerfield for ten years. She was a member of the Ridgeway Church of the Nazarene and the Woman's Missionary Society.

Surviving are her husband, Arland, four daughters, Florine Joyce, Jeanette, Beth and Sharon, a son, Cloyce and her father, Fred Cook, all at home; four sisters, Mrs. Irving Lapham and Mrs. Agnes Hawkins of Pittsford, Mrs. Marian Taylor of North Adams and Mrs. Katherine Mains of Quincy and a number of other relatives.

CHILD IS INJURED

Roger Fletcher, 6, of 714 Outer Drive, suffered head and knee injuries when he dashed into the path of a truck, driven by Roger Wilson, 307 N. Democrat. The accident happened last week on N. Mill street. Police investigated.

CARS COLLIDE

A car driven by Glennwood Griswahn, Britton, and another by Charles W. Lickfelt, Tipton, collided on E. Chicago boulevard, last week. Neither car was badly damaged, police said.

MARRIED 50 YEARS

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sheldon will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary Sunday, May 29, with open house at the Tecumseh Grange Hall, from three to five o'clock.

Tecumseh Will Honor War Dead

PARADE AND PROGRAM IN BROOKSIDE CEMETERY IS PLANNED FOR MONDAY

Tecumseh will pay a fitting tribute to its war dead on Monday, Memorial Day, with a parade through the business district and a program at Brookside Cemetery. Stores, factories and offices, generally speaking, will be closed, permitting employees a long week-end holiday.

Again this year, Louis S. Schneider will act as marshal of the day at the Memorial parade and this line of march has been announced:

The parade will form on North Ottawa street, across from the high school, and will move promptly at 10 a.m., south on Ottawa to Chicago boulevard, then west on the boulevard to Union street and north on Union street to Brookside. The parade will pause, briefly, as it crosses Evans creek that a wreath of flowers may be laid on the waters, honoring those who gave their lives at sea.

At the cemetery, the Rev. Edward Escolme, pastor of the Friends church, will ask the invocation and the Rev. Fr. Michael Collins, pastor of St. Elizabeth's Catholic church, will deliver the address. A volley will be fired and taps sounded.

In the parade, which will be headed by the Tecumseh High School band, attired in their new uniforms, will be delegations from the Spanish American War and Auxiliary, Underwood-Orr Post, American Legion, and Hall-Sitter Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and their Auxiliaries. There also will be a flower car, a car for village officials, the firing squad and color guard, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and Cub Scouts, fire trucks and pedestrians. There will be a number of horseback riders in the parade and they have been asked to meet at the park across from the school at 9:15 a.m., sharp.

The committee in charge of the program is made up of Mr. Schneider as chairman with Earl Kruger and Harold Warren of the V.F.W. assisting him.

Tecumseh Will Meet Tecumseh

ONTARIO REPRESENTATION TO VISIT CHAMBER OFFICIALS TONIGHT

Arrangements for completion of details of the "Tecumseh to Tecumseh" Day, July 2, will be discussed at a joint meeting of representatives of Tecumseh, Ontario and Tecumseh, Michigan, at the Tecumseh Club tonight.

A delegation of Ontario visitors, headed by Mayor Tom Scott will arrive this evening for a dinner meeting with village and Chamber of Commerce officials.

Plans at present include the Essex Scottish Bagpipe band, a boy and girl drum and bugle corps, a baseball game between teams of the two towns, and an interchange of the flags of the two nations to be placed in their respective council rooms.

Mayor Scott, Councilman H. T. Reaume, public works director Sid Arbour and their wives of the Canadian town, paid a visit to its Michigan namesake last Sunday evening. This was their first visit and they were shown the various highlights of our community. They expressed themselves as eager to have more visits between the two towns in order that the inter-community friendships and understandings now being developed may continue to increase.

Memorial Service Is Planned By Grange

Tecumseh Grange will hold its regular meeting this evening at 8 o'clock. Refreshments will be served and members will please bring cake or cookies. The committee consists of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Eaton, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Cadmus, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Pilbeam, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Netcher, Mr. and Mrs. Raynor Benedict, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hunt and Lavern Thomas.

During the lecture hour, Mrs. Marjorie Ehorbach will present a memorial service, an appropriate tribute to those patrons who have passed away during the year, with reverent decoration of the altar and an impressive drill by several Grange ladies in formal dress. The Grange Chorus will sing.

Howard Heath of Radio Station WPAG, Ann Arbor, will be present to make recordings. Members may bring flowers in memory of those who have passed away.

I will not be in my office from May 19 to May 27 inclusive.

Work On New High School Progressing On Schedule

Tecumseh's new $400,000 high school on North Maumee street is rapidly taking shape and should be in readiness for formal opening at the beginning of the second semester of the 1949-50 school year in January, Earl H. Place, superintendent, said today.

The new 19-room building, which will include a study hall and library, is of brick, steel and concrete construction, two stories in height, and is located immediately east of Recreation Center. The second floor of the building has been poured and workmen are now pouring the first floor and pillars for the roof. Entrances to the building will be from Maumee and Shawnee streets.

VILLAGE PRESIDENT ISSUES PROCLAMATION; SALE AIDS VETERANS

Saturday and Sunday, May 28 and 29, have been officially declared as American Legion Poppy Days in Tecumseh by Marvin Watkins, village president. The bright little flowers, made by the hands of veterans in Michigan hospitals, will be sold on the streets here by members of the Underwood-Orr Post No. 34, American Legion Auxiliary, on Saturday and Sunday.

"In memory of those veterans who gave their lives that freedom might live, and of those still suffering from the ravages of the two great wars, I do hereby declare May 28 and 29 official American Legion Poppy Days in Tecumseh," Mr. Watkins said. "I earnestly ask the cooperation of the people of the community in purchasing the flowers from the Underwood-Orr Post Auxiliary on those days."

Months before the official poppy days, hospitalized veterans, both men and women, at Percy Jones Hospital, Veterans Facility at Dearborn, Base Hospital No. 100 and the American Legion Hospital at Battle Creek, as well as at other hospitals throughout the state are busy fashioning the tiny flowers that will be sold here and throughout the state at Memorial Day time. For this task they receive a renumeration which enables them to purchase for themselves the many small items requisite to their comfort and well being.

Members of the local Auxiliary purchase the flowers directly from the hospitals through the state chairman and they in turn use the funds received from the sale to furthers the great rehabilitation and child welfare program of the Legion and its Auxiliary.

During the past year, approximately 60 per cent of the money derived from last year's sale of poppies was used for local assistance where it was needed. An active volunteer committee administers the spending of the funds for both state and local needs. Last year's funds have been completely exhausted and the women of the Auxiliary hope for the public's generosity in the purchase of flowers this year that they may continue the worth-while projects.

If You Own A Dog, It Must Be Tied Up

If you own a dog, whether its licensed or not, keep it tied up or on your own property if you do not care to pay a fine.

That was the advice today of Police Chief Earl Bowen when he announced that the ordinance governing dogs would be rigidly enforced. Recently, he said, police have received many complaints from residents about stray dogs.

"It doesn't matter," the chief said, "whether dogs are licensed or not, if we find them running loose we'll pick them up and impound them. The owners may get them back by paying $2 if they act inside of 72 hours. After that time the dogs will be turned over to the county and owners will have to deal with the county warden."

REMEMBER WHEN?

Remember when, not so long ago, some of the highest officials in the Federal government were saying that reimposition of price control and other such strait-jacket measures were necessary if runaway price inflation was to be prevented?

Do you also remember, at about the same time, the same high officials were dolefully predicting that any cut in taxes would also give price inflation a new shot in the arm and send the indexes booming into the stratosphere?

We all know what happened. Luckily for the welfare of the nation, Congress refused to reimpose wartime controls. Congress also put a reduction in income taxes into effect.

For a considerable period of time the price level changed relatively little—the big inflationary trend that was forecast didn't appear. Then, a few months ago, prices started down. They are still going down. In some cases, the drops have been very substantial. Meat is the best example of this. Declines of 20 per cent and more in meat prices have been registered since last year's peak.

This was the result of the traditional functioning of the free market. Instead of having a black market—which always flourishes under government controls—we had a market which is responsive to the all-powerful forces of supply and demand. It is true that the tax cuts gave more people more money to spend. Along with that, producers in many fields increased their output. Prices found their proper level—as they will continue to do in the future. The advocates of a regimented economy offer interesting theories—but the hard facts just don't back them up

Two Heads Are Better Than One (Or None)

I get a kick out of buying stuff down at the hardware store. And I always ask for a little advice from one of the two brothers who run it, because I know beforehand exactly what the answer will be.

Like when I needed a new garden hose. "Henry," I says, "how about this new plastic hose—is it really as good as rubber?" "Well," he says, "I'm inclined to think it is—but you'd better ask Tom."

I found Tom in back and asks him the same question. "Well," says Tom, "in my opinion it is—but you'd better ask Henry." "I already have," I says, "and when you two cautious old codgers agree I'd bet my life on the decision."

From where I sit, your own opinion is worth a lot—but so's the other fellow's. That's why I keep saying, over and over, let's be tolerant of the other person's point of view—whether it's on politics or farming— or whether you like milk shakes and he prefers a temperate glass of beer.

Nice Mrs. X is busy breaking children's hearts

She's a good mother ; ; ; a kind-hearted woman. She wouldn't harm even a fly.

Not deliberately, that is.

She doesn't stop to consider how a word—a careless, cruel word—will stick in a child's mind. For years, perhaps. Maybe for a lifetime.

So she says—

Perhaps she doesn't even say why. She doesn't have to. Children catch on. They know why their mother objects to "that new child."

And so—carelessly, unthinkingly —another seed of prejudice is planted.

Maybe you know Mrs. X. Maybe she lives next door. Maybe she lives even closer than that.

* * *

For your children's sake—for our own sake, we can all do these three things to help build a better America:

1. ACCEPT—or reject—people on their individual worth.
2. DON'T LISTEN to, or spread, rumors against a race, or a religion.
3. SPEAK UP, wherever we are, against prejudice, and work for understanding.

Remember—

About The Folk You Know

Members of the Wit and Wisdom Club are looking forward to June 6 when they'll have an opportunity to inspect and try out Leon Van Valkenburg's new motor boat he completed recently . . . The Van Valkenburgs will entertain the club at their Sand Lake cottage for the annual picnic and members and guests are reminded they can come as early as they like . . . The pot-luck supper will be served at 6:30 p.m.

When M. W. "Red" Wilson and Tim Neill appeared on television during intermission at the wrestling matches in Detroit, Monday evening, they put in a "plug" for International Day here July 2 and the opening of the Country Club May 30, as well as the concern by which they are employed, the Tecumseh Products Co. . . . When asked as to how it happened they were chosen to appear, "Red" said it must have been because of their short haircuts, but, there is evidently another reason.

Mrs. Earl Place entertained the members of the school faculty and the board of education, including their wives and husbands, at a Baccalaureate tea, Sunday afternoon. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. James McDowell and Mrs. Darwin Smith. Mrs. Jens Touborg and Mrs. Alvin Brazee presided at the urns.

Janet Bashore was surprised last week when Mary Lou Burleson entertained 11 girls at a going away party for her . . . The guests enjoyed games and cold cuts and chips in the recreation rooms of the Elmer Burleson home . . . Jane was presentcd a gift from the group, which included Nancy Randall, Grace Moore, Judy Sisson, Janice Boltz, Sylvia Golat, Ardyth Eaton, Joyce Gray, Patsy Purcell, Marie Mack and Mary Nixon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Floyd Elliott observed their 40th wedding anniversary by enjoying dinner and entertainment in Toledo, Thursday evening, in the company of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Laidlaw.

Lewis Coller was showered with greetings on his birthday anniversary by fellow Grangers and friends, Friday . . . Mr. and Mrs. Coller observed their 57th wedding anniversary on the same day.

MOELLERS ELECTED TO AYRSHIRE ASSOCIATION

The unanimous election of Moeller Brothers, Clinton, to membership in the Ayrshire Breeders' Association has been announced by National Secretary C. T. Conklin of Brandon, Vt. The ancestors of the herd of dairy cows owned by the Moellers trace back to the heathered-covered hills of County Ayr, Scotland, from which the breed derives its name. There are now more than 20,000 herds of Ayrshires in the United States.

Tells Of Cruise To China, Japan

A six-weeks cruise to Hawaii, Japan, the Philippine Islands and China was interestingly described by Mrs. C. H. Williamson, at the regular meeting of the Tecumseh Business and Professional Woman's Club, held Monday evening in the Baptist church and attended by 43 members.

Mrs. Williamson took the cruise while spending the winter in California with her daughter and family. Starting from San Francisco, the "President Cleveland" took the passengers to Hawaii, the Philippines, China and Japan, where they went on guided tours. In Japan the tour took them 370 miles overland in two days, traveling by bus and rail.

The people, their customs, dress and food were described by the speaker who also displayed samples of money and the menus and programs of the activities on board ship. Her talk was much enjoyed by the group.

Preceding dinner Mrs. Duaine Service led in devotions followed by group singing of the doxology. The speaker's table was centered with a bouquet of red roses and arrangements of spring flowers adorned the other tables.

During the business meeting, Mrs. Mertie Jones was recognized as the oldest member there. Mrs. Leon VanValkenburg, the retiring president, expressed her thanks to her officers and members for their assistance during the past year.

Mrs. Howard Truesdale installed the new officers and was assisted by her little daughter, Judy. After Mrs. Truesdale repeated a verse about each of the retiring officers, Judy presented Mrs. VanValkenburg with a corsage and the remainder of the officers with a red rose. The same was repeated with the new officers, who are as follows: president, Mrs. George French; first vice president, Miss Mabel Lockwood; second vice president, Mrs. Dale Tingley; secretary, Mrs. Grenval Spangler; corresponding secretary, Mrs. George Hay; treasurer, Mrs. Duaine Service. For the new officers Mrs. Service sang "My Task," accompanied by Mrs. Margaretta Brisbin.

The following committees were appointed: program, Miss Ruth Harding, Mrs. Hilda Hill, Mrs. Frederick Biddix, Mrs. Ogland Lay, Miss Jean Partee; membership, Miss Geraldine French, Mrs. Leon VanValkenburg, Mrs. Nina Heath; finance, Mrs. Ray Sluyter, Mrs. Barton Meyer, Mrs. Arlene Gibson; publicity, Mrs. Robert Williamson, Miss Dorothy Schumm; courtesy, Miss Ruby Preston, Mrs. Yale Kerby, Mrs. Orelle Smith; child welfare, Mrs. Howard Truesdale, Mrs. George Heimerdinger, Mrs. Harry Stanifer; auditing, Miss Marie Koehnig, Mrs. Ruth LaPrad, Mrs. George Hay; parliamentarian, Mrs. O. W. Laidlaw; picnic, Miss Beatrice Daykin, Mrs. Marryn Bolta, Mrs. Clayton Mikesell.

Mrs. VanValkenburg presented the gavel to Mrs. French, who opened the program by introducing Barbara Hall and Nita Spangler, members of Mrs. Brisbin's piano classes, who played three piano duets, "Rustic Chapels," "Hay-makers Frolic," and "Two Guitars." The program closed with two piano solos by Irma Broiller, "Theme from Beethoven's Symphony No. Five and "Swallow Song."

Mrs. French announced the summer picnic will be held June 27, the time and place to be announced later.

Plymouth Manufacturers Are Guests At Rotary

The history of the founding of the Daisy Manufacturing Co., of Plymouth, nationally famous builders of air rifles, was told interestingly to members of th Rotary Club, meeting at Bree House, Tuesday evening, by C. H. Bennett, 86-year-old president of the company. Mr. Bennett, E. C. Hough and Cass R. Hough, vice presidents, and Russell Done treasurer of the company, were guests at the meeting of Mc Partridge. All are members of the Plymouth Rotary.

Mr. Bennett's story of the early history of Daisy and his experiences as salesman, when in 1889 he over-sold the factory's production, reminded his listeners of the Horatio Alger tales. Confident of the company's success, Bennett, as a youth, purchased stock in the firm as rapidly as his savings would permit and he now heads the institution which has sold millions of air guns.

Other guests at the meeting included Frank Hill of Baltimore, David Hallack, Battle Creek, and Bruce Hoffman of California, a former member of the club.

There will be no meeting of Rotary here next Tuesday, the day following Memorial Day.

Presbyterian Men's Club To Meet On June 9th

After a series of meetings at the Presbyterian church, the first of which was held on March 17, a committee was elected, headed by Dr. W. H. Mast, for the purpose of organizing a Men's Club within the church. On April 27, the following officers were elected: President, Ernest G. Green; vice president, Dr. W. H. Mast; treasurer, Sam Shervino; secretary, Charles Branigin.

The first meeting of the Men's Club will be held at the Charles Branigin farm, Thursday, June 9, at 6 o'clock. This will be an out of doors steak fry, and all male members of the church and their friends are cordially invited to attend. Tickets are now available and can be purchased from any officer of the club, or from Clair Rozelle, ticket chairman.

The expressed purpose of this organization is to work with the church and to assist in any way possible.

New Officers Named By The Music Club

Meeting Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Perry Hayden, the Tecumseh Music Club elected officers for the ensuing year as follows: president, Mrs. Maynard Mulvaney; vice president, Mrs. Thomas Gallant; secretary, Mrs. Herbert Dillon; treasurer, Mrs. John Wilson; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Gibbs Barber; directors, Mrs. R. S. Moore, Mrs. Harley McConnell; counselor, Mrs. Charles Ruthruff.

A short program of encore numbers was enjoyed by the 14 members and five guests. The program was as follows: piano solo, "Allegio," Massenet, Mrs. Wilford Waldron; vocal solo, "Flower Song," Faust, Mrs. Murray Day; "Witches Dance," McDowell, Mrs. Herbert Dillon; instrumental trios, "Dancing and Singing" and "Thou Art So Like a Flower," Marie, Ruth and Julia Boyce. Chorus singing was enjoyed the remainder of the evening.

The assisting hostesses were Mrs. Joe Rice, Mrs. John Lindsteen and Mrs. George Wittrup. A picnic will be held at the R. S. Moore cottage at Sand Lake in August.

Take It Easy Over Weekend

THINGS THAT YOU ENJOY THE MOST MAY BE HAZARDS TO YOUR HEALTH

Take it easy on the long Memorial Day weekend.

The very things you can enjoy the most may be the greatest hazards to your health and life during the holiday, unless you use some caution, the Michigan Department of Health warned.

Drive with care and avoid excessive eating, drinking, sunning, swimming, fishing, golfing and any other form of exercise, it advised.

Roads will be flooded with traffic. Have your car checked if you plan to do any driving—brakes, horns, lights, tires, windshield wipers and steering mechanism. Obey traffic laws and signs and give the other fellow your right of way.

Do not plan to drive if you are going to do any drinking. Safety experts say that drinking is involved in more than half of traffic accidents.

Good restaurants which are open during the holiday will be filled to capacity. Be careful that any perishable goods, such as salads and sandwich filling, in your picnic lunch are carefully and cleanly prepared, and kept cold. You can get food poisoning from your picnic basket as well as in an unclean restaurant. Drink water only from municipal or other approved supply, and use only pasteurized milk and milk products.

Garden Club Plans For Flower Show In June

The May meeting of the Tecumseh Garden Club was held Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles Branigin with Mrs. W. H. Mast and Mrs. Charles Kempf the assistant hostesses. Twenty-five members and one guest were in attendance. Four new members were voted into the club.

Mrs. Thomas O'Hara reported on the annual meeting of the Federated Garden Clubs of Michigan, which was held at the Statler Hotel in Detroit, May 18 and 19.

Mrs. L. W. Larsen presented plans for a flower show which the club will hold sometime in June, in the Schneider Bros. show rooms on West Chicago Blvd. The date will be announced later.

Following the meeting tea was served on a beautifully appointed table. Pure white organdy and linen covered the table with antique silver openes with lilies of the valley and narcissi as the centerpiece.

The schedule for the flower show will be published at a later date, and all club members are urged to watch The Herald for further instructions. The flower show committee is composed of Mrs. Larsen, Mrs. Branigin, Mrs. Charles Kempf, Mrs. George Wright and Miss Mary McWilliams.

AGONIZED BY STOMACH DISTRESS

Mr. George Day, suffered for over 8 years with stomach trouble, gas, heartburn and indigestion, which was so bad that he could hardly breathe, and a continual backache made walking very painful.

This statement of Mr. George Day, a Flint resident for over 30 years, who now lives at 2418 Maplewood, Flint, is offered by him with the sole purpose of helping other people who now suffer from agonizing miseries of stomach trouble, gas indigestion, heartburn, bloating, headaches, dizzy spells and associated ills. Mr. Day suffered for 8 long years with these tormenting ailments before he found amazing relief in O-JIB-WA BITTERS. Read his unpaid for statement which follows for more proof that O-JIB-WA can help you too.

Gas Made Breathing Difficult

"I cannot say enough for O-JIB-WA INDIAN BITTERS, and the wonderful change that it brought me. Before taking O-JIB-WA, I was bothered continuously with an upset stomach. Everything I ate turned to gas, which seemed to crowd my heart and I could hardly breathe. I suffered terribly with constipation and have taken as many as three different laxatives at a time without results. My kidneys were very bad, and backaches almost drove me frantic, and at times they were so bad that it was painful to even walk. This made working extremely difficult, as I was always tired and weak. Eating has always been one of my pleasures, but no matter what I ate, it turned to gas and caused me distress. I tried a great many medicines with very little relief, and was very discouraged."

Remarkable Improvement In Just 10 Days

"I read about O-JIB-WA BITTERS in our local paper, and talking it over with my wife, decided we both would try it. I am sure glad we did, for nothing has ever helped so much. Before I had taken it 10 days, my stomach and back had greatly improved, and it seemed no time at all before I was completely better and backaches and indigestion were a thing of the past. I now feel swell and full of pep, and even after my day's work I am no longer dead on my feet. O-JIB-WA BITTERS is a very wonderful medicine, and I would gladly recommend it to anyone."

Strike At the Cause

O-JIB-WA INDIAN BITTERS is an all-herb medicine which acts to restore the digestive system (stomach, liver) to normal, thus overcoming gas, indigestion and heartburn. O-Jib-Wa acts to clear the blood of poisons and toxic waste that foster dizzy spells, headaches and rheumatism. O-Jib-Wa Bitters strengthens weak, sluggish kidneys to stop backaches, night rising and restless nights. Yes! O-Jib-Wa is truly an amazing medicine, and will probably do more for you than anything that you have ever tried, so why not get a bottle today and give it a chance to help you.

O-JIB-WA IS NOT EXPENSIVE! In fact, it is very reasonable and within the reach of all. It is available in three economical sizes for your convenience, and O-JIB-WA is sold by all leading drug stores in Michigan and is especially recommended by

Moses had seen the Burning Bush—and heard the voice of the Lord issue from it. He had promised God that he would lead the children of Israel out of Egypt into the land of Canaan.

Moses, through the persuasive oratory of Aaron, his brother, then took the Lord's message to the people, who believed.

The Lord had said unto Moses:

"I have surely seen the affliction of my people which are in Egypt, and have heard their cry by reason of their taskmasters; for I know their sorrows; and I am come to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians, and to bring them up out of that land unto a good land and a large, unto a land flowing with milk and honey . . ."

Here was the promise of their faith fulfilled. The reward of years of patient waiting for deliverance from their masters. God had given them a goal, and a leader toward that goal.

Our church has given us a goal—peace toward men on earth—which must be fulfilled if we are ever to realize perfect harmony among men and their nations. Your church is working toward that goal—it needs you. To serve your fellow man, attend the church of your choice each Sunday.

(Special to The Herald)

Overhauling of the Michigan tax structure, whereby state and local governments get money to pay for services performed, is proposed by the Michigan Public Expenditure Survey. This group is financed by large taxpayers. Its general interest in economy in government.

The legislature wound-up its 1949 general session last weekend at Lansing.

The tug-of-war between Governor G. Mennen Williams, advocate of a corporation tax to raise $50 to $60 millions, and the Republican-dominated legislature ended in a draw. Williams didn't get his tax on corporation profits, and the legislature avoided the distasteful issue of imposing a new levy. Even a suggested boost in the state gasoline tax was shelved.

How much the deficit will be, after the legislature's efforts to economize have been carefully appraised, was yet to be estimated at time of adjournment. The state sales tax is already producing less each month, as a decline in prices brings a decline in tax revenue. And the fact still remains that 67 per cent of all the money the state collects—even though it is less than heretofore—must be returned to local governments under constitutional mandates and legislative earmarking.

And so we find ourselves on May 20 right at the point where we came in—last January. The predicted deficit is on the way. Something still must be done. What is it going to be?

"In his tax message, the Governor said: 'Our patch-work tax structure is badly in need of a general revision.' He did not, however, recommend such a revision at present—on the ground that 'time is too short if we are to avoid a financial crisis'.

"Again we may ask: 'Why? Is it ever too early to start overhauling a program which admittedly is bad, and sadly in need of basic revision?'

"This question of solving the complex problem of state and local finances is not new. Far from it! Within the past five years, many different plans have been suggested to give local units, as well as the state, a 'fair deal' in the matter of revenue. Among 1949 proposals are the following:

"Set up a system under which a certain percentage of the taxpayer's income is designated for taxes—all taxes. That percentage would be split up among the various governmental units.

"Substitute a straight 1.5 per cent income for the sales tax; cut out all diversion, and let local governments finance their own needs through excise taxes.

"Repeal the 3 per cent sales and use taxes, and substitute a 1 per cent use tax for state purposes only—leaving local units to levy their own taxes for their own expenses.

"Repeal the state sales tax; do away with state participation in local welfare costs, and state aid to schools except as provided in the state constitution. Allow counties to levy a maximum 3 per cent sales tax for local distribution."

Someone once said, "You can't have your cake and eat it, too."

Michigan taxpayers paid a total of $2.8 billion in taxes for the 1947-48 fiscal year (ending July 1). Of this amount $343.2 million was collected by the state; $247.2 million by local governments, and the remainder by the federal government.

Less taxation can come only through a reduction in public services.

More public services can lead only to more taxes.

What are we going to do about it? The proposed study of the entire tax problem appears to have timely merit.

Yuh Talk About Ropin' Steers In Kansas-Wahl

Yuh Aint Seen Nothin', Friend, Yuh Aint Seen Nothin'

Man, do they roll 'em. Topsy, turvey, rough and tumble, drive 'em on four wheels, two wheels, one wheel and the top . . . its all the same to them cowboys. In one of his acts, Chitwood jumps his car for a distance o' 85 feet . . . jumps right over another car . . . lands right side up and in good condishun.

That was the tryinest test for stock Fords we ever 'fore witnessed. Man, them Fords kin take it, and don't let anybody fool yuh. Never in a hundred years o' drivin' would the ordinary feller treat 'em so rough.

UNLESS YUH SAW

That Cowboy Chitwood Doin' His Stunts

With Stock Fords At The Fair Grounds IN ADRIAN LAST WEDNESDAY

Boy, We Ain't Caught Our Breath Yet.

We thot we was cowboys and knowed how to drive any dumbed thing on four wheels but . . . man, we never 'fore realized just how good a car we was selling to our customers 'til we saw that Cowboy Joie Chitwood put them stock Fords thru their paces at the Adrian Fairgrounds last Wednesday nite.

Course, that's how Chitwood and his cowboys got into Life magazine and into the movies at Hollywood . . . drivin' them Fords so rough. If that show didn't convince yuh that the '49 Ford could take it, then we give up.

Seriously. If you din't see the Chitwood program last night at the Fairgrounds we're sorry. The exhibition was booked on short notice and left little time for advertising. Hundreds did see the show, and we hope that you did, too. If you didn't, ask somebody who did. They'll tell you that the "Ford for '49" can take it any way that you can drive it.

1,000 Attend Country Club Opening

Open House Is Enjoyed

"Beautiful."

That was the word most often heard from the lips of the more than 1,000 persons who, on Monday, attended the formal opening of Tecumseh's new $150,000 Country Club, located just northeast of the village corporation. While the clubhouse is not completely finished and, likewise, the greens and fairways are not sufficiently matured to permit regular golf games, some 180 members, their families and guests were "more than pleased" with the progress that is being made. In all probability, the clubhouse will be opened for the serving of meals within the next two weeks. Golfers, it was said, may have to wait three or four weeks before playing will start.

The spacious colonial-type house, constructed entirely of brick, steel and concrete, has been most attractively decorated and its furnishings are cheerful, restful and of ultra-modern design. Members and guests were given an opportunity to completely inspect the property. Hundreds enjoyed the comfortable furniture on the south porch and still other hundreds spent their time on the fairways watching the golfing contests.

The afternoon's program got under way at 2:30 when Frank Purcell drove a golf ball off the No. 1 tee. Later, in a men's pitching contest, Austen Partridge won by placing his ball nearest to the pin. Dale Bowen was second, Frank Smith third and John Zeigler, fourth. In the ladies' pitching contest, Mrs. Joe Rohweder won first honors, Mrs. C. O. Butler, second and Mrs. R. H. Moore, third.

In the ladies' driving contest, Mrs. Moore won first place and Mrs. Butler, second. In the men's driving contest, Ford Mudgett won the distance drive, Bobbie Robinson was second, Jack Curtiss third son was second, Jack Curtiss third and Ford Mudgett won for having the two longest drives.

The contest program chairman was C. O. Butler.

Early in the evening a buffet luncheon was served and later, dancing was enjoyed with Ken Edwards' band furnishing the music.

Thomas Henry and his wife, of Swanton O., who will act as manager and assistant, already have taken over their duties. Leo Bishop is the golf professional and he has been on the job for several months.

About 80 Adrian residents got a glimpse of the new clubhouse and course, last evening, when James Gerity entertained his friends at a party there. Members of the board of directors of the local club were on hand as members of a reception committee.

Hundreds Watch Memorial Parade

PROGRAM AT BROOKSIDE CEMETERY HONORS THE DEAD OF ALL WARS

Tecumseh paid a fitting tribute to its war dead on Monday—Memorial Day—and hundreds watched the parade as it moved through the business district and later attended fitting ceremonies at Brookside Cemetery. Generally speaking, stores, offices and industrial plants were closed, and the long week-end holiday gave thousands an opportunity to vacation at near-by resorts or to join in family gatherings in local homes.

Locally, the parade on the 80th anniversary of the founding of Memorial Day was one of the largest in recent years. Headed by the Tecumseh High School Band, attired in new uniforms, the parade formed on N. Ottawa street, moved south to Chicago Boulevard, then west to Union street and north to the cemetery. Louis Schneider acted as marshal of the day. In the line were civic leaders, color bearers and guards, the firing squad, members of the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars and their Auxiliaries, Spanish War Veterans and Auxiliary, Boy and Girl Scouts, Brownie Scouts, two pieces of fire apparatus, a score of riders on horseback, the 40 and 8 engine and boxcar from Adrian, citizens and school children in cars, on foot or on bicycles. A colorful piece in the parade was the truck upon which were the hundreds of geraniums in full red bloom, to be placed on the graves of departed veterans.

At the cemetery the Rev. Edward Escolme, pastor of the Friends church, asked the invocation and the address of the day was delivered by the Rev. Fr. Michael Collins, pastor of St. Elizabeth's Catholic church.

At the conclusion of the program, a salute was fired and taps sounded.

Customarily, all main highways were heavy with holiday traffic throughout the day and well into Tuesday morning. Lake resorts reported the largest business day this season and many cottage owners opened their summer homes over the week-end.

Tecumseh Meets Tecumseh

Mayor Tom Scott of Tecumseh, Ontario, Canada, happily presented to Mayor Marvin Watkins of Tecumseh, Michigan, (left) the across-the-border town's acceptance to attend "Canada Day," July 2, a part of this community's 125th Anniversary Celebration which will get under way June 27 and continue through July 4. About 1,000 Canadians are expected to be here on that day for the celebration. (Herald Photo)

Vets Must File For Exemptions

JUNE 7 IS LAST DAY TO TAKE ADVANTAGE OF TAX PRIVILEGE UNDER LAW

If service men receiving disability payments from the government and unmarried widows of servicemen desire to take advantage of their tax privilege they must file application for tax exemption with the township supervisor or the village assessor before June 7. This fact was emphasized by LeRoy H. Titley, Tecumseh township supervisor, who said today that only about half of the eligible veterans and unmarried widows in the township have applied for the exemption.

Under the law, service men or unmarried widows of service men who own property and use it as a homestead, and provided the total assessed value of all property owned is $7,500 or less, are entitled to a $2,000 assessment exemption. The law further provides that the veterans claiming exemption must have a service connected disability on which he is receiving an income or, if a widow, must be unmarried.

Application for exemption should be filed with Mr. Titley or John Saling, village assessor. Exemption applications must be filed before the annual meeting of the board of review, which this year will be in session on June 7 and 8 and 13 and 14.

If veterans or widows do not file an exemption certificate then the board is powerless to provide any tax relief. Spanish War veterans and their unmarried widows are entitled to file.

According to Mr. Titley, 32 applications were filed in this township last year. He expects the number to be larger this year because several disabled veterans have recently purchased property.

QUAKER OATS CO. TO JOIN IN TECUMSEH CELEBRATION

Rin Tin Tin, Famous Movie Dog, Coming June 27

Rin Tin Tin III, Hollywood's wonder dog and his famous trainer, Lee Duncan, will come here on Monday, June 27, when the opening gun is fired in Tecumseh's 125th Anniversary Celebration, which will continue through July 4.

Rin Tin Tin comes here as a part of the Quaker Oats show, constructed at a cost of more than $20,000 and consisting of many colorful, lively display booths which tell the story of new fields in agriculture and the food industry. The Quaker celebration will include a tour of the local plant and especially made cookies and candy for all.

"The Quaker show which will take place at our plant here, is more than just entertainment," Donald Nixon, local manager, said today. "It's the story of your Quaker Oats Company and what science is accomplishing in the business world. It isn't a vaudeville performance, and it isn't a lecture. It's more like a county fair."

Mr. Nixon pointed out that breakfast cereals are only a part of Quaker's daily output. Here in Tecumseh, noodles, spaghetti and macaroni are made. But scientific discoveries also have put the company indirectly into the jewelry, automobile tire, oil and nylon hosiery business, as well as many others.

"I am sure," Nixon said, "that Tecumseh folk and everybody in Lenawee county will want to see our show, which will open at 1 p.m., and continue till 9 p.m."

Rin Tin Tin and his trainer recently completed a Hollywood movie, "The Return of Rin Tin Tin." The dog's famous grandmother was a performer in the silent movie days.

Plans Are Made For CanadaDay

In the presence of a large group of municipal and civic leaders of Tecumseh, Ontario, and Tecumseh, Michigan, mayor T. C. Scott of the Canadian town, presented to Marvin Watkins, president of the Michigan village, the official resolution of acceptance to attend our 125th Anniversary in July.

Saturday, July 2, will be devoted to the entertainment of the visitors from Canada. Originally listed as "International Day", "Canada Day" was selected by the group as a more appropriate title since the attention will be directed only to these two nations.

The eighteen visitors from the Ontario town were entertained at a reception and dinner at the Tecumseh Club by the directors of the Chamber of Commerce and the village council, last Thursday evening.

Following dinner and toasts to King George and the President of the United States, the group held a joint business meeting to work on the details of Canada Day. Leon Williamson, president of the Chamber of Commerce, presided at the meeting, and outlined a suggested schedule of events for the day and gave the visitors a brief review of some of the events of the celebration week.

Mayor Scott talked by phone with Lt. Cl. Walter McGregor of the Essex Scottish regiment to get definite assurance that the famous bagpipe band would be here that day. In addition to the pipers, there will be the Canadian Legion boy and girl drum and bugle corps. There will be concerts and parades, a luncheon reception, a baseball game, and other events. One of

Plan Memorial For Mr. Kimball

CLINTON CHURCH ORGANIST FALLS DEAD DURING SUNDAY MORNING SERVICE

A memorial service for Clare L. Kimball, 72, who died suddenly of a heart attack Sunday, will be held at the First Congregational church in Clinton this (Thursday) evening at 8 o'clock. An organist in the church for 42 years, Mr. Kimball fell dead from the organ bench to the floor at 10:30 a.m., during the service, as he was playing the offertory.

A private funeral service was held Tuesday afternoon from the Hause Funeral Home with the Rev. H. R. Sullivan officiating. Burial was in Riverside cemetery.

The son of the late William S. and Lucia L. Kimball, he was a lifelong resident of Clinton. He had been associated with the Clinton Woolen Manufacturing Co. for 55 years, for the last 15 years serving as secretary. He had been treasurer of his church for 15 years and recently completed 20 years as a village councilman. He was a member of the Rotary Club.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. James E. Wilson of Buffalo, New York, one grandchild and a sister, Mrs. J. R. Foreman of Clinton, who made her home with Mr. Kimball. His wife, Louise Clark Kimball, preceded him in death.

Sidewalk Ordinance Is Effective, June 6

Effective June 8, in accordance with the amended sidewalk ordinances as passed by the village council, any person constructing, reconstructing, or repairing sidewalks must obtain a sidewalk permit costing $1 from Kenneth Dawson, the village engineer.

The purpose of the sidewalk permit is to insure uniform construction practices and results, it was said. If property owners will use ready-mix concrete provided by the village, they will save at least their initial $1.00 permit investment, the engineer said. There is an excellent possibility that an additional savings will result in the use of this procedure, he declared.

The village of Tecumseh will construct or reconstruct main sidewalks this summer at an approximate cost of between 30 and 32 cents per square foot for 4 inch thick sections. This price depends upon the cost of ready-mix concrete, which will be determined on June 6. Individual property owners can continue to do their own sidewalk work, but construction practices and results must conform to village specifications, which are available at the engineer's office, Mr. Dawson said.

TECUMSEH HIGH GRADS FORGET SCHOOL AFTER COMMENCEMENT

Alumni Association May Be Abandoned . . .

A recommendation to discontinue the Tecumseh Alumni Association will be made by Fay Whelan, president, at the annual banquet, Friday evening, June 3, in the high school, unless several persons will volunteer to serve as officers for the coming year.

Mr. Whelan said the cooperation and interest shown in the association is so weak that it can't possibly survive. The nominating committee has been refused by everyone asked thus far. "It isn't possible to reach everyone" the president said," so if anyone is interested in keeping the association alive and will volunteer to serve as an officer the coming year, that person should contact me or Mrs. Lenore Curtiss, chairman of the nominating committee," he continued. "Unless this is done I will recommend the Alumni Association be discontinued."

This year's officers were handicapped by a lack of funds and a few persons have worked hard and long to overcome this. It is expected some money will be left in the treasury for next year if the association continues. An actual figure as to the reservations made by members is not available, but 200 were made by the Association with the Tecumseh Grange, members of which will serve the dinner at 6:30 p.m., in the high school gymnasium.

The reception will begin at 5:30 o'clock, followed by the dinner. The classes of 1919 and 1929 will celebrate their anniversaries and good attendances from these are expected. Tickets may be purchased from Gaston's, Wright's Drug Store, Hodges' Drug Store, Easton's Service and John's Gulf Service.

LOSS OF MORAL POWER

In its conclusion to a long editorial on compulsory government health insurance, Life magazine says, "What worries us is the loss of moral power that may come when a people turns more and more to compulsion to solve its problems. Left to their own devices, the U. S. people have shown both ingenuity and ability in meeting their needs through voluntary action. Without state compulsion they have created the best medicine in the world. What is more, they have demonstrated that American can-do, step-by-step social instruments necessary to a modern society without relinquishing the freedoms and responsibilities that make it strong."

The fight against compulsory health insurance is not a selfish fight against improving medical service to the American People. The country needs more doctors. It needs more hospital beds and other facilities. The point is how to get these additional requirements without destroying the magnificent achievements we have already made. Senator Smith of New Jersey described the problem admirably in this little parable. "I think of a man who lives in a fine big house with a leaky roof. The man says, 'This is horrible . . We must tear down the house and go build a wonderful new jail and live in the jail.' Compulsory health insurance, which would inevitably regiment and subject to political coercion the medical profession of the nation, would be such a jail.

What, then, is the proper solution to the medical care problems we have left? It lies in the voluntary prepayment medical plans which now serve some 50,000,000 people, in the constant progress the doctors and scientists are making in both extending and improving standards of care, in some workable means of helping those who are actually indigent. Then we can have even better health—without the jail.

Clinton Players Show Well Received Here

The Clinton Players, an active group of forty members presented Hart and Kaufman's Broadway hit, 'You Can't Take It With You" to an appreciative local audience last week in the high school auditorium.

The production was excellent from every viewpoint—acting, setting and directing. The stage set was an unusually artistic job for which Joe Lane and Fred Mendez are to be commended.

Much credit was due to the capable directing of Mrs. Henry P. Vaughan, best known as "Peg." A running accompaniment of laughter and applause testified to the success of the acting of the well cast and capable actors. Guy Hoover as Martin VanDerHof and Marallyn Wight as Penelope Sycamore made an instant hit with the audience and contributing parts were equally well portrayed.

Fond Grandparents May Spread Whooping Cough

Many Michigan babies contrac whooping cough from a fond grandparent or other adult who has a mild unrecognized case of the disease—probably a second attack, Dr. Pearl Kendrick, associate director of the Division of Laboratories, Michigan Department of Health said today.

Dr. Kendrick, [illegible] has had charge of the department's whooping cough research and who developed a vaccine to prevent the disease, says the department recommends that immunization of a baby against disease should be started by the time he is six months of age. But to protect the baby before he is old enough to be immunized, it recommends complete immunization of all the older brothers and sisters in the family, and keeping the infant away from any child or adult who has any symptom of illness.

Whooping cough, Dr. Kendrick emphasized, is a serious disease. It causes more deaths of Michigan's young infants than diphtheria, measles and scarlet fever combined. It can be prevented in children over six months of age. Any child should be immunized against the disease with the first reatment beginning before he is six months of age and completed by the time he is a year old. Booster shots should be given at three years of age and before the child enters school, at about five years of age.

There have been 602 cases of whooping cough in Michigan this year. Most of them could have been prevented by immunization.

Miss Betty Gordon Is Bride Of Robert Meads

Friday afternoon in the Tecumseh Friends church Miss Betty Gordon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gordon of Central Lake, became the bride of Robert Meads, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Meads of Tecumseh. The Rev. Edward Escolme performed the ceremony.

Attired in a gray tailored suit with navy blue accessories and a corsage of red roses, the bride was attended by Eula Meads, sister of the groom. Miss Meads wore a dusty rose suit with black accessories and a corsage of white carnations. Ronald Purple attended Mr. Meads.

The bride graduated from Rockford high school and is employed by the Philco Corporation. Mr Meads attended the Tecumseh schools, spent 33 months with the U. S. Navy and is now employed by the Tecumseh Products Co.

After the ceremony a reception was held in the church basement for relatives and friends. Upon their return from a short wedding trip to Northern Michigan, the couple will reside in their apartment on West Shawnee St.

Fluoro-Shoe Fitting Machines Dangerous

Indiscriminate and too frequent use of fluoroscopic shoe-fitting machines is dangerous to health of the shoe store employee and customer alike, the Division of Industrial Health, Michigan Department of Health warned today.

Fluoroscopic shoe-fitting machines should not be used as playthings, nor be operated by customers.

No individual should have fluoroscopic fittings more than 12 times a year, and each exposure should be limited to five seconds.

The Division of Industrial Health has investigated the potential hazards of fluoroscopic shoe-fitting machines and is now in the process of checking all the machines in use in the state.

Some machines, particularly of the older type which are not properly shielded emit or leak stray radiation into the area around them. This is particularly hazardous for employees who are exposed to the rays eight hours a day. Older machines are the most apt to be faulty. The Division hopes to check these machines first. To protect the health of their employees and their customers, owners of these older machines should immediately request the services of the Division of Industrial Health by writing to the Michigan Department of Health, Lansing 4, Michigan.

More Smiles per Gallon with Dynaflow Drive

White sidewall tires, as illustrated, available at extra cost.

THERE'S the smile when you slip the selector lever into Driving notch—and realize that's all there is to do.

There's the smile when you swing smoothly up to cruising speed without halt or check or break of stride. There's the smile at traffic lights when you halt, wait, then move away with never a thought about shifting.

But the broadest grin of all comes at the end of a long day's drive and you find you've covered more miles more easily. Even your treadle-foot — so likely to become tired and cramped maintaining an even speed in direct-drive cars—appreciates the fluid ease of Dynaflow.

For Dynaflow Drive† is not merely a new transmission. It's a new experience — a new luxury in driving. In ten minutes you are handling it like a veteran — in two days you wouldn't be without it.

Small wonder, then, that Dynaflow is the drive with which all new developments in transmissions are compared.

Not merely "something better," it is something entirely new, the first exciting chapter in a whole new book.

Go learn for yourself how abundantly rich in pleasure every gallon becomes when you have Dynaflow.

Your Buick dealer will be glad to demonstrate—glad to quote delivered prices — glad to talk terms of as fine a deal as you could want.

30 IMPORTANT DAYS IN MICHIGAN

June has been proclaimed Dairy Month in Michigan by Governor Williams—not as a good-will gesture to dairy farmers but because dairying is generally considered the state's most essential industry.

The million dairy cows on Michigan farms provide in excess of 2 billion 650 million quarts of milk a year.

These dairy herds represent an investment of 273 million dollars just in livestock alone.

But aside from these impressive figures, Milk has won a place in the "Hall of Fame" as the most essential item of food in the American diet—it is indispensable to the Nation's welfare.

More than 15,000 members of this Cooperative are working unitedly to provide their markets with the finest of milk and dairy products. This month they are setting aside a portion of their incomes to help finance both state and national programs of research and experimentation. These projects are carried on to improve the quality of their herds [illegible] and find new uses for milk. All of which contributes to better health and a greater enjoyment of life by all of our people.

About The Folk You Know

Who can blame the city folk for wanting to get a breath of fresh air at the homes of their "country cousins" or to spend a long Memorial Day weekend at one of the many lakes Michigan is blessed with? . . .

Friends and relatives are always welcome . . . The Dwight Streets and daughter of Toledo were entertained by Mrs. Street's grandparents, the Ralph Atchinsons on Sunday and Monday . . . The H. J. Lowrys and daughter LouAnn of Detroit and the Earl Haughns of Pontiac enjoyed the weekend at the home of their sister, Miss Margaret Lowry.

Weekend guests of Fred A. Swan were his sister, Dr. Mary Swan of Chicago, and his daughter and family, the Francis N. Langthornes and daughter Joan of Farmington.

Mrs. Vevia Anderson and Mrs. Anna Hardenburgh went to South Bend, Ind., to spend the weekend with Mrs. W. A. Kuespert . . . Paul Hadsell and his son James spent the holiday with his family in Flint . . . Florence Babcock and Ethel Koch were Ann Arbor visitors Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Kiefer of Rockford, Ill. spent the holiday weekend with her mother, Mrs. Gertrude Schneider . . . The Boyd Bairds of Detroit came for the weekend at the home of her parents, the Dale Tingleys.

The day after Kenneth Munson came from Chicago to spend the weekend he was greeted with a new arrival, born to Mrs. Munson, formerly Camilla Satterthwaite, at Tecumseh hospital, Saturday about 5:30 p.m. . . . It was a boy and his name is Scott William.

The George Kochs from Philadelphia, Pa., appreciate Michigan, too, so are spending this week with his aunt, uncle and cousins, the George Schumm family.

Homeward bound, too, were the college students . . . Charles Bancroft and Mr. and Mrs. Loren Kuhn from Cleveland Bible College . . . Elizabeth Escolme from Baldwin-Wallace . . . Marilyn VanWinkle, Martha Hewlett, Yale L. Kerby and Louise Bowen from Michigan State . . . Mrs. Ronald Wells came to spend the week from Asbury College, Wilmore, Ky., with her parents, the Perry Haydens.

Country folk like to go to the city, too . . . The Ron Harrises and the Leon Williamsons attended the ball game in Detroit Sunday . . . Mrs. Vira Bancroft and her daughter Helen were in Sturgis for the weekend visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hunt and daughter Margaret Clement, accompanied by the Ralph Atchisons, visited friends in Metamora, Ohio, Monday.

The fair weather was perfect for traveling so the James McDowells, the Delmar Crisps, the Dale Jacobs and the Neal Brazees spent the weekend at the McDowell cottage at Burt Lake in northern Michigan.

Mrs. Al Beckman, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Wendell Frayer of Britton, were in Alden and Petoskey, where they attended the celebration of her great-aunt's Golden Wedding anniversary.

Honor Couple On Anniversary

MR. AND MRS. FRED SHELDON CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDING DATE

Celebrating the 50th anniversary of their wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sheldon received congratulations from over 200 friends and relatives when they held open house at the Tecumseh Grange hall, Sunday, from three to five o'clock.

Earlier, Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon had attended the Baptist church services with their family, enjoyed a family dinner served by members of the Grange, and held a shower for their grandson, Harold Skinner, jr., and Elinor Spencer of Pontiac, who were married Tuesday on the wedding date of his grandparents.

The Grange youth had surprised the Sheldons by decorating the hall attractively with yellow and white crepe paper streamers. Two golden bells imprinted with "Fred" and "Jessie" were placed above where Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon stood in the receiving line.

A two-tiered wedding cake decorated with a garland of yellow roses centered the lace-covered refreshment table and was flanked by yellow marigolds. Favors were golden wedding bells imprinted with 'Fred and Jessie 1899,' as were the white napkins. Mrs. Paul Sheldon and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Curran served refreshments. Two granddaughters, Patricia and Marilyn Anderson of Pontiac, were in charge of the gu...

The couple received many lovely and useful gifts as well as hundreds of congratulatory cards. Mrs. Harriett Smith, who attended the wedding 50 years ago, was among the guests.

During the church service in the morning the Sheldons were asked to stand and as they did so Mrs. Kenton Hunt at the organ played the "Golden Wedding March." A bountiful chicken dinner was prepared and served to the family by several Grange members after church. After dinner and preceding the reception the shower was held for Mr. Skinner and Miss Spencer. On Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon attended the wedding at Pontiac.

Fred Sheldon and Jessie Millis were united in marriage May 31, 1899, at her home in Tecumseh. They have four daughters and one son, Mrs. Gertrude Skinner of Toledo, Mrs. Chris (Ruth) Anderson of Pontiac, Mrs. Vaughn (Helen) Curtis of Saginaw and Paul Sheldon of Dundee, 12 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Plans Are Made

the most impressive gestures of international friendship will be a presentation of a Canadian flag to the Michigan city and of an American flag to the Ontario city to stand permanently in their respective council rooms.

The Canadian visitors will come by automobile and bus caravan, via the Ambassador bridge, arriving here around ten in the morning. A schedule of events will be set up, allowing time for the citizens of the two towns to intermingle and develop personal friendships.

"Tecumseh to Tecumseh," the slogan coined by Senator Gustave Lacasse at a recent meeting in Ontario was repeated by the Senator in a talk to the group. The slogan was enthusiastically adopted and will help make Canada Day one of the outstanding events in local history.

In addition to Mayor Scott and Senator Lacasse, who is also an ex-mayor, the following were the visitors from the Ontario town: Einerr Cecile, reeve; G. M. Clapp, H. T. Reaume, and E. J. Drouillard, councillors; F. P. Boutellier, M. S. Clapp, and H. C. Posent, ex-mayors; E. C. Morand, utilities commissioner; Neldo Gouthier, postmaster; Bert Lacasse, manager of the baseball club and Reve St. Pierre, its treasurer; Sid Arbour, secretary-treasurer of public utilities; Jerry Desjardins, by-law enforcement officer; W. V. Bouteiller, clerk-treasurer; William Wall, sales manager for Finer Foods Corporation; and Paul Cecile, insurance agent.

Those from Tecumseh who attended were Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Murphy, Mrs. Claire Gillespie, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Johnston and Arthur Harding.

FATHER DIES

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Dannells, jr., received word of the death of her father, Frank Hubbell, which occurred Tuesday in a Spokane, Wash., hospital.

When a young man proposes to a girl and then acts like a fish out of the water he knows he has been caught.

Children Must Depend Upon Parents For Care

Children must depend on parents for protection against those diseases to which children are susceptible and against which adults have immunity, Dr. F. S. Leeder, director of the division of disease control, Michigan Department of Health advised today.

Every day ten children in the United States die of diphtheria, and every year thousands of children are left with damaged hearts or other ailments which may handicap them all of their lives, yet diphtheria in children can be prevented.

Most parents know how to have their children protected against diphtheria; it is simply due to neglect, that children are allowed to contract the disease.

If your child is six months of age and his immunization program has not been started; if he is three and has not had booster shots or if he is five and has not had his second booster shots, you are being negligent of his protection, Dr. Leeder said.

Take your child to his doctor or local health department to have him immunized. The doctor will tell you how often to come and what to do. Do not fail to follow his instructions for the immunization program; initial immunization requires several visits to the doctor's office.

It takes a few weeks for protection to develop after immunization. Do not wait until there is diphtheria in the neighborhood—it may be too late.

Another reason why there are so many divorces is because too many people think that as soon as they get married they have to quit making love to each other.

THIS MORNING a muffled gasp broke a tense expectant silence. Then a tiny cry let it be known that all was well. And a mere thimbleful of foot planted its first imprint in this wide and wondrous world.

Thus came another little traveler from nowhere to here—one of more than 10,000 who arrive in America every day.

We want him to know that here he is not classed by birth—either as lordly or lowly.

—that here we believe all men are created equal.

1. ACCEPT...or reject...people on their individual worth.
2. DON'T LISTEN to, or spread, rumors against a race, or a religion.
3. SPEAK UP, wherever we are, against prejudice, and work for understanding.

Trip To Mexico Is Inexpensive

SIX WEEKS TOUR OF COUNTRY CAN BE ACCOMPLISHED FOR APPROXIMATELY $360

NEW YORK—You can take a six-weeks trip to Mexico, travel 8,000 miles in your car, hire a guide, have first-class accommodations—all for the cost of $360.17.

And, what is more, this means two persons, and will cover the hiring of a string orchestra, side trips, admissions, and tips, if—

The ifs are fairly simple. If you find another couple to go with you and share the expense. If you have no car trouble which is not covered by insurance. If you are able to close your home while you are away, turn down the automatic heat and credit what you save on home living costs against the expense of the trip.

Perhaps we should put in a fourth if. If you continue to get seven pesos for an American dollar which fact makes trips to Mexico doubly popular right now.

Two couples have just returned from an 8,000-mile trip, about 5,000 of it in the United States and 3,000 in Mexico.

The whole purpose of this article is not to count costs but to include a bit of what we consider common sense gained by experience. However, as to what you will save if you close your house, that is your own story but we imagine ours is the average. Add up savings on heat, gas, electricity, extra help, food, and normal amusements for that six weeks and it makes quite a nest egg to start with.

We started in the middle of February with a $20 a day budget per couple in mind. As a retired couple we had no intention of cutting corners at the expense of comfort. We saw everything we wanted to see within six weeks, picked the best and most convenient places to stop as recommended by the AAA and ALA. We even hired in Mexico a $7 a day (U. S. currency) government guide for a week and hired a private orchestra and boat with crew. We hired public vehicles, horses, and Indians. We even climbed a live volcano at night, saw a Mexican circus, donated to a Mexican police benefit, tipped generously, and paid admissions to numerous things in Mexico and the United States.

Special insurance, including the recommended Mexican policy, $16. Gas, oil and grease, if you travel 14 miles to the gallon, $105. Lodging and food each about $190. Tolls $4. Entertainment, side trips and guides each $20. All these total $595 for two and include the tips. Bear in mind, however, that much of this is a divided cost with another couple. A wise traveler, who can raise the cash, will carry another $500 in traveler's checks along for emergencies. Then there are those souvenirs!

We found excellent hotels and motels enroute. We cannot overstress, however, the importance of picking your stopping place before five o'clock in the afternoon or the folly of trying to cover too much distance in a day.

We paid more in American dollars than we were advised to when we engaged our government guide but it was money well spent; for we cannot imagine an American touring party braving Mexico City without one. He will probably own your car while you are there but he will take good care of it and you. You will probably trust him to handle your tips and, if he proves to be as good as the several we encountered, will hold you down when you are tempted to be too generous. He will have the police clear the way for you in traffic jams, be your mouthpiece, and if you have car trouble prove indispensable. Also he will probably be your driver but be sure he is an authorized government guide. You will want to hold him down if he takes you to too many shops but, if he proves to be as good as ours, you will feel lost when he leaves you.

You will only need to know the people to love them. There was the Mexican truck driver who came along when a blowout left us helpless with a "frozen" jack, miles in the desert. First, two friendly Indians tried to lift our car and then came this truckman who spent time and effort to get us on the road and then waved us on our way, positively refusing our cash.

Finally, we repeat the words of a former Spanish Ambassador to whom we carried a letter of introduction: "Don't make the mistake of trying to see and do everything on this trip. If you do you won't absorb it and will lose the benefit of the really fine things you do see."

Pharaoh still would not permit the children of Israel to leave Egypt. So, Moses told him that ten plagues would be set upon the Egyptians if this consent were not given.

Pharaoh would not consent, so the waters of the rivers turned into blood . . . a horde of frogs came out of the rivers and infested the houses . . . the dust of the land of Egypt turned into lice and were on every man and beast . . . great swarms of flies were in the land . . . a disease killed all the cattle of Egypt, but spared the cattle of the Israelites . . . of plague of boils infected the Egyptians . . . a hailstorm ruined all the crops of the Egyptians, yet spared the crops of the children of Israel . . . hordes of locusts covered the entire earth, and ate every green thing in the land . . . and for three days the land was covered in darkness.

Yes, Pharaoh still hardened his heart, and refused his consent.

The tenth plague, which was the most severe, was to kill all the first born of the Egyptians. Still Paraoh refused to listen. And, as the children of Israel marked their homes and were spared, the Angel of the Lord came down and killed the first born of every Egyptian home.

Your modern pilgrimage is your weekly visit to your church. It needs you—you need it. Attend every week.

Social Health Bill Attacked

SURVEY SHOWS THAT LACK OF FUNDS NOT KEEPING FOLK AWAY FROM DOCTOR

TACOMA, WASH.—Compulsory health insurance cannot be proved necessary on the basis of economic considerations according to a special survey recently conducted here by the University of Washington.

Results of the survey were disclosed at the convention of the Washington Association for Social Welfare by Dr. H. W. Humiston, president of the Pierce County Medical Society.

According to Dr. Humiston, results showed that the economic situation of the patient had little to do with whether he did or did not seek medical care.

After a recent mass chest X-ray drive in Tacoma, the Pierce County Medical Society sought to determine how much influence the economic factor had. To make certain such a study could not be termed biased, the society arranged for an unprejudiced agency—the University of Washington—to conduct the survey.

After the X-ray drive, 451 persons were brought back to the recall clinic for various reasons. Of these 451, 94 had sought no medical attention whatsoever, and the university report said only nine of these attributed his failure to economic reasons. A variety of factors were listed by the other 89.

Moreover, of those who had sought medical care, only five were forced to discontinue this for economic factors. In other words, only 14 out of 451 persons gave inability to pay as their reason for not seeking or continuing medical care.

Dr. Humiston observed that "in the group who sought no care at all, there were nine times as many who failed to seek this care for lack of comprehension as those who gave an economic reason.

"Two important conclusions can be drawn from this study. The first is that lack of knowledge or comprehension on the part of the patient is a much bigger factor in his failure to receive care than is the economic situation.

"The second conclusion is that three percent of patients is way, way short of the estimated percentage not receiving care for economic reasons."

Michigan And Ohio Confer On Highways

LANSING—T. J. Kauer, director of highways of the state of Ohio, and Samuel O. Linzell, assistant director, both of Columbus, visited Michigan last week for the purpose of conferring with State Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler on highway matters of mutual interest.

On the conference agenda were such matters as location and construction problems of trunklines connecting the two states, the interstate system of highways program, uniform highway markings, uniform weight restrictions, and pending federal legislation effecting highways.

Commissioner Ziegler said, "Our friendly, cooperative relationship with Director Kauer permits us to find solutions to problems which assure the motorists and commercial vehicle drivers of both Michigan and Ohio, as well as tourists from other states, more pleasant driving and less annoyance caused by drastic changes in road regulations and conditions when state lines are crossed. It also allows for better planning of mutually satisfactory locations and construction types for highways serving both states."

State To Make Traffic Survey

HIGHWAY DEPARTMENT TO STUDY CONGESTION IN THE ADRIAN AREA AND REMEDY

An extensive study of traffic movements in the Adrian area to determine future needs for highways got under way ... as and will continue for a month, Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler announced today at Lansing.

The purpose of the survey is to obtain information essential for future highway planning in that section of the state. When completed, and after data has been compiled and analyzed, the Highway Department and the Planning Commission of Adrian will have a clearer picture of what will be needed in the way of roads and streets to meet transportation requirements in the Adrian area.

A cordon of traffic count stations will be set up around the entire Adrian area and approximately 75 per cent of all drivers entering or leaving the area will be interviewed. Drivers will be asked why their trip ... being made, whether for pleasure or business; where they started and where they will end; routes followed and stops made within the city. Drivers will be interviewed at five stations operating on trunkline highways for 24 hour periods and at five other stations operated on heavily traveled roads for 16 hours daily.

Mayor Claude Porter of Adrian is requesting all motorists in the area to cooperate with Highway Department officials in carrying out the survey saying, "Residents of this area have an opportunity to perform a real service in shaping the plans for future highways in this section of the state, by taking a few minutes to answer questions when they are stopped at the Highway Department's interviewing stations."

This study which is technically known as an 'external survey', will determine first, the total number and type of all vehicles entering and leaving Adrian; and secondly, the origin and destination and other data pertinent to highway planning, from a large percentage of drivers passing count stations.

Commissioner Ziegler said a crew of 15 State Highway Department traffic engineers, interviewers and recorders will conduct the survey. Interviewers will list vehicles according to type, that is passenger car or one of seven types of trucks, and taxi; number of persons in the vehicle; where the trip began; where it will end; purpose of trip, such as, work, medical, school, social and any one of six other categories. Also traffic will be listed as to inbound or outbound, and stops in the city and the purpose of the stops will be tabulated.

Vets' Wives To Receive P.H.T. Degrees In College

BOULDER, COLO.—A special "degree" of P.H.T. will be given at the University of Colorado commencement exercises.

The letters stand for "Putting Husbands Through," and the degree will go to the hard-working wives of ex-servicemen who have kept the homes together while the husbands went to school on the GI Bill of Rights, or otherwise.

There will be a special ladies' day ceremony during graduation week. Diplomas will be signed by Mrs. William Lee Knous, wife of Colorado's governor; Mrs. Robert L. Stearns, wife of the university's president; and Mrs. Alberta Pike Boyd, a member of the school's board of regents.

"Any senior's wife who has pushed, pulled, and put her husband through the University of Colorado, who has contributed economically, domestically, and otherwise to her husband's education, who has learned to wash her husband's clothes and her children in the same sink deserves full recognition," said Mrs. Boyd.

The "diplomas" will say:

"The University of Colorado has this day issued to Mrs. Mary Senior this honorary degree of P. H. T., certifying that she is a graduate from the trial and tribulation of putting her husband through the university, and is entitled to all the rights and privileges hereunto appertaining."

Almost half of the men in this year's senior class are married.

Point is, yuh got to know how to operate on these hosses if yuh want 'em to run when yuh git thru. We know's how to operate.

NINETY-NINTH YEAR NUMBER THIRTY-SIX — TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN, JUNE 9, 1949 — FIVE CENTS A COPY

Pageant Planned For Celebration

400 PERSONS TO TAKE PART IN SPECTACLE; "QUEEN" WILL BE CROWNED

A mammoth historical pageant, depicting Tecumseh's century and a quarter of history, will be staged as the main event of this community's 125th Anniversary Celebration, June 27 through July 4, it was announced today.

Richard T. Spitler, pageant master from the John B. Rogers Producing Co., said this morning that the spectacle will include a cast of nearly 400 people in costume. The pageant will be held five nights, June 29 through July 4, at 8:30 each evening, on a gigantic stage to be erected at Recreation Center.

The celebration committee for the event is hard at work with plans and promotions. Leon Williamson is the executive chairman and Clarence Beach is the vice-chairman. Kenneth Hall and E. M. Campbell are the comptroller-treasurers, and Gordon Garlick and Dick Jennings are members of the finance division. Ronald Harris and Yale "Kerby" are divisional chairmen and John Saling and Mr. and Mrs. Ned Rosacrans and Mrs. Ronald Harris are members of the spectacle division committee. Fay Whelan and Harold Green are members of the committee in control of special events and Geo. Mccombs and Donald Nixon are the committee in charge of hospitality. Other committees include Rhae Henkel, novelties; Elven Duvall, cashiers, gatemen and ushers; Jerry Spafford, concessions; Jessie Sluyter, program and patrons tickets; Rev. Fr. Michael Collins, advisory committee.

A "Queen's Contest," to select some outstanding young woman in Lenawee county who will reign as queen during the celebration will begin on Monday, June 12, it was announced by Mr. Harris. Harris said that the contest would be for the purpose of selecting the woman with the most civic interest and personal initiative, and that it should not be confused with the bathing beauty type contest.

The lucky girl who wins the honor will be crowned queen during a special service at the pageant. Plans are being made for some prominent state figure to be here for the coronation. The queen will be furnished with a special costume, and will have an important role in the pageant spectacle itself. She also will receive many other honors.

A special coronation ball will be held during the celebration days and the queen will lead the grand march. Nominating ballots and complete rules of the contest will be found in an advertisement in another page of this newspaper.

The pageant master announced the following episodes in the historical spectacle: Episode 1, prologue. This colorful scene will involve nearly 100 persons, beautifully costumed, and will feature the queen's coronation. Episode 2 will be an Indian village scene during Tecumseh's early years. Episode 3 is "The Spirit of '76,"

Rotary Club Hears Of 125th Celebration Plans

The program that will be followed during Tecumseh's 125th Anniversary Celebration, June 27 thru July 4, was outlined to members of the Tecumseh Rotary Club, Tuesday evening, by Leon Williamson, general chairman, and Richard Spitler, pageant master, when they spoke following dinner at Brees House.

Mr. Williamson told of the events that will be staged daily, starting with the Quaker Oats Co.'s show and the arrival of Rin Tin Tin, through the July 4th celebration with its $1,000 fireworks display in the evening, in addition to the pageant. Mr. Spitler told of the Queen's Contest, and urged members of Rotary to sponsor some girl for the honor.

Charles O. Butler, president of the club, and Mrs. Butler, and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Gilman, and Mr. and Mrs. Wade L. Jones will attend the International Convention of Rotary in New York City over the week end and continuing through June 16. Mr. and Mrs. Jones leave today for New York. The Butlers and Gilmans leave on Sunday, flying to New York from Willow Run Airport.

For non-professional business reasons my office will be closed from June 5 to July 10 inclusive. For the same reason I will be in my office during the remainder of July and the month of August on Mondays, Tuesdays and Wednesdays ONLY.

High School Indians L. C. A. Champs

The scores for the season are as follows: Morenci, 23-9; Clinton, 10-4; Pittsford, 4-0; Addison, 20-2; Hudson, 4-3; Blissfield 3-2. In the Addison game Dick Whelan, a freshman, substituted for Jack Gillen and hit a home run with the bases loaded. The victory over Hudson gave the Indians a positive tie for the championship and in this game, played at Recreation Center, Jerry Judd made a center-field catch in the football field. By defeating Blissfield the Indians clinched the championship, this being made possible by Dave Van Winkle, who, after being taken out of the game, was put back in and hit a triple with bases loaded, affording the team the two runs necessary to win the game.

On Memorial Day the Indians, a class C team, defeated the Adrian high school class B team, 4-3. The Maple team is in a six-way championship tie in its league.

LOCAL VETERANS RENDER NEW COMMUNITY SERVICE

V. F. W. Establishes 'Walking Blood Bank' Here

Establishment of a "walking blood bank," in cooperation with Tecumseh Hospital, was announced today by Hall-Slater Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars. Some 135 men will participate in the bank, making blood immediately available in cases of emergency.

"We have believed for some time that a 'walking blood bank' was important to the welfare of Tecumseh, and we have been working on the project for several weeks," Harold Warren, public relations officer of the V. F. W. said. "The first of the 135 men to volunteer to give blood were typed at the hospital on Friday evening. This procedure will continue until all of the donors are classified."

When the bank has been set up, Mr. Warren said, "it will be possible for the hospital to obtain blood of the several types on a very short notice. If plasma has to be used in an emergency, Warren said, the V. F. W. bank will give blood to replace the plasma.

"We want it understood," Warren said, "that this blood bank is open for public use and without charge. We are not interested in the money angle, but we are interested in the service angle. When blood is needed, it must be instantly available, whether funds are available or not."

At the present time the hospital carries about 12 units of blood plasma in its bank that is furnished by the state. However, it was pointed out that state-wide blood donors are becoming more scarce and, consequently, the state supply of plasma is limited.

With the local bank in operation, there should never be a shortage of plasma at any time. As quickly as the bank is depleted, it can be replenished. The hospital also pointed out that with 135 donors classified it would be possible to obtain blood for a transfusion very quickly.

GETS TRACK LETTER

Bill Hayden received his track letter from Taylor University at Upland, Ind., at the annual T Club banquet held last Friday evening. A sophomore student at Taylor the past year, Bill was an active participant in nearly all the events, receiving a medal at one time as well as various other awards. After spending several days at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Hayden, he left Saturday for Camp Word of Life at Schroon Lake in Essex County, New York, where he will be a life guard this summer. Jack Wyrtzen is owner and operator of the camp.

MOCK GRADUATION OF 1882 SHOWS HOW IT WAS DONE "THEN"

School-day Friendships Renewed at Alumni Banquet

Renewing old school-day friendships at the 33rd annual banquet of the Tecumseh High School Alumni Association, Friday evening, 227 members and guests enjoyed an evening of hilarious entertainment. Richard Eggleston was elected president for the coming year.

After the reception at 5:30 in the auditorium, the guests marched by classes to the gymnasium where they were seated at tables centered with attractive arrangements of peonies. A delicious ham dinner was served family style by Tecumseh Grange members at 7 p.m.

Robert H. Moore and Miss Martha Hayden led in group singing and Mrs. Sam Sisson accompanied at the piano. The business meeting was conducted by the president, Fay Whelan. The following officers were elected for next year: president, Mr. Eggleston; vice president, Bill Aeberseld; recording secretary, Mrs. Clair Ramsay; assistant recording secretary, Miss Lois Purkey; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Ned Rosacrans; assistant corresponding secretary, Mrs. Harold Easton; treasurer, Bob Randall.

Ralph Comfort welcomed the class of 1949 and his son Gordon, responded. Mr. and Mrs. Earl H. Place, superintendent of schools and his wife, were introduced. Miss Barbara Schoeck, valedictorian of this year's graduating class, introduced some of the members of her class.

The oldest class represented was that of 1882 by Mrs. Lida James Gamble of Coldwater. Mrs. Roldon Sutton of California came the longest distance to attend the banquet. Two members were present from the class of 1939, seven from the class of 1929 and nine from the class of 1919.

Mrs. Sisson presented the surprise program which was a mock graduation of the class of 1882. Although it delighted the entire audience, to the older alumni it brought back many fond memories of the old style commencement ritual. Gales of laughter throughout the exercises failed to change the serious countenances of the "graduates."

Mrs. Naomi Williamson was the pianist and played the processional as the "graduates," dressed in 19th century clothing, marched slowly to the platform where they took their places. Gibbs Barber, dressed complete to the mustache and goatee, was the school president and presented the diplomas. Miss Clara Waldron recited the class poem; Mrs. Fred Biddis spoke on the subject of "Mountains;" James Beardsley thrilled the audience with his knowledge of Latin when he spoke on "The Genius of Milton;" Mrs. Duaine Service fittingly sang, "The Last Rose of Summer;" Mrs. Mary Heath Martin used as her theme, "Fashions" and Everett Hensen's oratory was on "Industry."

After each oration Bob Hanna or Mrs. Sisson presented the "graduate" with a bouquet of flowers, in Mr. Hensen's case a nosegay. At the conclusion the "class" joined together to sing their class song to the tune of "There's A Long, Long Trail A Winding."

Robinhood Hats Official

The "Robinhood Days" headgear will be the official headgear of Tecumseh's 125th Anniversary Celebration, June 27 through July 4, according to the official proclamation of Marvin Watkins, village president, today.

A special kangaroo court will be set up on Chicago Boulevard on Saturday, June 25, and any Tecumsehite discovered without the official headgear will be fined 50c by the court.

It will be cheaper to buy a hat than to pay the fine, it was pointed out today. Hats cost 35c and they will go on sale at the peageant headquarters on Tuesday, June 14.

Western Auto Store To Open

H. A. BADOUR OF DETROIT, TO OPERATE BUSINESS IN OLD KROGER STORE

Tecumseh's new Western Auto Supply store, owned and operated by H. A. Badour, formerly of Detroit, will open in the McCoy Building, formerly occupied by the Kroger Grocery & Baking Co., at 113-15 East Chicago Boulevard, Saturday morning. The Kroger store now is located in its new building in the two hundred block on East Chicago.

The Western Auto store will carry a complete line of shelf hardware, paint, oil, automobile accessories and parts, bicycles, tires, radios and electrical equipment.

Mr. Badour, the owner, formerly operated a store in Detroit. For more than four years he was with Army Ordnance, as unit chief.

Mr. and Mrs. Badour and their family, Joan, 14, Dick 12, and Jim, two, plan to move here as soon as they can find a house in which to live.

"We had hoped to be moved and located in Tecumseh by the time of the store opening," Badour said, "but we've thus far been unable to find a house. Maybe somebody who knows of a house for rent will read this and let me know."

Barn, Granary Razed In Fire Near Holloway

Fire of unknown origin destroyed the barn and granary on the Louis Vincze farm, two miles north of Holloway, Friday morning.

Mr. Vincze discovered the fire at 8 a.m., and summoned the Tecumseh fire department, which responded immediately. Firemen were able to prevent the flames from spreading to a tool shed and the house. No livestock or machinery was lost.

Only recently Mr. Vincze had purchased the farm and moved there from near Tecumseh.

LONG SHOT BETS

Most people have a touch of the gambler in their make-up. But only a few go to extremes in wagering on the horses, the dice, the wheel, and other unbeatable games.

However, many millions do the most dangerous gambling in the world without knowing it. They risk their lives, their savings, their jobs, by taking unnecessary chances.

Gambling with fire is a perfect example. Do you pile up junk you don't know what to do with in closets and attics? Do you put off until tomorrow the repair of that frayed electric cord? When you lack a new fuse, do you put a penny behind a burned out one to restore the circuit? Do you luxuriate in bed with a cigarette going? Do you keep on using a heating system that doesn't seem quite as efficient as it ought, but without calling in an expert to look it over? Do you store paint and solvents and other such flammables in any old open container that comes to hand? When you have a chance to learn about fire safety—as during Fire Prevention Week—do you open your mind to it or do you figure it's a dull business and no concern of yours?

A list such as this could be extended for many pages. These are just a few of the "long shot" bets that can result in a fire—and do exactly that on thousands upon thousands of occasions in this country each year. The result is more than 10,000 horrible deaths and a property loss of over $700,000,000.

NEW YORK — Persons walking about the streets in London look much more like the persons in New York than they did two years ago to Mrs. Mary Agnes Hamilton, head of the American Information Department of the British Foreign Office here for a five-week stay in the United States.

While the best of everything is for export, the former member of Parliament said she felt that the British outlook had now changed from "gloomy resolution" to "cheerful confidence."

Mrs. Hamilton said Americans were mistaken if they thought Britain's recovery was being accomplished by "enormous government compulsion" from the Labor government.

She attributes progress in the recovery effort to the fact that the British people have been informed by Sir Stafford Cripps of what they are up against and have been willing to be part of a team in the fight against adversity.

Here especially to address the American Association of University Women in Seattle, June 19-22, Mrs. Hamilton will spend 10 days in New York before going to Washington, Chicago, and other cities in the Midwest.

In the last New Year's honor list, Mrs. Hamilton was made a Commander of the Order of the British Empire in recognition of her work as a civil servant.

The British Information Services which Mrs. Hamilton feeds from the other side has suffered several cuts in government appropriations since World War II but still maintains offices in New York, Washington, Chicago, and San Francisco. Mrs. Hamilton said she was especially interested in visiting the Chicago office on this trip since she had head often that the Midwest is "real America."

Sees Drop In Prices But Doubts Depression

ATLANTIC CITY—A further deterioration in business but no depression is the prediction of Joseph L. Snider, professor of business economics, Harvard University.

He made the statement before the 55th annual convention of the Pennsylvania Bankers Association held here at the Hotel Traymore. He told the bankers that in view of several strong supports in the current situation "happily it does not appear likely that we shall have one of our severe depressions."

"My analysis suggests that we are facing a general business recession somewhat more severe than 1923-24 (mild), but not so severe as 1920-22," Mr. Snider said.

"During 1920-22, industrial production declined 33 per cent and commodity prices fell 46 per cent," he noted. "My guess is that the monthly indexes of industrial production and wholesale prices, at some time before the end of 1950, will reach levels something like 25 per cent below their peaks of 1948."

Mr. Snider said that since production and prices have already fallen six per cent or seven per cent, the expectation is for a further fall of as much as 15 to 20 per cent.

About The Folk You Know

Following the high school graduation exercises Thursday evening informal gatherings and suppers were held at various homes for relatives and friends . . . Mrs. Frida Beevers entertained at supper honoring her daughter Myrna . . . The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Oman and Kathryn Beevers of Ypsilanti, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Elliott and two children of Brooklyn. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Beevers and Mr. and Mrs. Downing and son and daughter of Britton . . . John Cameron played host to many of his classmates who gathered at his home after the exercises . . . Guests were also at the Ben Hammack home as well as many others.

Of the 227 alumni at the banquet Friday evening, the person who enjoyed the program most was Mrs. Lida James Gamble, a graduate of 1882 . . . Seeing her own class's commencement exercises certainly must have made her feel 65 years younger, even though at that time it was a serious matter . . . The staff of officers did a fine job in staging a most successful banquet and program.

"So far, outside of the Grand Canyon, I have seen nothing that would make me want to move from Tecumseh." These were the words of Rev. B. O. Bashore in a letter written to The Herald this week from California, where he, Mrs. Bashore and their children are attending the Northern Baptist convention and seeing some of the much-talked-about state . . . He continues with "When someone tells you the sun always shines in California, he means on the desert (which California has plenty of). It was 115 degrees at Boulder Dam the other day." . . . The family had fun buying trinkets in Mexico that were made in the U. S., he said . . . Traveling around usually makes one more appreciative of the home state.

GRANGE MEETS TONIGHT

Tecumseh Grange will hold its regular meeting this (Thursday) evening at 8 p.m. Refreshments will be served following the lecture hour. Members are to bring cake or cookies. The committee consists of Mr. and Mrs. George Everett, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Furgason, Mr. and Mrs. John Foote, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Bigelow, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Snoddy, Mrs. Myrtlene Craig and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Daykin.

Delegates to the youth conference to be held at Michigan State College July 3, 9 and 10 have been named. They are Eris Bailey, Sally Bale, Franklin Bush, Billy Bortel and Eddie Bach.

You can't eat your cake and have it, but doughnuts will stay with you for quite awhile.

7-POINT SUCCESS PROGRAM OUTLINED FOR T. H. S. SENIORS

Make Each Day Count, Dr. Purdom Tells Graduates

Find out what you can do well, pay attention to develop the power you have and make a contribution, Dr. T. Luther Purdom told the 46 Tecumseh high school seniors, when he addressed them at the 83rd annual commencement exercises held in the school auditorium, Thursday evening.

Listing seven pointers for the graduates to consider as they take their places in today's world, Dr. Purdom, director of the University of Michigan Bureau of Appointments and Occupational Information, elaborated on each one. He listed these points: 1. Take responsibility. 2. Stick to something until it is finished. 3. Correct your faults. 4. Be mentally and physically alert. 5. Do that which counts. 6. Have courage and initiative. 7. Do not neglect the religious side of life. Dr. Purdom was introduced by Earl H. Place, superintendent of schools.

The auditorium was filled to capacity as the seniors, wearing their grey gowns and caps with red tassels and a red carnation pinned on the shoulder of each one, marched into the auditorium and onto the stage as Mrs. Fred C. Dickinson played the processional. The stage was decorated with baskets of peonies and irises.

The invocation was given by the Rev. Alvin C. Brazee. Following the salutatory address by Richard Bishop, Miss Martha Ann Hayden, a member of the graduating class, sang "Romance," by Romberg, accompanied by Miss Marjorie Mohr.

Following the address by Dr. Purdom, Miss Mohr played a piano selection, "Rhapsody in B Minor," by Brahams. Miss Barbara Ellen Schoeck gave the valedictory address.

Earl E. Kruger, commander of the Hall-Slater post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, presented gold pins representing their goal of achievement to Miss Schoeck and Mr. Bishop. As past commander and acting chairman of the Americanism committee of Underwood-Orr post, American Legion, Donald Goddard presented a citizenship medal and lapel button to Jack Royden Gillen and a medal and pin to Miss Schoeck.

Mr. Place presented a scholarship to William D. Martin for Michigan State College and regent alumni scholarships for the University of Michigan to John Cameron, Gordon Comfort, Mr. Bishop and Miss Schoeck. Besides these five awarded with scholarships, there are at least ten others in the class who are definitely planning on attending college in the fall, Mr. Place said.

James McDowell, high school principal, presented the class to Jens Touborg, a member of the board of education, who in turn presented a diploma to each of the seniors. Rev. Brazee announced the benediction.

The Class Night program was presented by the seniors, last week Wednesday evening, for parents, teachers and friends, in the school auditorium. Strung across the top of the curtain were the words, "Today we follow; tomorrow we lead," the class motto. Spring flowers added to the attractiveness of the stage.

The program was as follows: presentation of cane, William Martin; acceptance of cane, Marlys Arnold; class history, Pat Hammack and Jane Hanna; class poem, Gloria Yost; prophecy, Mary Brown, Dean Peotter, John Cameron, Gladys Riley and Gwen Treby; class song, Martha Hayden; giftatory, Charlotte Miller, Benita Withrow, Jim Colson and Jack Gillen; class will, Gordon Comfort, Shirlie Moore, Jack Whelan and Jeanet Ehinger; president's address, William Martin.

A miniature covered wagon filled with "gifts" was drawn onto the stage by a "horse." The two boys dressed in cowboy suits and the two girls dressed in long skirts and red bonnets presented the gifts to the members. Made up as a lawyer, Gordon Comfort read the will to the "family," which consisted of the other three originators.

As the children of Israel were leaving Egypt, Pharaoh's heart was again hardened, and he gave chase—accompanied by his best soldiers, and 600 chariots. The children were encamped by the Red Sea, and, as they saw the army approaching, they appealed to Moses to help. Moses, after a consultation with the Lord, stretched his arm out over the sea, and the waters opened up and formed a wall on either side, and the road between was dry. The children started across. As the approaching army was on this same road, and about to overtake them, the Lord caused a part of the sea to return and fill this road, and every Egyptian was drowned. Thus, the people saw the great work the Lord did upon the Egyptians, and the people feared the Lord, and believed his servant Moses.

Here was a miracle—which saved an entire nation from total destruction and servitude. Outnumbered and defenseless, their faith took care of them, just as it will take care of you.

When everyday worries are overtaking you, and your troubled mind will not let you rest, take your troubles to the church of your choice. There you will find solace, comfort, understanding, in worship with people of your own faith. The church needs you—you need the church.

BATTLE CREEK LADY HIGHLY RECOMMENDS O-JIB-WA TO OTHERS

Painful Arthritis Forced Me to Quit Work; Robbed Me of Sleep and Made My Life Miserable

"My name is Mrs. Rose Harding, and I live at 47 E. Goodale Street, Battle Creek. I wish to personally recommend O-JIB-WA BITTERS to every person suffering with Rheumatism and Arthritis."

Mrs. R. Harding

"Off and on, during the last five years, I have suffered with the pains of Rheumatism and Arthritis, mostly in my hands, arms, shoulders and the lower part of my back. My condition was much worse in the spring and fall, and when it was so bad that I just couldn't sleep, I spent most of my time on my heating pad. I tried many medicines, but nothing seemed to give me relief. I had a nice little cosmetic route built up, and although the sales kit wasn't very heavy, the weight of it bothered my arms, and I just couldn't stand it."

"Several of my customers suggested O-JIB-WA BITTERS to me, and after reading in my local paper of what it had done for others, I purchased a bottle and started using it. Now I too can readily recommend O-JIB-WA BITTERS for it has certainly helped me. Five days from the time I started taking this wonderful medicine, I began to feel relief, and in just 20 days the pains were entirely gone. I now feel much better, sleep well and have more pep, thanks to O-JIB-WA."

"I have told many people about this medicine and without exception, every person that tried it, has been very satisfied."

O-Jib-Wa Bitters Can Help You Also

Regardless of what you have tried without results, if you suffer from Rheumatism, Arthritis or Neuritis, you owe it to yourself to try this all herb medicine. For over 35 years this old reliable medicine has been used successfully by many thousands of people. O-JIB-WA is quick in action, and aids in correcting the cause as well as relieving these horrible agonies. DON'T GIVE UP HOPE, AND DON'T PUT OFF—Give O-JIB-WA BITTERS a chance to help you. (Special to The Herald)

Since the legislature is dominated by Republicans, while the executive branch of the state government is Democratic, possibilities for argument are unlimited. You'll probably hear about it for months to come.

Here is the legislative record in brief:

Legislative appropriations were the highest in state history, exceeding last year's by $36 millions—about $40 more than anticipated revenues.

Maximum benefits for old age recipients were increased 20 per cent from $50 to $60 a month. Also higher benefits were granted under the workmen's compensation act whereby dependancy in industrial accidents is recognized for the first time in history. The ceiling on unemployment insurance benefits was also raised; penalty provisions were softened.

The Bonine-Tripp labor law was revised to encourage voluntary arbitration; to provide cooling-off periods and other methods for preventing strikes against public utilities including hospitals.

The sales and use tax acts were tightened to get better collections; compromises on penalties and interest charges, where evasion is obvious, were prohibited; the statute of limitation was removed where fraud is proved.

Limit on bonus applications of war veterans was extended two years to March 19, 1951. Veterans were given preference in public jobs; $170,000 income of the veterans' trust fund set aside for veterans' hospitalization; local governments may grant special parking permits to disabled veterans.

The one-man grand jury law was replaced by a three-judge system with no immunity for state witnesses. Indictments must be unanimous.

A water resources commission was created to control pollution and to cooperate with local governments on flood control problems. Earmarking of license fees was terminated. Size limit on panfish was removed. Conservation commission was given additional discretionary power to control the deer herd.

Parimutuel betting and all horse racing at the state fairgrounds, Detroit, will be terminated January 1, 1950. A bill to outlaw betting at all race tracks was killed in House committee, after getting through the Senate—the same procedure as two years ago.

Liquor cannot be sold on state property, including state parks; bottle clubs are outlawed; a $1-per-gallon tax was placed on out-of-state fortified wines, as a protection for Michigan-made wines; liquor legislation referendums limited to state elections.

Governor G. Mennen Williams, following his strategy of keeping the Republican legislative on the defensive, has served notice that a special session would be called (perhaps in the fall) to consider tax revenues in order to avert a state treasury deficit. (Approximately two-thirds of the state revenues are returned to local governments).

In an appeal to the C.I.O. State Convention, Gov. Williams urged labor to "pump some guts" into legislators. He criticized them for "failure" to enact measures for public housing, agricultural "seal of quality," non-discrimination in employment, and more labor benefits.

Guy Jenkins, veteran correspondent of the Booth Newspapers, commented caustically: "Williams' fiscal program is almost identical with what has been coming out of Washington since the early days of the New Deal with the late Harry Hopkins adopting the philosophy of tax and tax, spend and spend, elect and elect."

Owen C. Deatrick, Detroit Free Press writer: "No new taxes . . . nobody hurt by anything the legislature did."

And so it goes. The voter will pronounce the verdict in November, 1950.

NEW WAY

to tell the best-tasting beer in Michigan!

A. ALTES LAGER beer is made exclusively in closed vats, unlike other beers made in open vats.

B. Beer made in closed vats tastes better—because air or anything else harmful can't get in—and no flavor can escape from a closed vat.

C. Compare the exclusive aged-in, sealed-in flavor of ALTES LAGER with any other beer. Your taste will tell you it's better because it's made in closed vats!

It's made in closed vats!

With Our Hoss-tradin' and Garagin Plans, Yes Suh!

Now we're havin a heck of a time explainin' to our customers the reason why we can't get 'em new Fords . . . hosses as we calls 'em . . . when their order, which we've had for months, is near the top of the pile and, like as not, they want to go on a vakashun.

Wahl, yuh see, it's like this. We cowboys out here on the range work nights, days and Sundays, trying to keep our herd together and pleasin' our friends. We just get started "makin' hay," so to speak, and then them city fellers who work down at the Rouge go hay-wire and strike for who knows why. And then the party's on.

Wahl, it's like this. We kint deliver hosses that we don't get, and we don't get them 4-wheel hosses unless they're made, and it don't make any difference who gets mad, whether its us or our customers, them's facts.

So, if you've got an order for a new 4-wheel hoss and you're wonderin' why you don't hear from us, jist be patient like. We feel just as bad as you do . . . fact is we probably feel worse, 'cause we kint make money unless we've got hosses to sell.

We'll deliver yur critter jist as quick as we kin get one for yuh but remember, we don't make 'em here. They're made by them city fellers.

P.S. If y'ud like to here our story direct, just drop in or phone us and one 'o our cowboys will come a runnin' to explain and to tell yuh just where your order stands with us.

"Saved Me a Year's Pay!"

Case No. 54-49325-64

98 days in the hospital. The bill for drugs and dressings came to $2828.90. Laboratory fees alone were $116.50. Total cost: $3684.90. Patient's family paid only $37.50. Blue Cross took care of the rest.

Figures show that one person in every ten will go to a hospital this year

NEW medical techniques call for expensive drugs and equipment. General hospital expenses have gone up, along with everything else. That's why typical hospital bills are so high these days—in some cases as much as three times as high as they were in 1941! And that's why you and your family need Blue Cross protection now more than ever before.

No other health-care plans offer so much for so little.

Blue Cross, Michigan's wholly non-profit, voluntary hospital plans—pays out in benefits an average of 85 cents from each dollar received. Blue Cross Hospital Plan provides up to 120 days of hospital care in any of the 172 participating hospitals in Michigan. No cash limit on the benefits covered. In addition, Blue Cross Medical-Surgical Plan pays liberal amounts for operations and your own doctor's calls at the hospital in non-surgical cases.

Blue Cross is available to employed people through group enrollment . . . No physical examination or health statement required.

You can join more than 1,500,000 Michigan people who already enjoy Blue Cross protection. Talk to your employer . . . or ask your local Blue Cross representative . . . or write directly to one of the Blue Cross offices listed below for full information.

PROTECTION THAT'S PRICELESS

HE IS AN AUTHORITY

A farmer, because of the nature and complexity of his work, must be a near-expert in many fields. Surely this type of man is not to be approached casually and told how to run his business.

He knows that many stores, businesses, industries, schools, and professional people fail. Therefore, he will not be unduly upset or thrilled by the advice of these people when that advice is given in bounteous quantity but without ample quality and authority.

The farmer does not have a "butcher, a baker, and a candle-stick maker" just around the corner. The specialists that serve him are mostly distant and act in an informative capacity only.

A farmer must be well versed in more individual fields of training than the average businessman. He must know agricultural engineering to run and maintain his machinery; know some bookkeeping to handle his accounts; be a scientist to improve his stock, crops and soil; must be physically fit to put in long hours in all kinds of weather; and he must be a thinker.—Rotary International.

Weeds— or CROPS, America?

The farmer looked at his untilled acre.

"Nope," he said, "Won't stick a plow in there. Don't care if it is fertile—I just don't like the color of the soil."

So the weeds grew rank and spread their seeds to his other acres, fouling his cotton and stunting his corn. And his harvest was poor.

There are some who would do the same for America. They would neglect the cultivation of the minds of young growing Americans. They would set them apart, deny them equal advantages . . .

Stupid, isn't it, that anyone should want a weedy harvest?

For our own sake—for America's sake, we can all do three things to help the cause of unity:

1. Accept—or reject—people on their individual worth.
2. Don't listen to, or spread, rumors against a race, or a religion.
3. Speak up wherever we are, against prejudice, and work for understanding.

Remember—
THAT'S BEING AN AMERICAN

Queen Contest Gets Under Way

24 YOUNG LADIES SEEK COVETED TITLE; CELEBRATION PLANS DEVELOP

Two dozen of "Lenawee county's loveliest young ladies" are busy striving for the honor of being "Princess Lenawee" or "Princess Tecumseh" in a contest to select a queen for Tecumseh's 125th Anniversary Celebration, June 27 thru July 4.

Nominated by their friends through newspaper coupons, the candidates were entertained by the committee at a dinner at Brees House, Tuesday, when the rules of the contest were explained.

Eighteen candidates were at the dinner, while a half dozen more found it impossible to attend. Two more missed notification in spite of a flurry of telephone calls, mail, and other attempts to notify all of the girls before the dinner. The committee asks The Herald to express its sincere regret that two of the girls could not be reached. The vote tabulation and the promotion on the committee's part is absolutely impartial, and no candidate will ever be intentionally slighted, it was said.

Committee members are delighted with the number and caliber of the girls who are candidates. "They're all queens!" exclaimed Richard Spitler, pageant master. "No matter which girl wins, the celebration is assured of having a worthy queen and court," was the comment of Ronald Harris, division chairman.

The nominees, most of whom are now hard at work in the contest are as follows: Doris Bilby, Tecumseh; Isabel Craig, Britton; Jane Duvall, Tecumseh; Mollie Gamble, Hudson; Patricia Hammack, Tecumseh; Jane Hanna, Tecumseh; Joan Hart, Tecumseh; Martha Hayden, Tecumseh; Anita Kohl, Deerfield; Martha Kossey, Tecumseh; Marilyn Lindsley, Tecumseh; Patricia Long, Tecumseh; Phyllis Moats, Clinton; Shirlie Moore, Tecumseh; Zoe Anne Pennington, Britton; Helen Stanifer, Tecumseh; Bonnie Beasley, Tecumseh; Cynthia Spafford, Tecumseh; Mary Brown, Tecumseh; Winifred Finley, Tecumseh;

Bible School Ends, Friday

DEMONSTRATION BY STUDENTS FOR PARENTS IS PLANNED AT HIGH SCHOOL

The Tecumseh Daily Vacation Bible School under the direction of the Ministerial Association will conclude its program this Friday evening, June 17, at 7:30 with a demonstration at the high school gymnasium.

The children of the Beginners, Primary and Junior Departments will take this opportunity of showing their parents and friends the handwork they have done. Also they will through songs and recitations tell them of what they have learned during this two week period.

The general theme of the Bible School this year has been God in Nature, with the Beginners studying the story of Creation. The Primary children have been learning of God's Wonderful World, while those in the Junior Department have used the theme Praise Ye the Lord.

In addition to the displays and the program on Friday evening there will be a film from the New Testament.

During the course of this year's Bible School the children have responded eagerly to the stories, the handwork, the worship, recreation, and pictures. The teachers, giving generously of their time and energy, hope that parents of the children will feel that the time has been well-spent, and that home encouragement will see these same children permanently attached to some local church school.

PARKING LOT CLOSED

The village parking lot, with entrances from West Chicago Blvd., and South Pearl St., and located behind Schneider Bros., show room will be closed tomorrow, (Friday), from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m., while it is being treated for dust.

The eleventh annual reunion of the Caswell school and Cone community will be held Sunday, June 19, on the school grounds. All teachers, pupils and residents of the community are invited to attend. A cooperative dinner will be served at 12:30 p.m.

REAL INDIANS TO STAGE CELEBRATION PROGRAM HERE

Chief Maza Kinyan To Direct Sunday Ceremonial

An authentic Indian participation has been added to Tecumseh's 125th Anniversary Celebration as a result of developments last week. Sunday, July 3, will see a group of full-blooded Indians present a native program of songs and dances in both the afternoon and evening.

Arrangements were made last week at a meeting here when committee members met with James Welsh, the Old AAA Traveler and Chief Maza Kinyan (Flying Iron) of the Sioux tribe.

Flying Iron himself will produce the program, which is not a part of the "Tecumseh's 125 years of Progress" pageant which will not be shown on Sunday.

Flying Iron was educated at Cornell University and is a graduate of the Ithaca School of Music. He told the committee that Tecumseh's possibilities for developing an annual authentic Indian celebration are unlimited. "Your town's Indian name, your closeness to metropolitan centers, and your natural amphitheater at the Recreation Center, make it a natural for your town to develop the largest Indian powwow east of the Rocky mountains," he said.

He also emphasized the value of an authentic presentation. "Too many of our Indians and whites have lost sight of the real appeal of our traditional songs and dances," he said. "We must emphasize that this is not a "Wild West" show with stage coach hold ups and Buffalo Bill antics. We are interested only in true Indian presentations, and we assure you that these will not be out of keeping with a Sunday presentation."

Among the Indians who will take part in the presentation are the following: Chief Lone Wolf, Princess Precious Word, Princess Red Deer and Princess Rolling Cloud of the Mohawks; Chief White Bird, Princess Silver Star, Princess Joan Pretty Bird, and Princess Virginia Prancing Rain of the Chippewas; Yellow Thunder and Rain Eagle of the Pueblos, as well as Maza Kinyan (Flying Iron) of the Montana Sioux. The Old AAA Traveler will be the narrator.

"We shall give you an interesting production," Flying Iron told the committee. "We strongly suggest that you start making plans soon for next year, and Tecumseh, Michigan, in a few years can be known as the program location for true Indian productions east of the Rockies."

Wear Your Hat Or Pay A Fine

Startled visitors to Tecumseh these days are asking, "What's going on? Why the funny lids?" Which is exactly what the Celebration Committee wants.

The "lids" of course, are the official celebration "Robin Hood" hats. Originally scheduled to go on sale Tuesday, the hats were tried by a few committeemen Saturday morning. The idea caught fire, and before the day was over a full scale promotion of celebration hats was under way. Barbers, store clerks, youngsters, shoppers made the town sparkle with the brilliantly colored hats and feathers.

Designed originally to advertise the celebration, the hats are showing a distinct commercial value. Shoppers from all over the countryside are coming to Tecumseh "where everybody is wearing those cute little hats." If all of the store people and other residents of the town will keep wearing their hats, thousands of visitors will do their shopping here even before the week of the celebration itself.

As Jim Welsh, the Old AAA Traveler told committee members last week: "It is not enough for a celebration to be simply a civic affair. It should have definite commercial value to the local business people."

Robinhood Hats have been made official for the celebration by a proclamation of Village President, Marvin Watkins. A special kangaroo court will be set up on Saturday in the downtown district and Tecumsehites found not wearing a "Robinhood" will be brought into court, where 50 cent fines are imposed. Hats cost 35 cents, so its cheaper to buy than to pay the fine.

DO YOU HAVE ROOMS AVAILABLE?

Tecumseh residents who may have rooms available during the 125th Anniversary Celebration are asked to report them to the Chamber of Commerce.

The Celebration committee has no way of knowing how many persons may want overnight accommodations during the celebration, but it is essential that they have sources to which they might refer anyone so desiring.

List the number of rooms available, the rate, name, address and telephone number and mail it to the Chamber of Commerce.

Flower Show Visited By Scores, Wednesday

Schneider Brothers show room was transformed into a virtual flower garden when the Tecumseh Garden Club held its annual Flower Show, Wednesday afternoon and evening. Scores of flower lovers from Tecumseh and surrounding communities viewed the attractive and unique displays and specimens throughout the day and evening.

Members of the Ridgeway, Jasper and Franklin Garden Clubs, as well as the Little, Neighborhood, Iris and Adrian Clubs from Adrian were invited to participate in the show, along with the local club members. Mrs. Paul Clauda was in charge of the children's entries.

Mrs. R. Koths of Inkster, Mrs. Charles Holm of Dearborn and Mrs. Charles Warner of Jackson were the judges. Prize winners will be announced in next week's issue of The Herald.

PAST CHIEFS CLUB

The Past Chiefs Club of the Pythian Sisters will meet Friday evening, June 17, at the home of Mrs. Harry Schuch with Mrs. Frank Gray as assisting hostess.

Beardsley purchased the house on West Chicago boulevard, for many years known as the P.W.A. Fitzsimmons property, about five years ago. He is residing there with his mother, Mrs. Mabel Beardsley.

The mishap occurred when the automobile Hodge was driving east missed the curve on Wal-Ann Arbor hospital, Monday, to Tecumseh, and struck a tree. The vehicle was completely demolished. Hodge was removed to Tecumseh hospital by ambulance and to the Ann Arbor hosptail, Monday, to determine the full extent of his injuries.

Rubbish Pick-up Here Each Saturday

A special pick-up of trash and rubbish by village trucks will be accomplished each Saturday morning, starting at 8:30, it was announced today by F. K. Dawson, engineer.

Persons desiring to take advantage of the pick-up which is designed to make for the cleanliness of yards, should have their trash and rubbish on the boulevard curb by 8:30 a.m., each Saturday.

Mr. Dawson warned that only a "reasonable amount" of debris would be taken away from any house under the clean-up program.

Quaker Pays In Silver Dollars

250 POUNDS OF CASH FOR EMPLOYEES IN PREPARATION FOR JUNE 27 SHOW

The payroll will be "heavier than usual" at the Quaker Oats Company here tomorrow, according to Donald T. Nixon, manager. Employees will be paid in silver dollars.

Purpose of the weighty payday is to help publicize the Tecumseh-Lenawee County 125th Anniversary Celebration which opens June 27 with the Quaker Oats Show.

Disbursement of the silver dollars also will serve to illustrate the part which the Quaker Oats payroll plays in the economic life of this community of about 4,000. There are about 60 persons making spaghetti, macaroni and noodles at the plant. Their mid-month payroll, less income taxes and other deductions, will amount to more than $3,500 and will weigh nearly 250 pounds.

Recipients of the silver dollars are being urged to "keep 'em rolling" rather than convert them to paper money, to arouse interest in the coming celebration.

Rin Tin Tin III, canine screen star, will be featured person at the Quaker Oats Show, a traveling industrial exposition which will be combined with a plant tour. Doors of the show will be open from 1 to 10 p.m. on June 27, one day only.

Summer Play Program Here

SUPERVISED RECREATION FOR YOUNGSTERS TO GET UNDER WAY, MONDAY

The summer supervised recreation program for Tecumseh children from the kindergarten to the twelfth grades will begin next Monday, June 20, Elven Duvall, recreation director, announced today. Tennis and golf tournaments will be held this summer in conjunction with the program.

Registration for all activities, other than swimming, will begin at the Center at 9 a.m., and all those signing up are urged to be there promptly at the time specified.

Miss Marilyn VanWinkle will supervise the children from kindergarten through the fourth grades. Mr. Duvall has charge of the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades in the morning and will supervise the ninth, tenth, eleventh and twelfth graders in the afternoon.

Miss Dorothy Bowen, registered Red Cross swimming instructor, has been signed up to give swimming instruction. Registration will be held at "The Pit," at 9 a.m., and students will be placed in classes according to their ability. Through this course it is possible to secure Red Cross Life Saving certificates, it was said.

All those interested in joining a tennis or golf team are requested to contact Mr. Duvall before Tuesday, June 21. A schedule of the matches will appear in a future issue of The Herald.

The cost of the summer program has not been completely underwritten, and unless more funds are forthcoming, the program will discontinue when the available money is exhausted.

GETS DENTAL DEGREE

Robert W. Laidlaw, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Laidlaw, Tecumseh, received his D. D. S. degree at commencement exercises at the University of Michigan School of Dentistry, Saturday. Dr. Laidlaw will open dental offices here in July, having purchased the practice of Dr. Ferris G. Hodge, who now is a lieutenant commander in the U. S. Navy.

Puttin' On The Dog

Rin Tin Tin III, canine screen star, undergoes a bit of beautification in getting ready for his trip from Hollywood to Tecumseh. The talented German Shepherd is a grandson of the first Rin Tin Tin, idol of silent movie fans. He will appear at the Quaker Oats Show, industrial exposition which opens the 125th Anniversary Celebration here on Monday, June 27.

Wooden Money Legal Tender In Tecumseh

As a part of the advertising and promotion of the 125th Anniversary Celebration, June 27 thru July 4, "wooden nickels" will be legal tender in Tecumseh until the celebration is over.

A highly unusual promotion, the "wooden nickel" feature works this way: Tecumseh stores will have the wooden money in five, ten, and twenty-five cent denominations. They will be handed out as change in any regular purchase. They will also be accepted for full face value in Tecumseh stores. At the time of the closing of the celebration, all of the wooden money will be redeemed at full face value. No one loses a cent for participating.

The "wooden nickels," like other novelties in connection with the celebration, have for their purpose, first of all to advertise the celebration. Moreover, since a number of people will wish to keep them as souvenirs, it is expected that they will help to underwrite the cost of the celebration.

Since these wooden nickels will have the value of legal tender locally, they take on unusual souvenir value. A coin collectors' catalogue company has already written the Chamber of Commerce asking for a set of the coins so that they might advertise them for their subscribing coin collectors all over the United States.

CURIOSITY TURNS PUSSY CAT PINK

Curiosity may not kill a cat, but it turned one pink!

The "phenomena" occurred Tuesday morning when Jissy Jet, Miss Edith Ingersoll's pet kitten, followed its natural impulse to see what was in the can on the floor that held her master's attention. One leap in the air and jissy, jet black during the leap, landed in the can and emerged the prettiest shade of pink! No, it wasn't pink lemonade in the can, it was Kemtone!

Now Miss Ingersoll, who has been redecorating her house herself, has some touches of pink in the shape of tiny paw prints, on her carpets and furniture, thanks to Jissy Jet. And although Kemtone is washable on the walls, on Jissy Jet its matted!

Village Has Program To Build Sidewalks

Under the program that Mr. Dawson has worked out, the village is prepared to build the walks at the following prices: For walks of four inch thickness, 30 cents a square foot; for walks of six inch thickness, 37 cents a square foot, and for eight inch thickness, 44 cents a square foot.

Under this plan, the village would furnish all materials and do all of the work.

Rin Tin Tin On The Stage

FAMOUS MOVIE DOG TO MAKE PERSONAL APPEARANCE WITH FILM AT STRAND

The famous movie dog, Rin Tin Tin III, will be seen on the stage and the screen at the Strand Theatre here, June 24 and 25, through the courtesy of the Quaker Oats Company's show, which is scheduled for the following Monday, June 27, at the company's local plant.

Rin Tin Tin III is currently starring in the new PRC'c Vitacolor film, "The Return of Rin Tin Tin," which will show at the Strand next week Friday and Saturday. Not only is Rin a celebrity, he has many relatives who are likewise famous. Rin III, back from four years in the Army, is the grandson of the famed dog star of the 1920's. His father, also a movie star, was known as Rin Tin Tin III.

Truline Von Pondview, mother of Rin III, was killed in action in the South Pacific and was awarded the purple heart and a medal for bravery, posthumously.

Rin-ette, a sister of Rin III, is the fourth dog of W. K. Kellogg, wealthy philanthropist and has won many trophies as a show dog. Several sons and daughters of Rin III are now being trained on the California ranch of their owner-trainer, Lee Duncan.

Rin III will appear on the stage at each performance, and there will be matinees at 2:30 in the afternoon, continuing through the evenings of both days.

A TOWN WITHOUT STORES

The U. S. Department of Labor has published an attractive 142-page booklet, called "The Gift of Freedom," which is being widely distributed in Europe by ERP. Subtitled "A Study of the Economic and Social Status of Wage Earners in the United States," its purpose is to show people of other lands just how the individual fares under this system.

One photograph depicts an average small town main business street, showing shoppers' cars and typical stores. A handsome building housing an outlet for a national department store chain is seen. Adjoining it are other shops, independently owned and selling various kinds of goods. Other photographs depict the interiors of stores, and emphasize the attractiveness and abundance of the displays.

To most Europeans, with their subsistence of living standards, these photos will seem almost unbelievable. And they have an often overlooked significance for Americans as well. The retail store is the heart of American communities, and most especially the small towns and the villages. It brings the people in from the surrounding farm areas—the Saturday afternoon and evening shopping tour is a well-intrenched American institution in the grass roots. The store is still a place where old social contacts are renewed and new ones made.

As a general thing, retailers are among the first to lend their support to worth while civic undertakings of all kinds. They know that their welfare depends upon the welfare of the town as an entity.

Dr. Robert W. Laidlaw Weds Della M. Kutis

Saturday, June 11, in St. Mary's Student Chapel in Ann Arbor, Miss Della Mae Kutis, daughter of Mrs. Anthony J. Kutis, sr., of Glen Dale, West Virginia, and the late Mr. Kutis, became the bride of Dr. Robert William Laidlaw, son of Mr. and Mrs. Orville W. Laidlaw of Tecumseh.

The Rev. Fr. John Bradley performed the double ring ceremony at 12:30 o'clock, before the altar banked with white peonies. Family pews were marked with white bows and fern. Preceding the ceremony nuptial music was played by the church organist.

The bride, gowned in white satin, carried a lace handkerchief first carried by the groom's maternal grandmother. Fashioned with long sleeves ending in points over her hands, the bodice of the gown featured a marquisette yoke. The bustle in the back of the skirt ended in a full train. The bride's fingertip veil of illusion fell from a crown of seed pearls and she carried a cascade arm bouquet of gardenias. Anthony J. Kutis, jr., gave his sister in marriage.

Mrs. Clifton C. Wilson of Glen Dale, matron of honor, preceded her sister to the altar. Her gown of nile green nylon over white satin was styled with a high round neckline, cap sleeves and full skirt. She wore short white mitts and carried a cascade of lemon carnations and cavalier roses.

Dr. Robert Murray of Elmira, New York, assisted Dr. Laidlaw as best man. The ushers were David O. Laidlaw of Royal Oak, brother of the groom, Dr. Frederick Jeffers of Birmingham and Dr. Louis v. d. w. Fourie of South Africa.

After the ceremony a reception was held at Delta Sigma Delta fraternity house for some 200 guests. Red roses and peonies in pink and white decorated the spacious rooms. A four-tiered wedding cake centered the bridal table. The Misses Martha Tilley of Cincinnati, Ohio, Lloydene McCracken of Cameron, W. Va., and Miss Dottie Kees of Audubon, N. J., assisted with the serving. Miss Nancy Smith of Honesdale, Pa., was in charge of the guest book.

When the couple left on a trip to Torch Lake and Northern Michigan the bride was attired in a blue summer suit with straw and brown accessories and a brown sympedium orchid. On their return they will reside at 209½ South Pearl St.

The bride graduated from Moundsville high school, Moundsville, W. Va., and the Ohio Valley General Hospital School of Nursing, Wheeling, W. Va. At present she is a student in the School of Public Health at the University of Michigan.

The groom is a graduate of Tecumseh high school, received his B. A. degree from Williams College, Williamstown, Mass., and D. D. S. degree from the School of Dentistry at the University of Michigan. He is a member of Delta Sigma Delta fraternity and Omicron Kappa Upsilon, honorary dental fraternity, was officer of his dental class for three years, and on the student board of management of the Michigan Union for two years. He will open his dental office in Tecumseh about July 1.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Don't Fence Yourself In

Every spring, Handy Peterson and Easy Roberts patch up the stone wall that separates their farms. They walk along talking—Easy on one side, Handy on the other—picking up the fallen stones and putting them back.

Afterwards, over a friendly glass of beer, Easy says, "You know, wall-mending is a nice neighborly custom, but we really don't need that wall. We keep it up just because it happens to be there."

"Yes," says Handy, "a lot of walls and fences and boundaries keep on separating people for no good reason. Maybe we'd all be better off if some of them were torn down, instead of kept standing."

From where I sit, Handy said a monthful. Take the "walls of intolerance" that people build up against each other. I like a temperate glass of beer now and then, you may prefer buttermilk—but that's no reason for me to criticize you, or you, me. Let's live and let-live together—making more friends and fewer "walls."

State Acts To Protect Health

MICHIGAN IS INTERESTED IN SAFETY OF ITS 7,000,000 VACATIONISTS

To assure that Michigan's resort and rural areas which normally serve only a sparce population are prepared to protect the health of more than 7,000,000 vacationists, the Michigan Department of Health and the local health departments of the state are now undertaking special summer activities.

One third of Michigan's 3,000 resorts will display "Sanitation Approved" signs this summer, indicating that they have complied with the sanitation standards recommended by the Michigan Department of Health, John Hepler, director of the Division of Engineering of the State Health Department, estimated today.

Those black and white signs, prominently displayed, indicate to tourists and permanent residents alike that the water supply and sewage disposal of the resort are safe; that the swimming beach is not polluted; that, where food is served, the methods of handling and garbage disposal are approved; and that the resort has provided for the general safety of its patrons.

Local health departments, which serve 94 per cent of the state's 6,195,000 population, and the Michigan Department of Health carry on year-around programs of sanitation related to restaurants, milk and water supplies and sewage disposal.

This month several summer sanitarians-at-large resume their duties with the state health department, and 17 sanitation trainees will receive training while working in local health departments. These men will concentrate on resorts which dot the 3,000 miles of Great Lakes shoreline, the 11,000 inland lakes and 36,000 miles of rivers and streams. These resorts which accommodate most of the state's vacationists include 2,000 cabin camps, many summer resort hotels, trailer camps, community resorts, parks, amusement and picnic areas as well as 323 children's camps which will provide outings for 125,000 children this summer.

Final inspection of the water supply, food handling, sewage disposal, bathing facilities, and the general safety of each resort is now being made. Bathing beaches are being checked and those which are unsafe will be marked with a sign "Unsafe for Swimming." Water supply and bathing beach samples are continually being tested in the Michigan Department of Health Laboratories in Lansing, Grand Rapids, Houghton and Powers.

The Michigan Water Resources Commission, formerly the Stream Control Commission, is adding ten summer employees to aid resort and community bathing areas in treating beaches to prevent "swimmers' itch." The Department of Conservation is providing this service for state parks.

The Michigan Department of Health, in cooperation with the local communities of the state is making preparations for the annual statewide ragweed pollen survey for the benefit of hay fever sufferers. Results of last year's survey, copies of which may be had from the Department, indicate that about half of the state offers some relief for hayfever sufferers.

Local and state health departments are increasing their immunization and communicable disease control activities, and their reporting service keeps all sections of the state informed of an outbreak of communicable disease in the immediate locality or in any other section of the state.

To provide healthier holidays for vacationists from Michigan and from other states and to protect permanent residents are major aims of the health departments' summer resort programs, according to Mr. Hepler.

The greatest relief that this country will ever feel will come when there isn't any more relief.

Just how high is "HIGH COMPRESSION" ?

Your key to Greater Value

WHEN the talk turns to cars and car engines these days, that's a topic you hear much about.

So it's fairly interesting to note that, even back before the war, Buick engines like this one were touring the testing grounds with compressions as high as 10 to 1.

Even later than that this same big Buick power plant has been filling our engineers' notebooks with data on 8 to 1 compression ratios.

What has come out of this? Two or three interesting points.

First of all, that this big Buick Fireball valve-in-head straight-eight already has a compression ratio that gets as much out of present fuels as any engine on the market.

Next, that these ratios can readily be stepped up to fit higher octane gasolines as they become available.

There's the fundamental matter of engine efficiency—power output per cubic inch of displacement, engineers call it. On that score, Buick stands where it always has—just about tops in its field!

Which means, in very simple words—better go see for yourself.

The fun you get from your car—the pleasure and satisfaction it gives you—are best measured in just one place—behind the wheel.

So we invite you to see your Buick dealer for a firsthand test of Buick. Take it in your own two hands and find out how good it feels, how full of get-up-and-go.

It won't take long to make it pretty clear that the place to get your order in is the place where you get Buick power.

BRITAIN SIMPLIFIES VISITORS' SHOPPING

NEW YORK—Shopping will be easier for visitors in Britain this year.

Britain's purchase tax on goods costing $4.03 or more has been lifted, which means a saving in tax of from 33⅓ to 100 per cent on many items, according to Sir Harold Boulton, chief representative in North America for the British Travel Association. As an added feature, the shops will send the purchase direct to the buyer's home in the States, or to the plane or ship on which he has booked passage.

The new arrangement, in which nearly all the shops are participating, will add to the ease, economy, and pleasure of tourist buying. Besides traditional souvenirs, the traveler in Britain will find that high-quality goods of British manufacture are now available in large quantities.

STATE MEDICINE SCORED BY BRITON

PHILADELPHIA — Socialized medicine is an integral part of a plan to communize the world, Cecil Palmer, British author and lecturer, said here.

Mr. Palmer told 500 members and guests of the Union League that "it was foisted on the British public as a free system and yet it is going to cost about $1,000,000,000 in the first year of its operation."

He asserted socialized medicine had done two things in England: 1. Revolutionized the status of the doctor by making the state his master.

2. Destroyed the relationship between the physician and the patient by doing away wh privacy in medicine.

People who have a past to forget should never enter politics.

WINTER-WEAKENED CARS NEED SUMMER TUNE-UP

"The annual summer return to mass-motoring is here. It's the time for motorists to have their cars inspected and prepared for summer driving" declared Bug's Super Service of Tecumseh.

"The heavier driving schedule ahead is due partly to improved weather, together with the lure of pleasure driving and early vacation trips," Mr. Bughee explained. "But many of these cars increasing their daily mileage totals have been dangerously weakened by winter-wear."

He continued: "Until each of the working parts of a car has been restored to pre-winter efficiency, the car cannot operate properly. Among the key parts of a car that suffer most during the cold weather is the entire exhaust system, from the exhaust manifold, through the exhaust pipe and muffler to the rear outlet of the tail pipe. Since these parts are hidden beneath the car, few motorists would suspect them unless their car was given a thorough inspection.

Once a muffler becomes clogged with carbon and rust, a car cannot perform properly. Exhaust gases are dammed up inside the muffler, increasing back pressure and interfering with motor performance. The engine overheats and exhaust valves burn out. The car becomes slow in starting and hard to raise to higher speeds. Power is drained from the motor and fuel is wasted. It is not unusual to use six gallons of gas to do the work of five.

With such harmful effects, plus the dangers of a faulty motor and exhaust system, there's little wonder why every car needs a summer inspection.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

A family dinner of 30 guests held at Bauer Manor at Evans Lake, Saturday, June 11, was the two-fold occasion for the announcement of Mr. and Mrs. Yale Harrington Kerby of the engagement of their daughter, Barbara Louise, to Frank Kenneth Dawson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dawson of Arlington, Va., and honoring Miss Kerby on her graduation from the University of Michigan, where she affiliated with Alpha Chi Omega sorority. The bride-elect also received a diploma from Sullins Junior College in Bristol, Va.

Mr. Dawson is a graduate of Purdue University where he received a master's degree in engineering. He served as a captain in the air-force during World War II and is employed as the village engineer of Tecumseh. Miniature diplomas as place settings revealed the news to each guest. The couple plan a late fall wedding.

HOLLAND REGAINS LOOTED DIAMONDS

THE HAGUE—Diamonds weighing 336.24 carats looted from Dutch dealers during the German occupation of Holland, and found in Spain after the war, have been formally returned to Holland.

Representatives of the United States, British, and French Embassies in The Hague handed the diamonds over to Dutch authorities at the Dutch Foreign Ministry.

The diamonds were traced to Spain by representatives of the Allied Control Council for Germany.

"Tecumseh's 125 Years of Progress," the historical pageant which will be one of the chief features of the celebration, is rapidly preparing for production according to Mr. Spitler, pageant master from the John B. Rogers Company.

Daily and nightly rehearsals of cast members who will take part in the various episodes are constantly being held. Scores and scores of Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Grange members, Legionnaires, V.F.W. members, Monday Club members, and many other local organizations are securing their rosters to line up even more cast members.

Plans and specifications for the huge stage and background have been placed in the hands of the contractor, and Spitler announces that the public will be delighted with the beauty of the set and of the entire production.

Preparations for Canada Day, Saturday, July 2, continue to grow. Last night a delegation of village, Chamber of Commerce, and celebration committee officials again visited Tecumseh's Canadian namesake to perfect details for the day.

The Canadians have chartered busses and have put out window cards and stickers throughout Essex county to help build intense interest.

Detroit, Windsor, and Tecumseh residents were startled at the Michigan visitation. Just to help the thing along, most of the delegation went dressed in Indian costume to the delight of their hosts.

Skirling of bagpipes, the sound of drums and bugles, and hundreds of Canadian visitors will make Canada Day one of the outstanding events in local history.

ADRIAN ATTORNEY GETS REPRIMAND BY JUDGES

James H. Baker, Adrian lawyer, received a public reprimand in the circuit court of Lenawee county, Friday, for a violation of the sixth canon of the professional ethics code by representing both a man and wife in divorce actions. Three circuit court judges acted in the case after hearing evidence presented by the bar association's grievance committee of the second congressional district. The judges were John Simpson of Jackson, Donald E. Holbrook of Clare and Archie McDonald of Hastings.

Mr. Baker, in a statement, said that knowingly and intentionally he had not violated the canon which, he said, was adopted 29 years after he had been admitted to the practice of law.

Honesty may be the best policy in the long run, but many people insist on taking short cuts.

June Marks The Beginning Of The Polio Season

These are the things which parents can do, according to the Michigan Department of Health:

1. Keep your children clean, well-rested and well-fed. See that they wash their hands and faces thoroughly before eating.

2. Do not allow them to overexert themselves or to become chilled.

3. Avoid crowds, new contacts and travel.

4. Destroy flies, rats and mice and the things they have touched.

7. Be sure that the water they drink, wash in, or swim in, is free from contamination.

8. Consult your physician about postponing nose and throat surgery, and your dentist about postponing tooth extraction until after the polio season.

9. Call your doctor at once if during the polio season your child develops any of the following symptoms: unexplained fever, headache, nausea, a cold, upset stomach, muscle soreness or stiffness. Put the child to bed and isolate him from others when any of these symptoms appear.

It is difficult to tell when a child has been exposed to polio. Nine out of ten cases are light, unrecognized cases. This type of the disease is contagious. Adults as well as children may have the disease. Some people who appear to be well carry the virus which causes polio. The virus which causes the disease is carried in bowel content and nose and throat discharges. Thus insects, animals, water, or objects coming in contact with these discharges, or food on which insects or animals alight, may be suspected of carrying the disease.

The following encouraging things the Department of Health has to say about polio. Comparatively few people contact the disease in its paralytic form. Many children exposed to the disease have already had light cases and will not catch polio. Many will recover completely without any paralysis. Of those who have some degree of paralysis 75 to 85 per cent will recover completely or show marked improvement under medical treatment.

Three Michigan agencies, the Department of Health, the University of Michigan and Wayne University are doing poliomyelitis research which ranks high in that being done in the world.

A total of 30 cases of poliomyelitis have occurred in Michigan this year. The greatest share of these cases has been in the Upper Peninsula.

U. S. POPULATION HITS PEAK OF 148,527,000

WASHINGTON—The population of this country reached a new record high of 148,527,000 on April 1, the Census Bureau estimates.

That reflected a growth of 580,000 during the first three months of 1949. The same growth was recorded in the first three months of last year.

Quaker Pays In

The film dog is a grandson of the first Rin Tin Tin, star of silent movie days. Rin III, a rehabilitated war dog who spent four years in the Army's K-9 Corps, will come to Tecumseh with his famous Hollywood owner-trainer, Lee Duncan.

Rin III, as an "instructor dog," helped Duncan in supervising the training of more than 5,000 army dogs. Now a screen star in his own right, he recently completed an all-color feature, "The Return of Rin Tin Tin," for Eagle-Lion.

Nixon described the Quaker Oats Show as "the living story of industry in action." The industrial exposition has been viewed by 40,000 persons in appearances at four other Quaker Oats plant communities, at a rate of nearly 1,000 visitors each hour.

The show includes "just about everything, even the proverbial kitchen sink," Nixon declared. The sink will be part of the equipment of Mary Alden, the company's home economics director whose model kitchen will be among the show's features.

The exhibition is geared to eye-appeal, and the animated exhibit booths—more than 300 feet of them—are theatrically lighted. The show was produced at an original construction cost of more than $20,000, and the fact that it was first assembled at the Ogle County Fair Grounds in Illinois may be partly responsible for its "county fair" flavor.

Subject matter of the various booths will range from cooking to chemistry. While Mary Alden demonstrates her new one-bowl cookie method, an attendant in another booth will tell the story of furfural, corncob chemical which has found scores of industrial uses in such diverse products as lubricating oil, plastics, automobile tires and nylon hosiery.

Other displays will cover such matters as foreign marketing, laboratory research, livestock and poultry production, and the development of white corn hybrids and other high-yielding grain varieties.

Pupils Are Presented In Recital At Church

Mrs. Margaretta Brisbin presented her pupils in a piano recital to a capacity audience of parents and friends, Friday evening, in the social rooms of the Presbyterian church.

Bouquets of peonies and roses decorated the room and the participants were dressed formally. Mrs. Brisbin was presented with a corsage and a gift of jewelry from her pupils.

Highlighting the program, seven small children, accompanied by little John Nasser, sang "Spring Song." They were Donna and Carol Spangler, John and David Elliott, Yvonne Morningstar, Johanna Young and Linda Kanous.

Six-handed piano selections were played by Donna and Carol Spangler and Yvonne Morningstar; and Marilyn Baker, Sandra Hall and Wanita Cleveland. Duets were played by Mary Ann Kanous and Judy Kniffen; Pauline Bagshaw and Irma Broilier; Tom Nasser and Jerry Barron; and Nita Spangler and Barbara Hall. All of those mentioned also played piano solos as did Connie Skiver, June Stuart, Mary Ann Kanous, Wilma Bumpus, Roger Harsh and Russell Hubbard.

In closing the entire class of 24 children sang "Cruising Down The River," accompanied by Wanita Cleveland, and the audience joined in repeating the chorus.

After a girl has waited 20 years for the fairy prince to come and fly away with her she winds up by marrying an ordinary mutt who chews tobacco and eats onions.

Teach Kiddies To 'Play Safe'

VACATION TIME IS THE MOST DANGEROUS TIME IN CHILD'S LIFE

Joyous that school is out, and thoughtless in their vacation zest, many Michigan school children will suffer accidental injuries and even death, unless parents and adults protect them through example and through advice, the Michigan Department of Health said today.

"Take time to be careful; it isn't smart to take chances, and it isn't smart to show off," is the major summer accident prevention lesson parents and adults can teach.

Associating each child with a playground group so that he can spend a good share of his spare time in the protected play area is another way to save children from accidents.

The greatest danger to Michigan school children during the summer months lies in street traffic. These are things you can teach your child about traffic safety:

Don't carry passengers on your bicycle. Ride it next to the right curb, and use both front and rear lights if you ride at night.

Michigan's lakes and streams may also be a danger to vacationing children. Many drownings can be prevented by good example and by repeated warning. Tell your child to swim only at guarded beaches, during daylight hours, never swim after dark, alone or in swift water. Do not dive into unfamiliar waters. Never swim until over-tired. Wait two hours after eating a heavy meal. Remain seated aboard small boats. Go boating only with an experienced pilot or oarsman. Do not go out when a storm threatens.

Michigan's parks, picnic areas and playgrounds, despite the protection they afford, also are the scene of many children's accidents each summer. Teach your child to use playground equipment only for the purpose for which it was intended. Don't let him perform reckless stunts for you or others.

Remember that your child is not safe at home until that home is made safe for him. Then teach him not to climb to high places, nor sit or stand on railings. Tell him why he must not play with fire, matches, stoves or any electrical equipment and why he must not play near cisterns, excavations or buildings under construction. If he wants to see them, have father or a grownup go with him.

If you live on a farm, be sure your child is old enough to handle the farm equipment and animals he works with. Keep your young child off your tractor.

Have your child immunized against tetanus (lockjaw), a hazard to every barefoot child and everyone who is around horses or farmyards.

Teaching children of dangers and setting a good example for them may save the lives of as many as 200 Michigan children this summer. A total of 236 Michigan children between the ages of five and 19 lost their lives during the summer holiday, June to September, last year.

Children's Day was observed Sunday at the Methodist church. The children of the primary department of the church school presented a program of songs and recitations with Mrs. Helen Thomas assisting at the piano.

The Rev. Ross W. Copeland of Seattle, Wash., preached at the worship service hour at the Methodist church, Sunday. In the absence of Mrs. Halladay, Mrs. Bessie Travis was organist.

At the Macon Woman's Club meeting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Bailey, Thursday, the officers for the coming year were elected as follows: president, Mrs. Leon Hall; vice president, Mrs. Walter Morden; secretary, Mrs. Herbert Morden; treasurer, Mrs. David Bush.

The Community Club will meet Tuesday evening, June 21 in the Methodist church parlors. Refreshments of ice cream and pie will be served instead of the usual potluck supper. A program will be presented.

Mrs. Ora Martin of White Cloud, Mich., Mrs. Esther Fox of Fremont, Mich., the Misses Myra and Elizabeth Chase and Miss Bernice Parker and her mother, Mrs. Joseph Parker of Tecumseh were Sunday afternoon callers in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Bigelow. All, including Mr. and Mrs. Bigelow had been dinner guests of Miss Parker and her mother earlier.

Clare Camburn, director of the Tecumseh High School Band, took part Saturday, in the State Convention of Veterans of Foreign Wars which was held at Grand Rapids.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Halladay were dinner guests at a family gathering Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Williams of Dimondale. The occasion was in celebration of the birthday anniversaries of Mrs. Halladay and Mrs. Williams.

Soap Wrapper Project To Aid Europe's Needy

Members and friends of the Presbyterian church and Sunday school are being asked to join in a special project that will yield additional substantial help to the needy overseas.

For every two soap wrappers of a certain popular brand sent to "Church World Service, CARE Soap Campaign," the makers of the soap will contribute one bar to CARE for distribution by Church World Service to Protestant families and institutions in Europe.

CARE'S executive director, Paul Comly French says that during a recent world tour he found the need for soap caused a most pressing health problem. Many European children, he adds, literally never have seen a cake of soap.

Presbyterian children, young people and adults are asked to bring the wrappers to the church school and morning worship services Sunday, June 19. These will be forwarded by the church to Church World Service headquarters in Boston.

BEFORE DINOSAURS

BLUE MOUNDS, WIS.—Imbedded in the ceiling of the Cave of the Mounds is the fossil of a six-foot-long cephalopod 411,000,000 years old. In other words, the big fossil was 300,000,000 years old before the day of the dinosaurs.

The cave is located on U.S. highways 18 and 151, 25 miles west of Madison, Wis.

Miriam Beers Bride Of D. A. Van Valkenburg

Miss Miriam Elizabeth Beers of Route 4, Marion, Ohio, and Dalton A. VanValkenburg of Route 1, Tecumseh, exchanged their marriage vows beneath a rose-covered archway in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Beers of Marion, Monday, June 13, at 3:30 o'clock. Baskets of white gladioli, palms and bouquets of garden flowers completed the setting for the wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Faye VanValkenburg are the groom's parents.

The Rev. A. M. Bosler, Marion Methodist church pastor, read the double ring service. The Rev. William Stone sang "Oh, Promise Me," "I Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer." June Moore accompanied her brother at the piano when he rendered four violin selections, "Adoration," "In The Garden," "Meditation" and "Always."

Attending her sister, Miss Phyllis Beers wore a blue crepe street length dress, identical in style to that of the bride's. White accessories and a pink rose corsage completed the ensemble. Ernest VanValkenburg of Washington, D. C, attended his brother as best man and Carl Hassel of Buffalo, New York, was the usher.

After the ceremony a reception was held for some 20 guests. Centering the bridal table was a three-tiered wedding cake decorated in pink and white and topped with a miniature bride and groom. Mrs. Warren Beers, Mrs. Carl Burns and Miss Rosella Fisher assisted with the serving.

The bride graduated from Kirkpatrick high school, attended Taylor University at Upland, Ind., and is employed by the Fulfillment Corporation of America. The groom graduated from Tecumseh high school, attended Taylor University and is now attending the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor.

"Sanctify unto me all the firstborn, whatsoever openeth the womb among the children of Israel, both of man and of beast; it is mine."

Thus spake the Lord to Moses. And Moses said to his people: And it shall be when thy son asketh thee in time to come, "What is this," that thou shall tell him: "By strength of hand the Lord brought us from Egypt. And it came to pass when Pharaoh would hardly let us go, that the Lord slew all the first born in the land of Egypt; therefore, I sacrifice to the Lord all that are born, but the first born of my children I will redeem."

Here was devotion to God—in gratitude for their deliverance, they had agreed to deliver the first born males—men or beasts—to Him in token of their deliverance from the land of Egypt. Today, your church asks for lesser tokens of your faith. Your attendance this week will make the job the church is doing easier. There's More To Fishing Than Just Catching Fish

The wily trout in Michigan's streams may be hard to intrigue, but there's more to trout fishing than just the catch Dr. Albert E. Heustis, state health commissioner pointed out today.

If, as psychiatrists contend, a man, in order to be well-balanced, has to have his work, his health, his social and recreational activities and a hobby as well, then the benefit of a day in the open spent trying to ensnare the speckled, brown or rainbow beauties becomes apparent.

Such things as the quiet out-of-doors, fresh air, relaxation, exercise, good companionship, enthusiasm, the making by hand of minute lures, the winding and polishing of a rod cannot be measured in international units or in grams, but if a man is to live well, maintain his mental equilibrium, and live happily, he needs such things as these.

If he catches any trout, they are good for him, too—with their protein, fat, calcium, potassium, iron, vitamins, including A, thiamine, riboflavin, and niacin— to say nothing of their flavor.

"And then just looking forward to or talking about trout fishing, there's elixir in that, too," Dr. Heustis added.

"Trout fishing is mostly for fun," he said, "so don't overdo, don't get too excited and keep yourself dry; watch your footing and watch your hooks."

People who profit by their mistakes will find they really have made no mistakes.

EVERYONE TALKS ABOUT THE

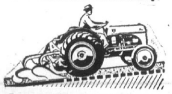
Ford TRACTOR

All over America, on big farms and little farms, it's proving itself "The Year 'Round Tractor"... winning fame for all 'round performance, all 'round the farm, all year 'round.

You'll respect the Ford Tractor for the way it buckles down to heavy jobs of plowing or discing. You'll like it, and Dearborn Equipment, too, for the way you can do such jobs as scraping, leveling, loading, ditching, terracing, excavating, digging post holes or sawing wood. Most Dearborn implements lift or lower at a touch on the Ford Hydraulic Touch Control. Ask for a demonstration.

In fields that are reasonably ridged or uneven and where soil conditions do not vary, set the Ford Hydraulic Touch Control lever, and uniform plowing depth is maintained automatically.

In fields that are ridged or uneven and where the soil conditions vary, you merely operate the Touch Control lever to maintain the plowing depth you want.



In reasonably smooth fields, even if soil conditions vary, you use a great Ford feature, Implement Position Control, to maintain uniform depth automatically.

Michigan Mirror
Non-Partisan News Letter

By Gene Alleman
(Special to The Herald)

Like the old nursery song, "Who killed Cock Robin?" Michigan has a new political dispute to fuss over: "Who's to blame for the coming state deficit?"

Governor G. Mennen Williams criticizes the Republican legislature. In an address before the state C.I.O. convention in Grand Rapids, he urged labor to "pump some guts into the legislature to face the terrific financial situation in Michigan."

Rather than operate the state in the "red," Governor Williams intends to call the legislature back into special session. He is whooping it up for a tax corporation profits as a "painless" way to get more money.

By continually hammering away at the legislature's refusal to enact new taxes, Williams seeks to put the Republicans on the defensive —a good strategy if it works.

In his plea for new taxes, the governor has some newspaper editorial support. Here are a few examples: Battle Creek Enquirer and News—"The major fault in the legislative session was the refusal of members to halt a financial crisis before it occurs." Jackson Citizen-Patriot—"It is inexcusable that a legislature should call its job finished while a deficit . . . threatens the state."

Robert F. Steadman, state controller, forecast on May 27 an operating deficit between $70 and $72 millions "in the light of a continuing decline in general business conditions."

John P. Espie, chairman of the house ways and means committee, is a veteran in the legislature. He is now serving his 25th year.

It has been Espie's conviction that the constitutional earmarking of state funds for return to local governments, twice upheld by the voters, would inevitably lead to a state treasury deficit. He has often suggested "it might be a good thing to run a deficit and let the people see what they did when they adopted the sales tax diversion." (This amendment returns 78 per cent of sales tax revenue to schools, cities, villages and townships, leaving the other 22 per cent for state services.)

Espie's recommendations, which the legislature apparently approved: Levy no new taxes, come back in January (1950) when we can see where we stand.

To those individuals who cry vaguely for economy in state government, believing that the deficit might be averted by such legislative action, Espie is a realist from his long experience. He vigorously opposed the sales tax diversion amendment which he says is the root of Michigan's present financial troubles.

Michigan's present taxation system has produced some paradoxical situations. Only 34 counties paid as much in state taxes as they received from the state treasury.

Take Clinton county, for example. Representative Espie is from Clinton county. Clinton received $1,319,228 in state revenue during 1948; Clinton county taxpayers paid $1,117,358 to the State. The "bonus" from Lansing was $201,870. Since local taxes in Clinton county totalled $511,179, the effect was to get $1 state bonus for every $2.53 of county taxes.

Getting "something for nothing" thus is the financial blessing conferred by Michigan's present hocus-pocus tax setup upon 49 counties.

The situation becomes more involved, politically at least, when the populous counties which pay the bulk of state taxes demand reapportionment in the legislature. Then you get a city vs. country argument. It was the so-called neglect of big cities which prompted Mayor George Welsh, Grand Rapids, to join forces with the Michigan Education Association for the diversion amendment victory.

Will the legislature receive credit or condemnation for its refusal to enact new taxes at the 1949 session? The lengthening shadow of the coming state deficit presents a challenge.

It has already provided Governor Williams with a new issue: A "do-nothing legislature which lacks "guts" to avert a deficit.

Kickback may sound like a football term, but is more familiar in political circles.

ARE BLONDES SMARTER...?

● Don't answer that, mister. You see, whether you say "yes" or "no", you're convicting yourself of unreasoning prejudice. Because no two people are alike—blondes, brunettes OR redheads.

Each is different because God has never made two people alike. So never imagine that you'll find the same good or bad qualities in any two blondes. Or in any two people in any national, religious or racial group . . . brunettes, redheads, Protestants, Catholics, Jews.

So, for your own sake, for America's sake, don't let unreasoning prejudice trap you. Don't make the wrong answers—think first!

1. Accept—or reject—people on their individual worth.
2. Don't listen to, or spread, rumors against a race, or a religion,
3. Speak up wherever we are, against prejudice, and work for understanding.

A Good Lesson To Learn

The savings habit is a good habit to cultivate. And, an early start is a help. As soon as your child gets old enough to know what money is, begin to develop the thrift habit in him—so that when he becomes a wage earner, he'll know how to handle cash.

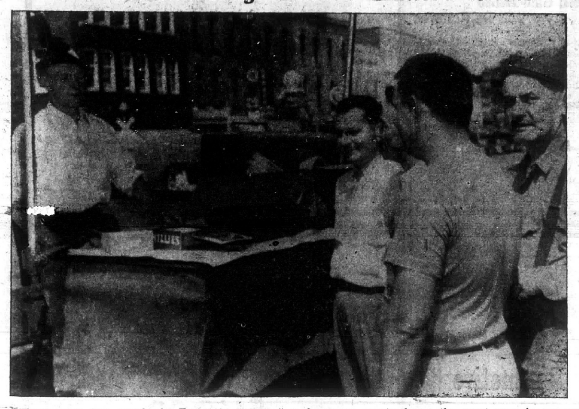
THE TECUMSEH HERALD

NINET-NINTH YEAR NUMBER THIRTY-EIGHT | TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN, JUNE 23, 1949 | FIVE CENTS A COPY

8-Day Anniversary Celebration Begins On Monday

Pre-Anniversary Candid Camera Shots



There were few people in Tecumseh last Saturday—and this week, too, for that matter, who were not wearing Robinhood hats. However, Saturday was the deadline for Tecumsehites appearance on the streets without celebration hats. To remind "violators" of the civic "offense" a kangaroo court was set up on the downtown four corners with Clyde A. Barber presiding—but not in his official capacity as justice of the peace. Clyde meted out some 50 cent fines to "offenders" who promptly paid 35 cents for a hat. In the picture above, the court may be seen in readiness for action, with Bryan acted as one of the "cops." Judge Barber is seated at the desk and the smiling onlookers are, left to right, Earl Roe, Yale Kerby, jr., Stanley Kasno and Mr. Bryan. (Herald photo)

NOTICE

For non-professional business reasons my office will be closed from June 5 to July 10 inclusive. For the same reason I will be in my office during the remainder of July and the month of August on Mondays, Tuesdays and Wednesdays ONLY.

AT BOY'S STATE

David Green, who was sent to Wolverine Boy's State at East Lansing by Tecumseh Rotary Club, was assigned to the City of Van Buren, county of Wismer and is a member of the Athenian party, according to word received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Green, this week. David left last Thursday and is expected home tomorrow.

TRUCK BLAZES

Tecumseh firemen were summoned Thursday at 2:15 p.m., when a truckload of cornstalks caught fire at the Lewis Kruger farm, two and one-half miles northeast of Tecumseh. Damage to the truck body was estimated at $75. The cause of the fire is unknown.

Quaker Show Monday, 1 P. M.

INDUSTRIAL EXHIBIT TO FIRE OPENING GUN IN ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION

Rin Tin Tin III, famous Hollywood movie dog, with his trainer, Lee Duncan, will high-light the Quaker Oats Company's $20,000 "Industry in Action" show here next Monday afternoon and evening, the initial salute in Tecumseh's 125th Anniversary Celebration that continues through July 4. The Quaker show will be held at its plant on South Evans street and is expected to attract thousands of people. The doors will be open from 1 to 10 p.m., and more than 5,000 invitations have been sent out by the company.

The industrial exposition, already viewed by more than 40,000 persons in four other towns where Quaker plants are located, was described today by Donald Nixon, local plant manager, as "the living story of industry in action." "The show includes about everything, even the proverbial kitchen sink," Mr. Nixon said. The sink is a part of the equipment of Mary Alden, the company's home economist director, whose model kitchen will be among the show's features.

Rin III with Mr. Duncan, his trainer, and Mrs. Duncan and their daughter, will arrive in Adrian this evening. Tomorrow, Rin will make a tour of some of the other towns in the county and tomorrow afternoon and evening he will appear on the stage at the Strand, where one of his pictures is playing. A similar schedule is being worked out for him on Saturday, including an appearance at Boysville at Macon.

Nixon said that this is the first time that Mrs. Duncan and their daughter had accompanied Mr. Duncan on a Quaker excursion from Hollywood.

Persons visiting the Quaker plant not only will see the show but will see the plant in actual operation, manufacturing macaroni, spaghetti and noodles. The exhibition, itself, is geared to eye-appeal, and the animated exhibit booths, more than 300 feet of them, are theatrically lighted.

Queen Contest Ends, Monday

"RULERS" OF BIG PAGEANT WILL BE DECIDED BEFORE WEDNESDAY

Who will be "Queen Lenawee" and who will be "Queen Tecumseh"? These are the burning questions for a number of Lenawee County's prettiest girls and their friends as the contest continues for its final week.

In addition to becoming the rulers of Tecumseh's 125th Anniversary Celebration and taking prominent parts in the historical pageant, the girls receive an added incentive this week with the announcement that they will receive their official crowning from the hands of Gov. G. Mennen Williams the afternoon of Friday, July 1.

The girls who are taking an active part in the contest are as follows: Shirlie Anne Moore, Helen Stanifer, Jayne Hanna, Joan Hart, Cynthia Spafford, Bonnie

Recreation Steps Being Poured Today

New cement steps, braced with steel, will be in readiness for the crowds at Recreation Center during Tecumseh's pageant, next week.

The steps project was undertaken by the Exchange Club and last Monday night the members completed the building of forms and the footings were poured. All of the work was done before the club met for dinner at 9 p.m. at the V. F. W. clubrooms. Today, cement is to again be poured with Exchangites again doing the work.

"The steps will be in readiness for the celebration next week," a member of the club declared. The old steps at the park were in bad condition and unsuitable for the anniversary crowds.

TREAT PARKING LOT

The village parking lot behind Schneider Bros. show rooms will be closed tomorrow while being treated for dust. It was impossible to do the work last week as scheduled because of the rain.

Souvenir Program Is Being Printed

"Tecumseh's 125 years of Progress," a souvenir program of the coming celebration was placed in the hands of the printers this week.

The booklet will give an outline of the pageant which will be presented each evening from Wednesday June 29 through Monday, July 4, with the exception of Sunday. In addition to the program there will be illustrations of some of Tecumseh's historical places and buildings.

The souvenir programs will be interesting items to keep, the committee points out. To help locate material the committee sought copies of the "Tecumseh Echoes" of seven years ago. Many persons reported that they had lost their programs during the years and were very eager to obtain another.

Would Expand Mail Service

ACTING POSTMASTER HERE ASKS WASHINGTON TO MAKE DELIVERY SURVEY

Believing that Tecumseh's growth, especially within new subdivisions inside the village limits, soon will necessitate increased mail delivery service, F. E. N. Thatcher, acting postmaster, has asked Washington authorities for a survey, looking toward that end. He has received a letter from V. C. Burke, first assistant postmaster general, indicating cooperation.

At the present time, a part of the new subdivisions within the village, especially that area on N. Union street, is being served by rural carriers because of a lack of sidewalks and other government-required improvements. However, when residents meet postal requirements for carrier delivery, Mr. Thatcher fears that the local office will be under-staffed to permit the service.

SWIMMING INSTRUCTION PROVES POPULAR; GOLF, TENNIS ALSO OFFERED

The swimming schedule for youngsters and the golf and tennis tournaments for senior high boys and girls were announced today by Miss Dorothy Bowen, swimming instructor, and Elven Duvall, director of the summer recreation program.

Miss Bowen and her sister, Louise, have been engaged by the Recreation Center board of control to give swimming lessons free of charge to all youngsters who so desire. A charge of 15c per pupil each class is made for the use of "The Pit," where the classes are held.

On Monday, Wednesday and Friday life saving instructions will be from 8 to 10 a.m., and there will be three beginners classes from 10 to 10:45, 10:45 to 11:30 and 11:30 to 12 noon. The schedule for Tuesdays and Thursdays is as follows: 9:30 to 10:30 a.m., swimmers; 10:30 to 11:30 a.m., intermediates; 11:30 to 12:30 second beginners.

The instructors said that 175 registered the first day of the program and by next week that number is expected to have reached 250. There is interest in adult classes and it is possible these will be held, depending on the financial status of the program, it was said.

Mr. Duvall has arranged the following schedule for the golf tour-

Sure, You Can Spend Wooden Money Locally!

Evidently the residents of Tecumseh feel themselves immune to such old-fashioned adages, according to reports from the celebration committee.

First put into circulation last Saturday, there were none available at pageant headquarters by late Monday afternoon. Nearly every store in Tecumseh received a supply, and customers who had failed to read last week's Herald were startled when they received part of their change in the wooden money.

To his invariable question: "What's this?", a clerk would obligingly explain that it was a novelty to help advertise the 125th Anniversary celebration. The "nickels" in five, ten, and twenty-five cent denominations are being carried far and wide, and each one helps to tell the story.

The celebration committee wishes again to emphasize that these are "real" money in Tecumseh from now until July 5. All that are turned in up until that time, unbroken, will be redeemed at full value. In the meantime, they are to be given and received in purchases.

WED 60 YEARS

Mr. and Mrs. David William Beck will observe their 60th wedding anniversary, Sunday, June 26. They will have open house at their country home on Green Road from two to ten o'clock.

DANGER AT THE ROOTS

Robert Kazmayer, the well known lecturer and commentator, recently made a penetrating observation on our internal weakness. He said: "The real danger in the U. S. today lies not in Washington, but at the grassroots. Government has always tended to usurp more and more power unto themselves. In every free organization there is the seed of tyranny. That's why eternal vigilance is the price of liberty. The real danger in the U. S. lies with the millions who are apathetic. Democracy is going by default. Men and women are being promised by their government things—things which that government cannot deliver, not over any protracted period of time—for no government can go on promising more and more people more and more of everything, without telling anyone that someone has to pay the bills. Lulled into a false security by these promises men are exchanging their liberties, their initiative, their dignity, their heritage as free men, for a bunch of theories, most of which are imported from countries which are already dependent on the U. S. for support."

There's no sense in kicking at the government, as if it were something separate and apart from us. The government is what we make it by the public servants we elect to office. In late years, there has been a disgraceful increase in the "gimme" attitude indulged in by individuals, by local governments, and by various groups, all seeking special favors and benefits. This represents the "get-something-for-nothing" psychology in its worst form. And it is exactly the kind of thing which starves freedom and fattens tyranny.

Sword Gate House Will Be Restored

CHARLESTON, S. C.—For generations one of Charleston's most famous houses, 'Sword Gate House' has been hidden from the public behind towering brick walls, but now a new owner plans to make a public showplace of it.

The house, noted for its wrought-iron gates, was bought recently by Henry T. Gaud, local attorney, from Mary Lincoln Beckwith of Manchester, Vt., great-granddaughter of Abraham Lincoln.

Mr. Gaud plans to restore the old house, and when it is completed and furnished with period furniture, offer it to the public as a place to hold social and civic affairs.

White sidewall tires, as illustrated, available at extra cost.

ACT QUICKLY—and in your neighborhood it might be you.

For there's no doubt that this exciting new Riviera model — styled and executed by Buick — is the very last word in new body types.

It has, as you see, the swift and racy lines of a Convertible, made even more distinctive by a bold new sweep of chromium along its fenders.

But the top is solid—a single sheet of stout steel, neatly finished off inside with chromium bows. And a broad rear window curves gracefully around, giving really abundant rearward vision.

Push-button controls drop all windows out of sight at a touch, leaving not even a doorpost to block your outlook. And the interior trim is the richest yet — a really stunning creation inside as well as out.

As pictured here the Riviera is now in production on the Buick ROADMASTER chassis — which means 150-hp Fireball power, the silken luxury of Dynaflow Drive, and the matchless levelness of the Buick "dream ride." That means "the last word" in brilliant performance as well as in luxurious dress and styling.

Production on this high-styled road star is limited, as you might expect.

Miss Merilyn Brown Bride Of Rob't Goetz

The Christian Congregational Church in Britton was the scene of a pretty informal wedding, Friday afternoon, when Miss Merilyn Brown became the bride of Robert Goetz of Ann Arbor. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Brown of Britton and the bridegroom is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Goetz of Ann Arbor. The single ring service was read by the Rev. Gerald Hallauer.

Mrs. Brown, mother of the bride, wore a print navy dress.

Mrs. Goetz is a graduate of Britton high school and Mr. Goetz is a graduate of the University of Michigan. He is a member of Theta Chi fraternity and Tau Beta Pi honorary engineering fraternity and is employed by Engineering Research in Ann Arbor.

After a short honeymoon trip, the couple will be at home in Ann Arbor.

Polio Precautions

The golden rule of personal cleanliness should be observed particularly in the usual summer polio epidemic months. Food should be kept tightly covered and safe from flies and other insects. The same applies to garbage, which, where other disposal facilities are lacking, should be buried or burned.

THE NATIONAL FOUNDATION FOR INFANTILE PARALYSIS

SON AND BRIDE ARE HONORED BY PARENTS

Honoring their son, Dalton, and his bride of June 13, formerly Miss Miriam Beers of Marion, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. Faye VanValkenburg entertained over 100 relatives and friends at their home southwest of Tecumseh, Sunday afternoon.

Many attractive arrangements of roses, sweetpeas, delphiniums and many other flowers from the garden of Mrs. Dean VanValkenburg decorated the home. Miss Phyllis Beers and Miss Ruth Ann Waldron cut the four-tiered wedding cake. Assisting in serving the cake and ice cream were Mr. and Mrs. Ronald VanValkenburg, Mr. and Mrs. Raynor VanValkenburg and Mrs. Lyle Grigg.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hamilton and Ernest VanValkenburg were in charge of the guest book. The newlyweds received many lovely gifts, among which were two from their Baptist church friends.

Mr. and Mrs. VanValkenburg returned from their honeymoon trip to Niagara Falls, last weekend, and will reside at 1316 Packard Rd., Ann Arbor, while they are attending summer school at the University of Michigan.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Carl Beers and daughter Phyllis, parents and sister of the bride, of Marion, and others from Washington, D. C., Saginaw, Howell, Marshall, Dearborn, Jackson, Manchester, Grosse Pointe, Adrian Deerfield, Clinton, Tipton, Tecumseh and Alaska.

Change Age Limits In Scouting Program

Wolverine Council, Boy Scouts of America, announces a change in age requirements for Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts and Explorer Scouts. Arthur Lesow, council president, and Alvin E. Jones, scout executive, made the announcement today in keeping with the decision of the National Council's action at the annual meeting recently held.

In an unprecedented move, the Boy Scouts of America has lowered the entrance age for its three programs of Cub Scouting, Boy Scouting and Senior Scouting, effective next September 1.

In announcing the far-reaching change authorized by the National Executive Board of the organization, Dr. Arthur A. Schuck, chief scout executive, said the decision was reached after a three years' exhaustive study during which opinions were obtained from experienced leaders as well as parents.

After September 1, boys may become Cub Scouts at eight years of age instead of nine; Boy Scouts at eleven instead of twelve and Explorers at fourteen instead of fifteen years of age.

The program known as Senior Scouting, Dr. Schuck announced, now becomes "Exploring" with its scope broad enough to include land, sea and air activities as well as life exploration. Units specializing in seamanship or in aviation will be known as Explorer Ships or Explorer Squadrons, respectively.

Since they know more about raising them, why didn't nature give the other people all the children?

Ever notice how people buy things they don't want with money they don't have just to keep up with the neighbors.

A clergyman says all scandal should be printed. Evidently he doesn't know the high price of newsprint.

blooded Indians will participate. Mr. Welsh is arranging the program with the assistance of Chief Maza Kinyan, (Flying Iron) of the Sioux tribe.

Flying Iron was educated at Cornell and is a graduate of the Ithaca, N. Y., school of music. The program he will present will include Indian ceremonial dances and authentic Indian songs. "We will give you a most interesting Indian program, both in the afternoon and again in the evening," the chief said.

It is expected that the Quaker show on the opening day will attract thousands to the plant for an inspection of the factory in operation as well as for the show itself.

On the second day of the celebration, Tuesday, Ronald Harris, secretary of the Chamber, said that tours of local industries would be arranged for those who desired.

On Wednesday, the kiddie and pet parade, always popular with young and old, is expected to be an outstanding attraction. This parade will get under way at 2 p. m. in the downtown district. Persons desiring to enter should immediately contact the Chamber. Prizes will be awarded.

The Tecumseh High School Band, under the direction of Clair Camburn, will play an important role in the week-long celebration. It will be active each day and again in the evenings. The band will make one of its first home appearances in new military-type uniforms.

Thursday, "Old Timers' Day," will be another bright spot in the celebration. Arrangements are being completed for a group from Port Huron, members of the "Order of the Beard," to attend. Port Huron is observing its centennial this year. There also will be a display of old machinery and automobiles, including a 1910 Ford car. Local residents are urged to wear old-fashioned clothing.

Governor Williams is scheduled to arrive about 11 a.m., Friday, and after he is met by an official reception committee he will be taken to the Country Club, where a luncheon in his honor has been arranged. At 2 p.m. he will be at Recreation where he will crown Queen Lenawee and Queen Tecumseh, girls who have been successful in a vote-gathering campaign that has been under way for two weeks.

"Canada Day" on Saturday is expected to attract a record-shattering crowd with well over 1,000 coming from Tecumseh, Ontario. This group will arrive about 10 a.m., in a caravan of eight chartered busses and scores of automobiles.

At 11 o'clock on Saturday, Tecumseh, Ontario's Boy and Girl Bugle Corps and the Chatam Canadian Legion Bagpipe Band will be joined by the Tecumseh High School Band and local veterans organizations in a parade to Brookside cemetery where a wreath will be laid on the veterans' lot by the Canadians.

At 1:30 in the afternoon at Recreation, an exchange of flags—a gesture of friendship, will take place with Marvin Watkins, local village president, and Tom Scott, mayor of the Ontario town, participating. Immediately following, Gustav LaCasse, federal Canadian senator, and Circuit Judge G. Arthur Rathbun will speak briefly. This program will be broadcast by Station WABJ, Adrian.

There will be band parades throughout the afternoon and at 3 o'clock, at the recreation field at Clinton, Tecumseh will play Tecumseh in a baseball game. Local fans are enthusiastic about this tilt, inasmuch as the Ontario's team is highly rated.

The program on "Homecoming Day," July 4, will high-light and bring the celebration to a close. Monday's program will get under way at 10 a.m., with a "Battle of Bands," an event proved popular here in years gone by. Among the bands to participate in concert and marching will be besides Tecumseh, the Ida Rural Band, Clinton Community School Band, Sand Creek, Leslie and Britton.

Throughout the afternoon there will be picnics and reunions and the final pageant performance at 8:30, followed by the shooting of $1,000 worth of fireworks.

Last year, it was recalled, Tecumseh's fireworks display attracted about 25,000 people, one of the largest ever to attend a Fourth of July celebration in the county. This year's fireworks, it was pointed out, will be even larger than a year ago. The shooting of the giant rockets, cannons, etc., will be accomplished by a registered pyrotechnician. The fireworks display, it was said, will begin about 9:45 p.m.

Already the stage is being built for the giant pageant, "Tecumseh's 125 Years of Progress," to be presented nightly, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Monday. Richard Spitler of the John B. Rogers Co., is directing the entertainment in which some 400 persons take part. The stage on which the spectacle will be directed is 275 feet in length and 75 feet in width. The narrators are the Rev. B. O. Bashore and Mrs. Ronald Harris.

The queens who were crowned earlier in the week will participate each night in the pageant and they also be guests at a coronation ball, where they will lead the grand march.

Mr. Spitler announced these episodes in the pageant spectacle: Episode 1, prologue. This colorful scene will involve nearly 100 persons, beautifully costumed, and will feature the queen's coronation. Episode 2 will be an Indian village scene during Tecumseh's early years. Episode 3 is "The Spirit of '76," and No. 4 will show Tecumseh's influence as an Indian chief. No. 5 will be a scene depicting the Evans, the Browns and the Spaffords, early families and No. 6 will tell of the surveying of Tecumseh and the formation of the county. Scene 7 will show the first grist mill in the county and No. 8, the first school to be held in Lenawee. Scene 9 will be the county's first wedding. The tenth scene will depict the first church service, and the eleventh scene, Lenawee's contribution to the Civil War. Episode 12 will show the destruction of the early Globe Mill by fire, the first major industrial tragedy in the county. The thirteenth episode will show the coming of the railroad, with the arrival of the first train. Episode 14 will show the "Gay Nineties," and the 15th will be an Iwo Jima tableau. The 16th episode, the last, will be the "March of Freedom," this scene involving the entire cast.

Quaker Show

Subject matter of the various booths will range from cooking to chemistry. An attendant at one booth will tell the story of furfural, the corncob chemical which has found scores of industrial uses in such diverse products as plastics, lubricating oil, automobile tires and nylon hosiery. Other displays will cover such subjects as foreign marketing, laboratory research, livestock and poultry production, the development of white hybrid corn and other grains.

A test kitchen in action—with all its activity and tempting aromas—will be transported here for the show. Miss Alden will demonstrate a new one-bowl method for making oatmeal cookies in a gay yellow and blue model kitchen, complete in every detail—even to the frilly white curtains at the picture window. Warm fragrant Quaker Show Cookies will be coming from the oven and will be served to all attending the day-long exposition.

The home economics exhibit will give homemakers an insight into the happenings in a test kitchen. The Quaker Oats Company's main test kitchen is in Chicago where five graduate home economists are constantly at work developing new recipes and uses for the Quaker family of food products. Mary Alden and her staff give help to homemakers on cooking and baking problems and publish recipe pamphlets which are in use in every part of the country.

Nixon said that it is expected that Donold B. Lourie, president of Quaker Oats, would be among the Chicago officials to attend the show here. With him will be Dallas Western, director of the company's soil erosion department, Donald Cowell, manager of the public relations department, Miss Alden, home economist, and many others.

now has about 70 houses, also is within the village and sidewalks there are being laid. This section, too, would be entitled to carrier service, it was pointed out.

Thatcher said that the volume of mail in the local office has increased 33 per cent this year over last year, which year also set a record. The Tecumseh Products Company's mail alone about equals if it does not exceed all of the incoming and outgoing mail in Tecumseh 15 years ago. However, the post office is located in the same building, which has not been expanded, and quarters are cramped.

At the present time there are nine postal employees here, including the acting postmaster. There are two rural carriers. There is a distinct shortage of post office lock boxes, and the general delivery service has grown until it is nearly out of hand.

Thatcher recently completed an inspection of rural routes locally and declared that many patrons have installed new mail boxes or repaired old ones, in keeping with government regulations.

CUB SCOUTS TO MEET

All Cub Scouts will meet Monday, June 27, in a group at the Quaker Oats Co., South Evans St., at 2 p.m. to see Rin Tin Tin III and to tour the plant.

Early Money Displayed In Bank Window Exhibit

An exhibit of unusual interest to Tecumseh is on display in the windows of the United Savings Bank. It is a display of early Tecumseh bank notes, an interesting philatelic collection of envelopes with Tecumseh cancellations in the days before postage stamps, and some early letters.

The exhibit is the property of Maurice F. Cole, an attorney in Ferndale who is one of the state's leading collectors. Mr. Cole learned of Tecumseh's celebration at the state convention of Exchange Clubs in Battle Creek a few weeks ago, and volunteered to lend this portion of his collection to the committee as one of the window exhibits.

Other window exhibits are also being prepared for next week. Persons who have exhibits and who have not made arrangements to display them are asked to do so at once. In most cases the exhibitors are making their own arrangements with the stores. If, however, any one wishes to arrange for space and needs assistance in locating a window, the Chamber of Commerce will gladly give assistance.

"We are bringing this program to Tecumseh as a part of the 125th anniversary celebration," Walter Nichols, theatre manager said. "Local women who participate will hear their voices over the air on the following day."

Swan Soap Wrappers

"The Presbyterian church is continuing its drive for Swan Soap wrappers, which, when sent to "Church World Service, CARE Soap Campaign," Lever Brothers, the makers of Swan, will contribute one bar of soap for each two wrappers to CARE for distribution by Church World Service to Protestant families and institutions in Europe.

Members and friends of the Presbyterian church and Sunday school are asked to join in this special project that will yield additional substantial help to the needy overseas. CARE's Executive Director, Paul Comly French says that during a recent world tour he found the need for soap caused a most pressing problem. Many European children, he adds, literally never have seen a cake of soap.

Presbyterians are asked to bring as many Swan Soap wrappers as possible to church, Sunday, June 26. These will be forwarded to Church World Service headquarters in Boston. The Community's assistance in this project will be appreciated.

Wilma A. McCarbery Weds LaVon F. Tubbs

Saturday evening, June 18, in the Congregational Christian Church in Britton, Wilma Alice McCarbery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. McCarbery of Britton, became the bride of LaVon Franklin Tubbs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Orris Tubbs, also of Britton. The Rev. Gerald Hallauer read the double ring service at eight o'clock.

Burning candles in candelabra cast a soft glow over the wedding party assembled before the altar, which was decorated with large baskets of white lilies and syringa, vases of white roses and palms. Two small boys lighted the candles before the ceremony.

As Mrs. Ford Exelby played a program of nuptial music Clair Morse and Neal Judkins seated the guests. The family pews were marked with white satin bows. Accompanied by the organist, Willard Exelby sang "Forever and Ever" and "Because." Dale McCarbery assisted the groom as best man.

White imported satin was chosen by the bride for her wedding gown. Trimmed in Chantilly lace, the same lace was used for the small hat, from which fell a fingertip veil of illusion. The bodice of the gown came to a deep point at the waist and featured a yoke of sheer chiffon, the beaded long sleeves coming to points over the hands. The full skirt terminated in a long train. The bride's bouquet of white roses and bebe chrysanthemums was centered with three orchids and tied with satin ribbon. Mr. McCarbery gave his daughter in marriage.

Miss Joyce McCarbery was her sister's maid of honor, the bridesmaid was Mrs. Dorothy Bowers and the junior bridesmaid was Miss Sharon Rodgers. The attendants were gowned in pastel yellow, orchid and pastel green respectively. Each wore sweetheart hats matching their dresses and carried a basket of roses, carnations and bebe chrysanthemums, tied with ribbon corresponding to each dress. Dressed in white, little George Rodgers carried the rings on a white satin, lace-trimmed pillow.

After the ceremony a reception for some 250 guests was held in the church dining room. The five-tiered wedding cake was topped with white wedding bells and tiny pink rosebuds. Mrs. Clair Morse and Mrs. Ronald Spohr, the bride's sisters, and Mrs. Neal Judkins, the groom's sister, assisted with the serving.

When the couple left on a ten-day trip through Canada and the Eastern States, both were wearing tailored suits. Upon their return they will be at home near Britton where Mr. Tubbs is engaged in farming.

The bride graduated from Britton high school in 1945 and has been employed by Tecumseh Refrigerati... Sales and Engineering for four years. The groom graduated from Britton high school.

How God Fed the Hungry in the Wilderness . .

After crossing the Red Sea, and escaping Pharaoh's Army, the Children of Israel entered a desolate country called the Wilderness of Sin. Here, they became hungry and grew disgruntled and unhappy with Moses for leading them out of Egypt. Moses counselled with God, and He said that there would be food provided that evening and in the next morning. In the evening, a great many quail fell into the camp, and the people killed them for meat.

The next morning, a heavy dew was on the ground, and, as the sun came out and warmed it, the dew disappeared and left something white, like frost. They asked each other, "what is this" (Man Hu in their language) and this food was afterward called Manna. Moses told the people God had sent it to be their bread. The people ate it, and afterward, every morning, except the Sabbath, this manna was sent to the Israelites for bread.

These disgruntled people forgot the woes they had in Egypt, and concentrated on the needs close at hand. Thus, they were showing lack of respect to their leader and his God. Fault-finders are everywhere—and always bring trouble. Your church teaches you to be tolerant—and carefully analyze a situation before you make rash comments. We all need this advice—let's go to the church of our choice this week.

40 Past Chancellors Honored By K. Of P.

The first past chancellor's banquet was held recently by the Tecumseh Lodge No. 190, Knights of Pythias, honoring its forty past chancellors. Some 55 men were in attendance and were served a ham dinner by members of the Pythian Sisters.

D. H. Bowen, 1902, was the oldest past chancellor and Carl Thompson, 1948, was the most recent in attendance. John Nyland of Tecumseh and William J. Ingersoll of Chicago, both unable to attend, were honored with 50 year life membership certificates. The 27 men eligible for 25 year veteran certificates were honored, also. The certificates were presented to three present by grand chancellor, William M. Swikert.

Carl Kempf, chancellor commander, opened the program with a welcome and introduced Garth Hall, past chancellor, who acted as master of ceremonies. A reading entitled "That Old Sweetheart of Mine," was given by Si Kring with musical background played by Mrs. Edna Ramsay.

William M. Wetmore of Jonesville, past grand chancellor, gave the main address of the evening. Remarks were made by four grand officers present. They were Mr. Swikert, grand chancellor, of Otsego; Clarence Smith, grand vice chancellor, of Pontiac; Charles F. Andress, grand secretary of Ypsilanti; Kenneth Buckley, grand master at arms, of Muskegon.

It's getting so that a woman has to buy more material for making a lampshade than for making a dress.

Don't Ruin The Ol' Mare By Drivin' Her With A Spavin
Bring Her In And Let Us Put Her Thru Our Modern Clinic

We saw a feller, fact is he's a friend o' ours, drivin' his hoss around yisterday and she was heavin' like a cat with a fish bone in her throat. Waal, we don't know what was the matter with our frien' but we do know this . . . he's jist kiddin hisself, yes suh!

Drivin a 4-wheel hoss what don't feel good is more punishment for the owner than it is for the hoss . . . that is its more punishment on his pocketbook. Little ailments can be corrected easily and without much expense but, let those little things bring on komplikashuns and boy, look out.

We ain't braggin'—not much, says you—but we've got a hoss-pitul what's right. We don't need any more gadgets than we've got to purform any operashuns, whether its appendix or gall bladder. And our docs do it so quick and painless like.

Heavin' hosses can contract 'neumonia and 'neumonia can lead to somethin' worse, if there is anythin' worse and fust thin' yuh know you've lost yur hoss.

Bring in the ol' crow if she's pantin', jerkin', shakin' and shivverin' and we'll make her well. We don't claim to work miracikls, meanin' that we can make yur 29'er look like a 49'er, but Mr. we've got the 'lixer that will give her pep.

If yuh want to add years to the life of yur car and, at the same time add life to yur years, our hospitul's the place to ccme. And don't git skirred about the cost. Our prices are jist as painless as our operashuns, and in the 20 years we've been doin' business here we've never lost a car or a kistimur.

THE TECUMSEH HERALD

NINETY-NINTH YEAR NUMBER THIRTY-NINE — TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN, JUNE 30, 1949 — FIVE CENTS A COPY

Anniversary Celebration In Full Swing

Small Fry Rush Rin Tin Tin

Rin Tin Tin III, famous Hollywood movie dog, made a great hit with the younger generation (and the older ones, too) when he appeared in Tecumseh last weekend and again on Monday at the Quaker Oats Co. show. Above, Rin and his owner-trainer, Lee Duncan, halted for a moment in front of the Strand theatre after he had made a stage appearance and they were immediately "rushed" by the small-fry. Rin loves children and, incidentally, he loves to have his picture taken, too. The children scattered after the above photo was snapped, too soon to learn all of their names. However, the little girl sitting on the knee of Lee Duncan, the dog's owner-trainer, is Connie Lee Schneider, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Schneider, and the little boy at the right of the dog is Jimmie Osburn, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Osburn.

Chief Meets Rin Tin Tin

Fearless Chief Tecumseh, played by Robert H. Moore, met Rin Tin Tin III in front of the United Savings Bank last week as Rin arrived for the opening of the Quaker Oats Company's industrial show. Rin, it appears, made a lunge for the chief's throat and was a bit quicker than the tomahawk. Of course, in was all in fun and planned that way. Rin is a kind-hearted dog, loves people and, in reality, he wanted to give the old chief a kiss. At the left is Lee Duncan, the dog's trainer and owner. Rin draws a salary of $1,000 a week and is insured by Lloyd's of London for $250,000.

Governor Coming Friday, "Canada Day" On Saturday, $1,000 Fireworks, Monday

Here Is The Celebration Program

That Herald readers may better know the day and hour of the entertainment program that is being provided for the remaining days of the Anniversary Celebration, the following schedule will keep them informed:

THURSDAY, June 30 — "Old Timers Day." Old cars and machinery on display, including 1910 Ford. Brothers of the Beard, group from Port Huron Centennial, to be present. Local residents asked to wear old clothing. At 8:30 at Recreation Center, the second pageant performance.

FRIDAY, July 1 — "Governor's Day." Gov. G. Mennen Williams to arrive at noon for formal luncheon at Country Club. Official crowning of Queens Lenawee and Tecumseh at Recreation Center at 2 p.m. At 8:30 in the evening, third performance of pageant.

SATURDAY, July 2 — "Canada Day." Caravan of eight chartered busses and 75 automobiles from Tecumseh, Ontario, will arrive at 10 a.m. Two bands, the Chatham Canadian Legion Bagpipe Band and the Tecumseh Canadian Legion Boys and Girls Bugle Corps. Parade at 11 a.m. through business district to Brookside Cemetery where Canadian group will place wreath on veterans' lot. Local high school band and veterans organizations to participate. At 1:30 p.m., exchange of flags at Recreation Center, the mayors of the two communities to participate with remarks by Gustay LaCasse, federal Canadian legator, and Ronald Harris, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, broadcast over WABJ. At 2 p.m., baseball game between the two Tecumseh teams at Tecumseh Recreation field. At 8:30 p.m., fourth pageant performance.

SUNDAY, July 3—"Indian Ceremonial" at 2:30 p.m., at Recreation Center, with Indians from several tribes presenting ceremonial dancing and singing. At 7:30 p.m., a special church service at the Recreation Center with Dr Marshall Reed, Methodist bishop of Michigan, as the speaker. In the event of rain the service will be held at the Presbyterian Church. Indian ceremonial to be repeated at 9 p.m. at Recreation, after church service is ended. No Sunday pageant presentation.

MONDAY, July 4—Homecoming Celebration Day. Beginning at 10 a.m., a battle of bands with bands from Ida, Clinton, Sand Creek, Leslie, Britton, Tecumseh and other communities participating. There will be band parades and concerts in the downtown area at 10 a.m., and 2 p.m. During the afternoon there will be picnics and reunions. At 8:30 p.m. at Recreation, the final pageant performance. The celebration will be brought to an official close by the shooting of $1,000 worth of fireworks at Recreation immediately after the pageant. Last year, Tecumseh's fireworks display on the 4th attracted 25,000 people.

Daily and evenings a carnival and amusement company will be in operation in the park opposite the high school.

Bishop Reed To Speak, Sunday

FORMER TECUMSEH AND ONSTED MAN TO DELIVER SERMON AT RECREATION

Bishop Marshall R. Reed, resident bishop of the Detroit area of the Methodist church will speak on "Tecumseh's Christian Heritage," Sunday evening, July 3, at the Tecumseh Pageant Grounds at 7:30. The huge outdoor service is sponsored by the Tecumseh Ministerial Association, in connection with the 125th Anniversary of Tecumseh running from June 27 through July 4.

Bishop Reed

Bishop Reed is truly "Lenawee's own." He is a native of Onsted, and graduated from the Tecumseh High School with the class of 1910.

Bishop Reed received his A.B. Degree from Albion College in 1914; from which same college he was granted a D.D. in 1931. He also received his M.A. from Northwestern University in 1917, and his B.D. from Garrett Biblical Institute in 1916, from which school he also was granted a D.D. in 1940. He also studied at Drew University. He was ordained in 1917, and after serving pastorates at Gaines, Onaway, Redford, Jefferson Avenue Church in Detroit, and in Ypsilanti, from 1934 to 1948 was minister of Nardin Park Church, in Detroit. BISHOP REED TO SPEAK AT SUNDAY CHURCH SERVICE; PAGEANT STAGED NIGHTLY

With Tecumseh's 125th Anniversary party now in full swing, and with four more performances of the "Pageant of Progress," plus the personal appearance of Michigan's governor, the arrival of 1,000 visitors in a caravan from Tecumseh, Ontario, a special church service at which Bishop Marshall R. Reed will speak and, finally, the shooting of $1,000 worth of fireworks, yet to come, Chamber of Commerce officials were predicting today a total all-week crowd of well over 75,000 persons who will participate in this community's birthday celebration.

"Tecumseh's birthday celebration is known nation-wide," Ronald E. Harris, Chamber secretary, said today. "It has been recognized by President Truman and by a special act of the Michigan Legislature, and, I am predicting that this weekend will see the greatest crowd ever assembled here in Tecumseh's history."

The Queens who will reign over the anniversary parties yet to come were chosen in a final vote-counting contest, Monday evening. Miss Shirlie Anne Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Moore is "Queen Lenawee," she having rolled up a total of 928,200 votes. Miss Martha Jane Hayden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Hayden, was named "Queen Tecumseh," with a total of 201,700 votes. Runners-up in the contest and members of the court are: Helen Stanifer, Doris Bilby, Cynthia Spafford, Bonnie Beasley, Joan Hart, Martha Hanna, Pat Hammack, Phyllis Moats, Marilyn Lindsley and Zoe Anne Pennington.

The two queens will be officially crowned at 2 p.m., Friday at Recreation Center, in a ceremony in which Gov. G. Mennen Williams of Michigan will participate. The public is invited to attend the coronation, a portion of which may be radio broadcast.

Today, officially scheduled as "Old Timers' Day," will bring a parade of ancient cars, a singing quartet from Toledo's radio station, WSPD, the Brothers of the Beard from Port Huron and many other interesting events. Already, scores of former residents are be-

The Chamber of Commerce is expecting that many persons who will be in Tecumseh over the week end for the Anniversary will be searching for sleeping rooms. That they may be accommodated, Ronald Harris, Chamber secretary, is urging persons who have rooms for rent to register them with him. "Just drop a card, telling what rooms you have, the location and the price, or telephone us," Mr. Harris said. The Chamber phone number is 259.

$20,000 INDUSTRIAL SHOW OPENS TECUMSEH'S ANNIVERSARY PROGRAM

Moving at the rate of nearly 10 a minute, 5,325 persons inspected the Quaker Oats Company's plant here, Monday, and witnessed the company's $20,000 show, "Industry Comes to Life," Donald Nixon, manager of the concern, said today. The Quaker exposition was the opening gun in Tecumseh's 125th anniversary celebration which continues through July 4.

"We are very happy with the reception Tecumseh accorded our contribution to the anniversary program," Mr. Nixon said. Two registered puppies were presented to the 2,500th visitor and the 5,000th. These went to Harold Parrish, jr., Rt. 1, Adrian, and Raymond Puffer, Tecumseh.

Rin Tin Tin III and his owner-trainer, Lee Duncan, of Hollywood, were the outstanding stars of the Quaker show. Rin, famous movie dog and member of the K-9 Corps in World War II, occupied the stage at the plant entrance and entertained visitors before they started the factory inspection. Rin is on the movie payroll at $1,000 a week and insured by Lloyds of London for $250,000.

Visitors saw the spic-and-span Quaker plant in operation, turning out macaroni, spaghetti and noodles and further along the route the industrial exposition that

Mementos On Display Here In The Stores

PAGES OF HISTORY TURNED BACK FOR 125TH ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION

Historic mementos of early Tecumseh and its families have been brought from their resting places by descendants and are displayed in store windows this week, enabling residents to turn back the pages 125 years to picture, if just for a moment, life here then, and, perhaps compare it with the present time.

To quote from the display at the Consumers Power Co., "It has indeed been an era of progress from days of the covered wagon, ox cart and slow moving trains to the modern era of the automobile, streamlined trains, luxurious airlines and many other modern conveniences."

A most complete collection belonging to the late Aaron Kortwright Waldron family, who settled here in 1845 from Seneca, New York, is displayed in Palman's window. There is a spinning wheel and samples of raw wool, a wedding gown, shawl and beaded bag, the cradle Mr. Waldron slept in as a baby and the bonnet he wore, a wooden sugar box, the family Bible from 1813, powder horn, China dolls and a colonial rope bedspread and cover cloth. Among other things there is a collection of arrowheads found on the Waldron farm.

A bust of Tecumseh made by Carleton W. Angell, sculptor of the University of Michigan, is displayed in the Rosacrans Store window having been loaned by Mr. Angell and the University for Tecumseh's Anniversary Celebration. Other items include a genuine wool Paisly shawl and a gown worn at the inaugural ball of Abe Lincoln, owned by Mrs. Leon Rosacrans, a rocking chair made by George Spafford, handed down by relatives to Mr. Rosacrans, a

NATION-WIDE BIRTHDAY GREETINGS POUR INTO TECUMSEH

Truman Sends "Best Wishes" From White House

"Greetings and salutations to Tecumseh on its 125th Anniversary!" From far and wide and from high and low, best wishes are pouring in on Tecumseh's birthday. It is no small honor to be one of the oldest towns in the state of Michigan, and there are many who recognize that fact.

A very pleasing item comes from the White House in Washington: "The President sends his very best wishes to the citizens of Tecumseh for a most enjoyable and successful celebration." Signed M. T. Connelly, Secretary to the President.

Also from Washington are some other greetings: "With warm personal regards and best wishes, cordially and faithfully." Senator A. H. Vandenberg. "With best personal regards," Senator Homer Ferguson. "I am sure that Tecumseh, as usual, will do itself proud on its 125th Anniversary,"

WHAT'S WHAT?

The Government at Washington is spending too much money and several leading editors of the country are telling their newspaper readers that "the American people are uneasy." In the first place there has been a business recession under way many months. Unemployment is increasing. Union labor bosses have increased unemployment faster than they have won battles with employers, with strikes. Prices are very low in some spots and very high in others. There are no definite Government policies.

The President of the United States is out of tune with Congress on the most important questions that have ever confronted the Government in war and peace. But even without a war we are inconsistent and extravagant and are throwing money around recklessly.

Everybody realizes that farming and agriculture are the most important businesses in our broad land. But it is difficult to understand why and how, the Government buys and fixes the prices of farm products. The price of corn has cost the taxpayers half a billion dollars. Even the old Irish potato has pulled down a quarter of a billion dollars from the United States Treasury.

The chances are that the Government will spend more money in the coming years than it will take in on taxation from all sources, and it is sure as a whistle that there will be another big increase in the national debt.

While we are glad to hear about it, most of us wonder how the Government will be able to pay $72 dollars a month for veterans who are 65 years old.

The White House demands on Congress included 40 proposals on new spending. Congress has not agreed with the President in a way that satisfies Brer. Truman.

The Hoover Commission has finished its job and has laid down a policy for the revision of the American system of Government that helps to clear the skies. But the leadership at the White House is recognized as weak—very weak. And on Capitol Hill there seems to be more politics than statesmanship.

And so we could go on recording the lack of progress in our Government at Washington.

The trouble is that there is ten times as much emphasis laid on POLITICS as statesmanship. In short, our Government is lamentably weak.

CHARLES E. JUDGE DIES AT CLINTON

Funeral services were held yesterday from the Hause Funeral Home in Clinton for Charles E. Judge, 83, who died Monday morning at his home in Clinton where he was taken suddenly ill Sunday evening. The Rev. Conrad Riggs officiated and burial was in Riverside cemetery.

He was employed for 42 years in the finishing department of the Clinton Woolen Manufacturing Co., retiring ten years ago. He was a member of the Methodist church. His wife, Mrs. Laura Clark Judge, died four years ago.

Surviving are a son, Edward, three grandsons, one brother, George of Tiltonsburg, Ont., and a niece, Mrs. Etta Aldrich of Houghton Lake, who lived at his home for a number of years.

An efficiency expert claims that most wives would be fired if they worked in industry the way they do housework. He'll have to be an expert if he gets by with that one.

D. W. Beck And Wife Married Sixty Years

The home of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Beck on Green Road was the scene of unusual activity over the weekend, the occasion being the sixtieth anniversary of their marriage.

More than one hundred guests came with congratulatory greetings and in addition to friends from Tecumseh others arrived from Grosse Pointe, Plymouth, Melvindale, Farmington, Oxford, Birmingham, Detroit, Monroe, as well as Mrs. Beck's brother and wife from California.

The home was beautifully decorated in flower arrangements brought by neighbors and other friends. Lunch and cookies were served during the reception and a buffet luncheon prepared for the out of town guests before their departure.

Mrs. John Lott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Beck, planned the affair for her parents, being ably assisted by Mrs. Albert Jahn. Mrs. Clyde Bailey and Mrs. John R. Thompson.

Marcene E. Thomas Is Buried At Clinton

Funeral services were conducted Friday afternoon from the Collins Funeral Home for Marcene E. Thomas, 81, who died June 22 at the Parrett Nursing Home where he had been a patient for four weeks. The Rev. B. O. Bashore officiated and burial was in Riverside cemetery, Clinton.

The bearers were all nephews, Vern, Carl and Charles Thomas, Lee and Harold Augustus and Claude Bailey. Friends and relatives attended the services from Detroit, Ypsilanti, Grand Rapids, Battle Creek, Saline, Clinton, Macon, Ridgeway and this vicinity.

Born, March 24, 1868, in Saline township, Washtenaw county, Mr. Thomas lived in Macon for many years where he was engaged in farming and operated a threshing machine. Later he resided in Clinton where he was a carpenter. For the past eight years, he made his home in Tecumseh. His wife, Celia Thomas, preceded him in death in 1938.

Surviving are one sister, Mrs. Milton Augustus of Ypsilanti and several nieces, nephews and cousins.

CHATHAM COMES TO RESCUE OF TECUMSEH

Neighboring towns in both Michigan and Ontario are quick to come to the relief of the two Tecumsehs as problems arise for the coming Canada Day, July 2.

The first assist came in Canada. It had been widely advertised that the Essex Scottish pipers would be here with the Tecumseh delegation. Last week, Lt. Colonel Walter McGregor received notice that his band was summoned to the Highland games of the Argyle and Sutherland regiment at Hamilton. Being a military organization, they had to obey.

Committees wer appalled. But Canada in addition to French-Canadians has an enormous Scottish population. Chatham, Ontario, about fifty miles from our Canadian namesake heard of the predicament and came to the rescue. Their famous Canadian Legion bagpipe band which appears at celebrations all over Canada will be here and Tecumseh shall still hear the skirling of pipes on Canada Day.

A reporter claims that nothing infuriates a woman so much as to have guests drop in unexpectedly and find the house looking like it usually does.

If its news call The Herald.
